E. A. Meiklejohn of Marwayne New President

Trustees Advocate Provincial Salary Schedule for Teachers

MRS. W. S. CAMPBELL IS SECRETARY-TREASURER

The annual convention of the Vermilion School Division Trustees Association was held in the Kitscoty hall on June 23rd. Following the singing of "O Canada' the business of the meeting was put into motion by Mrs. E. V. Gunn, the president. Mr. Frank T. Ball was appointed convention secretary. An address of welcome, and the invocation were given by the Rev. C. E. Vogel of Kitscoty United church.

The president, Mrs. Gunn, made a brief report during which she pointed out the necessity for a more effective method of advertising the convention. She deplored the lack of interest on the part of the ratepayers and she suggested that it might be a good idea to change the location of the convention from one village to another in the Vermilion division each year. This probably would have the effect of creating more interest in localities concerned and thus eventually make the objectives of the School Trustees Association better known all over the Division.

Discussion on the point raised by Mrs. Gunn later brought out a majority feeling in favor of the suggestion.

Report on Provincial Convention

Mr. Andrew McQuail of Tolland who was a delegate to the annual provincial school trustees convention in Edmonton last fall, gave a detailed and very interesting report on that convention. One of the facts that Mr. McQuil called attention to was that all traffic coming up behind standing school buses must stop, and all traffic approaching from the front must slow down to 25 miles per hour.

Mr. James Smith, principal of the Kitscoty school, spoke a few words of fraternal greetings on behalf of the A.T.A. He expressed regret that Andrew Aitney, M.L.A. had found it impossible to attend.

Outline Teacher Situation

Mr. E. C. Miller, Division School Superintendent, gave a detailed outline of the teacher situation in the division, which he said had considerably improved in the past two years. This was due to some extent to the Bursary system which has been introduced and which is helping to raise the qualifications of teachers as well as their numbers.

Mr. A. G. Andrews Speaks

Mr. A. G. Andrews, General Secretary of the Provincial School Trustees Association, dealt in detail with the increasing cost of education. His organization he said, is still pressuring for higher government grants to meet the situation. They are still insisting that teachers' salaries should not depend on the ability of the ratepayers to pay. They also insist that more of the huge government oil reserve funds be paid to educational costs. He advocated the setting up of a government commission to set up a province-wide schedule of teachers' salaries instead of allowing Divisional competition in salary rates so as to prevent.

Home and School Representative Speaks

A very informative address was charmingly and interestingly given by Mrs. Ken Tory of Wainwright, Regional vice-president of the Home and School Federation. She looked upon the department of Education, the Alberta Teachers' Alliance, the School Trustees' Association and the Home and School Federation as the four horse team pulling for the improvement in all school activities. As there is the close association of parents and teachers in the school districts as in the old public Home and School Association seeks to fill this need. It seeks to create a better understanding of the problems of children and teachers. It has helped, and is continuing to help, bring advanced ideas in the various subjects are being advanced too quickly, others not given their due prominence etc. Crime comics have been roundly condemned by the Home and School and brought to the attention of the government with a view of suppressing or closing them up. They help in influencing parents to co-operate in immunization programs, sponsoring children's film board in order to encourage suitable films for children at special showings, and generally help to create a better spiritual atmosphere amongst children.

The election of officers was then held, resulting as follows:

President—Mr. E. A. Meiklejohn, Marwayne

Vice-President — Mr. James Mc-Curry, Kitscoty

Board Members—Mrs. E. V. Gunn, Paradise Valley; Mrs. W. S. Campbell, Marwayne; Miss M. Stone, Islay; G. Inglis, Kitscoty; John Anderson, Dewberry.

Mrs. W. S. Campbell was later appointed as secretary-treasurer for the ensuing year. Delegates to the provincial convention being Mrs. E. V. Gunn and Mr. G. Inglis.

Vacancies Director Advocates Practical Education

The next speaker was Mr. R. Byron, Vocational Director for the Department of Education of the province. Mr. Byron took issue with the idea that a practical education can be acquired by reading alone. When boys and girls seek employment, employers ask "What can you do?" not "what do you know?" "Can you speak French?" but "can you use a typewriter?" "Can you drive a farm machine etc." There are five basic courses included in the vocational program—Commercial, which includes related trades o carpentry and lumber yards etc.; Automotive; Metal working; Electrical; Farm and Home Mechanics.

The speaker went on to state that only 15 per cent of high school students carry on to graduation, and that largely because of unsuitability of the courses. Students can now learn the academic subjects by correspondence, and the use of radio. Not merely the related mathematics of carpentry, but industrial arts programs is also exploratory—it allows the student to experiment in woodwork, electricity, etc. Children are taught how to use tools and machinery properly. Frequently the doctor need to know what goes on inside his car as well as the human body, and generally to develop common sense in correcting defects. For other lines of practical training other than the four basic courses, the students may make application to the Apprentice Board of the province.

At the close of Mr. Byron's address, J. R. Roberts, secretary of the Vermilion school division, brought to the attention of the audience the fine athletic spoken of by Mr. Byron have not been emphasized in the schools of this division because the excellent facilities for such courses at the Vermilion school of agriculture.

Mrs. Gunn, the retiring president, then called upon Mr. Meiklejohn, the new president, to close the convention. He made a few comments of thanks, and then asked that the convention be closed with the singing of "God Save the King."

W. L. Robinson Host To Local Calf Clubs

On Friday evening the Vermilion and Marwayne Calf clubs met at the Robinson farm. This is a popular annual outing for the members and their parents. Mr. Robinson is "Father of the Vermilion Calf Clubs."

District Agriculturist, E. H. Burkinshaw, conducted the meeting and gave instruction on judging beef cattle. A class of three Shorthorn calves was judged and placed by the club members.

Mr. Robinson demonstrated the way to prepare cattle for the show ring. He also showed the club members how to groom their calves in the ring.

These two calf clubs will conduct their annual show and sale on the first day of the Vermilion Fair, July 26th.

The gathering was pleased to have the chance to look over Mr. Robinson's new $1500 Shorthorn bull which he bought at the Calgary sale last May.

At the close of the meeting Mr. and Mrs. Robinson served coffee and doughnuts to the 100 people present.

The weed inspectors of Vermilion River M.D. held a day long meeting at the V.S.A. last Friday. Eleven of the twelve inspectors were in attendance.

Dr. W. G. Corns of the Field Crops Branch, University of Alberta, conducted the day's session which dealt with weed identification and control of various weeds.

District Agriculturist E. H. Burkingham, gave instruction on the Weed Act and explained the duties of weed inspectors in the field.

Asst. D.A. Stan Petiren - talked about the use of 2-D and explained how spraying machines were calibrated.

Mr. J. N. Bentley, principal of Vermilion school of agriculture, told of the place of forage crops in weed control and in cropping systems for this district.

Chairman of the Agricultural Service Board, George Lawrence, said that the men were assuming a great responsibility. Everyone was expected to enforce the Weed Act exactly and impartially.

The inspectors will be in the field for thirty days. Their chief problem is checking the spread of Toad Flax which is rated as the worst weed in Western Canada. It is growing on dozens of farms in this area. In many cases it is not known by the farmers hence it gets a good start before it is identified.

F.W.U.A. Conference Held At V. S. A.

The second annual Farm Women's Union of Alberta conference was held at the Vermilion school of agriculture on June 28th and 29th.

The conference was opened with the singing of "O Canada." This was followed by brief remarks by the chairman Mrs. W. C. Taylor of Wainwright.

During the afternoon Mr. D. C. Folk of the V.S.A. staff first gave a most interesting talk on modern living the farm home. A film was then shown on cancer. Both these proved of considerable interest and were greatly appreciated.

The same speakers will address a meeting at Minburn at 2:30 the same afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kerns And Family Farewelled By St. Saviour's

After the evening service in St. Saviour's Anglican church on July 1st the congregation went next door into the Parish hall and enjoyed a pleasant hour together chatting and singing some of the old songs. The occasion was a farewell to the congregational get-together was to say goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kerns and family. Mr. Kerns for the past few years Mr. Kerns has been farm manager and instructor at the Vermilion school of agriculture. Having resigned that position, he has taken a position as the post of district agriculturist in the Ponoka district. He has bought a house in the town of Ponoka and plans to move his family there about the middle of July.

In presenting an electric clock to the Kerns family as a memento of their stay in Vermilion the Rector, Canon Teape, said how sorry everyone was to see Mr. Kerns leave the town and the St. Saviour congregation. Jack, as he is familiarly known to his many friends, has been a tower of strength as a member of the vestry, as the president and as one of the chief organizers of the men's club which was so successful during the past year, and as a sidesman when he was needed in that capacity, and as a voluntary assistant during the illness of the parish hall. There was scarcely a way in which the Kerns family had not contributed toward the welfare of the parish. Mrs. Kerns had been an active member of the Happy Hour group of the W.A., George and Jackie had been members of the Bible class and Jean and Gene of the Sunday school. Canon Teape said that when anyone left the family would make a worthwhile contribution to the life of the church in a town.

Mr. Kerns replied very fittingly to the kindness extended to him and among other things said that of all the places where they had lived they would miss Vermilion and the place which Vermilion held in their affections.

Mrs. Watts played for the community singing, and Mr. Tom Watts gave several numbers which were much appreciated. The ladies of the Happy Hour group served tea, sandwiches and cake to complete an enjoyable evening.

Miss Elizabeth Foster gave the valedictory.

Scott, formerly of Vermilion, and president of the leading light horse men of the capital city, that several light horses will be sent from Edmonton to take part in Vermilion's rapidly expand ng light horse show. Bobbie Burns will be on hand with his fine six-horse team as will the Bryden Bros. of Manville and the Wyllie boys of Vegreville. It is anticipated that these magnificent horses will be given a much more prominent place in the 1951 Fair than ever before.

To See Is To Believe

Over fifty farmers, members and officials of Mutual Telephone Companies met with officials of the Alberta Government Telephones and Canadian Utilities Ltd. staff to see and discuss new telephone protective equipment operating under faulty power line conditions.

Protective devices 98A and 99A were used on the demonstrating installations consisting of a telephone box attached to a sample telephone line. An energized power line was permitted to fall on the telephone wires. The devices protected the house installations. Although the above is a rare occurrence, yet none the less it is possible one because of the increase in the miles of power lines throughout the country brought about by the expansion of rural electrification lines. The demonstration took place at the Canadian Utilities Ltd. steam substation at Vermilion.

The demonstration was conducted by Mr. Art Davis and T. Gibbert, A.G.T. engineers from Calgary. J. Reid, A.G.T., Vermilion, assisted by Messrs. J. V. Nicholls and W. Fooks of Canadian Utilities, Vermilion. Mr. W. Evans and Reg Skitch were directly in charge of the show, they are the men that provide the liaison between the Mutuals and the A.G.T. Among those present were Messrs. Jack Reid, engineer Alta. Power Commission; D. Winston Stothert, G. Smales, Electrical Inspectors, Edmonton; F. J. Fitzpatrick, Supervisor Coop activities, Geo. Dixson, W. Marsh, Art Collins, W. Spence and S. W. Hawrelak, Canadian Utilities Ltd.

Mutual Telephone Companies desiring more information should discuss the problem with the local representatives of the A.G.T. or the Canadian Utilities Ltd.

Ball Tossers Take Third At Vegreville Sports

The Vegreville team won the tourney 4 to 1 from Brush Hill in the final.

Fifteen Graduate At Kitscoty High School

Graduation exercises at the Kitscoty high school were held June 15th. The ceremonies, honoring the fifteen graduates, consisted of a banquet followed by a dance.

Mr. E. C. Miller, Superintendent of the Vermilion school division was the guest speaker.

Following the banquet which was attended by the graduates and their parents, the staff, and special guests, a toast to The King was proposed by Mr. J. A. Smith, principal. This was followed by the singing of 'God Save the King'. Jean Rayner, delivering the valedictory address, spoke of the new responsibilities the graduates will encounter in their adult world. Mr. Smith assisted by Miss Dunsmore, then presented each graduate with a gift. Mr. Miller gave an inspiring address on choosing a vocation. The dormitory matrons, Mrs. Matthewson and Mrs. Davies, prepared the banquet and girls from grades 10 and 11 served.

Entering the gayly decorated hall the scene of the dance, the graduates were easily recognized: the boys sported carnations in their lapels while the girls were arrayed in white formal gowns. Each graduate was honored by a special dance which he or she named. The Rhythm Kings of Lloydminster supplied the music.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

DROP BY DROP

Sheets Soon Have to Be Matter Of Fashion Than Anything Else.

By HAROLD HELFER

I OFTEN wonder what I would have done with Cathy Gresham, had I been a dispenser of justice rather than medicine.

Perhaps the name will strike a familiar chord. She was the girl in that suicide pact.

Remember? She and Eli Browning were found on the floor of her apartment, the victims of poison. A note was found. Considering the circumstances, I don't suppose there was anything unusual about the note. They were sorry for what they were about to do but they were much in love and death seemed the only way out.

There were two rather peculiar things about the affair, though.

For one thing, although Cathy was quite a sick girl for awhile, she recovered. For another, it was odd that she and Eli had ever gotten together.

A year before, Cathy's sister, Vera, had committed suicide — and over Eli.

Although I was the Gresham family doctor, I am not revealing any secrets in saying that Eli was the reason for Vera's attempt at sleeping pills.

I am not going into the moral aspects. Nowadays, morals seem more a matter of fashion than anything else. What if a girl does take up with a married man? Besides, Eli Browning's reputation was well known. Vera should have known what she was getting into.

As far as I was concerned, Browning was a liar. After all, he did lead Vera to believe that he was going to divorce his wife.

It was plain that he had no such intentions. For one thing, his wife had a handsome income that he could depend on. For another, he knew perfectly well that she would never consider giving him a divorce. And, thirdly, he was apt to become bored with any woman after a time. His affair with Vera already had run for quite awhile.

The one exception to his hit-and-run philosophy with women was Cathy.

You couldn't say that Cathy was any prettier than Vera or, for that matter, any of the others. Perhaps it was because she kept herself so strained and he couldn't get enough of her.

And to get her, he was willing to surrender his wife and her money. Trouble was, his wife wouldn't agree to cut the tie.

So Cathy must have told him that, if there was no hope for marriage, she couldn't go on seeing him.

When it happened — when I got the frantic call from the maid to hurry, hurry — I was as much surprised as anyone. At first, it looked as if there were two dead bodies. As it turned out, Cathy was only in a deep coma.

Cathy had enough arsenic in her to kill two ordinary persons. The coroner put a Suicide and Suicide Attempt label on the case and that end-ed official probing.

I found myself a little more curious. Why should a lethal dosage kill one human being and not another? I went to the drug store around the corner from Cathy's and asked a few questions.

On my last visit to Cathy's bedside, when she was getting ready to be up and about, I said to her, "You know, it's kind of odd, you buying all that speed spray over a period of so many months — considering that you live in an apartment."

An "Oh" came from Cathy. She gave me a long look. Then there was the touch of a smile.

"Taking a little master at a time is, of course, the best way to build up immunity to the poison," I said, a bit dryly.

That is when I first wondered what my reaction would have been if I had been a judge. But I was a doctor. And something of a psychiatrist.

So I said, "Well, take it easy," and departed with my little black satchel.

SASK. POULTRY HIT BY INCURABLE NEWCASTLE DISEASE

SASKATOON. — Incurable Newcastle disease has hit Saskatchewan poultry flocks for the first time, officials of the poultry department and the virus laboratory at the University of Saskatchewan said.

Chicks imported from British Columbia this spring are believed to have brought the disease.

British Columbia suffered a serious epidemic of the disease last year when tens of thousands of poultry were destroyed to stop its spread.

Extent of the spread in Saskatchewan is not yet known. Definitely diagnosed cases have been reported in only isolated areas, but other flocks have been quarantined while under suspicion.

Dr. J. L. Millar of the University virus laboratory said the disease is highly contagious but sometimes takes 10 to 14 days to diagnose.

Girls Can Whistle At Loggers Now

NANAIMO, B.C.—Loggers whistle at girls, but the time may come when the girls whistle right back, and loud. The Nanaimo, B.C., Council of Women has suggested that women will have to take some of the lighter jobs in logging camps, such as blowing whistles, to ease the present labor shortage. Hard-boiled woods boomer had no comment on the council's suggestion.

Dandelions Big Factor In Honey Production. Tisdale Council Told

TISDALE, Sask.—Most communities want to eliminate the lowly dandelion, but Tisdale has a different viewpoint.

When the board of trade asked for a dandelion-spraying campaign, honey producer K. E. Baines told the town council dandelions are a big factor in honey production.

Spraying might be harmful to the vast number of bees in the area, he said, besides destroying an important bee food.

Tisdale recently chose a new slogan for itself, "The beehive of the north," because of its large district honey industry.

May Soon Grow Wheat, Barley Resistant To Grasshoppers

SASKATOON.—The grasshopper, ravenously hungry pest of the plains, is likely to run up against something he cannot chew in the near future.

Dr. J. R. Harrington, head of the field husbandry department of the University of Saskatchewan, said at the annual meeting of the Canadian Seed Growers Association here that varieties of wheat and barley resistant to the grasshopper are close to becoming a reality.

Grasshopper damage usually is suffered by those crops or varieties which appeal to the insect, Dr. Harrington said. Grasshopper damage differed among different varieties in a crop and resistance of some varieties could be attributed to certain characteristics which could be transferred in a breeding program as other characters were transferred.

A New British American Oil "Cat Cracker" at Edmonton

Another "first" for Alberta! Edmonton's great new B-A refinery has the first catalytic cracking unit in Alberta. Now new and improved B-A 88 and 98 gasolines are processed from rich Alberta crude oils in this modern refinery. These two new "top rated" gasolines give Western motorists the most in driving performance and economy.

The new Edmonton refinery is giant proof of B-A's faith in the future of Alberta and its people. Ever since British American opened up Alberta's first major oil field at Turner Valley with its Royalties number 1 well, B-A has continued to expand because of its confidence in the oil resources of this great province. A wealth of trust in Alberta's tomorrow, a deep belief in her people, is evident in the building of B-A's huge new Edmonton refinery.

Modern Equipment is Vital Factor In Full Scale Farm Production

Canada's agriculture is highly productive. And one of the greatest assets that a nation can have, particularly in these troubled times, is a highly productive agriculture. Our national economy, our industrial production, the health of our people and our security, benefit greatly from the ability of our agriculture to produce great quantities of essential foods.

That Canada's agriculture produces more food than ever before with comparatively less manpower is due to the practical application of scientific developments and the effective use of modern power farming equipment.

Through continuous engineering developments, Massey-Harris has helped make available today tractors, combines and power machines to keep our farms operating at peak efficiency. From your local Massey-Harris dealer get full particulars of the latest in time-saving, labour-saving equipment.

An Important Service

AS A LEADING AGRICULTURAL country Canada has advanced far in the training of experts in the various fields of scientific and technical agriculture. Almost every province has at least one agricultural college for the training of students and, in addition, the federal and provincial governments assist in many ways in spreading technical knowledge and information concerning improved methods of farming among Canadian farmers. Frequently parties of scientists and technical experts from other countries visit Canada to study what is being done here, and many Canadian agriculturalists go abroad to gain wider knowledge of their work.

• • • • •

Very Active In This Work

In recent years it has become clear that one means of working for world peace and prosperity lies in helping people of less privileged countries than ours to improve living standards and to make the best use of their own land. The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations has been very active in this work and has done much to organize a technical agriculture service for countries which have need of such help. Representatives of the F.A.O., visited Canada recently and outlined plans for giving increased technical and for research development. Funds for such aid have been available only since October, 1950, but since that time seven projects have been completed and work has started on sixty-one others.

• • • • •

Will Be Need For More Men

These projects are divided among thirty-two countries and they vary widely in type, but mainly they deal with agriculture, fisheries, nutrition and forestry and they aim, in all cases, at improved living conditions. As more money becomes available for this work it will be expanded, and there will be need for many more experts to carry on the service. So far, a number of governments interested in the work of the F.A.O., as well as universities and research institutes in various countries have assisted in supplying qualified men for the projects. Five Canadians have been among the 122 experts which have been engaged in this work, but it is hoped that in the future more than the ranks of Canada's agricultural scientists and technicians will take part in this useful and important service.

Alberta Oil May Save $150,000,000 In U.S. Funds

(By Ed Hadley in Montreal Daily Star)

WASHINGTON—Alberta oil may save Canada as much as $150,000,000 in U.S. funds next year, it was estimated here. That would be half of the cost of the Dominion's total imports of petroleum products last year.

The estimate was made authoritatively by a Washington publication, the U.S. News and World Report, which recently sent a representative to tour the expanding oil fields.

His report said that "a new milepost has been reached in the western Canadian oil boom," and forecast "keen competition for American oil companies which long have had a major share" of markets in Ontario and eastern Canada.

"Canada last year imported $300,000,000 worth of oil products," it added, "mainly from the U.S. and Venezuela. Wider use of Alberta oil will sharply cut down this treasure drain on Canada's dollar resources. Estimates are that this oil will be cut in half next year."

The report said that Alberta oil, already meeting requirements of the Prairie provinces, now is looking "for new fields to conquer".

"It moves from Alberta fields to the Great Lakes by the pipe line completed last year, is refined at Sarnia, Ont., and is being distributed as far east as Toronto," the report continued.

"Price of this oil is cut to undersell Texas oils in Ontario. Alberta production is being stepped up to meet the new demands.

"Canadian oil production as a whole will probably rise 25 or 30 per cent. this year over last. It is now about five times as large as in 1947."

It is noted that proven reserves in Alberta already exceed 1,200,000,000 barrels, and that 150,000,000 was spent there in development last year.

Standard Oil Company (Ohio), a great American independent competing McCarthy and Coleman, Fain and McGinnis, and J. S. Bridwell, and the Socony-Vacuum Exploration company, which is already active in the province.

The agreement with the independents calls for extensive geophysical work and the drilling of a deep test well about 50 miles southwest of Gravelbourg. The group already has a mid-west exploration company seismograph crew at work, in the permit area.

The Socony-Vacuum deal calls for geophysical survey and the drilling of several slim hole tests and one deep test venture. The area involved covers 960,000 acres south of Regina and Moose Jaw running west from Rosetown to Claybank and north from that point to Dalmda in crown permits.

EATING MORE FISH

OTTAWA.—Canadians are becoming fish-conscious. The oft-engineered Canadian fisherman may this year have the best year in history. One of the main reasons for the change in fortune, says the Fisheries Council of Canada, is climbing meat prices. The meat price climb means more and more Canadians are turning to fish and more money is in the fishermen's pocket.

VERSATILE GAL—One of the 42 competitors to enter the Bagpipe athletes' contest at the Calgary Stampede is Alberta 20-year-old Mrs. Vera Allen, of Ottawa, Ont. For two weeks Vera will gaze out over the prairies from a lofty flagpole rising from the roof of the Calgary town hall. A professional dancer, Mrs. Allen took leading roles in many English musicals. She married R.C.M.P. Constable Roy Allen, and emigrated to Canada six years ago.

Funny and Otherwise

Quakers do everybody knows, are gentle, calm folk. One awoke one night to find a burglar in the house. With a gun in his hand, the Quaker went into the room where the nocturnal visitor was looting.

"Friend," he said, "I could not have you take any man's life in the world, but thou standest where I am about to shoot."

The burglar fled.

Boy: "Yes, sir. You send them out to fi. rollers."

"Have you ever noticed how a woman always leaves her robes when she asks a favor?"

"Not after a couple of meals they wouldn't," her husband retorted.

Forecasts Lower Railway Rates

MEDICINE HAT, Alta.—A Canadian Pacific railway vice-president said that lower railway rates are a future possibility.

The executive, D. S. Thomson of Winnipeg, in charge of the railway's prairie region, also forecast new rail construction in densely-settled areas and in remote areas where new resources are being developed.

"I personally see no reason why, with our railroads converted to the standards that we must have to meet modern requirements, lower rates may not again become a possibility," said Mr. Thomson.

"In the meantime sufficient revenues are necessary not only for the railways' good, but for the continuing good of every Canadian citizen."

Manitoba To Get 200 Farm Workers

—From Courtney

WINNIPEG. — Two hundred German farm workers will be coming to Manitoba under a provincial-sponsored plan to tap the pool of experienced agricultural labor in West Germany, Hon. F. C. Bell, minister of agriculture announced.

Until recently, this labor source has not been made available to Manitoba farmers because of restrictions which barred entry of German nationals into the country.

With removal of these restrictions and the operation of the federal government assisted passage scheme, we had hoped," said Mr. Bell, "to encourage immigration from this highly desirable source.

"However, monetary restrictions and inconvertability of German currency combined at first to bar effectual transportation of West German citizens to Manitoba."

The Manitoba government, he added, then proposed it advance the necessary down payment ($20 per person) to assist selected immigrants. "This has been favorably received by the department of citizenship and immigration and as experimental selection of 200 immigrants has been authorized."

These men are scheduled to arrive by mid-August, in time for harvest. They will be committed to remain in farm employment for a two-year period or until their "indebtedness to both governments is liquidated."

Mr. Bell stressed it was of "utmost importance" that permanent agricultural employment be made available to immigrants and that "such conditions and terms be offered by our farmers as will induce them to remain in agriculture."

Notification of this plan has been sent to all local agricultural representatives, said Mr. Bell, and "concerted effort will be made to place them permanently. If the experiment is successful, he added, efforts will be made to get additional immigrants.

Sugar Beet Acreage Up In Manitoba

WINNIPEG, Man.—Manitoba acreage seeded in sugar beets and all grains ea ept Rye shows an increase over last year, figures released by H. D. Wood, director of publications for the department of agriculture, revealed.

This year's sugar beet acreage stands at 23,000 acres, a nine-per-cent increase over the 1950 crop which yielded 150,000 tons of beets. Although rain is required, said Mr. Wood said, farmers have taken advantage of the dry spell, and thus far have cleaned up most of the sugar beet crops.

Canada is looking for another 1,000,000-ton crop of sugar beets, he said. Some 105,800 acres have been seeded in Manitoba, Alberta, Ontario and Quebec, slightly below last year's record of 108,000 acres.

There's only one hitch — so far there's nobody to play against.

Vast Chemical Boom Predicted For Alberta

WINNIPEG.—Vast "imminent" developments involving $50,000,000 in Alberta's chemical industry were predicted by J. E. Oberholtzer, deputy minister of industries and labor for Alberta, tax on editors to the Canadian Chemical conference at the University of Manitoba.

"A number of current happenings have combined to bring about the decisions of various companies to extend chemical production in Alberta.

"The discovery and rapid development of the Alberta oil field is the key item," the deputy minister said. Some developments planned, he said, were:

1. A development by the Canadian fuel company to produce approximately 300 tons of ethylene a day and 34 tons of caustic soda.

2. The Dominion Corporation of America plans to install the Canadian chemical company near Edmonton to produce cellulose acetate and various chemicals.

"The possibilities are great," Mr. Oberholtzer said. "In front of us we have petroleum refineries, two plants based on hydrocarbons, two on sulphur and one on salt.

"We have cellulose, synthetic fibres, caustic, chlorine and sulphur. We can engage agricultural chemicals and pesticides, synthetic detergents, plastics and pharmaceuticals.

"This expenditure, he predicted, will make Alberta's building and construction boom a population influx and increase, and in the future — a further change over from an agricultural to an industrial area.

Honey-Thompson Nuptials

First United church, Vermilion, was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Saturday, June 16th, at 7:30 p.m. when June Alice, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson was united in marriage with George Norman Honey, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Honey of Edmonton, Alberta.

Rev. W. N. Blackmore, B.A., officiated at the ceremony.

Baskets of pink snapdragon and white marguerites, purple lilac and white honeysuckle banked the altar of the church. Closed pews were marked by white honeysuckle and satin ribbons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white satin, fashioned with bertha neckline and round inset yoke of nylon sheer. The fitted bodice buttoned down the back and long illusion sleeves ended in lily points. The gathered skirt featured side panels of lace and satin flounces. Her full-length veil of illusion veiling, trimmed with satin appliques and embroidery was held in place by a coronet embroidered with pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and maidenhair fern, tied with white satin ribbons. Her only ornament was a three-strand necklace of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid, Miss Shirley Davidson, was given a gown of brown net over rust crepe-back satin, with little sisters' wigs of pleated ruffles, and diagonal banding inserts in the full skirt. Her coronet was yellow daisies and leaves and her mitts were of pale yellow nylon. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and fern tied with satin ribbon and her jewelry was a rhinestone necklace, gift from the bride.

Mrs. William Lodge, also attending the bride, was dressed in dalmation yellow, with bodice yoke of brocaded satin, and full skirt of net over taffeta. Her coronet was yellow illusion-veiling and her mitts were of pale yellow nylon. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and fern tied with satin ribbon and her jewelry was a rhinestone necklace, gift from the bride.

Little Miss Judy Honey, the flower girl, was gowned in apple green pique taffeta, the full skirt dressed satin looped in front, with lace flouncing. Her coronet was of white appa. blossoms and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations, pastel sweet peas and fern. Her gift from the bride was a gold finger ring set with sapphire.

Mr. Russell McKeever was best man. Also attending the groom was Mr. Robert Cantord of Edmonton.

Gifts to the groom's attendants were leather wallets.

Jasper Honeymoon For Newlyweds

MIX—SCHELLENBERG

Baskets of lilies and fern decorated the Alliance chapel for a pretty bridal when Miss Kathleen Schellenberg was united in marriage with Mr. Albert Russell Mix. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. P. Berg.

Given in marriage by her father, Mr. Jacob Schellenberg, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin and chantilly lace styled with lily-point sleeves. The full skirt was trimmed with lace panels. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet.

Her only jewelery was a triple strand of pearls, gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Muriel Mix, cousin of the groom, wore a gown of pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of pompons.

Mr. Grant Hastie from Saskatoon was best man.

Mesars. John and Lloyd Schellenberg, brothers of the bride, ushered.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Schellenberg wore a grey crepe dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Mix, mother of the groom, chose a grey floral dress. Her hat and accessories were navy and her corsage was of pink carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. John Hillson. Mrs. Harold Noyd, sister of the groom sang, 'O Love Divine and Beautiful' during the service and 'O Perfect Love' during the signing of the register.

Following the ceremony, a reception for thirty guests was held at the Legion hall. The bride's table was decorated with an imported lace cloth centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by pink tulle. Bouquets of lilacs and pink and white candles completed the setting.

On their return the newlyweds will make their home in Vermilion.

Islay District Locals

(Received too late for last week)

Threshing left over from last year is now completed and fields have been quickly prepared and seeding finished. Despite the lateness hopes are held that harvest will be as usual. Twice unseasonable frosts have nipped the gardens. In some localities berries have not formed on account.

The writer visited with Mr. and Mrs. Sylvia on Sunday. Sylvia has a fine lot of spring chicks almost ready to fry, and a flock of young turkey that keep her busy. Jim was setting out a number of tomato plants.

The recent unseasonable weather did not discourage the flowers for there are red, yellow and white roses, alsoum in the writer's garden. These are the hardy types but none the less lovely. The early lilacs are past blooming but the yilosa lilacs are showing a bloom on trees some 12 to 15 feet high. Iris, sweet peas and shasta daisies are making a lovely showing.

It is quite a thrill to see the broods of young partridges and wild ducks crossing the road as one motors over the highway.

The end of the home comings of our loved ones, glad of the fellowship of our comrades, and one who pointed the way to higher things of life cannot fail to see that Divine mercy is so great that no one need perish, but his sins be forgiven. That although the life be so utterly wasted that there seems no hope, powers so wasted, that on earth it can never be anything even when saved but a wreck, yet it may become radiant and beautiful in the land of immortality which Christian faith reveals.

Bride-Elect Feted
In honor of Miss Elizabeth MacMillan, bride-elect, Mrs. L. McCrae assisted by Mrs. H. Williamson and Mrs. C. W. Wilder, entertained 25 ladies at the home of the former on Wednesday afternoon, June 27 at a miscellaneous shower. Games and contests were enjoyed for an hour then the many lovely gifts were presented by a clever arrangement of "take a chance". The bride-elect had the lucky number and pulled aside the curtain where the gifts were displayed.
Mrs. J. Horne, Mrs. Laurence Harrison and Mrs. P. Krushinsky assisted the hostesses to serve a very delicious tea.

ALLANDALE NOTES

The weather has been unusual. June 26 and 27 there was a cold north-west wind. The mercury was near the freezing point, though there was no frost registered here. Since rain has fallen so we should not be lacking moisture.

The road construction crew went through the district putting in culverts and filling in the washouts caused last spring by the run-off.

John Arnold has been a patient in the Vermilion hospital. He has joined his shoulder while operating the power lift on the plow. By the time this paper comes out he will be home we hope and feeling much better.

On June 22nd there was a gathering at the school. Softball games were played, Allandale winning from Moreton. Deer Lake from Island Hill. Deer Lake then defeated Allandale and so were the champions. There were races for the younger children. In closing all enjoyed a picnic lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cross and daughter Shirley left on June 21st for a trip to the U.S. travelling by car.

Mrs. Raymond Mercier will soon be home from the University hospital and best wishes are extended to her for an improvement in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Wilson entertained the Wilson families at a weiner roast last Sunday evening.

Best wishes for a grand holiday go to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Weilers and family who leave this week for Missouri, U.S.A.

Fishing was good at Muriel Lake over the week end. Vermilion was well represented. There were handicaps—some lost their fishing equipment, lines broke, muddy roads — but all seemed to enjoy the trip.

Salmon Arm, B.C. May I tell somebody your note of appreciation through our grand paper. Such kind words are most encouraging for our work and is truly appreciated.

The friendly hour after church service at Clandonald June 24th was a pleasant one. Mrs. Lee presiding. Singing the old hymns in a treat and the colored pictures on the screen were very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Blackmore left a very inspiring message to the large congregation on his farewell service in Clandonald. On Sunday night there was a large gathering at the church hall to bid him the couple farewell. Best wishes accompany the Rev. and Mrs. Blackmore for a happy holiday near their former home in Ontario for every success at Yale.

Closing Thought: The problem of all true living is not to miss pain or trial, but in all experiences, however hard on bitter, to keep our hearts ever sweet and our ministry of good and helpfulness ever uninterrupted. The keenest suffering should make to only the gentler in spirit and send out not to be yet more loving and thoughtful—a benediction to everyone we meet.

Gymkhana Planned For Saturday Afternoon

Fair Looms As Outstanding Event

Every day sees advancement of plans for Vermilion's big 1951 Exhibition. Last entries have now been received from the Burns' ranch at Pickardville, including the six-horse team of purebred Clydes which has made such a name for itself at the Toronto Royal Fair. These magnificent horses will perform in front of the grandstand this year, exhibiting themselves to one their stellar performance.

Some thirty-five of Western Canada's most prominent light horses will stage a gymkhana immediately in front of the grandstand Saturday afternoon, in addition to numbers from the grandstand attractions which are said to be par excellence. The colorful gymkhana will be an attraction which would, in itself, necessitate the admission charge of 75 cents, but the Vermilion Fair directors have decided to go all out and present the highest class entertainment available at any exhibition in the Prairie provinces and the total admission charges only will be made.

High jumpers, glamour horses, hackneys and shack horses will vie with each other for the spotlight, while riders in ladies' costumes will compete in the gymkhana events. Local horse lovers are urged to enter their mounts for Vermilion Fair competitions and junior competitors will be especially welcome. The Vermilion district has in recent years taken an important place in exhibiting high class livestock at the major exhibitions throughout the entire Dominion and it is felt that local horses, horsemen and women can successfully compete with those from Edmonton, Calgary, Prince Albert and other well known light horse centres.

Arrangements are under way to bring 'Lady Godiva' to Vermilion for the afternoon performance and parades in front of the stands and this brilliant horsewoman with her equally fine steed are expected to attract much attention. Invitations have been extended to the Vermilion Boys' Band and the Clandonald Pipe Band to provide music for this gala occasion and it is anticipated that the Saturday afternoon show will be a standout from start to finish. All those who have not as yet purchased advance tickets are urged to do so at once as only a limited number of advance tickets are being sold this year.

SUMMER CAMP FILLED

One hundred and forty boys and girls from the farming communities of Northern Alberta have registered with the Fair Board for the annual summer camp to be held at the school of agriculture. This is the largest number in history and doubtless there will be keen competition for the gold, silver and bronze ribbons donated by the T. Eaton Co., for award in the top boy and girl and also for the fine prizes made available by the Line Elevators Assoc. The Alberta Wheat Pool is again generously providing a banquet for the young people and altogether those in attendance will be fortunate indeed.

CALF SHOW AND SALE

The feature of the first day, Thursday, July 26th, will be the show and sale of two-score of fine young beef calves, tended by the boys and girls of the district for months past. The calves will undoubtedly command white interest with buyers from the major livestock firms and it is fully expected that all prize records will go by the board at this exhibit.

EXHIBITS ABOVE STANDARD

The interest being manifested in the various exhibits being put in by boys' and girls' fair indicates that the fine exhibition hall will be jammed to the doors with the finest in handicrafts of all kinds. Arrangements have been made, with the lady judges to remain at the fair all day Friday, after the awards have been made, for the purpose of assisting exhibitors and others in the preparation and showing of exhibits. This feature is carried out only at Vermilion Fair in the west and exhibitors and potential exhibitors are asked to take advantage of the fine opportunity thus offered.

Vermilion Fair is the premier event of the district and a cordial invitation is extended to all district residents to attend and to bring the entire family. The extremely low cost possible through the use of advance tickets should make it reasonable to bring the whole family for this grand holiday.

Progress Made Toward Seed Cleaning Plant

CANVASSERS ELECTED

About a dozen men met at the new school of agriculture, Vermilion, on July 3rd to hear Mr. Fred Parkinson, agriculture representative of Edmonton, tell the story of seed cleaner associations in Alberta. There are now four cleaning plants in successful operation. They are located at Lacombe, Wetaskiwin, Westlock and Morinville.

Mr. Parkinson stated that the government pays a grant of $1.00 per 600 to each association which organized and sold shares to the value of $10,000. A meeting was held to lowed the association by the municipality. Shares are sold at $330,000 which is considered to be enough to build and equip a plant capable of handling 600 acres of grass seed.

It is proposed to instal a seed treating machine and possibly a hammer mill so that screenings can be crushed for feeding purposes on the farmer after the seed is cleaned.

At the end of Mr. Parkinson's address the chairman, Mr. Jack Buckingham, called on the group to elect a canvassing committee. The last farmers who would take out shares in the local association. It is also hoped to appoint an executive of three and to select canvassers for various areas.

The executive appointed was F. Van Wageningen ,Gordon Larwen and Miss Taylor. They are to select the canvass and to total the results in a month's time.

The canvassers are: Cr. John son of Minburn M.D., J. H. Towell, Arthur Towell, Robt. Galloway, F. Van Beveringen, Floyd Van Wageningen, Ralph Wilson, Gordon Larwen, Alex Sloan, Gordon Forbes, Ross Taylor, Basil Hawley, Alf Logan, Roy Walker, S. Limbrufi, Lloyd Hughes, Alex Dow, Alf Beecroft, Grs. Brown, Fred Watling, Tom Wilkins, Joe Mistal, Pat Convey and Ken Slone.

The committee asks farmers or business men to act one of the canvassers and get their names on the lists. They point out that quick action is necessary if the plant is to be built this fall.

The committee also wishes to thank the Vermilion Board of Trade for sponsoring this project and arranging for the organization meet ing.

Former Vermilion Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. George Logan Honored at Lake

On Friday evening an event of unusual interest was held at the Free Lake hall, the occasion being the Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. George Logan, former residents of the Vermilion district.

Relatives and friends numbering well over 300 sat down to a sumptuous banquet sponsored by the three ladies groups in the district. The head table was decorated in gold and held two wedding cakes flanked by tall gold colored tapers. The three-tiered cake was baked by Mrs. F. Bristow and decorated by Mr. and Mrs. O. Hunt, while the four-tiered cake was made by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. Logan of Vermilion.

At the close of the supper Mr. and Mrs. Logan's eldest son, Alfred of Vermilion, and their eldest daughter Evelyn, spoke a few words and presented a purse of gold to the bride and groom.

Following a short program of music and singing several presentations were made to the honored couple with Mr. O. Hunt acting as master of ceremonies. Mr. and Mrs. Logan received a number of gifts and a big of gold from their many friends, and two chairs and a radio from the members of their immediate family.

All the sons and daughters were in attendance with the exception of their son Wilfred of Victoria, B.C. Those present were daughter Evelyn and her husband Ernest Campbell of Rosebud, Alta.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Logan and daughter Wilma, Calgary; son Dean Logan from Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Logan of Vermilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan were married fifty years ago, June 28th, in North Dakota. They farmed actively in the district from 1907 and settled at Taber. They moved from there to the Allandale district where they resided for a number of years, subsequently going to their present home at Free Lake where they have lived for the past eighteen years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Logan enjoy good health and take a keen interest in all social events and community activities.

They have eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Dancing was enjoyed by all at the gathering with Mr. Bob Maxwell acting as floor manager and things were kept moving at a lively clip until the small hours of the morning.

"TWIN" PEN PALS MEET

In 1941, June Thompson, age 10 years, of Vermilion, entered a coloring contest in the Winnipeg Free Press. Winning an honorable mention for her entry, her name, address were published in the paper. Shortly after, she received letters from Australia, Switzerland, Dawson Creek, B.C., who had seen June's name and age in the Free Press, and as June was the same as hers, thought she'd write. Thus was "My birthday is June 6th, what date is yours?" By odd coincidence, June 6th is the birthday also of June Thompson, Vermilion!

Further, the girls were born within the same hour: each has a brother John; they travelled the same distance to school, were interested in sailing and in business careers. Since 1941 they have corresponded regularly and exchanged Xmas and birthday gifts. In 1945 they hoped to meet in Vancouver, when each were on holidays there, but missed one another by one day.

On June 12th, 1951 they had the pleasure of meeting personally when June Thompson of Dawson Creek, travelled to Edmonton, thence with June Thompson of Vermilion to attend the wedding of the latter to Gordon Hudson, also of Vermilion.

Now June Thompson of Dawson Creek says she's looking for a "Honey" so that her name will still be the same as that of her "twin" pen-pal!

Fifer Drops Dead In Manville Parade

SUDDEN PASSING OF CHARLES MEEKS

Charles Meeks, aged 77 years, well known old timer of Mannville district, died and died while playing the fife in the Orange Day parade at Mannville Wednesday afternoon. Celebrating Orange Day is a tradition in Mannville just as the playing of the fife in the drum and fife band by Charlie Meeks was a tradition. He had just played one tune Wednesday as the parade got underway, accompanied by Hiram Hodgins of Vermilion on the drums, when he stumped forward in the truck and died instantly.

BOYS' BAND IS IN DEMAND

The Vermilion Boys' Band is certainly paying off when it comes to publicity for the town. The boys played at the Wainwright sports on July 2nd, at the Mannville Orange Day celebration Wednesday, July 11th and are scheduled to be one of the bands in the mammoth parade that opens the Edmonton Exhibition on July 26th.

It is expected that they will probably play at the local fair and are booked for Irma on August 1st.

There is a gradual tendency of the weather to attain summer heat but nothing very spectacular has been achieved so far. The highest temperature so far in July was 90 registered on the 3rd and 4th while the best this week has done has been 72 on Saturday and Thursday.

Two good showers fell, .25 on Friday and .26 on Saturday. Crops are still backward throughout the area.

Letters to the Editor

Mrs. E. C. Miller, Secretary,
Red Cross Branch,
Vermilion, Alberta.
Dear Mrs. Miller:

I would like to thank your associates and yourself for the co-operation received in the recent Blood Donor Clinic at Vermilion.

We are very grateful to the voluntary donors who attended the clinic despite the poor weather and I am only sorry that the total number was not much lower than usual. We were glad to have such a pleasant hall to work in and we hope that it may be possible to use the same premises on our next visit to Vermilion.

Would you please express our thanks to the many volunteers who so ably assisted at the clinic.

Yours sincerely,
D. I. Buchanan, M.B., D.P.H.,
Prov. Medical Director,

June 28, 1951.

Dear Sir:

May we through the columns of your paper make public the appreciation of The Salvation Army for the excellent support given by your publication to the recent Red Shield Appeal.

Indications are that the appeal will be successful nationally, and this gives cause for gratitude.

The part played by the Fourth Estate in bringing the appeal to the attention of the people is fully realized. Fund-raising does not get any easier, even in times of national prosperity. It is essential, therefore, that the public once again be aware of The Salvation Army's needs, and of its efforts to help the needy.

Thank you once again for generous and competent assistance.

Yours sincerely,
Peter Furbes, (Lt.-Col.)
National Campaign Director,

At the time of the 1941 census there were about 300,000 more males than females in Canada.

J. S. Friedman Enlarges Business Interests

HAS SECOND STORE AT BIG RIVER, SASK.

J. S. Friedman, well known local business man, has within the past month extended his business interests which now include his former store at Big River, Sask. 'Jok' will divide his time between the Vermilion store and that at Big River.

While he is away the Vermilion store will be in charge of Mr. Allan Belsky, an experienced and able merchandiser who will render all customers very good service. Mr. Polsky is a returned man having seen five years overseas service in the last war.

Since discontinuing the grocery department at the Vermilion store Mr. Friedman has been able to carry a larger and more varied stock of boots and gents' wear, and dry goods. The grocery space has been well used to show the new stocks to much better advantage and the store's displays now rival those of city merchants. The new arrangement has proven much more convenient and makes shopping a real pleasure. 4x

Canadian Legion Hold Enjoyable Basket Picnic At Lake Whitney

The Canadian Legion's basket picnic was held Sunday July 8th at Lake Whitney with a large number making the trip by private car while Mr. Little transported 36 northward in his bus, thus ensuring that everyone who wanted to go reached the picnic.

Prizes for all kinds of races were provided for the children while the ladies and men present had a lot of fun in a mammoth tug-of-war. Quite a number enjoyed the swimming while a close game of softball was also played. It was too bad that during the game the windshield of Mr. Little's bus was broken but the boys took up a subscription and raised enough to pay for a new one. There was lunch for all and before leaving for home more coffee and lunch was again in evidence.

The outing was a really enjoyable one despite the showers and it is hoped that enough interest was aroused to make this an annual event.

Chatsworth Chatter

After missing quite a few weeks of writing the Chatter here we are again, and though many of the items may be rather old by now, we hope it will be news to some.

Gardens and crops are making good headway, with plenty of moisture available. Storms, showers and cool, cloudy weather has prevailed, with now the need for warmer weather. Early-sown gardens have not advanced as would be expected.

The east-west strip of country past the school which has been by-passed by storms the past two weeks, being on the southern fringe of those northerly rains, and the northern fringe of southern rains, received a good rain last Saturday afternoon.

On Sunday, 24th, a go-ndly number turned out to church service at Oslawa. Due to rain and mud by noon, at service on July 8th was not as large.

The June meeting of the Chatsworth Country club was held at the home of Mrs. F. Good in Vermilion with 17 members in attendance. Due to illness, Mrs. W. J. Garnett, W. I. convenor, was unable to be present but we are looking forward to having her address us at a future date. A demonstration of paper work was given by Mrs. Frank Farnden, which was of much interest. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Painter, Mrs. Arthur Torrell, Mrs. Patterson. The club plans to attend Tuesday's session at the V. S.A. during Vermilion's week. It was arranged that all interested take a basket lunch and eat on the grounds, if weather permits. The July meeting, which is the annual meeting, is to be held at Mrs. Steve Jacula's on the 19th.

The June meeting of the F.U.A. was held at the school with eleven members present. A number of business matters were dealt with. delegates to the convention held in Vermilion July 4th being Mr. E. T. East and Mrs. E. Thompson, with Mr. L. Kishinsky as the alternate delegate. It was decided to combine the July meeting with the showing of pictures by the U.G.G. agent from Vermilion, Mr. Neil McLean. Lunch will be served by the ladies of the local. The meeting date is July 11th.

The school children enjoyed a school-closing treat of a show in town on guests of their teacher, Miss Campbell. Miss Campbell left that same evening for her home in Vegreville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Good left on June 30th for a motor trip to Edson and points west.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Blackburn, formerly of Swanville and now resident in Edmonton, visited at the Sturt home here two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McKeever of Vermilion spent last week holidaying at the E. Thompson's.

June Thompson of Dawson Creek, B.C., who was a visitor to the E. Thompson's during the week of the Thompson wedding, left on Sunday the 17th on her return trip.

Thank you, writer of Wildmere Winks for your kind wishes for the newlyweds.

On June 11th a number of good neighbors gathered at the Ernest Thompson farm to assist in farming operations. Tillers, seed drills, harrows — they really covered the ground in a hurry—and when the day was finished all spring work was done and the summerfallow worked. This neighborly action is all the more appreciated in view of the fact that spring was so late and short that everyone was rushed to complete their own farm work. Those present were Arnold Maggs, George Hughes, Charlie Young, John McKeague, Pat McCann, Wally Marchinew, Jim Thompson, George Hanna, Jim Panter, Steve Sturt, Ralph Wilson. A tractor and tiller were loaned by Mr. R. Hutchinson to assist in the day's work. There were nine tractors, three seed drills, five tillers and harrows at work and it was a busy sight—and also!

E. Thompson was proved in health, let: a.m. for a visit to Acme, Alta., where his sister Mrs. M. Carlyle resides.

Great Slave Lake, NWT, contains one of the greatest inland commercial fishing areas in the world. The lake, 11,123 square miles in extent and fifth largest on the continent, was opened to commercial fishing in 1945.

Clandonald News

A considerable quantity of moisture has fallen during the past few days from numerous showers which have passed over the district. Crop conditions are greatly improved as a result.

Wilfred Roberge has a gravel hauling job at Irricana north-east of Calgary and expects to be employed there until fall. After spending the week end at his home here he left on Monday to return to work. He was accompanied by Mrs. Roberge and their infant daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Coulson with their two children Bob and Jennie were Calgary visitors during the holiday week end. Mr. Coulson returned for work at the station on Monday, the family followed later in the week.

Latest ward of Mr. and Mrs. Roe's daughter, Mrs. Tony Wachter is that she is home from hospital after having suffered an attack of rheumatic fever but will be convalescent for several months. Mrs. Roe returned to her home here on Wednesday after having spent some time with her daughter and two sons who all reside in the city.

Mr. Fife, manager of the bank here, has been in very poor health recently and last week left for medical treatment, having been granted leave of absence. He was accompanied by his wife and their young son John.

OBITUARY

MRS. GEORGENA JOHNSTON

Death claimed one of the real old timers of this district when Mrs. Georgina Johnston, widow of the late George Albert Johnston, passed away in the Vermilion Municipal hospital on July 4th after a very brief illness. Funeral services were held from the Alliance chapel on Saturday July 7th at 2:00 p.m. with Rev. Eric P. Berg officiating. Interment was made at the Vermilion cemetery.

Mrs. Johnston who was 83 years of age was born in London, England and came to this country at the age of five years. In 1883 she was united in marriage to Mr. George Albert Johnston and to this union ten children were born. They moved from Manitoba to this district in 1907 where the deceased has lived ever since. Her husband predeceased her in 1925. She won the respect and esteem of all who knew her and will always be remembered for her cheerfulness, thoughtfulness and her Godly Christian life. She was active and alert until she suffered a stroke on July 1st and was taken to the hospital.

Below is a poem she had written recently on the back of a letter which portrays her life and thoughts:

"I've known the love of friends most dear,
The joys of converse too;
I've thrilled to see the trustful eye,
And felt the handclasp true;
But Oh! I long to know one friend,
Whom Heavenly hosts adore,
The One whose love exceeds all loves;
Who loves forever more."

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Ann Gilmour, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Lorne McLean, Vermilion; Mrs. Myrtle McRobert, Hamilton; Mrs. Walter Swan, Islay; three sons, Thomas of Oroville, Wash.; Daniel of Peace River; Marvin at Spokane, Wash. There are nineteen grandchildren and twenty-four great grandchildren. A sister resides in Vermilion.

Pallbearers were Ted Carson, Ted Edey, Harry Swan, Lorne Swan, Ian McRobert and Don McGillivray. Beautiful floral tributes were received from Ted and Betty: Guy and Elma; Gordon, Lorne and family; Lorne and Helen and Shirley Fellows; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Norton; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mc.; Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Long; Ted and Madelon; Myrtle, Ian, Robert and Jean; Women's Prayer & Band of Alliance chapel; Swan Family; Gladys McDonald, Helen Bell and Hilde Grimes; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kaiser; Mrs. Panter and Hattie; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Larsen; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Stewart; Peter, Rhoda and family; Clarence and Muriel Long; Vernie, Erma and boys; Mr. and Mrs. Misiak; Rudi, Dillie and family; Cousins Martha and family; Aunt Maude and Robertson family; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wilson.

Editor and Staff,
Vermilion Standard, Vermilion.
Dear Sirs:

How pleased I am to receive the copies of the Standard even though they are two months old. A link with home in the jungle. What a treat to read the 'locals', and the news from the districts and the advertisements. Yes, I even read the wrappers! It is surprising how hungry one can get for home news. 'Home News' is like no other news on earth. It is living, it is part of you; it satisfies that awful vacuum in your heart when you are longing for your friends. To be able to read about familiar folk, to follow the various activities of the town is a real morale builder.

The Home Town Paper—there is nothing like it.

With kindest regards,
Charles Stewart.

Dear Editor

I was not able to get in to say good-bye to you personally because of the pressure of time and events. However, I do want to take this opportunity of expressing my sincere appreciation for the splendid co-operation which I have always had in all matters and especially those which had to do with the work of the church from you and your staff. Would you kindly pass on these hearty thanks to your staff and brothers.

I trust that the new minister will not be as tardy in getting his notices in as I have been.

Again many thanks for everything and may God bless you and yours.

Sincerely,
Bill Blackmore

H. R. Calvert, a well known oil man of Edmonton who was manager of the Royal Bank here, sends his greetings and subscription to The Standard from Guelph, Ont. He notes that rain is plentiful there and crop conditions as a result are promising. A Fibre Glass Co. is erecting a factory there which plans to employ about 175 men. Housing conditions are proving quite a problem for the growing population.

Ethelwyn News

Although the weather was quite showery and spoiled the ball game, school picnic was a great success. Games for the young and old were played from 2 p.m. and ended with a bountiful lunch and plenty of ice cream for everyone. People from Lloydminster and district returned home for the chorus and to turn to the dance at night. This dance was well attended that dancing was almost impossible. The Muligrew orchestra played. Mr. Cliff Cathcart, the M.C. spoke for a few words, expressing the appreciation of the parents for the hard work Mrs. McCormack our teacher, did for the school, also sponsoring the closing dance. Everyone is looking forward to having Miss McCormack back when school opens in September.

Apologies for not mentioning the most important news first—On June 28th Jack Grant's outfit started the excavation for the new Rye school. This was a day of rejoicing as the new school has been badly needed for years. Several loads of lumber, gravel and cement are on the grounds but wet weather is delaying work at present.

The social hour after evening United church service was very much enjoyed. It is hoped that it will become a regular feature.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. Gus Gunville on the passing of his dear wife.

Mr. Obler is the proud possessor of a tiny Maytah tractor purchased from Mr. Little of Vermilion. He plans to build a small trailer to haul pig feed and for the many other odd jobs around the farm.

The committee of the Greenlawn Old Timers' picnic is to be congratulated on the new picnic grounds. The soil is a bit sandy for horse racing but otherwise the location is ideal. The octagonal shaped booth is better planned than anything seen over on the Vermilion fair grounds. The many benches scattered throughout the trees make a perfect grandstand overlooking the ball diamonds and race track. The booth is serviced with running water and electricity and the dance pavilion is also lighted by electricity. It is to be hoped that the public appreciate all this enough to leave the grounds in the excellent shape in which they find them.

Seen at the Old Timers' picnic—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brandvold after season Bruce of Vancouver, accompanying them were the former's brother Ted from Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Turner have returned out a lot with the dance music. Mrs. D. Turner (nee Martha Nicholas) of Calgary. Ernie Ernest Mrs. Al Craige: Alex Stockwell of Edmonton.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Bowman who won the two camp chairs awarded to the oldest couple at the picnic.

ADVANCE SALE TICKETS

It would be greatly appreciated if it was clearly stated in the Standard and many advance sale tickets are required for children of various ages to avoid the fair gate and grandstand at Vermilion and fair. In the past only adults have been mentioned on the tickets.

A FEW BEEFS

Why is the man in charge of the men's restroom at the fair dependent on the generosity of the public for his pay? Or is this just a little gyp game that the fair board knows nothing about? A woman has been in charge of the ladies' rest room for several years now and the service has never been rewarded for a donation. Why cannot the service be given free to the men? Surely the public pays for this service by their patronage of the fair. I am quite sure that all parents of boys appreciate having a responsible man in charge of the men's restroom and that it is not quite a bit of money, especially for the fathers in charge of several small boys.

Editor's Note: For several years Mr. Gilbert has been employed by the fair board to secure anyone to care for the men's restroom, so this work has been delegated to disabled veterans who follow the fair circuit. Donations to him are entirely voluntary.

Graduation Exercises At Paradise Valley

On Friday June 29th, the last day of the school term, a graduation program was held in the auditorium of the new Paradise Valley school. All five rooms took part in the program. A great deal of time and many of whom took advantage of the opportunity to inspect the new school.

The one hour program included talks by Mr. Sanderson, who acted as Master of Ceremonies, Mrs. F.V. Gunn representing the Vermilion Trustees Association, Mrs. Ina Williams Stoddart, chairman of the Paradise Valley school district, Mr. Arthur Clark, trustee of the Vermilion S.D. and Mr. Jacobson, supervisor of Vermilion school division, who delivered the main address. Miss Kathleen Swayne, valedictorian for the graduating class, represented them eloquently with a short address.

Mr. Jacobson in a very entertaining twenty minutes, told the graduates and interested audience that he was glad to be present at their first graduation program. He spoke on the significance of graduation and expressed the hope that our graduates would regard it as the beginning of their citizenship and the commencement of a career of service.

The following presentations were made by the chairman, Mr. Richardson:

Attendance Prize, Primary Room — Gail Richardson; Junior Room — Adella Hallett, Dennis Teasdale. Elementary—Robert McLean; Intermediate—Grace Stoddart; High School—Bill Swedak.

Proficiency Awards—

Bill Swedak, Illustrator and Production manager of the Spectator.

Miss Marion Henry, captain of the girls' baseball team was presented with the girls baseball cup, which her team won at the Vermilion Division track meet. Following the program, salads, sandwiches, cake and soft drinks were served by the girls of the senior and junior high schools.

Mechanized Farming

ABOUT THE INFORMATION to be compiled from the 1951 census will be facts concerning mechanized farming in Canada. The use of machinery for farming operations has increased steadily in recent years. Higher farm incomes during the war and in the period of rehabilitation, and the critical shortage of farm labour during that time were in part responsible for the gradual trend toward mechanized farming here. Increase in rural electrification in many communities in Canada has also been a factor in bringing into use some types of farm machinery.

• • • •

Used Loans To Buy Machinery

In 1950, the largest proportion of the money borrowed under the Farm Improvement Loans Act was used to purchase farm implements and farm trucks. Of the $83,483,383 borrowed in that year, $58,391,885 was used to purchase farm machinery and trucks. Figures given in the Canada Year Book show a steady increase in the use of farm machinery in the last few years. Sales of farm implements in Canada in 1946 amounted to $94,446,313. This was 27.1 per cent. greater than the figure for 1945, and the highest recorded since annual reports on such sales were started in 1938.

Prairies Lead in Purchases

The figure for 1947 was $122,304,742, and there was a further increase in 1948, when $170,066,070 was spent on mechanized farm equipment. This was the last year for which figures were given in the Canada Year Book. In 1947 and 1948 Saskatchewan led all the provinces in the volume of farm machinery purchased, with Ontario following and Alberta third in the amount spent for this purpose. It will be interesting to learn the results of this year's census, and the amount of the use of farm machinery in Canada. It is clear that a great increase will be recorded over the last decade and that the trend towards mechanization will be shown to be strong in the western provinces.

Make Your Vacation A Pleasure For Tiny Tots, Too

IF YOU ever tried sitting down in the family car with your head below window level you'd find it was dreadful. You feel as if you are being hurtled through space which gives you a sick feeling in the stomach.

Well that's just how little tots (or five year olds feel. Is it any wonder he stands up and bounces all over the floor and leans dangerously against the door, no matter how many times you tell him to sit down.

To make the trip a pleasure to him and much easier on your self as well, make a seat for him. Pad a small wooden box (a small orange crate is about the right size) all over with heavy goods, make sure corners are rounded so they won't scratch the car seats, then cover it all with cretonne or leatherette.

This will fit on the back seat and stay on so the child can sit up and look out the window or can be placed between two people on the front seat and the little passenger can use the cushion as a foot rest or someone's lap.

It is also useful in a cafe to let the child eat a meal or ice cream with his head well above the table and to enjoy our meal if the table was ever with sor mouth.

Make a child's comfy seat before your next motor trip and see if the trip isn't more enjoyable for everybody.

Dealing With Wasp Nests

The use of torches to get rid of wasp nests is condemned by experts that has caused forest fires and to the summer cottages being destroyed.

An example of how dangerous the use of fire can be for this purpose was related by a fire control officer:

"Last summer a fuel-wood-cutter was surprised by a wasps' nest in one of his piles of wood and tried to smoke the creatures out. He succeeded all right, but in so doing started a fire that not only destroyed thousands of dollars worth of wood but a new truck as well. The arrival of rangers was the only thing that prevented a serious forest fire."

His suggestion for getting rid of wasps, when chemical sprays are not available or for some reason or other are not convenient to do the job was:

"On a damp night, that is one during which the air has thickened, the wasps' nest can be safely picked up on a long stick and carried to a safe place for destruction, such as an incinerator or stove or other means. The principle behind this is that the wasps' wings are damp rendering them incapable of flight and they are able only to crawl about a little. However, a long stick is essential since the wasps, while unable to fly, can still sting."

Will It Rain?

Here are some almost infallible weather signs:

A gray lowering sunset, or one where the sky is green or yellowish green, indicates rain.

A red sunrise with clouds lowering later in the morning also indicates rain.

A deep blue color of the sky, even when seen through the clouds, indicates fair weather, a greening whiteness an approaching storm.

Fogs indicate settled weather. A morning fog usually breaks away before noon.

WHEN SILENCE SPEAKS

A distinguished clergyman and one of his parishioners were playing golf. It was a very close match, and at the last hole the clergyman teed his drive into the bush, and young his driver with great force, but instead of sailing down the fairway, merely rolled off the tee and settled slowly some twelve feet away.

The clergyman frowned, glared and bit his lip, but said nothing. His opponent regarded him for a moment, and then remarked.

"Doctor, that is the most profane silence I have ever witnessed."

FOR SPORTS ONLY

Excessive wearing of sneakers and flimsy shoes is frowned on by shoe experts who point out that such foot gear is meant only for specialized sports, played on soft ground. For walking, playing and running on hard surfaces, youngsters need the support provided by leather shoes

Milk Drinks For Child Health

Popular Way Of Serving Fourth Glass Of The Day

Milk is one of the most economical forms of nutrition for your growing children. A quart a day furnishes the amount of calcium needed for a child daily, as well as other important nutrients. Like all dairy foods milk is an essential part of the child's diet.

Give the child a glass at each meal. The fourth glass (to make up the quart) can be served in cooked foods or after school in popular milk drinks.

Caramel Milk Shake

Four cups milk, pinch salt, 4 tablespoons caramel syrup, vanilla ice cream or whipped cream.

Combine all ingredients and shake vigorously. Serve cold with a spoonful of vanilla ice cream or top with a spoonful of whipped cream.

To make caramel syrup: Dissolve 2 cups sugar in ½ cup water (preferably in an aluminum pan). Cover and boil rapidly until syrup thickens. Remove cover and cook over low heat until syrup is amber color. Remove from heat and slowly add one cup boiling water.

Return to heat and continue to cook over low heat until caramel melts (about 3 or 4 minutes). Makes about 1½ cups. Store in a tightly covered jar in a cool place.

Milk 'n' Honey

Four cups milk, 6 tablespoons honey, pinch salt, 2 eggs, well beaten. Add milk, honey and salt to beaten eggs. Shake well and serve.

Chocolate Whip

Two squares bitter chocolate, 1 cup hot water, ½ cup sugar, ¾ cups milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 egg white, 2 tablespoons sugar.

Melt chocolate in top of double boiler. Add hot water and cook over direct heat until slightly thickened, stirring constantly. Add sugar and milk. Return to bottom half of double boiler and allow to cook 5 minutes longer, stirring.

Beat egg white until stiff. Gradually add sugar and continue beating until sugar is dry. Add mixture. Fold beaten egg white into chilled chocolate mixture just before pouring into individual glasses.

The Automobile

We don't think of the automobile as an economy—we think it is one of the signs of progress which has done so much for 20th century civilization.

But an American statistician has figured it out that automobiles kill more people than wars. He says that, in the first nine months of the war in Korea 8,000 Americans lives were lost. In the same period from June 25, 1950, to March 25, 1951, automobiles on the American home front have killed 28,400 people. Automobiles kill three times as fast as wars, according to these figures.

It's a sad commentary on progress when a man marks quartered the room for each family.

"How you ever getting along here?" he asked.

"Pretty good," was the reply, "until the old lady in the corner began to take in boarders."

• • • •

"I'm a very busy man, sir. What is your proposition?"

"I want to make you rich."

"Well, leave your recipe with me and I'll look it over later. Just now I'm engaged in closing a deal where I can make seven dollars in real money."

• • • •

Judge: Are you sure this man was drunk?

Cop: Well, your honor, he was carrying a lamp-post cover, and he was going home to play it on his phonograph.

• • • •

"A man may have many friends, but he still finds some steadfast, so constant, so ready to respond to his needs, so capable of pushing him ahead, as a little leather covered book with the name of a bank on its cover."

• • • •

The psychiatrist explained how easy it was to judge a man's character from his clothes.

"Shoes reveal a man's temperament very clearly. They tell whether he is conservative or ostentatious, nervous or phlegmatic," he announced.

"They also keep his feet warm," muttered an unbeliever.

A well-known comedian had just made his after-dinner speech at a gathering of notables. When he had seated himself an enormous man arose, and standing with hands deep in his trousers pockets, a habit of his, he laughingly and pleasantly chaffed the company as a little unusual that a professional humorist should be funny?"

When the laughter had subsided, the comedian replied: "Doesn't it strike the company as a little unusual that a lawyer should have his hands in his own pockets?"

FUTURE CHOPIN? — Almost too tiny to climb up on the piano bench, 3-year-old Brenda Pollard, of Keswick, Ont., includes among her repertoire some three dozen piano selections, including part of Haydn's first symphony. Playing entirely by ear the talented child has amazed even her mother, a music teacher.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

VACATION MONEY

Children Running In A Pack Could Be As Dangerous As Wild Dogs

• • •

By WANDA MOORE

MR. DERRICK knew that he had been born two hundred years too late. He could have been a pioneer. He would have liked that. Raising the bounding main. Being the terror of the seas. Yo ho and so forth heave!

He sighed. He glared at the children sitting at their desks in front of him. He'd have made every last one of them walk the plank. That he would. Joe there, wiping his nose on his sleeve. Clarence, sitting bolt upright and asleep. Natalie, shaking through her teeth at Donald, trying to attract his attention to a fat horse.

He brought his fist down on the desk, and repeated the performance until the bright red apple at the far corner leaped two inches into the air.

"Attention!" he bellowed, and was slightly mollified when she saw the children start in their seats and Clarence's lids swing away from his startled eyes. "How many have established their arithmetic?" he asked, hoping fill evil that not even he with years of school teaching behind him could have finished. What were they going to do? They were just children, but children running in a pack could be as dangerous as wild dogs.

He tried to rise from his chair, but he felt his heart pounding. This would be a fine time to have his heart act up, he thought sarcastically. He remained in his seat, holding the edge of the desk with tight hands.

Natalie entered. The children crowded in after her. They marched down the aisles together and stopped in front of his desk.

He tried to speak. No words came. The children crowded close in back of Natalie. She placed on his green, clumsy pile of small change on the desk. She smiled her dear-teacher smile. "Mr. Derrick," she said, "we know you are sick. Rich people say things they don't mean. We thought," she indicated the pile of money, "we could help you take a couple of weeks vacation to get well. Then you would like us again."

Slowly, Mr. Derrick picked up the money. Then he set it back on the desk. Fingers in his pocket, he placed an equal pile of change beside the first one.

A trace of his buccaneer spirit entered his smile. He leaned toward the serious faces. "We have a vacation together this afternoon. Picnic lunch. The whole works."

Tip For Anglers

PRINCE ALBERT—Sport fishing for Last Mountain Lake is from bad better at Etter's Beach, near the north end, than it is at Regina Beach, near the southern tip, according to a report compiled by the Saskatchewan Fisheries branch.

The report, based on a creel census carried out on the lake for first year, explained that this was due to the fact that angling pressure, in the past, has been exerted almost entirely on the southern part of the lake. A' the north end, there has been comparatively little sport fishing to date, and there, the report says, anglers can expect to find "really good fishing".

The origin of the fruit cake is attributed to the Egyptians.

Woodvale News

Back from a very pleasant trip through the Rockies, stopping just wherever we wanted to and investigating every spot where a sign pointed to an interesting or beautiful sight—we found it a very satisfying holiday.

Home again, rain seems to have by-passed our district, though some showers have been falling all around us. Bill, crops look as well here as anywhere along highway 16 westward.

Harry Sweeney, Kaare Seite, Bert Portsmith and several more went fishing for a week end and brought back forty fish with them.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Preston also went for a trip to Banff, going via Calgary and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Warring of Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil King and Edith attended the wedding in Edmonton of a former Vermilion boy, Jim Hudson on June 29th.

Other visitors to Edmonton were Mrs. Mabel Webber; Isacle Gaukler who is staying to take a short course.

Ruby Thomson the gone to work for the summer in Waterton National Park.

The Otto Wolters family left for and extended tour to the U.S. where they will visit with their many relations.

Don't think this part of the country is deserted however, we have had our share of visitors too.

For the long week end Brooks and Peggy Lysons and their two boys were home bringing with them a couple of friends Bud Heidebrecht and Terry Yorgenson of Edmonton. They stayed at the writer's home, enjoying visits with Bud's old schoolmates and taking in the ball games at Folland where the home boys won out over a Basswood team.

Marion McQuid is spending her holidays with her parents and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Dubuc and baby Diane of Vegreville are staying with the Goudies family where all the children are once more home from boarding school.

Joy King was home for the long week end.

Ganton-Watson Red Cross held one meeting in June, at the home of Mrs. M. Watson where two baby quilts were worked and one meeting on July 3rd at the home of Mrs. R. Oldenburg where 11 ladies made a large quilt. The next meeting will be on Thursday Aug. 2 at the home of Mrs. A. Portsmith. The Red Cross will have a booth and bazaar at the annual Tolland picnic scheduled for Wednesday July 18th.

Now a few animal stories: The Isley boys found several ducks' nests in the stooks when they were threshing in May and brought the eggs home to be hatched under a hen. Though they were fairly successful in hatching, they have not had much luck raising them, there are at present, two left. It is rather difficult to bring wild fowl up and they usually leave when about three weeks old.

Tommy Lysons brought his second coyote down this year and had quite a time doing so. Chasing it on foot he took a short cut through a bush. When Mr. Coyote and Tommy suddenly faced each other, both were surprised! Tommy hit him with the butt of his rifle and finally regained his breath and a steady hand in time to shoot the animal.

The Woodvale school children all went to Thorncliffe for their picnic and at night a dance was held in Ganton school.

Most farmers are busy summerfallowing while some early birds are haying.

A former Woodvale girl, Kathleen Foster, was married early in June in Victoria, B.C., to Mr. Robert Look of that city.

Creel Census Cards turned in at Prince Albert National Park in 1950 reveal that pike, pickerel and lake trout in that order were the most important game fish caught in the park. Ranging in length from 10 to 42 inches, a total of 8,732 pike were reported taken, followed by 1,076 pickerel from 8 to 24 inches, and 396 lake trout from 10 to 38 inches.

BEFORE LEAVING HOME

Check your home fire insurance policy to see if there is a clause limiting the coverage if the house is left unoccupied for a specific period of time.

Arrange to discontinue milk, newspaper, mail and other daily deliveries while you are away.

Be certain that all doors and windows are securely locked. Pulling down the blinds will keep your furniture and rugs from fading.

See that all lights, gas and water are turned off at the source.

Leave a house key with a reliable neighbor so that he may enter your house in case of fire or emergency.

If you are taking a home trailer your car out of gear or coast to save gasoline. It is a very dangerous practice that can have dire consequences.

While travelling in slide areas, always be on the alert for rocks or boulders in the roadway. Hitting a sharp rock can not only injure your tires and cause a blow-out but can rip your oil pan or gasoline tank.

Vapor lock" tair bubbles in your gas line) is the result of an overheated engine labouring at high altitudes and makes your car act like it's out of fuel. A simple remedy is to stop clothe soaked in cold water around the gasoline pump and lower part of the carburetor.

When parking on a steep grade make every effort to pull completely off the roadway, crimp the wheels toward the high bank, and place rocks behind the wheels securely with rocks.

On long mountain trips, periodically check the fan belt of your car as well as the radiator. When adding water to an overheated car, keep the engine running. Otherwise there is a chance the cold water will crack the engine block. If the water in your radiator is boiling use extreme caution in removing the pressure cap. A wet rag or leather gloves should be used and your face should be shielded from escaping steam.

During long mountain driven, stop every so often and allow the engine to cool for 10 or 15 minutes. This rest period also will give the family a chance to get out and stretch their legs.

Learn Now!

At many of our summer resorts in the Saskatchewan, life guards, instructors, expertly trained by the Canadian Red Cross Society, will be on duty during the vacation months, eager to instruct would-be swimmers, young and old. Under the direction of these competent instructors, you will probably find, to your amazement, that it will take you longer to change your clothes and put on your bathing suit than it takes to learn to float! And it will cost you nothing!

Safety

All persons who are able to swim should carefully guard against overestimating their ability. A person, no matter how strong a swimmer, should never go swimming alone. Even with a companion, it is wise to stay close to shore. On long swims, common sense demands that swimmers be accompanied by a boat —and there's that word again—"common sense". Pages and pages could be written explaining why these rules should be followed, and indicating tragedies caused by the ignorance of them; authorities on the subject will impress upon you just how true they are and probably add more. Be wise, then, learn these rules well, and whenever you go swimming (never alone and not soon after a heavy meal, etc.) TAKE YOUR COMMON SENSES WITH YOU!

The Red Cross

The Red Cross will supply freely on request additional information on water safety and how to learn to swim, how to apply Artificial Respiration, and, if you are a boat owner, ask the Red Cross for a waterproof transfer to affix to your boat. The boats is unsurpassed places for safety. This book is the only one of its kind available and is distributed at a printers cost price of 25 cents.

Qu'Appelle Valley

The valley of the Qu'Appelle river, originating on the height of land just north of Duck Lake, South Saskatchewan river and some 70 miles northwest of Moose Jaw, swings across the province to the Manitoba border, at several points broadening out into lakes which are the summer playgrounds of thousands of holiday-makers each year.

Several resorts are located on the shores of Long Lake, a body of water approximately 20 miles in length, branching off from the Qu'Appelle Valley almost directly north of Regina.

Saskatchewan Beach, Regina Beach, Buena Vista and Lumsden Beaches, are well patronized Long Lake resorts, while farther to the east, in the Qu'Appelle Valley, are such popular summer play spots as Bi-say-tah, Qu'Appelle, Katepwe, Crooked and Round Lakes.

Of the Qu'Appelle Valley country, the Canadian newspaperman has written: "It's beauty unfolds in leading vistas. Its grass and treecovered slopes fold into an unending series of draws and valleys. Its long deep lakes call for a boat or quiet fishing in the sun and, all the while, the air is bent by the calls of one of the greatest concentrations of birds in the country."

Improve Figure By This Exercise

A chest-building routine institutes a circumference . . . sit comfortably, with 3 — — — — and sufficiently wide apart to provide good balance when you begin swinging your arms. Stretch your right arm frontward as far as it will go, using an overarm stroke. Then, while you pull it backward through imaginary water, reach forward with your left arm.

Synchronize your strokes, so that one arm is moving forward while the other is retreating. Keep your palms downward as you pull.

Put real force behind your movements if you wish to derive greatest benefits from this workout.

ARE EVERYTHING

To avoid fatigue: Be sure your seat is comfortable, sit up straight, rest your eyes with a pair of good driving glasses, avoid starchy foods, eat lightly and go easy on liquids. Above all—Don't Drive If You Are Sleepy!

A one-foot piece of 2x4 will come in handy for placing under your jack should you have to change a tire in mud, sand or soft ground.

In the event that a flat tire makes your car too low to get the jack under the axle, do this: Remove the spare tire and place it in front of the wheel that is to be removed. Drive the car up on the spare tire and place the jack in position. Jack the car up until the flat tire is off the spare, then remove the spare from under the wheel and change the tire as usual.

Should you have to change a flat tire at the front wheels at night, and no flashlight or trouble light is available, a simple emergency measure is to turn on the front headlights and have an assistant reflect the light to the work area with a woman's small vanity mirror.

If it is necessary for you to make some minor car repairs at night while parked along a highway, provide for your safety by warning other motorists of your presence. If you have no red flares or reflectors available, shiny bottoms of tin cans or ladies' hand mirrors placed at 10 or 15-foot intervals along the road way about 100 yards to the rear of your car will serve as emergency reflectors.

When driving at night be continually on the lookout for pedestrians, stalled cars without lights and cattle on the roadway. Don't let your vacation end in tragedy because of the unexpected.

For safety's sake never leave valuables in your car or leave your car unlocked when it is unattended. Even when stopping at your nights' lodgings take all your valuables with you. Garages and parking lots may not be legally responsible for loss or theft of articles from your car.

A box of disposable tissue will come in handy for wiping the windshield, cleaning eyeglasses or wiping perspiration from the steering wheel and many other uses.

Highway maps covering the areas in which you are going to travel can be handily carried in a small manila folder in the glove compartment.

One occupant of the car should be held responsible for the highway navigation and should be briefed on the proper interpretation of highway map symbols. This will allow the driver to give his full attention to his driving and eliminate periodic stops to check locations.

All occupants of the car that smoke should use the ashtrays provided in the car. Don't throw cigarette or cigar butts or pipe heels from a moving car, as they can start a brush or forest fire. In many areas violators of this rule are subject to arrest and heavy fine.

WHY DROWN?

By I. E. Townsend, Former Saskatchewan Ont Mile Swimming Champion

Most of us consider that a group of from forty to fifty people is quite a sizeable gathering. If an entire group such as this was to meet a sudden death by drowning, the event would be no less than a national tragedy. Everyone will agree to this. And yet, every year, in our Province of Saskatchewan, a group of from forty to fifty people meet an untimely death by drowning. Because these sad events usually occur one at a time, they are not headlined in our newspapers as they would had they occurred all at once, but nevertheless, it is true that from forty to fifty people die each year in Saskatchewan through drowning.

In Canada, our highway fatalities are approximately 1,500 per year. Most people consider this to be an alarming figure, and so it is. On the other hand, our annual drownings each year total over 1,900. When you consider that most of us ride in cars more often, and for longer periods than we go swimming, it becomes obvious that our drowning accident figure is more appalling than the figure for our highway fatalities.

Time In Two

Surveys in Saskatchewan indicate that less than ten per cent, of our population is capable of swimming even a few feet to safety. Therefore, when ten people gather at a beach or other waterside places to go wading, swimming, or boating, we can expect to find only one of the number capable of swimming a short distance to save his own life, and the chances are slim that he or she would be capable of assisting anyone else. In other words, the average Saskatchewan dweller who bathes or boats is unsupervised places dependently become a very poor insurance risk.

A study of the cause of drowning accidents shows that each year is growing to inform the basic through the same means—non-swimmers venturing alone; swimming alone; waders stepping into deep holes, and so on. The simple rule that a safety watch every can should know are being ignored and the route are disastrous. Only too often do we see young people whom a pair of swimming trunks has transformed into Tarzans, leaving common sense ashore and dashing into the water. Urged on by the exhilaration of the water, and ignoring every water safety rule, they proceed to carry out every kind of dare and endeavor to outdo each other in physical prowess until, alas, one or more of them becomes a drowning victim and gets lillies on his chest from the innocents throng of pals on the back from his friends, expressing, we hope, have at last learned a lesson.

The Rules

The rules of water safety are nearly all so obvious that common sense should suggest most of them to us. But they are not. Cramps, heart attack cramps, which render a victim helpless, are liable to strike those who go swimming sooner than two hours after a heavy meal.

Non-swimmers—Fish, 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10. If Bobby does not answer with the correct name of a fish before he is asked, he has to drop out of the game. Also, persons who give the name of a thing that has been used before are disqualified. The person last to remain in the game is the winner

Non-swimmers should never venture beyond their depth, and then only when accompanied by a boat, or canoe, and then only keep within easy reach of it. Never go beyond your depth alone. Always keep within your depth when swimming alone. Non-swimmers should admit to themselves, too, that the only time they can expect to be safe in a small boat or canoe, even with a good swimmer along with them. Handling these boats is an art and a person unable to swim is not likely to have the necessary knowledge of water safety an't mastery to ensure the safe handling of such craft. If you are a person in this category, or even if you can swim, don't try to change places in a boat or canoe, and do keep your weight below the waterline in a canoe by kneeling on the bottom. The cross thwarts in a canoe were never intended as seats although the uninitiated persist in using them for such thin creating a top-heavy canoe that needs little more than a ripple on the water or a change of one of the paddlers to cause an upset.

All of this sounds pretty bad for the non-swimmer. And so it should be, for learning to swim is an easy and so simple that few have an excuse for not knowing how. So many people spend summer after summer wishing they could swim—and the strange part of it is, they can!! And so can you!!!

Golf has become one of Canada's most popular pastimes, and Grandad's real relaxation in the game after a trying motor trip. Many Dominion cities and towns boast smart and interesting courses.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. George Logan of Frog Lake celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on June 29th. Mr. and Mrs. W. Hogaboam of Derwent (cousins of the Logan's) and Mrs. Louis Baldock, a long standing friend, accompanied them from Allandale. All the family were present but one son and family from Victoria, B.C. Mr. and Mrs. Logan left Allandale in the early 20's and moved to Frog Lake. Special praise should be given to the Frog Lake community for putting on a gala reception at the Frog Lake hall. Songs were sung, among them "Star of the East" rendered by Mrs. Baldock. The family presented their parents with two easy chairs and a radio. From the community a large purse and other presents. In closing the day there was a dance which the esteemed couple did justice to and felt perhaps as young as they did fifty years ago. Our very best wishes, and together may you always find still greater joy in life, on each anniversary of the day that made you man and wife.

Wayne Bensmiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bensmiller, from New Westminster, B.C., is holidaying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meyers. He arrived on the C.N.R. July 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mayhew and family arrived at the O'Dye home for the long week end. They have been holidaying with relatives in B.C. and other points. Gordie O'Dye accompanied them back home to Bawlf and Elinor is staying with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bensmiller and son Bruce from New Westminster, B.C. and Ted Oscar's brother's accompanied them from Edmonton, and arrived July 4th. They motored to attend the Old Timers' picnic. The next day they visited friends in Allandale. Oscar left here in Bruce's age, 1925. He and family visited here ten years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Broadfoot from Saskatoon and Mr. and Mrs. W. Hogaboam from Derwent were visitors at the Baldock home for the long week end.

Wilson-Knight wedding took place July 4th. Congratulations and our very best wishes to Joyce and Tommy for a long and happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blagistad and family left July 9th for a holiday with Grandma Nelson (the latter's mother) at Fallis on Lake Wabamun.

Eddie Throndson has been spraying fields in this district and surrounding ones.

Our deepest sympathy to Mr. Garnies and family on the passing of a dear wife and mother.

Mrs. Woody Wilson, son Curtis and daughter Linda left July 5th for her home in B.C. to visit with her parents.

Our student minister Mr. MacMahon is away to Elk Island park boys' camp this week. Next week wedding bells will be ringing for he and his bride. A very thrilling experience for the field. More details later.

Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Don Wilson entertained a number of friends and relatives at a wiener roast last Monday evening just before the latter's sister left on her holidays to the States.

This Monday afternoon weather is still cloudy with showers of rain.

Closing Thought: I will weave threads of joy and radiance into the fabric of daily life.

The recent showers have greatly improved gardens and field crops hereabouts.

Everyone seems to be enjoying holidays according to their own ideas.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Coombe of Edmonton and Miss Helen Coombe of Red Deer spent a short time at the latter's home where a get-together was much enjoyed. A fellow students accompanied Helen. Their stay was short as both had jobs awaiting them. Helen is acting as nursing assistant at the Red Deer municipal hospital for the summer months. Her friend Ernest Fleming is employed at the O'Dye home for the long week end. They have been holidaying with relatives in B.C. and other points. Gordie O'Dye accompanied them back home to Bawlf and Elinor is staying with her grandparents.

Jasper Fish Are Biting
JASPER. — Thirty-five lakes and thirty-four streams were fished in Jasper National Park last year by 2500 anglers for a total of 10,500 Rainbow trout and Dolly Varden trout, according to Canadian National Railways.
The fishermen reported that, on the average 16 took 42 minutes to land a trout while river fishing, and almost an hour longer to make a lake catch. Artificial flies caught more trout than plugs, trolls or bait. Eastern Brook trout were the eager beaver of the 1950 season being caught more readily by any method than other species of Jasper fish.
More than 13,000 buffalo are found in five of Canada's National Parks.

Short on Farmers

An official of the Veterans' Land Act recently pointed out that the average age of the Ontario farmer owning and operating his own farm is now 54 years. No figures were given for the other provinces but they would probably be about the same, says The Financial Post which comments

This information reveals a startling change in the last quarter century. It means that there was a substantial and permanent migration of farm people to the industrial centres during the last war. It also means that if our basic industry is to thrive we will need a very large number of new farmers in the next ten or fifteen years.

We cannot expect that men past sixty will be able to continue active farm operations much longer. Riding a tractor in rough weather or choring around a barn at 6 a.m. on a cold winter morning, are not jobs for greybeards. Far more younger people are needed by Canadian agriculture.

From 1939 to 1951 Canada's federal government expenditures increased from $433,100,000 to $2,302,000,000. —Quick Canadian Facts.

Former Vermilion Man Weds

TAYLOR—OLSON

A quiet wedding took place recently at Coaux d'Alene, Idaho when Miss Marguerite Olson, only daughter of Mr. Elmer Olson of Edmonton, became the bride of Mr. Niel Albert Taylor, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor, also of Edmonton, formerly of Vermilion.

The Rev. Paul Brasne performed the ceremony when only immediate relatives and friends attended.

The bride was charming in a powder blue gabardine suit with white accessories. A corsage of pink roses completed her ensemble.

Miss Bertha McDonald of Edmonton was bridesmaid, wearing a navy blue sheer dress with navy accessories. A corsage of cream roses was pinned to her shoulder

Mr. Dan Ellis of Edmonton supported the groom

After a short honeymoon in the States and Banff the young couple will make their home in Edmonton.

Out-of-town guests were Mr and Mrs. Bert Taylor and son Lorne of Edmonton.

It should be explained that the ladies of the League have a cake at the last meeting of each month made by two or three of the ladies. This is to greet all members who had a birthday during the month.

Dainty and enjoyable refreshments were served by Miss Craig, Mrs. Harris and Miss L. Bishop.

The sick must not be forgotten and wherever they are we hope they will soon be attending our meetings again. Mrs. Auty, Mrs. Dow Sr. and Mrs. Guy Mayhew are now all home and out of hospital.

Some members are planning to attend the Home League camp at Bible Beach, lunch and weather permitting. Here's wishing all the members a happy holiday at this time and this thought is left with you.

Have you ever wandered away
From the Lord
In a strange and far-off place?
Do you know what it is to be sad and sorry
And long for a friendly face?
Then the friends you knew come in contact
And you cry for the path you once knew
You are a million miles from the fold it seems
But we are one little step from God.
Remember the shut-ins and the sick and you will be well repaid.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Arthur George Gerber
—who passed away July 20, 1950.
"Gone is the face we loved so dear.
Silent is the voice we loved to hear.
Too far away for sight or speech
Yet not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here,
And who though absent is just so dear."
—Ever remembered by his loving Mother and Father.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear husband
Arlow Ronald Gerber
—who passed away July 20, 1950.
"In time I saw you sinking,
I watched you fade away.
My heart was almost broken
You fought so hard to stay
But when I saw you sleeping,
So peacefully free from pain,
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again
They say time heals all sorrows
And helps us to forget,
But time has only proved to tell
How much I miss you yet."
—Always remembered and sadly missed by his loving wife.

The Salvation Army Home League Notes

The regular meeting of the Salvation Army Home League was held on June 27th with 21 members in attendance. After the regular opening song and prayer several business transactions were discussed, one of which was that the members would meet each Wednesday in the usual way in place of closing for the summer or meeting less during the month. With holidays here members thought it still nice to meet each week for an hour in the usual way.

The home baking sale was discussed but it was felt best — as discussed Wednesday, advertised Friday and held Saturday with successful results. Thanks Mr. Hill for the use of your store, your kindness is greatly appreciated. Many thanks to all who helped make this sale so successful.

Following resolution of business the balance of the evening was spent in a social hour.

Mrs. R. Chapman read a lesson. Lt. and Mrs. Chapman rendered a duet accompanying themselves with a piano accordion — musical item "Mommy Comes". This was greatly enjoyed. Captain Craig then favored with a humorous reading which brought smiles and laughter from all. Mrs. Auty then gave a very humorous reading entitled 'Leap Year' and was that ever a leap year! Not all leap years are not that bad girls so don't grave easily.

The evening drew to a close with contests and games, then to the accompaniment of oh's and ah's, a birthday cake was brought in.

Rumor has it that this was the work of Lieut. Chapman himself, but we don't feel sure as he took care to self a partner so you can see that

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hodgins Married Fifty Years

Esteemed Citizens Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Fifty years of a happy married life is a long tenure in any person's life. Such was the occasion when on Sunday afternoon last Mr. and Mrs. Hiram H. Hodgins celebrated their Golden Wedding in the presence of a large gathering of friends at George's Lower Deck. The 'Deck' was beautifully set out in a wealth of flowers, lighting and the bride's and beloved couple. The congratulatory address was delivered by Mr. Robt. Fair, M.P., in which he detailed the active part taken by Mr. Hodgins in community efforts and welfare ever since he came to the Vermilion district over forty years ago, and which has left a high mark support and co-operation of Mrs. Hodgins.

Hiram H. Hodgins and Celen Dale both of Shawville, Pontiac County, Quebec were married in the Presbyterian church at nearby Bryson on the 12th day of July, 1901. After their marriage they resided at Shawville. Five years later when Western Canada was opening up to settlers, Mr. Hodgins came to Alberta and located a homestead a few miles south of Vermilion, after filing and making the initial duties, he went back home and returned in the spring of 1907 with his family, Iris and settled on their farm where they remained until about two years ago when they sold out their holdings and took up residence in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins are active Vermilion grow from a few straggling buildings to what is now one of the most lovable progressive little towns in the West. They have one daughter Miss Elma Hodgins, a member of the staff of one of the local stores. During the time they were on the farm Mr. Hodgins took an active interest in whatever appertained to the welfare of the district, serving for several years on the Thorncliffe school board and on the council of the then Municipal District of Wildmere.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins was the recipient of many lovely gifts conveying in a tangible manner the love and esteem of admiring friends.

Mrs. W. Telford, an old friend of the family, poured tea, the servitours being Mrs. K. Baden, Mrs. Edna D. Taylor, Miss Beth Witherbe, Mrs. Arthur Hudson, Miss Alma Speirs. Miss Lil Hareuther, Miss Laura Hodgins, Miss Marina Capbell and Miss Dorothy Hudson. Miss Nan Milburn was in charge of the guest book.

A most delightful feature of the afternoon was the rendering of several vocal selections by the ladies, Margaret Mix, Mildred McAuley and Muriel Mix, assisted by Mrs. Gordon Gerber at the piano. The numbers received very hearty responses.

Among the out of town guests were: Three nieces of Mrs. Hodgins, Mrs. Dr. Hooper, Stettler; Mrs. D. Bernice Puffer; Mrs. Arthur Hudson and Mrs. Hudson's daughter, Dorothy, of Edmonton, and Mrs. Laura Hodgins of Lloydminster, a cousin.

The centre table was graced with a three-tiered wedding cake, the icings and decorations upon which were prepared by Mrs. George Capbell. The cake was flanked with four lighted candles and was the centre of attraction for all present.

After Mr. Hodgins had proposed the guests with an old time comic song, the reception closed with They are Jolly Good Fellows and 'Auld Lang Syne'. Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins both expressed their thanks and deep appreciation of the good wishes and greetings expressed by their many friends many of whom about eighty were present. Many others were detained by the inclement weather and road conditions from being in attendance.

Farm Women's Week A Success

AT V. S. A. — VERMILION LASSES DISPLAY WORK

With the largest enrollment of recent years Farm Women's week at the school of agriculture has proven most successful.

The ladies began registering on Sunday afternoon and by Monday evening, when the program began, over one hundred ladies were present. Many of these included visitors from Lloydminster and Vermilion who were specially interested in the displays of Art and Handicrafts.

The Special Sewing course got under way on Tuesday morning. The instruction was given by Miss Helen Mossom from the Olds school of agriculture. About thirty of the ladies enrolled in this section of the program and were most enthusiastic in following the pointers and precise leading to dressmaking art.

The instruction, comments, and philosophies pertaining to hair 'do's and 'dent's as presented by Paul Pierre, the beauty specialist from Edmonton were very interesting and entertaining. The ladies loved every minute of it!

Other items on the program included lectures and demonstrations on a wide variety of topics of interest and value to homemakers. Between sessions the ladies visited the school premises. The gardens, farm, flowers and livestock proved equally attractive this year and evoked much favorable comment.

The banquet on Tuesday evening with a banquet which Miss Christine McIntyre from the Olds school of agriculture was the guest speaker, Canadian Citizenship and Human Relations in the World Today'.

"GREEN ACRES"

ONTARIO HARVESTERS.

An urgent call has come from Ontario for farm help. Workers can go now and return before harvest in Alberta. Rates are all fixed and less we send farm workers down east now we can hardly expect Ontario to send any harvesters here on.

JUNIOR FIELD DAY

The school of agriculture, Vermilion, has invited all the junior club members in this part of Alberta to come in to a field day on the school grounds, Saturday afternoon July 21st. Local 4-H and Junior Club members in my district I advise Parents and friends to come in and bring a picnic lunch. Coffee is provided.

SEED CLEANER CANVASS

Several of the canvassers report good success in lining farmers who will buy shares in the seed cleaning plant to be built in Vermilion. It should be clearly understood that unless the local association can raise $10,000 the grants from the government and the municipality will not be forthcoming.

NEWCASTLE BRIDGE

Several cases of this disease of potatoes have been reported recently. The important thing to do to check the spread of the disease after an outbreak is to burn the tops and dig the potatoes. Anyone who has had the disease should report the same to your DA or to Dr. Hugh MacLeod, Vermilion. People failing to report are violating the Animal Diseases Act and can be prosecuted.

WATERING GARDENS

Both vegetables and flowers need plenty of water. Don't water the plants unless you can give them a good soaking. Sprinkling does more harm than good. Cultivate the soil after watering to keep the moisture in the soil. Mulching is also a good practice. Grass clippings, straw, leaves, sawdust, manure, etc. are all good mulches. Put on a layer about 2 inches thick around the plants. Mulching helps to keep the soil moist, keeps down weeds and helps to keep the soil cool.

CUT HAY EARLY

The wet weather has held up haying considerably. Tame hay should have been all cut and in the stack by this time. If we could see the loss in feeding value in a field of hay which is left too long we would worry more about it. It becomes woody, unpalatable and definitely much less per ton the longer it is standing.

175 Prize Winners Attend V.S.A. Short Course

Hon. Gordon Taylor Addresses Junior Farm Club Members

Junior Farm Club week was held at the Vermilion school of agriculture from Monday morning to Friday night last week, attended by one hundred and seventy-five boys and girls. The program for the week consisted of a number of lectures and demonstrations relating to the fields of agriculture and home economics given by members of the Vermilion school staff and various representatives of the department of agriculture who are specialists in their various fields. Laboratories, classrooms, gardens and plots provided excellent material for classes of this nature

Organized activities in addition included sports, an outdoor picnic with square dancing on the lawn, a banquet played by Stewart Eyben on his accordion, amateur night program, public speaking contest and a fashion review.

On the banquet Friday, evening special guests included J. D. Moore of Ottawa, field representative of Canadian Co-operative Implements and club work and Hon. Gordon Taylor, minister of highways who was guest speaker. Art and Handicraft Displays At V.S.A.

The Vermilion ladies who have been working together during the past winter on several different kinds of Handicrafts displayed their art last Monday evening at the school of agriculture for the interest and enjoyment of the ladies attending Farm Women's week.

Their work was grouped as follows:

Mrs. C. W. Stephens—Plaster of Paris casting and Figurine painting.
Mrs. Adam and Mrs. Cameron—Copper Tooling.
Mrs. Adam—Leathercraft.
Mrs. Davis—Rock Weaving.
Mrs. Miller—Petit Point.

The ladies who contributed to these display ran the very gamut of their achievements and have every reason to derive much satisfaction from the enthusiasm which their work created in the visitors at the college.

Other art and handicrafts shown at the same time included:

A Provincial Art display provided by the Cultural Activities branch of the Department of Economic Affairs and a display of a group of ladies from Lloydminster who have been working with and receiving instruction from Mr. Favasa. Their oil paintings, water colors, pencil drawings, copper etching and carbon point etching were of an exceptionally high calibre.

Golfer Devises New Stroke; Ball on Top Of Water Tower

Some Vermilion golfer has devised a new stroke because a brand new golf ball has been found on the catwalk around the Vermilion water tower, 90 feet above the ground. Bernie Ackerman, waterworks superintendent, made the discovery on an inspection of the tower. Beside the ball was a coke bottle top. Bernie thinks that a crow or magpie had grabbed the new ball from the golf course thinking that it was an egg and had taken it to a safe refuge to enjoy a good meal. Just imagine his chagrin at first log that it was nothing but a golf ball — the bird laugh was on him.

Presbyterian Mission'ry To Serve South Field

Mr William Brown who recently arrived from Scotland has taken up duties as missionary in the district of Tollard, Hindville, Woodvale and Union under the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Mr. Brown was educated at McGill university and the University of Glasgow. He was missionary at Chalk River, Ont., for three years when a student at McGill. Whilst in Glasgow he held three charges before being appointed travel-secretary of the Presbyterian Interfellowship association between Great Britain, Canada and the U.S.A.

Mr. Brown is well known in eastern Canada where he has been guest preacher in Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, and has broadcast and preached in Trenton, New York and Philadelphia city churches.

Pleasant Valley

Everyone is pleased to hear that Mr. Miller is improving. Slowly it is true, but still his condition is definitely better.

The old school was a lively place on Friday night with a good crowd in attendance. There was also a community shower held there on Tuesday night for Maurice Gould and his bride, so this district is not lacking for social activity after all.

The Rev. and Mrs. Morrie spent the week end at the writer's on their way home to Turtleford after a happy holiday at Jasper.

The rains came at last and they were certainly needed hereabouts for the crops and gardens.

The writer, her husband, Mrs. Gilroy and Jer, and Mrs. J. Gould and family were supper guests at Mr. and Mrs. Waterfield's.

Arrangements for the trip were made through the Vermilion TCA office of Robinson and Mitchell, Vermilion.

United Church Setting For Pretty Wedding

MacMAHON—BOSLEY

A wedding of widespread interest took place in the First United, Vermilion, Alberta, on Wednesday, July 11th when Frances Leigh, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bosley of Halifax, N.S., was united in marriage with Mr. Donald Carleton MacMahon, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carleton MacMahon, also of Halifax. The Rev. Jack Mitchell officiated and the organists was Mr. W. R. Elford.

Given in marriage by Mr. Tom Dick, the bride looked lovely in a gown of white satin and slight train, styled with a sweetheart neckline, long waisted and gathered over the hips and across the back. the sleeves came to a point over the fingers. She wore a floor length veil of British illusion veiling, held in place by a coronet of veiling and clusters of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls a gift of the groom. She carried a crescent bouquet of red roses.

The bride was attended by Miss Orlena Onuness as bridesmaid, who wore a pale green nylon sheer with green colored headpiece. She carried a shower bouquet of yellow carnations.

The pretty little flower girl was Judy Field who made a charming picture in a dress of yellow organdie with matching headpiece. Her bouquet was of yellow roses and other summer flowers.

The best man was Carl Currie and the ushers were Keith Flemry and Jesse Limbree, all Pte 1941 Legal stickers.

During the signing of the register Mr. Hill sang "Because"

The church was beautifully decorated with summer flowers. The altar was banked with peonies, roses and delphiniums.

A reception was held on the lawns of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hill where fifty guests assembled to do honour to the young couple.

The toast to the bride was given by Mr. J.W.G. Morrison, K.C., and responded to by the groom. Mrs. W. S. Cash presided at the tea table which was centred with a bowl of pedestal white tapers. The servers were Mrs. Lyle Robinson, Mrs. G. Onuness, Misses Patsy and Betty Cross, Kay Dwyer, Leslie Robson, Faye McLennan and Miriam Cash.

The three tier wedding cake which the bride had brought from Halifax, centred a table with a Madeira cloth and was surrounded by tulle festooned with roses and silver vases of pompoms.

Mrs. Dick, who acted as mother of the bride, was lovely in a grey ensemble with corsage of white and fuchia carnations.

Out of town guests for the wedding were the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson all from Maidstone, Sask. Rev. Vogel of Kitscoty, Alberta.

For travelling the bride wore a two-piece navy blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride threw her bouquet to the traditional maiden which was caught by Orlene Onuness.

Many telegrams were received with best wishes for the young couple from Halifax.

On the return from their honeymoon trip, the happy couple will reside in Glenwood at the home of the groom, having sold the United Church Mission house.

Teachers' Salaries Give Vegreville Division Board Bother

At the last meeting of the trustees of Vegreville School Division the Board met with the Teachers' Negotiating committee of the local A. T. A. and further discussions took place on a salary schedule for the coming year. The Board made a final offer of increased in basic salaries for intermediate and secondary teachers, together with a small increment for experience of $360. The teachers agreed to submit the Board's offer to a ballot of the staff membership.

Meeting was attended by Chairman Hinton and Trustees Mondrusk, Henderson, Forsyko, Thompson and Cok.

Minutes of the previous meeting read and accepted. The treasurer's report was considered together with accounts payable for June. Correspondence was read and the Board interviewed a number of ratepayers re pupil transportation.

Wm. Kuit was granted a year's leave of absence.

Due to an increase in enrolments the Board may find it necessary to open another room at Mundare School. Chairman Hinton and trustee Henderson will arrange for the necessary accommodation.

Building reports showed Vegreville high school well on the way to completion and a start will be made on the new building at Minburn. The Board authorized par-

Chatsworth Chatter

Showers and occasional heavy rains have continued to aid greatly in the progress of the crops, but weather continues much too cold for this time of year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. East have as their visitor the latter's sister, Mrs. Witherspoon, from the east. She arrived two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hutchinson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Angus Anderson and family, all of Calgary, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Towell.

The July meeting of the Chatsworth local of the F.U.A. was held at the school on Wednesday July 11 with thirteen in attendance. The business of the meeting, including the report of the District 7 convention held in Vermilion, given by Mrs. E. Thompson, was dealt with as quickly as possible, as the field man for the U.G.G. and Mr. N McLean were present with a number of films to be shown at the conclusion of the meeting. Some fifty people attended the showing of the pictures, which proved quite enjoyable. Lunch was served at midnight.

Mrs. Frank Farkash and Johnny were visitors to Minburn to the home of Mrs. Farkash Parent's parents, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Patterson are holidaying in Winnipeg where they are visiting relatives of Mrs. Patterson whom they haven't seen for over twenty-seven years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shields and three children of Florida, U.S.A., were recent visitors to Vermilion with Jack's brother, Dave of Mannville. This is Jack's first trip back to Vermilion in ten years and he notes quite a few changes in Vermilion and district They were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Tom Shields of Black Diamond, Alberta.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Farquhar (nee Margaret Towell) of Edmonton, on the birth of a daughter Monday July 9th; and to Mr. and Mrs. Morrison (nee Charlotte Ferguson) of Vancouver, on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kochan have a new baby daughter, born Sunday July 1st.

House Hit by Lightning

Steve Stunt's house was struck by lightning on Monday last, shortly after noon, and some damage was done to the chimney and roof. At the time no one was at home, and fortunately, the building did not catch fire. Evidently the charge struck the chimney, descended the roof and was grounded by way of the radio aerial.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY

AFTERNOON IN THE PARK

By Norman C. Adlington

What This Young Man Had To Say Was Only To A Thumper.

IT WASN'T really a park, although it was called one, but it was pleasing to the eye after the canyons of the city. The few trees that adorned the benches in summertime put on a brave show with their autumn tints, but the flower beds were scrubby and neglected, and the patch of grass that contained them was not much bigger than a pocket handkerchief. The gravel path that circled it could be traversed in less than a minute, even if one walked as slowly as the young man in the tweed jacket.

The only other person in the park occupied one of the benches. He was an elderly man, with tired, gentle eyes that had been watching the man in the tweed jacket ever since he had first turned in from the street.

The young man seemed unaware of by the other's presence. Each time he neared the bench and turned, after his endless round of the park, he hesitated as though about to speak, then continued pacing. There was no surprise to the older person when the walker, after one of his brief hesitations, seated himself abruptly on the bench beside him. The corner of the bench was the only part of it a man who wished to unburden himself to anyone would occupy. The old man sighed inwardly. The role of confidant had been thrust upon him many times in the past.

The young man wasted no time plunging into what he had to say. He sat for a moment flexing his fingers, as though trying to overcome a reluctance to begin, then began with a sudden rush.

"I guess you'll think I've got a nerve," he said, speaking rapidly and in a low voice, "but I've got to talk to someone. I'm in a jam, and even talking about it will help. You needn't worry. I'm not after money or anything, I just want some advice. Besides, what I have to say I could only say to a stranger. Your kindly old head why before I'm through." He broke off, then looked at the old man with distrought eyes from a face that was lined with worry.

His emotion did not reply. He watched the speaker with a face that was grave and sympathetic, but silent. The man in the tweed jacket felt encouraged by what he saw, and continued in the same rapid voice. He focused his eyes on the ground while he talked.

"I'm a jail bird," he said. "That's not an easy thing to tell you. I'm also a parole breaker. That's a foolish thing to tell you, because you could turn me in if you wished. What I'm trying to do now is decide whether to give myself up or not. But that's not all of the problem. I wish to heaven it was!"

He paused, but if he expected any comment from the old man, he was disappointed.

"There's a girl in it, too," went on the man in the tweed jacket. "That's what makes it tough. She doesn't know about the other. You see, we're going to be married next month. But maybe I'd better begin at the beginning. I was just a punk kid when I went to jail. It's the old story. I traveled with the wrong crowd when I left school, and thought there were easier ways to make a living than working. We got caught on the first job we tried to pull off. I was out on parole after a year, because of my age, and that's when the going really got tough. I was supposed to get a job, and report to the police once a week, but no one in my home town would take a chance on me. So I did what a good many other men have done in my position. Rather than drift back into my old ways, I pulled out for the city, and got a job where no one knew me. That's when I met Marie. Marie was something special in girls. I was very happy. I stopped reporting to the police."

The young man was silent for a while, while he made aimless patterns in the gravel with the toe of his shoe. His companion paused as though expecting presently he went on with his story.

"I'm certain Marie has the same feeling for me that I have for her," he said. "Otherwise I don't suppose she'd be willing to marry me. But I haven't quite the nerve. I just couldn't stand losing her, yet I feel that I owe it to her to tell her everything before we're married. He looked squarely at the old man. "A guy never gets has been around long enough to know all the answers. Maybe I tell her everything, then go to the police and take whatever breaks a guy, or not!"

The old man returned his gaze unblinkingly, and without speaking. But a slow soft smile that was quite full of understanding spread across his features, and he nodded his head slowly.

"That's all I want to know." The young man got to his feet resolutely. "I'll go and tell her now, before I change my mind again. Thanks for listening."

The old man watched until he could no longer see the tweed jacket amongst the crowd passing on the sidewalk. He felt troubled. The young man had seemed genuinely distressed. On the many, many afternoons he had sat in the park, the old man had been forced to listen to various tales of woe. A few had been moving, but most of them were morbid and generally culminated in a request for money. In self defence the old man, who was quite deaf, now made a practice of leaving his hearing aid at home. He sometimes wished that he had had it with him today.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

July 16, 1935

Biggest political demonstration ever held in Vermilion took place on Wednesday night when 2500 people crowded into the arena to hear Wm. Aberhart expound the cause of Social Credit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gilchrist of Islay celebrated their golden wedding.

Editor S. R. F. Cooper expected to leave for Toronto to attend the convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper association. He came west 38 years ago and has never been back. He will be accompanied by his son Percy.

Thursday, Aug. 22 was the date set for the Alberta elections.

Warm weather was writing Vermilionites — 94 and 92 above in the shade with other days nearly as high during the week.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

July 15, 1919

Messrs Giles, Woodruff, Dupuis and Sherwood, stock farmers northeast of Vermilion, left this Wednesday morning by team on a three weeks' trip into the country north of the Saskatchewan River with the intention of locating greener fields for their cattle. A number of the stockmen find it necessary under existing conditions with a big shortage of feed in sight to either dispose at a large percentage of their cattle or to locate other feeding grounds.

Brick work on the new Stephens' store premises is about completed.

Splendid rains, a real blessing, fell throughout the country.

Contractors are engaged in laying the cementwalk around the main business block.

It is strange how people do not care to take this examination. One would think if they do not care for themselves they should consider the possibilities of being a carrier and thus a menace to others. 413 passed through the clinic at this point.

Expanding Resources

IN THE PAST, the prairie provinces were associated in the minds of most Canadians with the production of wheat and livestock. It is unlikely that the fertile land of the west will ever cease to be one of the world's great food-producing areas, but in recent years the discovery of oil and minerals on the prairies have opened new occupations and provided added prosperity for the people there. This has been particularly true in Alberta, where the oil and gas deposits have been of great importance not only to the people of that province but to the Canadian and free world as a whole.

A Shortage Of Sulphur

It is now known that these deposits are to be of further importance in providing a light which is an essential chemical in many important industrial processes. For the last fifty years the greater part of the world's supply of sulphur has come from wells in Texas. The supply however, is now nearly exhausted and other deposits from which sulphur can be mined have not been found. Another source of this important chemical is in the by-products obtained in the refining of oil and natural gas. The natural gas produced in the southern part of Alberta contains sulphur, which has to be taken out before the gas can be used as fuel.

Is Essential In Industry

In the past, sulphur removed from the natural gas in Alberta has not been used but now two companies have announced plans for extracting it and other chemicals from the gas in a region north of Edmonton. There is also prospect of extracting sulphur from the tar sands of the Athabasca river. Sulphur is essential to the production of pulp and paper, one of Canada's greatest industries and it is a basic chemical in the other important industrial processes. The prospect of producing sulphur in Alberta will be of interest to industrialists not only in Canada, but in other countries as well in view of the impending world shortage of this important chemical.

Don't Try To "Stick" The Tourist, Show Courtesy And Service

—Alberta Government Minister Urges

Don't try to stick the tourist, be truthful and don't exaggerate Alberta's attractions, always show tourists kindness, courtesy and service.

That was the main message delivered by Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of economic affairs for Alberta.

Mr. Hooke said that tourists don't come to Alberta primarily to spend money. They come for recreation, for reasons of health for fishing and hunting and often to look over business prospects.

"Sticking" the tourist, over-charging for food, accommodation or services would be killing the goose that lays the golden egg, he declared.

We don't want people to think that Alberta is only for tourists with plenty of money to spend."

Exaggeration of the attractions of Alberta, the minister said, was not only unnecessary but would probably lead to bad results. With Alberta's wonderful scenery, good fishing and hunting, there is no need to build it up bigger than it is.

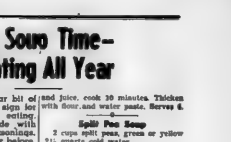
Courtesy and service, he said, would result in the best kind of advertising the province could get — tourists going home and telling their friends what a wonderful place Alberta was for a vacation. There were more than a million visitors to Alberta last year, he pointed out, and if each one was satisfied with what he found it would be the same as hiring a million salesmen to sell the attractions of the province.—Milton News.

Beautiful Girl Can't Be Dumb, Says Expert

HOLLYWOOD. — There are no "beautiful but dumb" girls, declares Busby Berkeley, who has been directing beauties in filmusicals for 30 years and who currently is directing the dance numbers for "Two Tickets to Broadway".

"A girl can't be beautiful and be dumb," says Berkeley, "because intelligence is a vital ingredient of true beauty. The lame brain or the blind wit can't make the grade before the movie camera."

Summer Beverages



A party of cyclists in Riding Mountain National Park, Manitoba.

Iced Lemonade

1 lemon
6 tbsp. diluted honey
1 cup ice cubes

Mix lemon juice and diluted honey; all glass with iced water.

Orange Cooler
(6 to 8 glasses)

Two cups orange juice, ½ cup lemon juice, ¼ cup maraschino cherry juice, 1 cup gingerale, 3 tablespoons honey, 1 pint vanilla ice cream.

Mix fruit juices and gingerale; add honey and mix well. Chill thoroughly. Add ice cream, whisk until smooth and pour into glasses and top with fresh orange slices.

Strawberry Drink

Take a quarted of ripe hulled berries, crush with a wooden spoon, mixing with the juice a quarter of a pound of pulverized sugar and half a pint of cold water. Pour mixture into fine sieve, rub through and filter until clear. Add strained juice of one lemon and one and a half pints of cold water. Mix thoroughly and put in refrigerator to cool. Serve with or without ice cubes.

Williamsburg Fruit Punch
(Makes about 2 gallons)

Two quarts strong tea (made with 16 tea bags or 16 teaspoons of tea), 2 cups lemon juice (strained), 4 cups orange juice (strained), 1½ quarts grape juice, 2 cups sugar, 2 quarts water, 1 quart gingerale.

Mix tea, fruit juice, sugar and water and chill. Just before serving add gingerale and pour over a large piece of ice in punch bowl. Makes about 2 gallons.

Punch

2 cups apple juice
1 cup orange juice
½ cup lemon juice
1 cup diluted honey
2 cups gingerale

Combine first four ingredients and chill thoroughly before serving; add the gingerale.

Grange-Lemon Punch

2 cups boiling water
1 teaspoon tea
2½ cups sugar
1 cup lemon juice
3 cups orange juice
2 quarts ice water or tea

Pour boiling water over tea. Steep five minutes. Strain. Dissolve sugar in warm tea. Cool. Combine all ingredients. May be served over block of ice in punch bowl, using ice water. Garnish with orange and lemon slices. This amount fills an ordinary punch bowl. To serve a larger number, have sugar, tea and fruit juices mixed in the correct amounts to refill punch bowl as needed. Tea, flavored with orange blossoms gives this punch a novel and delicious flavor. Serves 16.

Fruit Cocktail

½ cup pear juice
½ cup orange juice
1 tbsp. lemon juice
1 tin grapefruit
½ tsp. green vegetable coloring
2 drops peppermint extract

Blend together. Chill and serve.

Special Iced Tea

Three cups of tea, ½ cup lemon juice, ½ cup orange juice, sugar to taste, 1 pint gingerale, 6 mint sprigs, 2 slices orange.

Make tea double strength and pour it over chopped ice or ice cubes. Add orange and lemon juice and as much sugar as desired. Add gingerale when ready to serve. Serve with ice in tall glasses with a sprig of mint and a slice of orange in each glass.

Cheese Good On Children's Menu

Cheese, one of the plentiful dairy foods, is good for children. Easy to digest, it supplies protein equivalent to meat, as well as calcium and other essential minerals and vitamins.

Use cheese, not only at meals, but for in between snacks for budget family nutrition.

Creamy Cheese Spread
One-half cup (4 oz.) pimento or chive cheese spread, 3 tablespoons sour cream, dash salt, crisp salted crackers.

Cream the cheese spread with the sour cream and salt. Spread generously on crackers and serve with tall glasses of milk. The mixture may be stored, tightly covered, in the refrigerator for future use

Cream Cheese And Jelly Bats

One 3-oz. package cream cheese, plain nut bread, cut into squares, crab apple or red currant jelly.

Toasted Cheese Strips
(Makes 10 strips)

Eight slices white bread, 4 tablespoons butter, 4 slices American cheese.

Butter bread and spread over slices of bread. Trim crusts. Put one slice of cheese on each slice of bread. Cover with second bread slice. Cut each sandwich into four strips. Place in hot oven (400 degrees F.) until golden brown, turn and toast other side. Serve fresh from the oven.

Cottage Cheese Snacks

One-half teaspoon grated onion, 1 cup cottage cheese, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, ½ teaspoon salt, dash pepper, ½ teaspoon celery salt, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, crackers.

Combine all ingredients except crackers. Blend in refrigerator in a tightly covered refrigerator. When ready to serve place a generous spoonful on each cracker and serve with hot cocoa or milk and honey buns.

Aid Rules For Accidents On Highway

CHICAGO.—Some simple first aid rules for those road crashes that often leave the extent of automobile accident injuries are suggested.

To help motorists remember these important first aid "firsts", Dr. J. D. Willems, medical director of the Lumbermens Mutual Casualty Co., has reduced them to their simplest terms:

1. Keep calm and take a good look to see what has happened.

2. If the accident victim is unconscious ask where he is injured.

3. If the victim is unconscious take his pulse to be sure he's alive.

4 Call a doctor and ambulance if the injuries are serious.

5 Try to avoid moving the victim as improper movement aggravates injury.

6 Should immediate removal be necessary, two or three persons should do it, lifting from the same side to allow the victim to remain in the same position.

7 Any bleeding should be stopped at once, either by compress or cloth.

8 If fractured arm or leg is suspected, broken bones should be splinted. Remember, Dr. Willems emphasized, that while these first emergency measures are only stopgaps until the doctor arrives, they often lessen the pain of injury.

WILDMERE WINKS

Will those sending old woollens to be made into blankets through our club please send along the money to defray expenses. Funds are very low. They would not be able to redeem them when they come back from the mills, but would be hard to get into contact with each and everyone, as if you haven't handed in your name to us with the woollens please do so before they return. This motion was passed at the last W.I. meeting and has nothing to do with the club shipper every Fall. We will have the money until the blankets come back. We trust that this will clear up any misunderstanding.

We understand that Mr. A. Rendell of Wrangle has sold his farm to Mr Evan Costin and that he and Mrs. Rendell are selling for a holiday to Scotland sometime in the last of August or first week of September. It will be Aubrey's first time home since he came out to this many years ago. We all wish them a pleasant and safe journey to the homeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Costin have been visiting at the coast for a few weeks where they have been holidaying.

The curlers' picnic and dance was a decided success. While it was a rather cool day a nice crowd turned out to both. Some good ball games were enjoyed and races. Mayor Alex Ross on run but so can Mr. Wilson while she came in first in the race at the dance. At the dance Jeb and Freddie Martin furnished the music and J. Wallington was M.C.

The writer had the pleasure on Saturday of meeting Miss Jessie Allwyn with her sister Mrs. Elward. They both plan on a holiday to the coast. We also chatted with Mrs. Woodruff. Mrs. Smith Sr. and Mrs. T. Smith, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Gould, and her daughter Lorna at the tea rooms. Mrs. H. Perkins and many others.

Mr and Mrs. J. Wilson are holidaying this week. They are attending the Chinook Exhibition and will journey on to Jasper for a few days.

Medical Services Discussed By The Wildmere F.U.A.

At a meeting held in Wildmere school Medical Services again came in for considerable discussion. It was decided that henceforth, before signers could be accepted, the patron must show that he or she is a member in good standing of the F.U.A. This is only fair since the group is sponsoring Medical Services in this district. Those signing up now will be carried through 1952 as members of the F.U.A.

The next meeting of the Wildmere F.U.A. will be held in the Wildmere school Wednesday, Aug. 1st at 8:00 p.m. which is the cut-off date for the new contract.

The delegates then gave a report of the recent district convention held in Vermilion. There will be a full report in the 'Organized Farmer.' Watch for it.

The St. Stephens College Fund

In keeping with the general enlargement of the University of Alberta buildings over the years, the theological college of the United Church of Canada, known as St. Stephens college finds itself considerably underpaid, understaffed and outdated during the past forty years. To offset this a renovation and extension project for the college, is now underway and for which the sum of $125,000 is being raised from the church membership and its supporters throughout the province. A local drive for funds in Vermilion is being organized under the chairmanship of Mr. Bainbrugh. The cause is worthy and the need is urgent. When you are solicited be generous.

Grand Weather For Fair Opening

Dramatic Six-Horse Drive Saturday Afternoon

Scintillating Saturday Program

Vermilion's annual fair opened with a bang on Thursday with the biggest entry in years. Classy livestock from all parts of the province and from Saskatchewan is very much in evidence and the three gala days so long awaited by Vermilion and district people promise to outshine any fair held in the area previously. The display building is filled with interesting exhibits and the exhibition hall is crammed to the gunnels with the handiwork of district people.

Livestock exhibits are extremely heavy a feature of the show being the 97 light horses which have taxed horse barns to capacity; thirty horses from Edmonton under the general management of Dr. W. Hudson Scott, former resident of Vermilion, present a fine picture in action and local exhibitors vie with them for the championships in the various classes. Beef cattle and dairy classes are well filled and the fine heavy horse entries of Dryden Bros. of Manville, Manson Bros. and the Burns family of Pickardville promise a very interesting three days for lovers of good horses. The Bobby Burns six-horse team will be seen in dramatic action in front of the grandstand on Saturday afternoon. In addition to the famous six-horse drive there will be ample action on the track and in the ring in front of the stands on Saturday afternoon.

Vermilion's fair is rapidly taking the lead for its class in Western Canada and it is certain that, given a continuance of Thursday's fair weather, all previous attendance records will go by the boards.

Valuable Information Announced

Old Age Application Forms Now Available

EDMONTON—Application forms for old age pensions are now available in all post offices throughout Alberta, Mr. Gilliman, minister of Old Age Security, H. C. L. Gilliman, said in Edmonton on Monday.

Persons who are planning on receiving old age pensions do not have to fill out new application forms, Mr. Gilliman stated. Lists of names and addresses are being obtained from provincial records and transferred to federal files without any action being required on their part. Alberta has approximately 18,250 persons in this group. Those who are receiving a $40 a month pension will have a total level, and those who are getting a partial pension will find it increased by $10.

Alberta has approximately 25,000 persons aged 70 or over not now getting pensions who will be eligible for a pension under the new program, Mr. Gilliman said. It is essential, he emphasized, that these people send in their applications immediately, so that proof of age and residence in Canada may be checked and all arrangements completed for the first cheque to go out toward the end of next January.

Delay in sending in an application may mean that the application can not be put through in time for the January cheque issue. The longer the delay the greater the chance that the application can be handled in time.

Applicants must prove their age, and the proof should be sent along with the application form. Birth or baptismal certificates are best evidence. Other documents that will be considered include records of family bibles, church rolls or registers, marriage records, communion certificates, passports and acknowledgments of age by insurance companies.

If you cannot send evidence of this kind, please send any documents you do have that support your claim of age. These documents will, of course, be returned to you. If you cannot send anything to prove your age, send in your application anyway stating that you have no documentary support for your claim of age. You will then be told what you must do about proving your age." Mr. Gilliman said.

The pension cheques will be addressed to the pensioner himself, although provision will be made to pay the pension to some other person or agency when this becomes necessary because of the pensioners illness or infirmity.

Plane Sprayer Attracts Interest At Airport

A Piper Cub equipped with a field crop spraying device landed at the Vermilion airport and refueled here this week. Pilot Craig, in charge of the craft, from Wilkie, Sask., reports excellent results are being secured from weed spraying by air-plane.

He was on his way to Edmonton where he had contracted to spray four hundred acres. The standard charge is $1 per acre. The only difference in plane spraying and the machine type used here is that diesel fuel is used in the mixture sprayed from the air instead of water.

In mileage, the C. N. R. is the largest railway in North America and is the only railway serving all ten provinces of Canada.

BUILT TO SUMMER WEATHER

The first week of summer weather is being experienced - that is it will be a week if it hangs out until Saturday. Nice warm settled days started Sunday, the high for the month, 82, was hit on Monday with Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday being equally nice. This is the first consecutive set of warm days this year we have experienced this year.

In this connection it is interesting to note that the high temperatures for previous July 26th were: 1950, 94; 1917, 91; 1948, 87, 1949, 93; 1950, 92; 1951 to date, 82.

.26 inches of rain fell in a brisk shower last Friday night.

Crops are showing wonderful growth and development.

Many are wondering if meat prices have now reached the peak, many mountain topes especially when they compare them with those prevailing in 1937-38. In those days they could buy beef stew for 8 cents a pound, now they cough up over 30 cents per pound count 'em now 30c. rib roast 15c, now 80c; round steak 15c now 80c; sirloin 20c, now $1.00. hamburger 10c, now 70c. One pound of each in 1938 would total 70 cents; now $4.70. People were well fed then and meat market men waxed fat.

What makes Vermilion BIGGER makes Vermilion BETTER.

George Says This Was Just A Slight Touch

George Neesham thinks that Vermilion has a freedom align on him and no wonder! A month ago, George who now makes his headquarters in Vegreville, parked his car behind a huge oil tanker on a Vermilion street. The driver who found it necessary to back up before going ahead, put a great big bend in the side of George's 1951 model Meteor car. This cost $311 to straighten out and fix up. He didn't yield. Vermilion again until Saturday, parked his car in front of his house at the rear end of the town where traffic isn't so heavy, but on his return found that some unknown had slashed the left tire and put another dent in it. However, says George, it was just a slight touch this time, $10 fixed it up.

Dr. A. H. Goodwin, who is now living at Vermilion, was calling on old friends in Vegreville this week. While he has not been living in Vegreville for a long time, Doc still regards this as his 'home town' and is interested all the time in every phase of its progress. Forty years ago he was mayor and it was under his regime that the first waterworks and sewage system was installed. Town council meetings in those days were definitely tough and unparliamentary language was a common feature of every meeting. Our councillors today are only shades compared with the old boys, as Doc Goodwin will readily recall. He is going to Nova Scotia soon with the Shriners' Hereford Dancers special excursion.

Compulsory Vehicle Testing Program Under Way

More than 300 garages and service stations throughout the province have been notified by the Provincial Secretary's department of appointment as official stations for testing passenger cars and motorcycles as required by Alberta's first compulsory vehicle testing program.

This campaign is the result of an amendment to The Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act passed at the last session of the Legislature.

Appointees have been supplied with certificates of approval, stickers, test charts and complete instructions and are now in a position to serve the public in the matter of the inspection of passenger cars and motorcycles. Applications for appointment by garages and service stations are being dealt with in order received, and those which meet the requirements are given the appointments without delay.

No deadline on this inspection will be set until the Government is certain that all passenger car and motorcycle owners have had ample time to take advantage of the testing facilities.

"We are very pleased with the response from the motoring public to date and the excellent cooperation received in the program we have instituted in the hope of reducing accidents on our highways", reported F. R. Hughes, Deputy Provincial Secretary.

Mr. Ivan J. Peterson of the Edmonton M.S.I. office will address the meeting and answer all questions.

Please be there by 8.00 p.m. as Mr. Peterson has to be back in Edmonton on Wednesday morning. This meeting cancels the one previously announced.

DRILLING FOR OIL NEAR DEWBERRY

TOWN BUZZES WITH ACTIVITY

Great interest has been aroused in Dewberry over the prospect of oil in the district. The big rig of General Petroleums is now set up on the farm that was known as the Louis Gardiner place at Hazeldine. This is one of the big drilling outfits of the company and can go to a depth of 3000 feet. Cement has been poured at the 500 foot mark and drilling has again resumed. The derrick can be seen for miles and is quite a sight at night when it is all lit up.

Several bus and trucks loaded with people from the reserves to the north have been passing town on their way to the annual mission at Lac St. Anne on July 24 and 25.

Wally Jones, local farmer, has taken over the operation of the drying service in Dewberry.

Business is really booming in Dewberry. A crew of 14 is building an annex to the U.G.G. elevator. Oil workers are staying in the village. A new four room school will soon be started. Mr. Oliver Beer and Anderson are erecting a house for the A.P. Grain agent here. The town has quite a number of car trailer houses within its borders too.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Lavden have returned from a three weeks trip to Oregon where they visited relatives. They found the weather very hot and uncomfortable at times.

Crops are looking very good in this district although late. A lot of crop has again been sprayed this year to kill weeds.

Jack Rogstad is back from the gold mines of the north.

Peggy Dawn, Roy Butz and Bruce Craige are at the F.U.A. summer camp at Hardisty.

Listen folks, keep your eyes and ears open for the fiunliest picnic of the year to be held at Mr. Grey's bridge shortly. Four teams of men dressed as women are to play softball and that 'ain't all'. Look for posters.

Dorothy Folk Wed On Parents' Anniversary

HODGSON—FOLK

St. Stephen's College chapel, Edmonton, was the setting for an attractive bridal Wednesday when Miss Dorothy Margaret Folk exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Ernest Daniel Hodgson in a ceremony performed by Rev. Sinclair Reikie of Dawson Creek, brother-in-law of the groom, and Rev. W. T. Young.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Folk of Vermilion. The groom is the son of Mrs. H. H. Hodgson and the late Mr. Hodgson of Edmonton.

For her wedding day, which also marked her parents' 30th wedding anniversary, the bride chose a gown of ivory brocaded satin fashioned with a Peter Pan collar on the fitted bodice. Her lace-edged veil of French illusion fell from a mantilla headdress. She carried a shower bouquet of deep red roses and stephanotis.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Rob Wilson of Stony Plain was matron of honor and little Margaret Reikie was flower girl.

A gown of aqua taffeta was worn by Mrs. Wilson. She wore a matching bandeau in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of pink Sweetheart roses.

The flower girl wore a yellow taffeta frock and carried a nosegay of pink Sweetheart roses.

Mr. Bernard Greene was best man and ushers were Mr. Sherrod Thorney of Grimshaw and Mr. James Craig of Carmangay.

During the signing of the register Mrs. R. Meyers of Lone Rock, Sask., sang "Because" accompanied by Mr. Robin Stewart.

Later a reception for about 65 guests was held in Metropolitan United Church hall.

Sharing honors at the tea urns were Mrs. Roy Cox, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Sinclair Reikie, sister of the groom.

To receive her guests the bride's mother wore a violet crepe dress with yellow accessories. The groom's mother wore a dusty rose crepe frock with gray accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton.

ETHELWYN NEWS

We hope that everyone else is sharing in the rains this district has been enjoying lately. Crops and garden are progressing and look very good and are well advanced despite the late spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Taylor have returned from a six weeks' trip to B.C. They visited relatives and many old friends. Among those sending back greetings to friends here were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Seed at Trail, Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Ketchum in Kelowna, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Martin at Lumby, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Lawrence of Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoglund (nee Bessie Watkins) Enderby and Mr and Mrs. R. French and Joyce of Kelowna. The day before Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left Kelowna, Louis' sister Mrs. Tom Lambie of Landonville arrived to celebrate the birthday of their mother Mrs. French. The Taylor's report a grand trip, friends and strangers alike did everything possible to add to their pleasure. When we read in the papers of so much distrust and suspicion among nations and mankind the following incident is heartwarming: The only trouble encountered on the Taylor's trip was a broken trailer wheel at Kimberly over 800 miles from home. The local garages could not supply a wheel of the same make and they their travel with the trailer appeared hopeless. A garage man however told them of a Mr. Aldrich living in town who had a trailer with the same kind of wheels. Mr. Aldrich being approached Mr. Aldrich said that he would not sell a wheel but he would loan them one, to be returned when the travellers reached home. This good Samarian left them the wheel back by the time this appears in print.

Some of the descendants of the once great buffalo herds that roamed the plains of America are in Wood Buffalo park, which lies across the boundary between Alberta and the N.W.T. Approximately 12,000 of these animals live under natural conditions in the unfenced 17,300 square miles of the park.

Kitscoty Man Married At Camrose

SEWARD—STEWART

Tastefully decorated with peonies and Marguerite daisies and baskets of candelabra blazes, St. Andrew's church was the setting for an impressive ceremony when Joanna Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stewart, of Camrose, became the bride of Mr. Oliver Charles Seward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Seward, of Kitscoty. Rev W. Harrison, Rector of St. John's Church, Edmonton, officiated, assisted by Rev. C. F. W. Goddard. Mrs. Edith Wood, home softly played the organ as many of the guests were ushered in by Rev. Douglas Greenough and Mr. John Stewart.

To the strains of Wagner's Wedding March from Lohengrin, the bride lovely in white satin and net, entered the church on the arm of her father. Her close-fitting satin bodice with lily-point sleeves was appointed to the net yoke of her gown in which the lovely lines of the satin cut-in-one skirt repeated on the yoke of the net full net skirt. The three-tier veil fell from a French bonnet of white satin trimmed with pearls. The bride wore a pearl necklace and earrings a gift of the groom. She carried a cascade of roses and white gladioli on the white prayer book which had been carried by her mother on her own wedding day.

At nuptials, the bride were maid of honor Mrs. Annie Seward and bridesmaids Miss Marguerite Seward and Miss Marilyn Stewart. Their gowns in turquoise nun's nylon net and pink respectively had satin bow-tied bodices and full net skirts fashioned similarly to the bride's. They were topped by brief capes of brocade and net. They wore matching French bonnets and carried white prayer books and cascades of rose and carnations to match their gowns.

The groom was supported by Mr. Clifford Driver.

During the signing of the register Mrs. C. F. W. Goddard accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Edith Woodhams, gave a beautiful rendition of "The Bridal Song".

After the ceremony a reception was held in Hoverdell's Memorial hall. For receiving, Mrs. Stewart, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of aqua lace with a white picture hat and white accessories. She wore a corsage of Talisman roses. The mother of the groom, Mrs. Seward, chose floral chiffon in pink tones. Her white hat was trimmed with a cluster of pink roses and she wore white accessories and Talisman rose corsage.

The three-tier wedding cake resting on a table covered with white damask under a canopy of pink and white streamers and white wedding bells was surrounded by white tulle dotted with pink daisies. Pink roses in silver holders and candelabra with flowers decorated the table.

For travelling the bride chose a navy suit and wore a navy trimmed yellow straw hat and beige and orange of yellow roses.

After a honeymoon in Waterton and Yellowstone Parks by motor the happy couple will make their home in Mr. Seward's mission field near Vegreville.

"Nothing is Any Good, Tee Bee Things Are Good" :: By ANNA E. WILSON

SHOOTING BADE felt his heart beat fast as he tried to get over to Rosa Belle's house without being seen by Frogging Pete. As he slid round the corner of Uncle Bed's house, he was still see Frogging Pete sitting on the porch across the way with his mate, turned sun, his torn overalls just licking his shanks and his eyes raised to a level that took in a fine, cloudless, sky.

When he reached the back, he could still hear the mouth-organ and knew that Pete hadn't moved. He sniped a couple's of bees from his bare arm. Frogging about beer, sums they stung and some they didn't. Look at the way they crawled all over him and Uncle Bed while anyone else.

Shooting Bade reached the far corner, where he could see Rosa Belle's porch. Out back, Black Mama was doing the washing but on the porch was Rosa Belle, all tidy and all wavy and shiny. All that separated him from Rosa Belle now was a vacant lot but the lot was in full view of Frogging Pete if he took his eyes from the shrubbery. Shooting Bade crouched low so as not to draw Pete's eyes.

He reached the porch and spoke softly, "Hello, Rosa Belle". Rosa Belle's voice was bell-like but she didn't move, nor did the bonnet dog at her feet. Rosa Belle didn't move because the sound of the mouth organ had stopped and Frogging Pete was climbing up the other side of the steps. She sat, turning neither one nor the other, Rosa Belle could sit like that for hours—until one of them got up and went away.

Shooting Bade sat whittling through his teeth and Pete took out his mouth organ and played. Shooting Bade fixed his eyes on a lizard in the sand. He thought of himself and Rosa Belle going out along the scrub fronds for a visit Uncle Bed's.

Finally he said in Pete, "You going frogging over to Black Swamp?"

Pete removed the harmonica from his lips. "Frogging's the always good when nobody's been frogging."

Shooting Bade whittlin' softly. "Funny about frogging. I'm a awful easy to disturb frogs. Fellow's better to go frogging all by himself. Catch more that way."

Pete finished a bar. "Fellow needs company frogging. Like being in the dual swamp where a fellow could skip without anyone hearing even the bubbles. Shooting rabbits is different."

Shooting Bade whistled a full five minutes before he spoke. "No good shooting rabbits alone. Rabbits been shot at a lot lately. Fellow needs help finding them out in holes and things."

Pete played softly, saying nothing. Rosa Belle gave vent to her feelings in a few bell-like notes.

Bade noticed fearfully that the sun was getting low in the sky. He was rid of Pete soon, he'd have practically no time to shoot before dark. Pete was in no hurry. Frog hunting was even better at night.

Shooting Bade examined the sky. "Looks like it might rain. Frogsin's be good in the rain. Fat rain. Fat frogs just disappear under sticks and things."

Pete blew a bar of "Swanee" "Might rain," he conceded mildly. "There's no hurry about frogging."

Despair gripped Shooting Bade. Rosa Belle's eyes looked at him soft and sugary. He drew a long breath. Pete emitted a doleful note and started playing "Going Nowhere".

Shooting Bade was licked. He might as well go over to the mud lot and throw bone chips. Rosa Belle gave voice again, bell-like and low.

Frogging Pete put away his mouth organ. He was sure he'd won. He began whittling on a forked stick. Sing stick. Shooting Bade held his breath. In silence, he could hear with a faint buzzing above his head. He reached out and enclosed the sound in his fist. With his empty hand he lolly picked up a pebble. He shot it at the bonnet. It missed. He picked up another and bent forward, his eyes on the lizard. He released the bee from his closed fist, but kept the big Pete's hand.

Frogging Pete pulled. Shooting Bade's voice was soft with sympathy. "Nothing's any good for bee stings but mud—there's a good patch down by the canebrake."

Frogging Pete was gone. Rosa Belle got up and followed Shooting Bade, who pulled up his pants in a hurry. They started down the hot road and had almost reached the bend when they were brought up short by Black Mame's voice. Shooting Bade's heart beat fearfully lest she call them back but the mellow voice only said, "Don't let no rabbits catch you napping."

Black Mame laughed richly as girl, boy and dog disappeared round the bend.

Irrigation Scheme Seen Bringing Great Wealth To Southern Alberta Lands

St. Mary Project When Finished Will Turn 400,000 Acres of Dry Land Into One Of Canada's Richest Farming Areas

(By John Dauphinee, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — St. Mary River water is building up behind Canada's largest earth-fill dam to bring added prosperity to southern Alberta. On July 16 Agriculture Minister Gardiner officially opened valves at the northern end of a 60-mile-long 185 miles long and six miles wide. But even before the ceremony the lake water was flowing through a maze of canals and ditches across the sprawling St. Mary-Milk River irrigation project.

When finished, the $30,000,000 scheme will turn 400,000 acres of dry range land into one of Canada's richest farming areas.

Farm homes will be provided for more than 2,000 families many from crop-failure areas in eastern Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Businessmen here say at least as many families will be supported directly in nearby towns and villages.

Farm experts calculate production averages $100 an acre or more. So some 120,000 acres already under irrigation in the St. Mary-Milk River area. Some 21,000 acres is watered around Taber, 70,000 in the Lethbridge-Coaldale area, 15,000 in Raymond and 7,000 at Magrath.

If the estimate is right the 40,000 extra irrigated acres will bring at least $40 000 000 worth of extra production annually each year to southern Alberta.

But it will be 30 or 15 years before the whole project is finished.

Not more than 400 000 acres a year will be given crop-nourishing water.

St Mary Dam main water source for the entire irrigation area has cost $4,500 000. It was started in 1946 after many years of planning. Now it is finished except for a huge concrete spillway to carry off the excess water at flood season.

Up to 200 men, using huge dirt-moving machinery, have poured 6,000,000 cubic yards of clay and gravel across the meandering St. Mary River which flows northward into Canada from the United States.

The lake formed by the dam burned a few acres and other buildings but mostly it has inundated poor range country. It stretches 18 miles from a point northwest of Kimball to the dam, between high river banks 24 miles southeast of Lethbridge.

W. L. (Wally) Foss, supervising engineer for the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Administration, said water storage totals 794,000 acre feet—enough to cover 460 square miles of land to a depth of one foot.

The 160,000-000 dam is one-half mile long, 202½ feet deep from top to foundations and 191 feet above the normal river level. At the bottom, the clay-and-gravel structure is 1,650 feet wide. At the top it narrows to about 30 feet—the width of a modern highway.

Why was earth-fill used instead of concrete?

"For one thing, it's considerably cheaper," said Engineer Foss.

And, geologically speaking, said Consulting Geologist J. A. Allan of Edmonton, the rock beneath is "too young"—a mere 100,000,000 or 200,000,000 years old. The clay-and-gravel dam will change shape slightly as the foundation settles. Concrete would crack.

As long ago as 1911 the St. Mary-Milk River project was visualized. There were detailed plans by 1917. When the go-ahead was given in 1945 the 120,000 acres of privately-developed irrigation on the area was

"OIL NEEDS A LOT OF THINGS, JIMMY!"
"Tankers, Jimmy, are just one of the things the oil business needs. It needs supplies for pipe lines and new refineries. It needs tank cars and trucks and storage tanks. It needs workers and material from all parts of Canada."
Bringing you oil is a big job. It employs labor and skills and ideas across the nation. In the past five years Imperial Oil alone has undertaken to invest more than $200 millions—about $60 for every family in Canada. Much of this money has been spent to find and develop new oil fields in the prairies, fields which mean new prosperity and new security for all Canada. But almost half of it has been invested in new tankers and pipe lines, in new refining units and in facilities to bring the products to you.
With oil playing an increasingly important part in our daily lives, the oil industry's job is bringing new strength and better living for Canadians everywhere.

The Farm Outlook

THERE ARE MANY HAZARDS which make it impossible to forecast the success or failure of farm crops. Until the harvest is completed, weather, insects, lack of sufficient farm workers and many other factors may affect the yield, and no matter what care or planning is exercised, there is no certainty for the farmer until the harvest is over. However, forecasts based on conditions as far as they are known or can be anticipated, are made each year and it is interesting to speculate on the returns from the year's crop in advance.

Incomes May Be Higher

Officials of the Federal Department of Agriculture and of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics have predicted that farm incomes in 1951 will not fall below those of last year, and that in all probability they will be higher than they were in 1950 when they totalled $2,223,000,000. Farmers are faced with higher costs in producing this year's crop. The prices of farm machinery, fertilizer, feed and fuel have risen, the increases varying in different regions, and where farmers being affected more than others by this factor. However, experts believe that these will not affect the total income of farmers in the coming year.

Some Reasons For Optimism

Confidence in the stability of the farmer's income in 1952 are based partly on the fact that $65,000,000 has already been paid to the farmers as the government's final payment under the British agreement. In addition $120,000,000 has been distributed by the Canadian Wheat Board and Canada has signed agreements for the sale of wheat for the year in the operation of the International Wheat Agreement. Farm incomes have shown a considerable increase in recent years but they have not advanced in proportion to those of other occupations, and it is to be hoped that this year will see a bountiful harvest and a rise in the cash returns to farmers when the crop is marketed.

Sad Stories in the Wake of a Forest Fire

Reports from Campbell river back thousands upon thousands of which a great forest fire has been burning for days, tell of a tragedy that has never before been recorded in the history of the province. Trees will be fewer of them to catch lumber that has been hurled down the mountainsides by the mighty blast, and fewer fishermen will take to the water. The weight of ashes that have been carried into the sea will be great enough to destroy countless numbers of fish. Only those that are in deep water will escape. The fish that do survive will find their spawning beds filled with ashes and debris, and the result will be that the next run will be greatly reduced.

But that is not all. There are animals, birds and insects that will die. Many of these will be burned to death in the flames. Others will perish from starvation. Thousands of skeletons will tell the dismal tale.

But that is not all, either. In addition to the mature forest, areas of young forest were destroyed. That puts into future wealth. Worse than that, a lot of the soil has been burned up. What was life-giving humus until recently is ashes now. There are no root fibres to hold it in place and the winds and the rains will carry it off.

Any tree seeds that were in the ground have been burned. It is going to be more difficult to create a new forest after a forest fire than after a logging operation.

There are other losses to the Campbell river area in a centre of power for much of Vancouver Island. The power depends on water and the water from the watter snows and rains seeps slowly down through the spongy forest cover into the streams and lakes. With the forest cover gone the water will not be held back. It will come in freshets and floods and much of it will be lost.

The forest acts as a natural reservoir. It holds the water until it is needed. If the forest is destroyed, man-made reservoirs will have to be created to replace it and the cost will run into millions.

There are fish in the rivers of the burned-over areas too. Salmon and steel-head spawn there on the beds which have been built up over many years by the even flow of the streams. The floods and the freshets will destroy these beds or flush the spawn down to the sea where it will die in the salt water or be gobbled up by marine life. This means that

Man Expecting Tourist Record

Estimate of $23,000,000 Will Be Spent in Province

WINNIPEG — Tourists are entering Manitoba at an all-time record breaking rate, Hon J. S. McDiarmid, minister of industry and commerce said.

He estimated vacationists will spend $23 000 000 in the province this year, exceeding totals for previous years.

In the first six months of 1951 a total of 31,000 short-term vehicle permits were issued compared with 18,000 in 1950, 24,000 in 1949. Totals in other categories also were up.

"Every indication from greater percentage increase in tourist entries were flying up 316 per cent; South Junction, 197 per cent, and Emerson, 102 per cent.

C. E. Green, assistant deputy minister of the industry and commerce department, said a recent survey conducted by his office indicated tourist shopping got off to a slow start in the Winnipeg and Brandon areas.

However, "leading retail stores believe tourist sales will increase rapidly in the next few weeks and will 'decidedly' exceed last year's total.

Nothing Wasted In Modern Paper Mill

DRYDEN, Ont — There's practically no useless material in a modern paper mill.

On the Wabigoon river here, site of the Dryden Paper Company mill, are 25 houseboats built of scrap lumber from the paper company.

Dryden Memorial Arena uses sawdust from the company as a base for the ice. The diving tower of the municipal swimming pool was built with lumber from the mill.

It's all part of the plan known as integrated forestry operations, which means that nothing goes to waste.

Every paper and lumber company in eastern Ontario aims at 100 per cent utilization of the products of the forests. The local mill situated about halfway between the lakehead and Winnipeg, is in a good spot to market its mill waste and by-products.

Rained two eight foot long seven inches thick and nine inches wide are produced at the company's sawmills. To make the ice a round answer to modern thick must be used, with lots of sawdust and slab left over.

The sawdust is used for everything from packing ice to insulating houses. The slab is sold at $4 a cord for firewood.

Norman McMillan, veteran woods manager at Dryden, says the plant is already using everything but the scream of a saw.

VANISHING SHEEP

EDMONTON — Alberta Agriculture Department figures show the province's sheep population has been reduced to one-third of what it was six years ago. 2043

"I wonder what will happen when my wife sees my income tax?"

"Oh, you'll find all your friends and relations waiting on the quay."

Coming home one Sunday afternoon with a string of trout, Robbie was suddenly confronted by the local minister. There was no way of escape, but the boy rose to the occasion. Going up to the minister he said: "Minister, d'ye see what I'm the next few weeks and will 'decidedly' exceed last year's total.

"She plays quite a fair game of bridge, doesn't she?"

"Yes, quite fair—if you watch her."

Alberta Farmer Does Good On Rocky, Arid Land

CALGARY.—Farming is big business for O. B. Lassiter, who estimates he spent about $2,000 a day this spring to put in the crop on his farm 50 miles east of here. Just how big a business Lassiter makes of tilling the soil is shown by a few figures on his farming operations: Acreage, 4,500; initial expenditure, $50,000; men, about 50; equipment, seven caterpillar diesels, seven of Nobleford, Alta. It works on the principle of the old-fashioned shoe drill by dropping the seed deep in the ground through pipes.

The machine was planned as a follow-up to the Noble blade which cuts weed roots and loosens the top soil without disturbing the trash that keeps dry soil from drifting.

Lassiter is a "dry-land farmer" who learned the tricks of the trade in California before he came to Alberta in 1917. He operates on soil that 30 years ago drove out hundreds of homesteaders who could not make a go of it.

The "super farmer" is seeding nearly seven square miles, most of it virgin soil. His daughter may be up orthodox but they are scientific.

Lassiter figures that the cost of operating on the rolling land, part of the old Sunshine Ranch, is 50 per cent higher than if it were level and without rocks. More than $1 an acre is spent on rock removal.

He said it all is a question of methods, and admitted that farming in the dry area is a risky business. He said he felt, however, that proper methods and implements could overcome the lack of moisture.

Early farmers who ventured into the area failed because of their methods and because they farmed on too small an acreage, he believes.

Lassiter's method is best explained by reviewing the manner in which he prepared the land and planted this year's crop.

The land was broken with 20-foot Graham-Hoeme three-section plows last fall and hooked from five different directions, leaving it left to hold moisture during the winter.

Large crews of rock pickers then went to work and filled the hollow set discs with double harrows behind to make the clods before seeding started with a new-type seed drill. Up to three double harrowings were carried out after seeding.

Lassiter said he used the new Noble shoe-type press drill to "get the seed where it belongs in the firm, moist and clear seed bed." The seed is placed three inches down to take advantage of sub-surface moisture through capillary action.

The machine is being used for the first time in Alberta outside the testing ground of inventor C. B. Noble

Artificial Respiration Is Urged

Alarmed at the number of drownings in which artificial respiration has been ineffective, Dr. Gordon Bates, director of the Health League of Canada, issued a plea that it be continued for hours — until success is achieved or rigor mortis sets in.

Dr. Bates repeated advice he made eight years ago on a radio broadcast but which, he said, people seem to have forgotten.

He warned first that carelessness is largely responsible for the many legs of 1,000 people's a year in Canada. Don't take a chance, he said. When a case of apparent drowning occurs, prolonged artificial respiration is essential.

"The first thing I urged is to forget the prejudice that ill-founded idea that artificial respiration is useless if a drowning victim has been under water for more than a few minutes," Dr. Bates said. "This is widely believed and it is not true."

The health officer cited examples of apparent victims who had been under water for up to half an hour but were revived after prolonged respiration.

In giving respiration, he added, it should be made certain that the victim's tongue does not fall back and there is no obstruction in his mouth or throat. He should be laid prone on his face on a hard surface, his head turned to one side and resting on one arm.

For exact details of the Schaefer method of artificial respiration, he said, those interested should apply to one of the several agencies named, including the St John Ambulance Association, the Royal Lifesaving Society or the Health League.

Road Patrol Aids Drivers In Distress

CALGARY. — A visitor from Pennsylvania stood on the side of the road near Banff one recent afternoon, dismally surveying a flat tire on his car.

Dressed in neat white flannels, the tourist regretted that he was about to get very dirty changing that tire.

While he pondered the problem two white-overalled men on motorcycles approached, stopped, and with little ceremony got down to the business of raising the spare tire.

When it was all over, the Amerspare tire. When it was all over, the Americ an handed his good Samaritans were members of the Alberta Motor Association road patrol which helps motorists in distress.

The Calgary patrol is the first on the Trans-Canada highway, officials of operates north, south and west of Calgary on Friday evenings, Saturdays and Sundays.

The A.M.A. patrol has been operating a few weeks, and already hundreds of motorists have been assisted.

Tires are changed, headlights repaired, towing trucks obtained, and maps and information supplied.

More showers last week and since the weather has been around the 80 mark growth is good.

Our mail man missed delivery of mail July 16th until the roads are passable around the block, only coming to J. Nelson's. The road north has been unfit for travel since breaking up, it was out. We've been hoping it would be fixed but not yet. North of the school are several bad holes, with the rain at times a tractor has to be used for pulling cars and trucks. Better too long were we hoping to have an improvement in these roads though we realize with the rains recently conditions are much worse than in the drier times.

NEWLYWEDS TO LIVE AT MANNVILLE

McLAUGHLIN—BEHNKE

St. Anthony's church, Lloydminster, was the setting for a pretty wedding June 30th when Mary Cirella, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Behnke of Streamstown became the bride of William Patrick McLaughlin, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLaughlin of Mannville. Rev. Father Dobson officiated at the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white net. It was designed with a nylon net Bertha collar and tiny satin buttons extending down the full bodice from which the full skirt fell in a train. Her bouquet was a white bible topped with a lovely lace heart. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls with matching earrings. She carried a white prayer book complemented with a rosary of pink carnations.

Miss Theresa Behnke attended her sister wearing a gown of yellow frosted organdy. Her shoulder length veil was edged with a match in the bodice and her flowers were Talisman roses.

Mr. Edward McLaughlin, cousin of the groom, acted as best man. Ushers were Mr Bernard Behnke and Mr. John McLaughlin.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. George Cumoine. At the offertory she also sang "Blessed Is This Day."

For her daughter's wedding Mrs Behnke chose a two-piece dress of navy crepe with white accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses. The groom's mother also wore navy with matching touches of pink and a corsage of white roses in corsage.

Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served in the basement of the church. The four-tiered cake which was topped with a bride and groom was topped with tiny pink rosebuds. Father Dobson pronounced the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded. Later in the afternoon a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. In the evening the young couple entertained 60 of many friends to a wedding dance at the Streamstown hall.

For a honeymoon to the west coast the bride donned a pink two-piece dress with white accessories and matching corsage.

The out of town guests were Mr Wm. Cirella, Jr. and Mrs John Nethaus and family from Strome; Mr Pete Pueppetig of Edmonton; Miss Lois Anderson of Vermilion. Miss Yvonne Berle of Westlock, Mr and Mrs Murphy of Calgary, Mr and Mrs J. Woodvale News

Finally we got rain too in these parts. Just in the nick of time as some fields had started to show signs of drought and it is surprising how a few showers can make such a sudden spurt of growth. Warm weather is needed now to hasten the already late crops along.

Mrs. Mable Webber returned from Edmonton where she attended the wedding of her niece Miss Joyce Trevithick. Mrs. Ray Webber, her daughter and grandson from Toronto came over for the occasion to and spent a day at the Webber home in Tolland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis and son Ralph from Des Moines visited their cousin Mrs. J. Lysone.

The Lysone boys are driving a 1949 Chevrolet truck now.

Mrs. Alf Jack was the census taker here while Mr. Reg Mitchell took the northern half of the Woodvale district.

Fred Slocum and Ray McQuid made a trip to the Peace River country; while Mr. and Mrs. D. McGrath and children made a trip to northern Saskatchewan returning by Cold Lake. Hughie Johnson of Viking is visiting with his grandmother McGrath for the summer holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rand went to Edmonton for a day while Mrs. Beckman was looking after the two little girls.

The Tolland picnic drew quite a large crowd despite the showers all around in the morning, and one late at night, however this did not mar the attendance at the dance. The Autumn Leaf ball team came out victorious and the booths did a rousing business. It is always a pleasure to meet old friends and neighbors on these annual gatherings and meet new people.

Mrs. Riley brought her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. McKendry of Toronto and we had the impression that they enjoyed a prairie picnic as did our new minister for the summer, Rev. Wm. Brown, who comes from Glasgow, Scotland and whose first stay this is in the Canadian West.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hind left the district shortly after their sale. They left sooner than their friends who were planning a farewell party for them expected, and so we all hope they are reading the Standard yet and wish them an enjoyable time travelling and much happiness wherever they finally decided to settle down. They have lived so long in the Hindville district (named after the family) that they will be greatly missed.

The same good wishes go to Mr. and Mrs. A. Rendell of the Wildmere district who are retiring and have many friends on this side of the coulee.

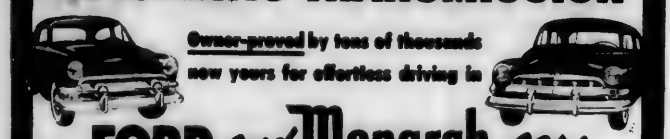
AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSION



Owner-proved by tens of thousands now yours for effortless driving in

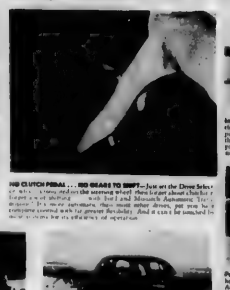
FORD and Monarch cars

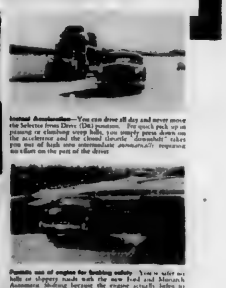
Here it is!—the newest, most advanced Automatic Transmission of all—now offered as optional equipment* on all new Ford and Monarch cars. Road-proved and never-powered by tens of thousands of satisfied drivers who are now enjoying the extra smoothness, the magically effortless driving pleasure made possible by this latest, finest Automatic Transmission.

The clutch pedal and gear shifting are completely eliminated! This newest Automatic Transmission combines the smoothness of oil-cushioned drive with the flexibility and control of automatic operation unmatched by any other type of Automatic Transmission.

Until you enjoy a Test-Drive in a Ford or Monarch with Automatic Transmission, you'll never know the extra acceleration—the extra "passing power"—the extra-safe engine braking downhill—that only this newest and finest Automatic Transmission can give. See your Ford-Monarch Dealer for a demonstration . . . and enjoy the driving surprise of your life.

*Automatic Transmission optional at extra cost. Fords and Monarchs are also available with Standard Transmission or with Overdrive.

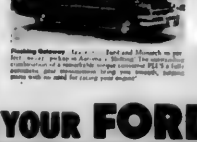




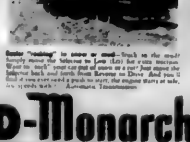
HAND CLUTCH PEDAL . . . NO GEARS TO SHIFT—Just set the Drive Selector at the D position and let the steering wheel "feel" your every touch! Ford and Monarch Automatic Transmission is the most effortless, the most other driver, yet you have complete control with far greater flexibility and ease of operation.

Instant Acceleration—You can drive all day and never move the Selector from Drive (D) position. For quick pick-up on passing or climbing steep hills, you simply press down on the accelerator pedal. Instantly, Ford or Monarch "downshifts" takes you out of high into intermediate automatically, requiring no effort on the part of the driver.

Dynamic use of engine for braking safety—You're safer on hills or slippery roads with this new Ford and Monarch Automatic Braking because the engine itself helps to slow the car down. You can flip the Selector to Low (L) position with complete safety when extra engine braking is needed.



Floating Gateway—Ford and Monarch engine, rear axle, pickup is floating. The supporting combination of a remarkable torque converter PLUS a fully automatic, gear transmission bring you smooth, helpful gears with no need for racing your engine.



Easier "rocking" in snow or mud—Such as the most handy means for "rocking" your car out of snow, mud or sand. When in Low (L) for extra traction. Ford and Monarch Automatic Transmission gives you the added help of a "rocking" back and forth motion. Reverse to Drive. And you'll find it even more useful in ordinary driving. Ask the engineer who designed it to explain how it works. Ford-Monarch Automatic Transmission.

Standard Neglects Teachers

The Standard checked up on the whereabouts of the members of the town teaching staff at the end of June but failed to report the findings to the public.

Commencing with the members of the primary staff, the principal Miss Dorothy Oldenberg is away on a motor trip to the U.S.; Miss Evelyn Sherritt is again attending the University summer session; Miss Dare and Mrs. Adamson hadn't any very definite plans while Mrs. Kibblewhite who spent the spring term here is at home on the farm.

Of the elementary teachers Mr. Walker spent some two weeks with Mrs. Walker and son Douglas at the farm home of Mrs. Walker's parents near Camrose but is now back in Vermilion; Miss Ruth Purser is working at Eaton's for the summer in Edmonton and does not plan to return to Vermilion having resigned from the staff; Miss MacKenzie is at home near Lethe; Mrs. Hilde English is attending University summer sessions; Mrs. Elden is at home in Vermilion; Miss Crough is also at the University of Alberta after which she will be married. She has resigned from the town staff; Miss Nielsen is at University but has been appointed to the city teaching staff at Medicine Hat; Miss Connelly she has resigned here; Mr. Sharman is attending summer sessions at the U. of A.; and Miss Cole is also at the University.

Of the high school staff principal M. F. Smeltzer is spending the summer at the coast; Miss Knapp is marking exam. papers after which she will spend some time visiting her sister at Fairview. Miss Pat Jones is attending summer sessions; Mr. Jim Bell has a cottage at Clear Lake for a few weeks; Frank Shaw is back at his old trade of painting for the summer months. John Targaisz at the U. of A. and Mr. Hall who will complete the work for his degree of Bachelor of Education. Carver Wilson is back from the staff as he has rejoined the R.C.A.F

WILDMERE WINKS

We are pleased to see by the last Standard that the Editor and staff are going to have a holiday. We related with Tainsworth exploits on Saturday and we thought it would be nice if all the workers, Mechanical staff could have a garden party in the Editor's garden during the summer. We were writing a banquet, but just a nice get-together. What do you other scribes think of the idea?

The W.W.I. are holding the August meeting at the home of Mrs. Cliff Cruthers. Members of both W. I. and Girls' club please note the two meetings are to be combined for the August meeting as it is the girls report on their trip to Olds. Plan to attend at the home of Mrs. Cruthers Aug. 1st.

The W.I. conference held at the V.S.A. on 2nd July 3rd and 4th was not as well attended as other years owing to muddy roads. The rain did us a good turn as our crops and gardens, we could really over-look the mud. Only five members got to Dunvegan. Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Garnett will be our convenor for two years more, a position she fills very capably. We congratulate Salteaux for winning the cup this year. We all enjoyed the talk Miss Curran gave on Handicraft. There are many more things we could write about but time and space does not permit this.

Here is an item we have intended to put in the paper before. It will be of interest to Wildmere and the surrounding district. Mrs. Ed Arthur

Former Vermilion Man Named Top Student

DAVID ROGERS WINS HIGH HONORS

A 29-year-old veteran of 10 years service in the Royal Air Force, William David Riley Roberts, formerly of Vermilion, Alberta, was cited for general excellence as a student at the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art and awarded highest honors as best all-round technical student in graduation exercises Wednesday afternoon. He was awarded a $100 scholarship, presented by D. F. Fraser, executive secretary of the Edmonton Canadian Legion.

It was a quirk of fate which brought the former Albertan back to Calgary to take the three-year Aeronautical course, one of the things he's ambition he will complete in a record two-year effort.

Leaving Vermilion with his parents to reside in England at the age of 14, Roberts joined the R.A.F. as a ground mechanic. On his discharge after 10 years he returned to Canada and for the past three years worked as an aero mechanic at an aircraft factory in Toronto.

Finding aircraft plastics through the magazine Canadian Aviation, he saw Calgary's Provincial Institute of Technology and Art advertised, and decided to attend the school.

While his air force experience to his credit he was permitted to take the first two years of the course in one subject, the overall plan working as a photographer, gardener, carpenter and salesman in the Government liquor store.

WEDDING BELLS

PRESS-O-SCOOP

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cheadle of Edmonton announce the marriage of their daughter, Josephine Doris to Mr. Andrew Roy Bertz, son of Mr. Emile Perris and the late Mrs. Perris of Morinville. The wedding took place at St. Andrew's United church on July 14. Rev. Father Connelly officiated.

Hazel Glidden Married In Edmonton

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Chalmers United church when Rev. G. G. Pyrch united in marriage Miss Hazel Josephine Glidden and Mr Frank Kenneth Shaw.

Pink and white blossoms of gladioli and peonies decorated the church for the ceremony in which the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Earl K. Glidden of Edmonton, formerly of Vermilion, became the bride of the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaw of Carstairs.

A gown of tangerine gabardine was the choice of the bride who entered the church on the arm of her father. A matching hat and bouvet accessories completed her ensemble and she wore a corsage of cream-colored roses spliced with lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Rosabelle Glidden attended her sister as bridesmaid wearing a suit of tan gabardine complemented with accessories of white and a corsage of carnations and sweet peas.

Best man was Mr. Art Gooding. Mr. Harold Glidden and Mr. Alex Shaw were ushers. During the signing of the register Miss Elizabeth Fridgen sang "The Wedding Bouide You" and "Bless This House". She was accompanied by Mrs. Gallagher.

Later a reception was held at the Green Bean where Mrs. Glidden received in a frock of mauve crepe with a matching straw hat. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a wine dress completed with a black hat and cream roses on corsage.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. A. G. Moore.

After a honeymoon in the U.S. the couple will reside in Carstairs.

Attending the wedding from out of town were Mr. Art Gooding, Lacombe and Mrs. Rhett Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Shaw, Mr. George Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Rex all of Carstairs; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glidden of Viking, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Robinson of Carstairs. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roadhouse of Lethbridge.

Vol. XLIII. No. 7. Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, August 16th, 1951. $2.00 per Year

Outlines Yearly Road Program and Ultimate Objectives for Province

Minister of Highways Impresses Audience Here

Although arriving late due to two blow outs on the road, the Hon. Gordon Taylor, Minister of Highways for the province addressed a dinner meeting of the Vermilion Board of Trade Wednesday at noon. The young minister made a deep impression on his audience by the complete grasp he had of the work of his department, the mental map he retained of the vast network of Alberta roads and by the interest and interest he showed in building with the province not a mere system of hard-surfaced and gravelled highways primarily to serve the people of the province.

Mr. Taylor outlined the road program for 1951, and then showed how it fitted in with the overall plan which would within a few years give Alberta a network of hard-surfaced highways, including one north and south hard-surfaced highway from the U.S. border to as far north as there were people to be served. This highway is practically completed in every point north of Edmonton now with another forty miles done from there on. As the population increases other north and south highways will be built, some links of which already exist.

In various stages of progress are east and west hard-surfaced highways and it is hoped to have three of these stretching across Alberta from the Saskatchewan to the B.C. boundaries. Work is well advanced on all of them and highway 16 is one that is scheduled for early completion. It is hoped to finish from the Saskatchewan boundary to 25 miles east of Vermilion in 1952 and the remainder of the west end in 1953.

Road building for our own People

The minister emphasized that road building was primarily for our own people, with tourists being very welcome to use them if they so desire. The amount of road work done is limited by the amount of money allotted for that purpose by the government, and by the number of contractors available.

Municipal Road Grants

The system of grants to municipalities for district roads was also explained. The province has used the $1 grant for every dollar expended by the M.D. The government now gives $2 for $1 the M.D. expends on approved roads. 50 per cent of the $2 goes to the town on approved roads, 10 per cent to maintain these main market roads, and the remainder for other road work within the boundaries of the M.D. He also outlined the very careful basis on which grants are now allotted. This is based on assessed acreage, and mileage of roads and number of miles of previously hard-surfaced roads in the M.D. and typography of the land.

Network of Highways

The aim of the department of highways was a network of asphalt highways to get from place to place with gravelled district highways acting as feeders.

The Hon. Mr. Taylor divulged an enormous amount of interesting interesting information and the address was one well worth delivering at a large public meeting. He left his board of trade audience with the definite impression that here was a cabinet minister with all the business of his department under close surveillance.

Mr. D. R. Mitchell, president of the Vermilion Board of Trade, extended the thanks of the Board to the speaker for his informative address.

Mr. Mitchell welcomed several other visitors present at the luncheon including Mr. Robert Fair, M.P.; Mr. W. R. Cornish, M.L.A., Mr. Ralph Wagner of Mannville and Mr. G. J. Robinson of Edmonton.

Letters to the Editor

This paper does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

Editor Vermilion Standard.

Dear Sir:

We hear many remarks these days that nothing can be done about the dog menace because we cannot get a dog catcher. If so, then why can not we have a law under which every dog owner becomes his own dog catcher. Catch him and keep him in the dog kennel where he belongs. And do not give exemption to licensed dogs either because they are not a bit more polite than the ones which are not licensed.

When a man, or a family keeps a dog they must do so for some purpose or other, and surely this purpose cannot be to have them racing around the streets or romping through their neighbors gardens.

This is the opinion of one citizen let's hear what others think.

A Ratepayer.

The flowers were truly grand, the orange roses were from the Staden families and the members of the Thorncliffe Telephone Co. and their wives including Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rankin and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vert, red roses from Elma. Glads from Miss Beth Wilmerot, Miss Millberry and Mrs. Edna Taylor, peonies from Mrs. Horne, Mr. J. W. G. Morrison, Mrs. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. George Capatos. Thanks to the ladies who served, Miss Millburn for looking after the guest book, and to Mr. George Capatos for letting us have the Lower Deck Club house also. We hope that all who live to celebrate their golden wedding will have as pleasant a time as we had.

Celena and Hiram Hodgins.

Like Vermilion Fair But Oh, that Highway 16

(CLANDONALD)

Among recent out-of-town guests at the Stanley home were the following whom we were glad to welcome to our town: Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman (nee Jessie Stanley) of Victoria. Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Stanley (Ernest's cousin) of Vancouver. Miss Dorothy Wager of Barrhead. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pawsey and girls of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lefebvre (nee Ivy Stanley) of Leduc and Mr. Lester Dahlsied of St. Paul. All these tourists were high in their praise of the district the Vermilion fair, but memories of our wild ride they will never forget in the one on highway 16 between Vegreville and Vermilion.

LOCAL NEWS

A re-union of the family of eleven children of Mrs. Frank Davies is being held this week end at the old family home town at Kenaston, Sask., some thirty miles east of Saskatoon. It was at Kenaston that the family spent many years. Of course the children are now grown up and married and many of the in-laws will also be present. Attending the re-union from Vermilion will be Mrs. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Monty Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hemmings and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Wessman and Mr. and Mrs. George Webb, Jr. Coming from the greatest distance will be a son from Toronto.

Leaving here in 1916 at which time he enlisted and went overseas with the 151st battalion, L. B. Dunsmore of Asheroft, B.C., arrived in Vermilion on Monday to visit his brother Gordon and family. L. B. is now having a good time seeing if the old timers can guess who he is.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Stephens, Peggy and Roger spent a two weeks' holiday at Seba Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lyle returned to Hanning by car on Tuesday after spending a few days visiting at the Lipsey home in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott are holidaying in Edmonton for two weeks.

Bill McKeever is in Edmonton at present, taking a course with Ramsays', the florists.

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Rowe are holidaying at Vancouver. The trip was made by car.

Surprise visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Davis over the week end were the latter's two sisters and families who motored here from the city.

Mrs. A. M. West returned to Banff with her daughter Mrs. E. P. Laughton and family last week where they will shortly be joined by Mr. West.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Patterson recently returned from their trip to Winnipeg where they visited with the former's brothers and sisters, numbering in all. The places of interest visited were the C.N.R. shops at Transcona, B.P. mill, parliament buildings, the farm, C.P.R. station, Deer Lodge hospital, Shriners' hospital. Other centres visited included Pine Falls, Man., where one of the largest newsprint mills is located. Some 1300 feet per minute is rolled off here and sent all over the world. Regina, Saskatoon, Glidstone, Gimelia, Portage la Prairie, Oakville and Brandon. Crops were very much more advanced than here, with harvest coming on some two to three weeks ahead of ours. The Patterson's enjoyed a family picnic in Assiniboine Park. Winnipeg's largest, attended by 78 relatives. About twenty others were not present.

YOUR COMMERCE BRANCH

Keystone of Main Street

The towns of Canada are pleasant places. Our town has a character all its own . . . but any Canadian feels at home here.

There's our bank, for instance . . . a branch of The Commerce. You'll find one in most towns.

And there's our bank manager. He's a professional man. He's learned from many towns like ours. So he knows how to give the kind of service that comes only with long acquaintance.

Yes, our Canadian towns are pleasant places . . . and the men and women at your Commerce branch are good people to know.

Wheat Pool Policy

It was never the intention of the founders of the Alberta Wheat Pool and Pool Elevator that earnings should be distributed on the basis of capital stock holdings. The Pool elevator system was built to give service to working farmers, not to make profits for stockholders.

The present Wheat Pool policy in respect to reserves accumulated during the period 1923 to 1929 provides for their purchase at 100 cents on the dollar from the older members and from those no longer engaged in farming and the transferring of these reserves to members who patronize Pool elevators, together with a cash patronage dividend in years when earnings justify same.

Since Alberta Pool Elevators started in business, the following payments have been made to patrons and reserve holders:

Patronage dividends in cash	$ 4,600,393
Redemption of reserves	5,976,000
Total	$10,577,393

In addition to the above, patronage dividends have been paid in reserves to a total of $4,288,248.

Every Pool member should have a clear understanding of Pool policies. It is believed that such policies should encourage more farmers to become Pool members and should also be an incentive to increased deliveries to Pool elevators.

A Farm Storage Tank Makes Dollars and Sense

Like many other sound investments, a farm storage tank more than pays for itself in dollars. Here is why—it makes sense!

1. Helps Harvest 75% of Feed Troubles—Proper storage and handling is most important. For cleaner fuel, raise the mouth end of the storage tank to allow any moisture to accumulate at the lower end where it can be removed.

2. Prevents Waste—Fuel is easily spilled or left in the bottom of a barrel whether you use a pail or a pump. With a storage tank gravity hose there is little or no waste.

3. Lessens Fire Hazards—Gasoline in a farm building creates a serious fire hazard. A storage tank located some distance from farm buildings complies with fire insurance regulations.

4. Saves Time and Time Saving—Fill your engine fuel tank with a gravity hose. In busy seasons your fuel is there when you need it. There is little deterioration in quality during the winter or between busy seasons if your tank is full.

Constituency News of The Alberta Women's Institutes

The Alexandra - Vermilion Constituency conference was held on July 20th at the Vermilion school of agriculture with Mrs. W. J. Garnett constituency convener presiding and Mrs. E. A. Black of Lloydminster acting secretary. The speakers were Mrs. J. I. Jones of Mannville, director of District 2, who spoke on 'The Rights of Women' and W.I. work in general; and Miss Christine McIntyre of Olds school of agriculture who spoke on 'Human Relations in the World Today'.

Reports were given by two delegates of the branches, Creighton, Five Point, Kitscoty, Lloydminster, Ramsay, Saltaux, Vermilion, Wildmere and the Wildmere Beavers Girls' club.

Conveners of the standing committees also gave their annual report on Home Economics, Citizenship, Handicraft, Social Service, Social Welfare, Canadian Industries and Agriculture. Mrs. R. Martin, assistant supervisor of A.W.I. Girls' clubs for District 2 gave an account of the girls club convention held at Olds July 9 to 12 which she attended with two of the members of Wildmere Beavers, Janet Cruthers and Hazel Whitelock.

Every Pool member should have a clear understanding of Pool policies. It is believed that such policies should encourage more farmers to become Pool members and should also be an incentive to increased deliveries to Pool elevators.

DEER LAKE DOINGS

Allandale Notes

The weather has been plenty cool and showers. It was near the freeze point around Aug. 11th and double in some places it did freeze. The prospects of crops so far are the best in years. Canfera and grand—though the tender varieties are late.

This is late but will be news some. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cr and daughter Shirley had a very successful trip through the States the latter part of June and the first part of July. The family spent a week end at Denver and visited relatives at Douglas, Wyoming. Jack purchased a pure bred Hereford bull at Hayden, Colorado about 200 miles north-west of Denver. This fine animal was brought home in a trailer, travelling around 1000 miles altogether.

Mrs. Norman Anderson and family Gary and Danice attended the fair Mrs. Anderson and Danice returned home to Lloydminster and Gary spent a few weeks with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Wm Armstrong.

Miss Joyce Armstrong is a patient in the Islay hospital where she was taken Aug. 5th. By the time this appears in print we hope she'll be home enjoying fine health again.

Miss Mabel Lee from town has been visiting her son Scilla and family at the old home and other relatives in the district.

Mrs Nora Monaghan and Mrs Gertie Swanson from Elk Point visited the latter's daughter and son-in-law Florence and Raymond Hammond at Lashburn, Sask. the last week in July. On returning Mrs Swanson visited relatives at Allandale

Mrs. Rufus Ommess and daughters Janice and Irene visited relatives at Allandale the first week in August.

Mr. and Mrs Sidney Pratt have left for their new home in Edmonton. Our very best wishes to them in their new location.

The Allandale monthly meeting met at the Dunsdale school on Aug. 9th. Despite muddy roads there was a fair attendance. The mystery parcel was won by Mrs Deisie Simone. Our next meeting will be at Mr. Malcolm Sept 13th in honor of his 80th birthday. Pres. Throndson and Lucy Chinnes attended the lunch committee.

Mr and Mrs Ron Jacklin and daughter Mrs Watts and baby son of Calgary were visitors at the Baldock home Aug 7th.

Alvin Throndson returned Tuesday Aug. 6th from two weeks at R.C.A.F. summer camp at Abbotsford, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs Tom Watts and daughter Audrey were visitors at the home of Mrs Watts' parents Mr. and Mrs Spencer on Aug 5th.

Mr and Mrs. Lane Baldock and son Glen motored to the city last week end to visit their daughter Beryl and son-in-law.

There are only two more dances Sundays at Allandale. Aug 26th and Sept 9th. Allandale have closed their services in a two year term account of rain and Aug 12th was held at the Clandonald the closing week of the Vacation school. The school was very successful and it is really amazing what can be accomplished in one week.

Closing Thought The world is blessed most by people who do things and not by those who merely talk about them.

AT LAST!

Lower food prices are in sight, says The Financial Post but we may not notice it until fall.

About 25% of the food items which comprise Canada's present cost-of-living index are home-made or home-grown items. The potatoes, tea, coffee, sugar, rice, oranges, etc are imports over which we have little control.

Of the home-produced items, the basic farm ingredient is land, and Canada is now entering a period in which the supply promises to be plentiful.

Woodvale News

We hope the Editor and staff of the Standard had an enjoyable holiday. Everyone missed the paper one or two mornings until we did not get it for a few weeks how often the look in it through the week.

After the very hot weather at the end of July, we are once again back to showers every other day, but some of them are real downpours making the crops, especially the hay crop look good. Around Union they seem to get the heaviest rains this year. What we need now is some more warm sunny weather to ripen the already late crops.

The Red Cross meeting was postponed and so far no definite date has been set for it. The tea rooms are in bad shape after every rain.

Mrs. M. Watson is taking a well deserved holiday and went with friends by car to California where she will visit with relatives.

The neighbourly meeting at Union school was well attended and it was decided to start building the double rink from line 34 to Tousdale's immediately.

Dorothy Isley had the misfortune to tear the tendons in her knee and was a patient in the Vermilion hospital for a few days. She will have to be very careful but manages to get around on crutches and does every day. Dorothy has lately had a poem written by herself, set to music and published in Boston. Not bad for a first attempt, we are all very much hoping that it will become a success. The club is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Isley of Vermilion School Division.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Dubuc and little daughter Diane spent the holiday week end with the Goutier family. Marie Goutier has been transferred to the staff in Vermilion school.

Joy King is staying with her parents in the Thorncliffe district for the summer holidays.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Preston (nee Hilda Kaus) who were recently married and are living in the Ranch house on the Tolland district. With the phone once again out of order we have not found out if their wedding dance at Woodvale school was postponed or not.

Congratulations also to Mr. and

Korean Children Enjoy Party Given By Press Correspondents

(By Bill Ross, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

SEOUL, Korea. — For many were called but few had been chosen . . . A thousand disappointed children melted into the blackness of the night, the lieutenant-colonel for admission they had wanged for two hours transformed into a wail of disappointment. They'd been invited to a party. There had been one, too. They had seen it—from the outside.

Peering through the windows of the big dining room they had seen the tables, set for 20 guests.

Hungrily they had watched the room empty and fill again twice, and the white-jacketed waiters bring on the meal.

Hosts were the war correspondents in Seoul. A European reporter had passed the hat: $135, a fortune in this country. It was decided to entertain 250 youngsters to a meal. Prizes and souvenirs would be distributed afterward.

The first snag was in getting food. The United States Eighth Army in Korea turned down their request to buy supplies.

But the British N.A.A.F.I. (Navy, Army and Air Force Institutes) threw open its stores. Fresh bread was obtained specially from the correspondents' own mess steward.

It would have been an excellent party—for 250—which it was.

But many, many more underprivileged kids, fearing the night of good things apparently in store be-

Saskatchewan Man Joins U.N. Research Body

SASKATOON — A Saskatchewan man will join the head office agricultural organization of the United Nations to help Far Eastern countries produce more food.

Dr. George Dion, a member of the University of Saskatchewan soils department, will take up residence in Rome, Italy, to join the F.A.O.'s technical assistance program for underdeveloped parts of the world.

His wife, a fungus expert with the prairie regional laboratory at the university, will accompany him.

Dr. Dion joined the soils department in 1942 and later went to Rothamsted experimental station in England to do soil research in connection with wartime food production. While there he married Wendy Ritchie, a London University graduate.

After leaving Rothamsted, Dr. Dion spent a year with the Macaulay Institute at Aberdeen, Scotland, before returning to Saskatchewan in 1950.

His work with the F.A.O. will help African and Asiatic countries develop their programs of soil mapping and classification and survey work connected with soil fertility.

Dr. C. Fraser Elliott, University of Alberta graduate is doing similar work for North and South America in Washington for F.A.O.

SASKATCHEWAN IS SEARCHING FOR OIL

Farmers Shifting To Coarse Grains

OTTAWA — Canada's grain farmers are shifting their production this year from wheat and summerfallow to coarse grains and seeded the bureau of statistics reported.

In a preliminary estimate of areas sown in field crops, it estimated that the 1951 spring wheat acreage has dropped to 24,000,000 acres from 26,-000,000 last year while summerfallow has declined to 20,312,000 from 21,000,000.

On the other hand, acreages sown to oats and barley were up.

$10,000 Grant To University For Research

A grant of $10,000 has been made to the University of Saskatchewan by the Rockefeller Foundation of New York, university officials announced.

The grant has been made to assist Dr. Wendell McLeod, dean-elect of the medical school to make a study of medical education and research in the coming year.

Dr. McLeod will travel extensively and visit many medical schools to obtain educational methods and recent advances.

Dr. McLeod was appointed recently to succeed Dean H. E. Lindsay as head of the medical college by the appointment to take effect July 1, 1952.

During the coming year he will be associated with the present medical school staff in planning a full four-year medical course to be introduced in Saskatchewan with the completion of the university hospital.

COMMISSION PASSES ITS FIRST HURDLE

EDMONTON — The district planning commission set up by the Alberta government to plan the future growth of the Edmonton area, has celebrated its first birthday.

The big job of regulating the future use of 3,000 square miles surrounding Edmonton is in the hands of 30 people—five planning technicians and 15 commission members.

Awards Made In Newspaper Competition

Installation of the president-elect, Stirling King, of the Exeter Mercury, and the presentation of trophies to the winners of the "Better Newspaper Competition", highlighted closing session of the annual convention of the Saskatchewan division of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers association at Saskatoon.

A unique event took place when Andrew King, a past president of the association, installed his son, Stirling, as the new president. In doing so he presented him with the same gavel which he himself had donated to the organization 20 years before. In accepting his new post Mr. King said that he would do his best to give at least partial credit to that office. "I will try to follow in the footsteps of a great many good men" he said. He succeeds George Lemenior of the Melfort Journal.

Syd Stevens, Shaunavon Standard, was named vice-president; Walter Ashdell, Cornish Bus, re-elected secretary-manager Peter Diener, Tisdale Recorder; Ian Mayhew, Yorkton Enterprise; and Walter Telfer, of the Humboldt Journal, were appointed to the executive for the coming year.

At the dinner, sponsored by the local branch of the Imperial Oil company, the winners in the newspaper competition were announced. The grain and milling award for the best all-round newspaper with circulation under 500 went to the Milestone Mail. The Touchwood Times was second and the Lumsden Press third in the same class. The grain and milling award for the best newspaper with a circulation of between 500 and 2,000 was won by the Grenfell Sun. The Shaunavon Standard was second and the Humboldt Journal and Indian Head News were tied for third.

The Printed Word trophy for the best all-round newspaper with a circulation of over 2,000, went to the Swift Current Sun, with the Yorkton Enterprise and Estevan Mercury second and third respectively.

The Yorkton Enterprise captured the Dominion Textile award for the best editorial page. The Swift Current Sun was second and the Estevan Mercury was third, in this class.

Norman MacLean of the Elrwood Herald, and Arthur Leech of the Vital Issue, judged the under 500, and 500 to 2,000 classes in the competition, while Ken Walls of the Barrie Examiner, and Bill Cranston of the Midland Free Press judged the over 2,000 class as well as the competition for the best editorial page. All four judges operate award-winning newspapers, their papers having captured awards in provincial and nation-wide competition

Walter Ashdell, secretary, told the gathering that this year's attendance had topped last year's by 16, totalling 160 delegates. This year's convention had been the most successful ever held, he said.

JUST A PRECAUTION

VANCOUVER.—Because she walked in uninvited, a woman lost a claim for damages against a Vancouver garage for injuries suffered when she slipped and fell into a grease pit.

Man Operates Floating Store On West Coast

VANCOUVER.—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Graham are doing a flourishing business with their floating departmental store, operated by two hooked communities along the British Columbia coast.

Three years ago Bill bought a retired schooner hull that had been abandoned, half full of water, on the beach. With the aid of his father he rebuilt the vessel and built a plywood and cedar superstructure.

Beginning his second year afloat, he and Mrs. Graham summer with his wife and three children for a two-months cruise northward with a $10,000 stock of goods.

Different store departments are scattered along much of the cruiser's 76-foot length. Long lines of tartan skirts hang from a metal frame. There are racks of men's blue denim work socks, nylon shirts, boys' and girls' shoes and lingerie.

There are also candies, watches, alarm clocks, costume jewelry and many other items including soft drinks. The latter are especially popular in Indian settlements.

They'll see old friends like Chief Henry Speck on Turnour Island, Old Hanson at Lagoon Jogging along up by Minstrel and all the gang at Anet Bay.

GRAIN SHIPMENTS HIT RECORD AT VANCOUVER PORT

VANCOUVER—Shipments of grain from the port of Vancouver during the crop year ending July 31 were all a post-war peak.

H. H. Smith, manager of the Canadian Wheat Board, reported more than 65,460,000 bushels of wheat left here for world markets during the year. In addition, 8,500,000 bushels of barley moved from here.

Wheat shipments for the 1950-51 crop year totalled 61,000,000 bushels.

United Kingdom, India, Japan and South Africa were the best grain customers.

The first watches were made in Nuremberg, Germany, in 1747.

Ukrainian Bride-Elect

The United church basement was the scene of a pretty bridal shower on Monday July 16th when friends of Miss Shirley Davidson met there to honor her. Miss Shirley Gunn played the wedding march as the bride-elect entered. Miss Heather Hoskins met her and led her to a beautiful decorated chair under a canopy of pink and white streamers. In a few words she extended to Shirley the best wishes of her friends and presented her with the gifts that were wheeled in by little young ladies and all enjoyed a very friendly social hour.

After the gifts had been unwrapped and viewed by all present Shirley thanked everyone for the good wishes and the lovely gifts. A delicious lunch was served by the Industrial Accidents

AS CANADA HAS EXPANDED INDUSTRIALLY there has been growing concern over the danger of industrial accidents and in almost every plant or factory today there are safety engineers, whose duty it is to make workers safety-conscious and to cut down in every way possible, the number of accidents. Last year, there were 20,604 claims registered with the Workmen's Compensation Boards in Canada, and there were 1,911 deaths resulting from industrial accidents. It is estimated that 1,000 workers are absent each day because of injuries received while at work. While industrial accidents are mainly associated with factories and large construction projects, the widespread use of agricultural machinery has given rise to a growing number of accidents on farms.

• • • •

Workers Must Be Educated

In 1948 there were 1,350 fatal industrial accidents in Canada and of these 94 were listed as having happened on farms. This was seven per cent. of the total number of industrial accidents in that year. Carelessness and disregard of safety rules are said to be the cause of a great many industrial accidents. Familiarity with a machine or with a tool often leads the worker to become careless in using it, and the need for education of workers in these matters is considered great by those interested in promoting safety in industry. Recently the National Safety Council of the United States issued a list of safety practices recommended to reduce the number of accidents on farms.

Is Important On The Farm

Farmers were advised to keep machines in good repair, to exercise caution when handling kerosene and gasoline and to observe safety rules when driving farm machines or motor vehicles. Farmers were also advised to observe caution with ladders and with firearms. The advisability of knowing first aid and of having first aid kits available for treating injuries was also stressed. In farming as in other industries accidents result in loss of time from work and sometimes in damage to machinery and other equipment, in addition to causing pain and discomfort and expense. Safety-consciousness and intelligent interest in removing the causes of accidents wherever possible, has become an important matter in modern industry and it is as important on the farm as in the factory or on great construction projects.

Law is Strict When it Comes To Signatures

SYDNEY, Australia. — An ex-serviceman's last wish to leave all his possessions, valued at more than $20,000, to a fellow-German friend was nullified here when he died in the act of signing the will.

A justice of the peace and other witnesses were present when the man began to sign the document, but collapsed and died after writing his christian names.

As he had no relatives and no dependents, he is officially assumed to have died intestate. Proceeds of the sale of his real and personal property will be transferred to general revenue.

A. A. Mann, Deputy Public Trustee, explained that a will is not valid unless signed by witnesses in the presence of the executor. Even if the executor lost consciousness while witnesses were signing, the will would not be valid.

One Accomplishment That Is Neglected

About this time every summer employers discover that graduates of universities and high schools cannot spell according to the Windsor Star. They fail to put together correctly the letters forming even simple words of two syllables. When they attempt to go beyond that, they are lost. Why spelling is not taught more diligently in the schools is a mystery. It is an essential in business yet so many young men and women have to learn to spell after they begin their business careers. They either are not taught or do not learn in the classrooms.

Canada Now Planning To Import Butter

OTTAWA.—Agriculture Minister Gardiner announced that the government will try to prevent a possible shortage next winter by importing 10,000,000 pounds of butter.

He told a press conference that purchases will be made by the newly-established agricultural products board. In addition, the board has been given the power to import another 10,000,000 pounds if production falls below current estimates.

Meanwhile, the border will be closed to all imports of butter by private trade, with the new board becoming the sole importer until further notice.

To those private traders who already have taken steps to import butter, permits will be issued to enable them to complete transactions undertaken before Aug. 1.

In addition to these steps, Mr. Gardiner said the new board also has been given authority to buy a small amount of first-grade Canadian creamery butter over the government support price of 58 cents a pound wholesale. Butter prices currently are ranging at between 62 and 65 cents a pound wholesale, basis delivery Montreal.

The minister said that up to the moment, no butter has been offered to his department at the support price of 58 cents.

He made no definite statement on where the imported butter will come from, but indicated that he hoped to get some from New Zealand, Australia and possibly the Netherlands.

Reviewing the butter situation, he said the facts of the current situation are that production, storage stocks and consumption are all lower than the average of recent years.

Oil Sands in Alberta To Be Studied

EDMONTON.—Nearly 100 representatives of the world's leading oil companies are expected to attend Alberta's symposium on northern oil sands in September.

The northern Alberta sands represent one of the world's largest reserves of oil.

As yet untapped, the sands have been experimented on for years by scientists seeking an economical method of separating the intimate mixture of sand and oil.

The Alberta government has invited some of the world's biggest oil companies to attend the symposium, which will give technical details of all phases of oil sands development.

The delegates will be flown to Bitumont in northeastern Alberta to inspect the workings of the Alberta government's pilot plant there.

The Anglo-Iranian Oil company of Great Britain is reported to be one of the firms interested in constructing a multi-million-dollar plant to extract oil from the sands.

Industries Minister J. L. Robinson said international interest in the oil sands "is increasing."

Ethelwyn News

This correspondent hopes that the Editor and staff enjoyed their holiday. We really missed the Standard. It didn't seem like Saturday night without the paper.

The writer is sorry to report that many school children spent at least one week of the vacation in bed with measles. It is to be hoped that the epidemic will be over before school starts again which won't be long now.

The children of Rye district will have a lovely new school this year. On being interviewed recently by two contractors, Mr. Hand Calvert and Mr. George Cleven of Vermilion said that the school will be finished and ready for the painters by the middle of August. The building is 24 feet by 30 feet with one classroom, science room, two cloak rooms. There are some lovely win- ows down on the west side with one on the east. There is a full basement with large play room and coal bin. It is really a school to be proud of and it is sincerely hoped that every one will take pride in keeping the building in good condition.

Mrs. W. A. A. Young

Sandy McDonald helped out at Mrs. Dorothy Burns while the children had the measles.

As son Dean had the measles the writer could not attend the summer school to see the work that had been done. Mr. MacMahon had a very good program arranged by all reports and it is hoped that some one will give an account of the week's work.

Mrs. L. Hibbert, Joyce, Jean and Jimmy of Edmonton spent a few weeks with the former's sisters the Misses Verna and Gladys Boyce and brother Gerald.

Judging from the many acres of grain that were sprayed this summer the majority of farmers are doing everything possible to control noxious weeds. The weed inspector tells of a new and very serious weed called wood flax. We wonder if we duty it is to destroy the very few such patch of this bad weed in one of the lake streets in Clandonald? The write is informed that a few years ago the seed of this plant was grown with flower seeds. Since starting this news bulletin the writer was pleased to note that this patch of tonal flax has been cut down.

Clandonald News

It's back to work for the editor and staff this week and this means no excuses for the country correspondents as well. Some of our news items are going overdue but perhaps will still be of interest to a few readers. Sorry we let you down Allandale but no reporting the party held in honor of the newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Don McGahon. Our intentions were of the best but that's as far as we got. We did indeed have a nice time and are sure that Mr and Mrs. McMahon will return to the east with pleasant memories of western hospitality. It was unfortunate the rooms were in such poor condition at the time as doubtless only for this, many more well wishers would have attended the enjoyable affair.

This week, as for the past several years, the summer vacation school was conducted under the auspices of the student minister and several helpers. On Friday afternoon parents were invited to inspect the work done by the children and to enjoy a short program followed by lunch. Quite a large number of children attended, many being from outlying points. This is quite a popular event and eagerly looked forward to by the youngsters.

After being closed for a month Fred Goddard has his enlarged and renovated pool room and barber shop in operation once more. He now has four pool tables for the customers and carries a stock of soft drinks, candies and tobacco. The opening of the new premises was celebrated by a dance attended by a large crowd.

Ed Barclay has mark a good start on his new house and should be able to occupy it within a few weeks.

New barns seem to be the order of the day just now in this area. Stanley Dyjur and James Martin and sons are erecting fine new structures with accommodation for many head of stock and large hay lofts.

The writer and daughter accompanied by Marilyn Blake, attended the wedding of Marion, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hagen which event took place at Bel Deer on Wednesday, July 18. Many of the guests were former Clandonald residents including Mr. and Mrs. Tom Souder, Mr. and Mrs. J. McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. G. Turney, Mrs. Harold White and Mrs. Jim Bailey. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hagen and Ann from here and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stockwell of Edmonton.

Word was received a few weeks ago by the Roberge family that Willi who has been hauling gravel near Calgary was in hospital recovering from an attack of pneumonia. His brother Art left immediately to drive the truck until Willi was well enough to resume work.

The electric storms have certainly been severe and lightning struck at Stanley Dyjur's farm home on two different occasions. Fortunately no great damage was done either time.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Pearl Keeler and family for the great tragedy which befell them when lightning struck their home and took the life of their husband and father.

In common with the rest of the country crops here are the best in years but we imagine that anyone selling frost insurance would do a roaring business as that appears to be the greatest hazard for the next few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stanley had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman from Vancouver the latter part of July. Mrs. Hoffman is the former Jessie Stanley having left here several years ago to live at the coast.

There are no services at the Anglican church just at present as our minister is taking a three weeks' holiday. So far Rev. Calvert and family have not left town but plan a few trips later during their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe had the pleasure of the company of their two young grandchildren for some time recently. Later their mother Mrs. Norman Roe also visited for a few days taking the children back with her.

The writer understands that Bill Dixon has sold his house in Vermilion and has moved with his family to the former Geo. White farm just a half mile south of the flour mill. Congratulations on again going in for farming Bill even if it's only part time

While in Edmonton the writer called on Jack Rowntree who now makes his home there. He and his wife moved from New Westminster some months ago. Jack is a contractor on the Edmonton transit system and likes his work very much. At the time of our visit Mrs. Rowntree was in hospital, a baby daughter having arrived a few days previously.

Len McDonald, a former Landonville resident but now making his home in Edmonton, has made several attempts to hold a dance in town. Up until now bad rains have seemed to follow him and he has not had a very large crowd to date. Len has his own orchestra and they are well worth coming to hear if they decide to pay our town another visit. Another member of his orchestra is Ted Preston, a former Allandale resident

Holy Name Church Is Setting For Summer Wedding

MULLEN—NOONAN

The altar of Holy Name church was beautifully decorated with summer flowers on August 4th when Rev. Father Landrigan officiated at the wedding of Beth Noonan, only daughter of Mrs. D. Noonan and the late Mr. Noonan, to Mr. George Mullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mullen of Jasper.

The bride, who entered the church with her brother-in-law Mr. Jim Kirk, was lovely in a floor length white satin with three - quarter length jacket of French chantilly lace, fashioned with lily point sleeves and soft-covered buttons. A lace Juliet cap held in place her veil of French illusion. She carried a beautiful bouquet of red roses spiked with lily of the valley.

She was preceded by her niece, Mary Ann Noonan, little flower girl, prettily dressed in white silk with lace veil carrying a bouquet of summer flowers, and Kay Noonan as bridesmaid, dressed in pink nylon marquisette with chapel veil and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Dennis Noonan was best man. Mr. Leandre Noonan ushered the guests to their seats.

During the signing the choir sang "O Sanctissima" and "Veni Veni" accompanied by Miss Katherine Coy on the piano. During the signing at the register Schubert's "Ave Maria" was played by Miss Helen Noonan.

At the reception on the lawns the bride was received with a triple tiered wedding cake embedded in white tulle sprinkled with rosebuds and finished with white and pink taper and flowers. A toast was proposed to the bride by Rev. Father Landrigan.

Mrs. Noonan chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue sheer dress and wore a corsage of red roses, baby breath and fern. The groom's mother was dressed in navy crepe and wore a corsage of red roses, baby breath and fern.

For travelling the bride changed to a grey gaberdine suit and left by car for Banff, Lake Louise and will make their home at Jasper Park.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mullen, Mr. Charley Mullen and Bernon from Jasper; Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLeod and Teresa from Edson; Miss Christine McLeod from Red Deer; Mrs. Cunningham and Bill Donnigan of Edmonton.

WILDMERE WINKS

Here we come once again with our news. We do hope all the Standard staff had a nice holiday and are back full of vim and vigor for another 50 weeks of work.

The writer and family enjoyed a week's holiday at Calgary, where the children's mother was visited. They also visited with their dad who works in Calgary. A short jaunt was made to Darwell, Alberta to visit with the Bumstons family. We called to see Mr. and Mrs. H. Howard and brother Laurence in the city on our way home. Stopped in at Elk Island park to set the young fry free but no buffalo but some could be spotted. Skidroads were too muddy to go on there, however we did see a few moose and calf. Don't forget to mention a visit with the children — grandmother, aunt, cousin and a dog. A terrific hail storm had pounded crops and gardens for last month or 2 miles where we were at Calgary. While in one of the stores in Calgary, the rain into the basement. Lots of flooded cellars were on their holidays.

Take note Mrs. Waldmere W.I. members. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Robt. Smith's of Sunnywood, Bell call, August 23rd at 2:30 p.m. sharp. Topic by Mrs. Wallington. Social. Picture of you dad.

The August meeting of the W.W.I. was held at Mrs. C. Cruthers cabin with 11 present. Roll call was given. Forty-one people attended. The writer was away so does not know the names of the visitors and members. The girls who attended the convention gave a very fine report and an account of their trip. A contest on India was given by Mrs. Wilson and was very interesting. A contest by Up was won by the writer so was quite a surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Parr and sons Wayne and Ernest of Vancouver, were visiting with Mrs. Parr's mother Frank Gibson and family of Bonnywood and called on most of their old neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Gibson of Cloverdale, B.C. spent a short time at their son's on the way home from Woodside, Man., and at their daughter's Mrs. Hadill of town. It was nice to see these old neighbors again and all looking so well.

Mr and Mrs. Norman Smith and baby daughter spent a week end visiting Brothers Bill, Adam and Albert and sister Mrs. Cruthers. Norman runs a store at Bon Accord. Bon Accord and Roger enjoyed a bit of fun at the ball tournament in Auburndale while here.

Mrs Chas Morand and three sons Charlie, Leo and Peter of Calgary are holidaying with Mrs. Morand's brothers Bill and Adam Smith of Wildmere.

The writer and family spent a very pleasant afternoon on Sunday at the Sherwood home in Bonnie View goes the children Mrs. Sherwood.

Double Ring Ceremony At St. Saviour's Anglican Church

HODGSON—MOORE

A pretty double-ring ceremony was solemnized at St. Saviour's Anglican church on Wednesday, August 1st when vows of marriage were exchanged by Miss Lavonne Rosabelle Moore and Mr. Alfred Hodgson.

Canon T. W. Teape performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with peonies and delphiniums.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin designed on princess lines, fading in a long train. The sweetheart neckline and lily-point sleeves were embroidered with an outline of seed pearls. Her fingertip veil of white net was held in place by a band of pearls and silver, and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

She was attended by the groom's sister, Mrs. Joyce Baker as matron of honor and by Miss Anne Beecroft as bridesmaid. Little Monica Maude Moore was her sister's flower girl.

Mrs. Maker wore a gown of yellow nylon sheer and Miss Beecroft's gown of green taffeta. Both wore tiny lace caps and elbow-length mittens in shades to match their gowns and each carried a horseshoe bouquet of white daisies and marigolds.

The flower girl wore a frock of mauve organdy over mauve petticoats and a band of mauve flowers adorned her hair. She carried a colonial bouquet of mauve sweet peas.

Mr Bogus Maice and Mr. Dick Moore attended the groom. The ushers were Mr. Joseph Mysliak and Mr. Jack Brown.

Mr. Jack Brown played the wedding music and Miss Audrey Watts sang "Ave Maria."

Later a reception for eighty-five guests was held in the Legion hall.

Mrs. Moore received in a dress of green and white jersey with green accessories and she wore pink carnation corsage.

The groom's mother chose a dress of navy and white crepe with pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride's table was laid with an ecru lace cloth and centred by a three-tiered wedding cake embedded in pink tulle and flanked by tall tapers and bouquets of mixed flowers.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Canon T. W. Teape.

Vermilion To Have T. B. Clinic

Once Again, Vermilion, after a this section of Alberta. Mrs. Hilda lapse of four years, is going to have Cross is the chairman of this com- the T.P. X-ray clinic here, and it is mittee with Mrs. Lebedeys as the now necessary to arrange for the convener in this canvass, so if examining of a free chest, there are any volunteers, you will while it is here. Plans are now be welcomed to help out in this work. being formulated to have a full registration of all in this area, so that appointments can be made, of which all will be notified.

This canvass must be completed at the latest by Saturday, Sept. 1, and it is significant that in all cases those solicited are readily signing up for an appointment, also it is gratifying to note that canvassers are not lacking, the organized, and chain organizing force resting with the Nurses Association of Vermilion. Country points are asked to contact Mr. T. Watts of the Nelson Lumber Co., Mr. Watts at this moment to complete their districts, many hands will make short work of the summer districts, and for the easy contact, boxes and registration cards have been placed in the following stores. It only takes a minute to sign up the whole family: Long's Bank's drug store, Cowie Hill's, Maricelo and Northern hardwares, Co-op., Craig's, Stephens, McLaughlin's, and Vermilion Dairy store.

The town will be canvassed from house to house, but the country points will rest on a few individuals who can undertake to look after districts. Even if you are not spoken to make it your business to fill out a card for Specialist, for there are 3500 people in this area, and the campaign is striving for a 90 per cent response. It is hoped to have the clinic here around Sept. 15th but the dates have not as yet been arranged, due to the number who will be photographed.

The plans will be in the armories, the time around Sept 15th. The district is Hayenga on the west, to Islay (included) on the east, 6 miles north and about 22 miles south. Sign up the whole family, all ages are eligible. Fill out the card in your mail box as it can be picked up in a few days and let's make this a real check up. We have the slogan 'No News is Good News'.

When it was here before the Clinic checked 2200 and this was considered a good result, but it is felt that another 1300 could easily come out to take the record for Vermilion.

Frank Hibbert Dies At 102

Frank Hibbert, well known as the oldest person in this part of the province, died on his 102nd birthday, Thursday, Aug. 16th at his home in the Wildwood district. 28 miles south-east of Vermilion. He had been in good health until early in July when he began failing but had full use of all his senses up until his death. This spring he had seeded and tended the family gardens, in which he as usual took great pride.

Mr. Hibbert was born at Quebec City in 1849. He travelled extensively on this continent and paid a first visit to this part of Canada as early as 1883. He did not however settle here permanently until 1907 when he homesteaded in the Wildwood district where he has since made his home. He had little schooling but became interested in Bible and taught himself to read so that he might study the sacred volume and he became a great student of the scriptures.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. David Drysdale with whom he lived, Mrs. Ruth Stevens of Burnaby, B.C., and one son Paul of White Rock, B.C. There are nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the United Church in Vermilion on Thursday, Aug 23rd at 2:00 o'clock. Interment in the Jungles of Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. Mr. McKay officiated.

Pallbearers were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Coming To Vermilion For One Day Only

Angus and Rosemary Cunningham, who have been living among the Eskimos in the Jungles of Baffin Land are coming to Vermilion for one day only.

They have seen some of the most cruel practices and their lives are in constant danger. They have seen the Arctic Island in the house. It was noted too that when Mr. Cornish spoke he always represented the people.

The balance of the evening was spent in discussion and contained much merriment. Chief of these was a ladies' rolling pin throwing match, the targets being the Hon. Mr. Taylor, Bob Blair, M.P. and Bill Cornish, M.L.A.

St. Saviour's Is Setting For District Wedding

PRESTON—KAUS

Vases of peonies and delphinium arranged with baby's breath graced the altar of St Saviour's Anglican church for the ceremony in which Penelope Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Kaus exchanged vows in a double ring service with Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Preston, Rev. Canon Teape officiated.

The bride looked lovely in her father the bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline and lily point sleeves. The fingertip veil was gathered to a beaded crown and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and lily of the valley. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the groom.

Mrs. Harold Young, sister of the groom, was matron of honor and wore a gown of yellow brocaded nylon organza with a picture hat and matching mitts. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink and mauve carnations.

Mr. Harold Young was best man and ushering the guests was Mr. Bob Wardle.

Mrs. Kay, great-aunt of the groom played the wedding march.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kaus chose a navy sheer dress with white hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Preston, also wore navy sheer with a rose hat, blue accessories and pink carnations on corsage.

Later the guests were received at a reception held at the home of the bride's parents. A circle of cedar bee covered the bride's table where she cut and with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mr. Joe Herring proposed the toast to the bride which was fittingly responded to by the groom. Miss Betty Kaus attended the guest book.

Real Norway Rat South of Town

After many alarms over the appearance of rats, all of which heretofore happily turned out to be false alarms, a real rat was killed on the farm of Mr. Ed Bryant, 12 miles south and 3 miles east of Vermilion on Saturday last. Mr. Pullman himself spotted the strange animal as it ran across his barnyard heading for a granary. His good farm dog saw it at the same time, and the chase was on, and killed it. Mr. Pullman decided that it was a rat, brought it to town and turned it over to District Agriculturist E. H. Buckingham and definite verification of its identity as a rat of the most undesirable Norwegian species was determined. The area wherein it was found is now being searched carefully for signs of other of the species.

The only explanation of the appearance of the rat at that particular point is that it might have been brought in with some oil well drilling equipment and pipe, as a well was drilled in the neighborhood earlier this summer.

New Members Needed This Fall

Boys' Band Has Successful Year

The Vermilion Boys' band, organized in the fall of 1950 has now completed two most successful seasons. The musical training the members have received has been of a manner in which the band has been able to contribute to special occasions in the district and the public activities it has attracted for Vermilion when engaged at outside points, all creditable reports of which its members, its sponsors and the town in general can well be proud.

Several of the boys who spark plug the band have left town but the going have broadened their musical interests to include formation of a dance band which has been very popular in the town and district.

Many of the boys have been able to secure employment with the local oil companies during the past season.

Engagements accepted this summer by the band included the Wainwright sports day on July 2nd the Mannville Stock Car Derby on July 9th, Vermilion fair July 30th and the highlight of them all the Edmonton exhibition parade July 16. Participation in the Edmonton parade gives Vermilion an opportunity to advertise its opening on Sept. 6th. All students are requested to register on any of these afternoons, or on Saturday evening between 7:00 and 9:00. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested parents to come with their students to assist in planning for the forthcoming year's program.

Crop Prospects Excellent

Alberta is facing the prospects of harvesting an excellent crop this fall and this district is claimed to rank with the best. Wheat at present averages a good 20 inches with the stands a sight to behold. The only drawback is that the grain is a good two weeks late and cutting of wheat will not start possibly for at least a week. Some barley cutting is now being done.

Officials place yields at 25 for wheat, 60 for oats and 35 for barley in this agricultural district. The outlook for hay and fodder supply is excellent, and of course the pasture was never better at this time of year.

The crop to date has suffered no damage from hail, drought or frost, and the widespread spotting carried out has greatly reduced the weed growth.

"Herring Choker Special" Proves Delightful Excursion

The "Herring Choker Special" which left Edmonton July 18 carrying 247 Maritimers to their former homes on the Atlantic coast returned to Edmonton Tuesday morning Aug. 14th.

This excursion was organized and supervised by Mr. J. V. Dodd, a past president of the Maritime Provinces association of Edmonton. Mr. Dodd and his staff were showered with praises for providing almost continuous entertainment during the trip east and return. Two special day coaches were furnished with piano, organ, gramophone, movies, bingo, etc. which were well patronized during the four day trip each way. Mr. Dodd is already making preparation for a "repeater" next year.

Travelling on the Herring Choker from Vermilion were Dr. A. H. Goodwin and John Maxwell.

LOCAL NEWS

Many old friends were pleased to renew acquaintances with Mrs. (Dr.) Payne who at one time lived in Vermilion but left here in 1913. She has been living since that time at Mimico, Ont., a suburb of Toronto. She has spent some 27 years in Magistrate's Court and is now a J. P. for all of Ontario. Mrs. Payne has been on a trip to the coast and visited a nephew at Kamloops. While in Vermilion she was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Long.

A party comprised of Leeman, John, Florence and Hazel Clark and Mrs. Fred Clark motored to Vancouver recently to visit relatives. Mr. John Clark had not seen his sister for 45 years but even then she recognized him. On their return trip they were accompanied by Mrs. F. J. Nunn to Vermilion where the latter visited her sister Mrs. Cloutier whom she had not seen for 25 years. Everyone enjoyed the trouble-free trip very much. They found that driving through the mountains via the Big Bend was rather nerve wracking the first time over.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen and Mrs. Cora Rankin have just returned from a six weeks holiday during which they travelled by bus through twelve States and a portion of Canada. Leaving Edmonton they went to Salt Lake City and spent a very interesting time in that well known centre, toured Omaha, saw "one of famous boys' town where homeless boys live, are educated, learn trades and generally prepared for life; Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Brainerd and Badger, relatives being visited at the latter places, and thence back home.

Miss Jo McLaughlin is in town this week visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLaughlin.

Miss Evelyn Jory who has been nursing at Chilliwack, B.C. is visiting her home here.

NEWS from ISLAY

We were glad to see the Standard again after the holidays—but Islay news failed to appear. It is a very busy time for all of us now. There were berries to gather and can and now it is the garden vegetables to process. Everyone is canning so many quarts. Percy Godby says his wife has 85 quarts of raspberries from their own garden! Horrors! a raspberry pie about Xmas time Eaton?

The Skinner's have returned from their long trip, as far as Mexico. They had a nice time but were glad to get home. Mr. Inman says they Alberta surely looks good to him.

The McLeans and the Armstrongs have returned from holiday trips also. Mrs McLean reports having seen the Rev. Mr. Vogel and two boys in swimming at Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. David Clarke and Gregory have left on a motor trip to the states. While they are away Mr. and Mrs. John Milner are occupying their home and doing some canning of vegetables.

Mrs. R. Martin is spending a few days at the home of her daughter Mrs. Bill Hancock.

Mrs. Bob Armstrong of Smoky Lake Falls and her son Bobby of Mundare were here last week-end for some time with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Neil McEachern who returned east by car. Bob Armstrong motoring up to get them. Miss Catherine McEachern went home for a few days and then left on a trip to Montana to finish her holidays.

Mrs. Halverson has returned home too, she and Mr. Halverson are now busy house cleaning.

A number of ladies attended the Blossom-Time tea at Bonnyville sponsored by the W.A. of the church. The district home economist demonstrated somethings with patterns for sewing—a very interesting one. The tea was delightful and the ladies report a most enjoyable time. Eats? There are excellent cooks in that part of the country!

Crops are ripening, fields are taking on that golden hue. Ken Stone was combining heavy Tuesday and by Wednesday was awaiting an other field. Yield is excellent.

As there was no service in the United church in Islay, Rev. Vogel being away on holidays, a number of Islayites motored to Pierceland Valley Sunday, Aug. 12. Canon Teape's service was enjoyed very much. It was a beautiful day and the setting of the little church in the trees is very lovely. Last Sunday the Rev. Mr. McKay of Vermilion conducted service in Islay United church. Mr. McKay is a finest speaker. The Rev. Mr. Vogel will be back for the Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Buchanan have purchased the lots where once stood Mr. Waterfield's cottage. They expect to move a house in next week. Mr. Buchanan will be able to leave the hospital by then it is thought.

The newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Don McInnis returned some time ago. A shower was held in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund McFadyen. Due to heavy rains and bad roads only a number were sorry to have been unable to attend. Nevertheless a good crowd was there with a real shower of gifts. Many happy years were wished for the young couple.

Annual W.M.S. Rally Sept. 6

The annual W.M.S. rally of the Islay church will be held on Thursday Sept. 6th at 2:00 p.m. An address will be given by the Rev. Mr. Persse of Manville on the life of Dr. Albert Schweitzer. You are welcome to attend.

School will soon begin again and exam papers will be on the go. Here is one for those who write exams — Teacher: "In which of his battles did King Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden slain."

Pupil: I'm sure it was his last one.

Wildmere Winks

Another of our good neighbors has gone to his well-earned rest. When word came on Wednesday evening that Mr. Adam Smith had passed away it cast a gloom over the whole district. While his family and friends knew he could not get better it is always a shock when word of death comes. Mr. Smith and his family came to our district in 1926 direct from Scotland. "Its home was where ever he was" and he made friends wherever he went. A kind husband and a loving father and grandfather he will be greatly missed. He had been ailing for many years. The funeral was held at Vancouver, Bill, Adam and Mrs. Morgan attended.

Mrs. Lloyd Howard and baby daughter spent a couple of weeks in July on Vancouver Island visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Coburn. Brothers Allan and William, she reported it being extremely dry out there.

We were pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. Costin accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Rendell out to church on Sunday. It was Mr. and Mrs. Costin's first wedding anniversary, may they see many more such happy ones. Mr. and Mrs. Rendell plan to leave the first part of September on the first leg of their journey to New England. May they have smooth sailing.

Haying is the work going on in our district right now. Grain is beginning to change color and the grand rush will be on in a couple of weeks. We have been very lucky having no hail or frost on our corner as far as I hear.

Bill and Adam Smith have purchased a new combine. Cliff Cruthers a new swather, Haines Bros. also have a combine and R. Donly of Triangle a combine.

Mr. Evan Costin of Triangle has bought himself a car to get around in.

Miss Anne Garnett of Walsworight hospital staff spent the week end at her home in Basswood.

The writer enjoyed a pleasant chat on Saturday evening with Mrs. Massey in town.

We do hope all our sick friends are now on the mend.

We wish to congratulate Mrs. Maxwell of Vermilion and Dorothy Isley of Woodvale on the publication of their songs. We hope to hear both of them soon.

DEER LAKE DOINGS

A large crowd attended the picnic at the McCrea bridge on Sunday Aug. 12th. The picnic was sponsored by the Dewberry and district P.U.A. A very amusing ball game between Dewberry and Marwayne was greatly enjoyed. The men were dressed as ladies and caused much amusement by their antics and cheering. Many were the funny remarks passed by the players when they were impeded by their unaccustomed attire. Much laughter was caused when a player after missing two strikes with the bat resorted to a scoop shovel. Quite often instead of a ball the pitcher threw a very ripe grapefruit. Some of the players had their finger nails painted and lipstick was used profusely not only on the lips but on the face and some had it on their disabled knees!

The Dewberry 'ladies' were Ms Perkins, Big Sister, Moonbeam, Baby, Lizzie, Snookums, Sushi, Arbelo and Pauline. Marwayne, Ruth, Betty, Josephine, Rosie, Clara, Harriet, Bubbles and Ruby. Marwayne won the game 11-0.

Following a picnic lunch the winners plus the Dewberry girls' softball team and the latter won a close game 10-9. Dewberry girls line-up, Mildred Brownlee, Anne Sherman, Jean Bowman, Bernice Romanchok, Phyllis Walker, Jean Clark, Emma Asley, Annie Rihi and Mary Trach.

Many children and grown ups enjoyed the swimming in the river. Some of the players report bad colds and claim that it was from swimming but others say that it was from wearing women's clothes.

The booth was very well patronized and it really was a most enjoyable afternoon.

Treasures Worth Fabulous Sum Lent To Toronto Art Gallery

TORONTO. — The largest emerald in the world — big as a clenched fist — is at the Toronto Art Gallery this month. It was hollowed out in the 17th century to make a perfume jar for a queen's dressing table. In an upstairs room stands the cradle of the King of Rome, son of the Emperor Napoleon. Created with gold and inlaid with mother-of-pearl, it was presented to Napoleon on the birth of his son by the citizens of Paris.

The two items are part of a traveling collection of European art treasures loaned to the gallery by the Kunsthistorisches Museum of Vienna —the Austrian state museum.

Valued at $80,000,000, the collection consists of paintings, armor, tapestries and sculpture and work in gold, silver, ivory, bronze and priceless stones. There are 121 paintings—many world-famous — mostly by Flemish, Italian and Spanish artists of the 16th and 17th centuries.

Sidney Key, curator of the gallery, says the $80,000,000 is merely an insurance valuation.

"Every item in the collection is unique and irreplaceable," he says. "One painting alone, Titian's 'Boy in Studio', by the Dutch master, Jan Vermeer, is valued at $2,000,000. But it can no more be replaced than can Westminster Abbey."

The collection was assembled over a period of four centuries by members of the Hapsburg family who at one time ruled Europe from the Mediterranean to the Baltic and whose dominion extended to the New Indies and to America.

Parts of the portrait collection constitute a cross-section of the aristocracy of Europe for the last 400 years.

From the walls of the gallery, princes and kings, knights in gold-embossed armor, royal virginals in satin and brocade and here and there a gentleman unknown, stare haughtily at the visitor.

In one corner a life-size bust of King Philip II of Spain—cast in silver and painted in natural colors—frowns moodily across the centuries. King Philip launched the Spanish Armada against England.

The Italian painter Titian—contrast with Michaelangelo one of the two greatest painters of the Renaissance—is represented by his antics and showing. Many were the funny remarks passed by the players when they were impeded by their unaccustomed attire. Much laughter was caused when a player after missing two strikes with the bat resorted to a scoop shovel. Quite often instead of a ball the pitcher threw a very ripe grapefruit. Some of the players had their finger nails painted and lipstick was used profusely not only on the lips but on the face and some had it on their disabled knees!

Second Federal Budget Slated For Fall Session

OTTAWA.—A federal budget, Canada's second of the current fiscal year, will be brought down by Finance Minister Abbott in the fall session of parliament.

Government sources say it will be a special budget, as opposed to the government's regular annual financial accounting, in the same sense as the "baby" budget introduced at the special session last September.

That budget was required because of the outbreak of the Korean war and the stepped-up tempo of Canada's defence preparations.

This one will be necessitated by the arrangements for financing the universal $40-a-month old-age pension which go into effect Jan. 1 and for Canadians of 70 and over.

The government hasn't yet said how it plans to finance the pensions which will add $280,000,000 a year to federal expenditures. The finance department still is studying the problem and is expected to recommend weekly or monthly reductions from the high envelopes of Canada's wage structure.

This would put the pension plan on a contributory basis and, in a strict sense, couldn't be called taxation. It would be similar to the deductions made from pay envelopes to finance the unemployment insurance fund.

It is considered doubtful that the fall budget would contain any substantial tax changes in other fields. There might be some minor adjustments resulting from the tax board announced in the regular budget last spring. At that time, commodity, mine and excise taxes were reviewed and a new 35-per-cent. defence surtax was imposed on personal income taxes.

When current work is completed on No. 2 Highway near the U.S. border, the first major north-south route will be established — hard-surfacing from the boundary to about 60 miles north of Edmonton. Others will be developed as the population grows he said An estimated $4 million will be spent on the Trans-Canada highway this year.

Found At Home

CALGARY—Search for an eight-year-old girl involving hundreds of Calgary citizens, the police and fire departments, ended when she was found asleep in a bathroom. Edna Sturgeon was reported missing when her mother saw her "disappear" on the Bow river bank.

Calgary's First And Only Movie Too Real For Patrons

CALGARY. — The handsome hero kissed over and kissed the heroine and she sensually produced her trusty guitar and played a tune to the wire-reported moon over Lake Louise.

Then, as the sun sank slowly, they strolle away together in the Calgary exhibition grounds.

The scene was Calgary's first movie set. The date: 1977.

It was Calgary's lone entry into the motion picture business—a rooting-tootin' epic called "His Destiny".

All it remains of it now is a brilliantly-colored booklet describing the "stupendous story of the foothills of Alberta" that was "sincere and convincing, abounding in thrilling surprises".

Neil Hart, the cowboy glamour man of the '20s, was the star. He was also the director and the movie was called upon to stop a wild horse stampede.

In the booklet Hart is pictured wearing a wide-brimmed hat purposefully shirt and fancy riding pants. He is also shown in a dark suit with a black tie wearing the worried look of a director.

The plot of the rest was homespun tasted. Joe Big Plume chief of the Careee tribe, played an Indian chief Inspector James Spaulding of the R.C.M.P. was a mounted police inspector. And somehow, Viscount Willingdon, then Governor-General of Canada, appeared in publicity as the Governor-General of Canada.

Mary Cross, "Queen of the Saddle —a native of Calgary", was the heroine.

Cost of her accomplishments in the film was riding a democrat — the wagon, not the political schnee!—down the streets of Calgary in a ranch.

The sun porch of the Palliser hotel was one of the scenes in the movie. The city court house was another.

But as the booklet put it, "His Destiny was more than a picture; it was grim reality that arouses every human emotion and causes amazement at the startling situations that follow in rapid succession."

The only trouble was that it was a grimly real and amazing for the patrons

BYLAW ADOPTED

MEDICINE HAT, Alta.—A curfew bylaw was adopted by the Medicine Hat city council to get unsupervised juveniles off the streets by 10 p.m.

Calgary Zoo Has Some Clever Bear

CALGARY.—Even the deer at Calgary have baby-sitters.

Curator Tom Barnes says two mother ewes who have lost their offspring in the morning. Mama No. 2 takes over in the afternoon.

When milker wants to work about the babies they push the small fry through a fence to be cared for by a neighboring elk. Then the mother sidles to it cheerfully together.

World's Wheat Carryover Is Slightly Higher

OTTAWA.—Wheat supplies in the four main wheat-producing countries left for export and carryover at July 1 totalled 891,000,000 bushels, slightly above last year's total of 889,000,000, the bureau of statistics reported in its monthly review of the world situation.

The report showed that the United States held 395,000,000 bushels compared with 427,000,000 last year; Canada 210,000,000 compared with 129,000,000, Australia 67,000,000 against 92,000,000, and Argentina 19,000,000 against 40,000,000

Based on conditions at June 1 last, the eighth consecutive billion-bushel wheat crop was forecast for the United States. Production of all wheat was placed at 1,070,000,000 bushels, consisting of 707,000,000 bushels of winter wheat and 363,000,000 bushels of spring wheat

"In Canada," the report said, "cutting of the winter wheat crop is well advanced, with an estimated 811,000 acres to be harvested in Ontario. While no official estimate of yields will be available until Aug 15, it is evident that some reduction from earlier expectations will result from the extensive damage by the May blossom fly.

Current indications are for some reduction in the Australian and, possibly, in the Argentine wheat crops. In Australia growing conditions are generally satisfactory although some reduction in acreage appears to have taken place. A production estimate places this year's crop at 171,000,000 bushels, given average growing conditions. In Argentina, on the other hand, moisture reserves have been seriously depleted, especially in Cordoba and Santa Fe, and as a result the production in these areas have been estimated by the trade at around 40 per cent.

Careful, Mister... that's dangerous stuff!

Maybe you don't think that money can harm you. But nowadays, unless you handle it with care, it can make things tougher for you — and others.

If you spend it on things you don't any more be scarce or may cost more later, you will help drive prices and higher. And that will hit you where it hurts — in your own wallet.

So every dollar you save now — in life insurance bank deposits, or savings bonds — helps keep prices down. And it can work for you in other important personal ways.

For instance, you may need money someday for an unexpected emergency. Or, perhaps, for starting a new business . . . buying a new home . . . assuring your boy or girl to college. These and other plans may remain just dreams — unless you have some money saved.

Health Services

THE VALUE OF extended health services and of preventing the occurrence of disease whenever possible is recognized everywhere today. As a result of the increased interest in preventative medicine many communicable diseases have been almost stamped out, and the effects of others have been modified by the use of modern drugs and serums. Widespread immunization and the many other services which go with the practice of preventative medicine have placed an added burden on public expenditures. In Canada both the Provincial and Federal governments administer health matters. Hospitalization plans, and public health services are managed by the provincial governments and vary in the different provinces, but throughout Canada there is continuous expansion in this work.

• • • •

Fuller Use Of Grants

Many activities of the provincial health departments are made possible by grants of federal funds for those purposes. Recently Hon Paul Martin, Minister of National Health and Welfare announced that the national health program had been expanded to make federal funds available for a wider variety of uses by the provincial health departments, and to permit fuller use of the grants. Among the changes announced were the provision of funds for the building of hospital laboratories, grants for the building of nurses' residences and increased aid for out-patients departments and diagnostic service in hospitals.

• • • •

Create Need For Expansion

The extension of federal financial aid, Mr. Martin said, would help the nation's hospitals to develop a good prevention program. "The hospital has wider opportunities than ever before," he pointed out, "in education, research, care of the sick and in public health." Wider opportunities bring heavier responsibilities for service, the minister added, and these responsibilities have been felt in all parts of the country. There has been difficulty everywhere in providing hospital space, nursing service and the many other facilities required by a growing population and rapidly-expanding health services. There is no question that these and other signifies important social progress here, and health programs of the federal and provincial governments are resulting in widespread benefits to the Canadian people.

Big Contracts For The Trans-Canada Highway

WINNIPEG — Work now under way on the trans-Canada highway totals $44,000,000 in construction contracts, J. W. Wardle of Ottawa reported.

Mr Wardle, federal director of engineering and water conservation in Winnipeg studying river flood surveys and investigations.

"We need a highway across the Dominion very badly," he said.

Mr. Wardle said he expects Quebec and Nova Scotia may be next in the other provinces in the agreement for construction of the highway.

A certain bishop was being patronized by a millionaire.

"I never go to church," the millionaire said. "Perhaps you have noticed that."

"Yes, I have noticed it," said the bishop gravely.

"Well, the reason I don't go to church is that there are so many hypocrites there."

"Oh, don't let that keep you away," said the bishop, smiling. "There's always room for one more, you know."

New Act Will Give Indians More Equality

OTTAWA—New legislation to help Canada's 136,000 Indians on the road to self-government goes into force in September, Citizenship Minister Harris announced.

The new Indian act, first but for overhaul of Indian legislation in 75 years, was passed at the last session of parliament.

Charges of the state, the Indians now will have greater powers over their own property and their own affairs, Mr. Harris said.

"The aim of the new act is to bring the Indians, by progressive steps, into a position of social, political and economic equality with other Canadians," the minister added.

Some of the changes:

1. Indian bands now can be authorized to have complete control over the spending of band and band revenue money.

2. The right to vote in band council elections is extended to Indian women.

3. Louns, previously restricted to the purchase of farming and fishing equipment or livestock needs, now can be granted for the purchase of motor vehicles, farming materials, gas and oil, repairs and for the purchase of wages.

4. Special schools will be established in some cases for the instruction of Indian children living off reserves. In other cases, arrangements will be made to make Indian children trained in regular municipal schools.

Needy Served Free Food At Women's Meriat

VICTORIA, B.C. — Mrs. Barbara Green has set up a stall in city market where she distributes donated foodstuffs to needy persons without charge.

She says the plan, in which commercial firms co-operating, has proved successful, and she would like to see it operated in other cities.

Mrs. Green distributed the edibles previous by the City Welfare Department and nearly all have been used to get supplies from Mrs. Green's stall.

In one day Boy Scout's delivered 18 hampers filled with fruit, meat, cereals, baking, butter, eggs and other goods. About 600 pounds of tomatoes, 50 pounds of beans, crates of lettuce, watermelons, carrots, apples, cherries, potatoes and other produce were received.

DUNCAN, B.C.—Mrs. F. W. Kingston doesn't have to collect the eggs in her henhouse.

One of her hens does it for her.

Mrs. Kingston says the hen, instead of getting down to the job, spends her time rolling eggs from other nests into her own.

That would be fine, Mrs. Kingston says, but the hen sets them as well.

Vanilla ice Cream

Two rennet tablets, 1 tbsp. cold water, 2 cups light cream, 2 cups milk, 1 cup sugar, 4 tsp. vanilla.

Dissolve rennet tablet by crushing in cold water. Mix light cream, milk, sugar and vanilla. Warm slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist for warmth. When comfortably warm (110 degrees F.), not hot, remove at once from heat. Add dissolved rennet tablets and stir quickly for a few seconds only. Pour at once, while still liquid, into freezing unit.

Vanilla Fig Delight

Combine ½ cup brown sugar, 1 cup water, and 1 cup chopped figs. Simmer 5 minutes. Add ¼ cup chopped walnuts. Cool. Serve on top of your favorite sundae or the commercial mix vanilla ice cream.

Chocolate Mint Dessert

Combine 8 chopped marshmallows, ¼ cup confectioners' sugar, ¼ cup water, and a few drops of peppermint extract. Heat in double boiler until marshmallows have melted. Serve hot or cold on chocolate ice cream.

Nut Crunch Topping

Combine 3 tbsp. butter or margarine, 3 tbsp. brown sugar, ¼ cup chopped walnuts, and ¼ cup corn flakes. Toast for 10 to 15 minutes in a 350 degrees F. oven. Use as topping on Maple or Vanilla Ice Cream.

Newspaper Of Thirty-Eight Years Ago Makes Interesting Reading

The page entitled "Of interest to [illegible]" in the Daily Province dated [illegible] 1913, which was published in Regina by the Saskatchewan Valley Land Company, located on the corner of Twelfth avenue and Main street, makes a far cry from the women's page of today.

The yellowed and rugged-edged newspaper was brought to light in the attic of the home of R. J. Thomas, 1852 Lorne street, which is now being torn down by the Public school board which purchased the property for expansion purposes.

In the personal column is found an item concerning a theatre party followed by a supper, and just below this there is a description of a dance for which 100 invitations were issued, to take place in a home. This type of large-scale, entertaining seems to have vanished completely.

There is a society picture column dedicated to reviews of current films. At the Rowland theatre, "Cleopatra" is described as a "powerful story of elemental passion in the Latin quarter of Babylon," and it is accompanied by three other films, one a western and the other two "Throne," and "Princess Theatre also showed four films. At the Regina theatre the Kellowell concert company was presenting a program described as "musical treat of unusual artistic merit."

A large advertisement shouted the merits of "Little Darling and Little Daisy" hosiery for infants. Readers were asked to consider the firm's

Work Longer To Overcome Log Shortage

VANCOUVER—A step-up in logging operations is expected in B.C. following the forest closure to catch up on the shortage of logs which has developed since the fire hazard virtually closed down the vast industry. It appears there will be no great opposition to longer working hours from International Woodworkers (CIO-CCL). B.C.'s largest union which has most camp operators under contract, though once the cut was caught up the union "would oppose overtime work." At the present time most mills are drawing from stock normally held in reserve for winter production.

Have Polite Way To Avoid Trouble

CHARDON, Ohio. — Officials in nearby Middlefield want to make money from the village's new parking meters, but they don't want to peeve anyone with a fine for overtime parking.

When police see a car beside a meter showing the time limit passed they'll depend on nickel and fines being signed by Chief John Phelps instead of the motorist to reimburse the police department.

Big Ben, the largest bell in the clock tower of the houses of parliament in London, was cast in 1856.

Claims Wonder Drug Will Cure Smut in Grain

EDMONTON — A University of Alberta scientist has announced that antibiotics — the wonder drugs which cure a host of human diseases — also cure diseased crops.

The scientist—Dr. A. W. Henry—told farmers attending the annual university plant science department visitors' day that antibiotics will cure smut in grains.

Antibiotics is produced from the same organisms which produces streptomycin, an antibiotic used in curing many human diseases.

Dr. Henry said he soaked smut-diseased oats in a solution of 10 parts of antibiotics to 1,000,000 parts of water.

None of the treated oats showed smut.

Dr. Henry used farmer's seed drill samples of oats collected by district agriculturists. He said 90 per cent. of several hundred samples collected were diseased with smut.

"The project still is in an experimental stage," Dr. Henry said, "but it shows complete control of oat smut—one of the most difficult of plant diseases to control by seed treatment."

He said antibiotics would be much easier to use than mercury compounds which many farmers now use.

Alberta's Crop Of Alfalfa Hit By Black Stem

LETHBRIDGE, Alta.—Plant pathologists said that a disease known as black stem of alfalfa is more serious than usual this year because of wet weather.

E. J. Hawn of the Dominion Laboratory at Lethbridge said the disease is widespread in Lethbridge and Brooks areas of Alberta this year.

Dr. C. B. Stanford, plant pathologist at Edmonton, said the disease also is severe in some parts of northern and central Alberta.

Black stem of alfalfa is caused by a fungus which develops best in cool, wet periods. Alberta has 300,000 acres of alfalfa this year. Black stem can cut production value by half.

A study of black stem is being made at the plant pathology laboratory in Saskatoon. So far no control method is known, Dr. Stanford said a resistant variety of alfalfa will have to be developed.

Provided Building For Church Services

RAPID CITY, Man. — Lightning and fire have failed to keep residents of the Cadotte district, eight miles north of here, from attending church.

The church building was destroyed by fire when struck by lightning. Members subsequently built a church stable, wired it for electricity and carried on worship there.

Chatsworth Chatter

Having missed contributing "Chatter" in the issue previous to the Standard holiday and the issue since, some of our news may be rather old but readable yet (we hope). Here's hoping, also, that the Editor and staff enjoyed their holidays.

Crops and gardens look beautiful, as it is hoped that the frost will keep off for another three weeks. The season is still two weeks behind normal or average time for harvesting, and lack of hot weather through July also hampered growth somewhat. Moisture conditions are ample yet. Our district has been fortunate in that no hail damage has been experienced, although we had some rain on Saturday morning, Aug. 4, when electrical storms have been quite severe.

Our congratulations to Mrs. D. Cummings on winning fourth place in the home grounds competition of the Vermilion Horticultural society. Her flower garden is certainly a beautiful sight.

Miss Eunice Bury was a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harvey Jacula during the second week of July.

Mrs. Witherspoon who was a visitor at the East home early in July, has returned to her home in eastern Canada.

The July meeting at the Chatsworth Country Women's Institute, at the home of Mrs. Steve Jacula, with 14 members and 4 visitors present. As this was the annual meeting, the election of officers for the next term was carried out and Mrs. Arthur Tovell was re-elected president. Mrs. J. K. Thompson, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. E. Thompson, reporter, carried on. The question of what to do with the extra blankets was dealt with, and it was decided that Mrs. Garnett be asked to attend the August meeting. The sick committee, Mrs. H. Good and Mrs. E. Thompson, reported cards sent to two ill members. The picked duck draw was won by Mrs. Jacula and the social contest supplied by Mrs. East, was won by Mrs. M. Good. The next meeting will also be held at Mrs. Jim Pariser's. At the close of the meeting a bountiful lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the lunch committee.

Mrs. and Mrs. Russell Brandson and family of Westlock were visitors to Vermilion and district during Fair week.

Also visiting relatives here during the latter part of July were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Chamberlain and family from New Westminster, BC.

Mr. and Mrs. George Honey visited June's home here for the long July week end holiday. They are now settled in their new location in Edmonton, and will welcome friends in Vermilion who care to call at 10541—87th Avenue.

Mr and Mrs. Shongrunnine of Oliver, B.C. and former residents of Vermilion, were recent visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charlie Young.

Mr. C. Ferguson has moved to Intyre.

Mr. G. Seymour, now living in Derwent where he plans to reside Vancouver, renewed acquaintances here during fair week.

Little Miss Donna Farkash spent a short holiday with her maternal mother, Mrs. Phillips of Mannville, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sturt and family enjoyed an overnight stay at the Herb Sturt home, Mannville, two weeks ago. The H. Sturt family were visitors to S. Sturt's last week end.

Jack Thompson is at Abbotsford, B.C. with the Vermilion Air Cadets.

On Sunday, Aug. 5th the congregation of Ottawa United church enjoyed their annual picnic on the church grounds, following the services that morning. On this occasion Mr. and Mrs. McMahon were presented with the gift of a chenille bedspread, with wishes for all future happiness. Mr. E. East made the presentation, extending the good wishes of the gathering to the newlyweds.

Mr. and Mrs. Macey visited at the home of Mrs. Macey's mother, Mrs. D. Cummings during fair week.

Mrs. Arthur Tovell and children spent a holiday with Mrs. Tovell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Weer of Asbumdale, during the latter part of July.

An enjoyable vacation school was held at the Chatsworth school last week attended by some twenty children of the community under the supervision of Mr McMahon, student minister of the United church. At the close of activities a picnic was held on Friday afternoon and on Sunday the service at the Ottawa church was conducted by the children of the school. It was very well attended and enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Brown and family of Vancouver were recent visitors to W. W. H. Brown's home in the Poplar Heights district. Also visiting relatives and friends in the Vermilion district during was Mrs. Brown's sister (nee Marion Bury) from the States.

More Beef - Less Cattle

"The face of the cattle business is changing. Some of the features are likely temporary, others longer term.

Right now, reports The Financial Post, the big feature in the beef market is exports to the U.S. The trend is for much more beef to go south of the border on the hook, so to speak, rather than on the hoof.

In the latest week exports of dressed beef and veal to the U.S. were over four times what they were at the same time last year, measured in pounds. Number of beef cattle sent south dropped to less than a third what it had been a year earlier. ———

Sr. Captain Stewart Married At Nairobi, Kenya, East Africa

A wedding of local interest took place in Nairobi, Kenya, East Africa, on August 10th, 1951 when Captain Lillian Goldsmith became the wife of Senior Captain Charles H. Stewart, formerly of Vermilion.

The Nairobi assembly hall was delightfully decorated by Brigadier and Mrs. Frank Dare with pink and white carnations, pale blue delphiniums, bronze, yellow and white chrysanthemums, with a background of palms and tropical ferns. Vases of red and pink Barberton daisies decorated the windows.

Dressed in a very smart regulation evening uniform made by her self, the bride, carrying a bouquet of pastel shade roses, was escorted up the aisle by Brigadier Frank Dare, the training college principal to the Brunswell Booth Memorial college.

Miss Gwen Church, a Canadian girl, was the bridesmaid, and wore a princess style, medium length dress of the same material as the bride's uniform, and she wore a blue shoulder a spray of deep pink roses.

As the bride's car arrived Senior Major Church (Ret.) the bride's father signa' to the pianis', Miss Grace Powley and she played the wedding march.

Major Samuel Johnstone, the districts officer for the Nairobi division, supported the groom as his best man. Both were tropical cream uniforms.

An African officer, Senior Captain J. Munyi, assistant editor of the East African War Cry, and other interprete., dressed in white uniforms, carried the Salvation Army colors under which the wedding party took place.

Lt. Commissioner Ernest Bigwood, territorial commander for East Africa, officiated at the ceremony, and pioneed the marriage service.

When Brigadier Frank Dare had escorted the bride to her place on the platform, he offered up the opened with prayer by Major Rosalie Tremberth, officer in charge of the Quarry Road Africa Girls' Guide and school, and Brigadier Walter Scily, general secretary, read the scripture lesson after which the congregation sang, 'God Be With Them While They Stand'.

Lt. Commissioner Ernest Bigwood spoke a few words 'upon the seriousness of marriage, and the vital importance of placing God first in every life. Then he read the Salvation Army rules of marriage and called upon the bride and the groom to say that they had come there to be married upon these terms. The local marriage vows were made and as the bride and groom knelt in dedication the Commissioner pronounced them man and wife.

After the ceremony the health of the well known hymn, 'Take My Life and Let It Be Consecrated' the newly couple spoke briefly and Commissioner Bigwood closed the service with prayer.

Miss Grace Powley played suitable music on the piano while the register was being signed.

Immediately after the signing of the register, fifty Livitoi guests assembled at the Nairobi Central Kaberte residence, which had been tastefully decorated with delphiniums, pink carnations, white, asters, deep pink snapdragons and red Barberton daisies for the wedding reception. Major and Mrs. Fred Rout ably assisted as host and hostess.

The friendly and informal gathering in the lounge was piloted by Major Rout and Commissioner Bigwood read the many overseas cablegrams from friends and relatives, and telegrams from friends and well-wishers in Africa.

Each guest received a piece of wedding cake packed in a white box tied with pink ribbon.

The groom's cake was cut by the bride and groom for a short honeymoon the bride appeared on the balcony of the house and threw her bouquet of roses to the company of eager single young women waiting below. Mrs. Christina Mackenzie captured the bouquet with evident delight.

Truck Struck by Train At Kitscoty

Bill Davies, Harold Young Killed in Crossing Crash

Tragedy in the form of a railroad crossing crash took the lives of two well known Vermilion men, Wm. Davies and Harold Young at Kitscoty on Wednesday about 6:30 p.m. The dump truck in which they were travelling was struck by a freight train at the crossing on the west side of the village. It is thought that the bright sun which broke through the clouds for a short time almost blinded the men from seeing the approaching train. According to witnesses of the crash the truck was travelling slowly as it approached the crossing.

The engine struck the truck right in the centre and wreckage was strewn on both sides of the track. Davies was dead when taken from the wreckage while Young died shortly after being rushed to the Lloydminster hospital.

It appears that Davies and Young who were partners in a trucking and caterpillar tractor business, were engaged in gravel hauling on highway 16 near Kitscoty. They also have a 'cat' working on the same project. They had finished working for the day and had gone on to Kitscoty to obtain oil for the tractor. It was while leaving the village that the fatal crash occurred.

Wm. Davies was 44 years of age and leaves his wife and three daughters in Vermilion. Harold Young, about 35 years old, leaves his young wife and two small children. They live in a residence at the refinery at Lloydminster.

It is only a year and a half since a younger brother of Davies', Jim, was killed in an oil well accident at Lone Rock.

Both of the deceased men were highly regarded in Vermilion and district and the news of the fatal accident proved a great shock to all. Deepest sympathy of a wide circle of friends goes out to the bereaved families in their great sorrow.

Manville Pioneer Passes Away

FUNERAL OF STEWART ALEXANDER HELD FROM DOMINION HALL, AGE 71

One of the first pioneers of the Manville district passed away at his home Friday, August 24th in the person of Stewart Alexander Dotheby. He was born January 25th, 1854 at Durham, Ont., the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Dotheby of Durham, Ont. He spent his boyhood on an Ontario farm.

In 1882 he went to the lumber woods in Ontario, later moving westward to Manitoba. In 1890 he went to Montana where he lived for twelve years. But the urge to farm in the Canadian West was very strong in him In 1902 in company with the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wagner of Vegreville, he came to Vegreville. Mr. Wagner drove a prairie schooner wagon but Mr. Dotheby used horseback and drove with him a large herd of work oxen.

Mr. Dotheby bought land in the Vegreville district. Two years later, in 1904, he and his sister Thomasina travelled eastward looking for more land. He purchased some near Mannville and homesteaded a half section more, while his brother settled in the Islay district.

On April 30, 1907 at Vegreville he married the late Agnes Elizabeth Wilson of Campbellford, Ont. They moved to the farm near Mannville and established their home, where they lived for many years. His wife predeceased him in 1936. For many years Mr. Dotheby was active in the affairs of the district, being well known and highly respected.

The deceased was in good health until April of this year when a failing heart condition caused him to be very weak until the time of his death. He is survived by one brother Thomas of Islay, Alberta; two sons, Preston of Campbellford, Ont., Stuart at home, two daughters, Mrs. D. P. Miller of Vancouver and Mrs. H. D. Hamilton of Mannville. There are six grandchildren.

The first of the weekly Board of Trade luncheon meetings will be held at the Rio cafe on Wednesday next, Sept. 5th at 12:30 noon. A large attendance of business men should be on hand for this and each of the following luncheon gatherings. With many projects of vital importance to town and district under way the help and support of everyone is necessary. Devote a little of your time and energy to wards the welfare of your own home town from which you derive your living.

Legion Farewells Ken MacDonald

A large attendance of Legion members gathered at the Legion hall Friday evening to tender Ken MacDonald a farewell reception on the eve of his departure to Chaney, Alberta, to which place he has been transferred. Comrade Bob Allen formerly secretary-treasurer of Comrade MacDonald was presented with an elegant bill fold containing a substantial contribution of bills new and neatly folded. The presentation was made by Comrade George Martin who in his own inimitable manner outlined the active interest Ken had taken in the welfare of the Legion since coming to Vermilion some 12 years ago. Short complimentary addresses were also made by Geo. C. Webb, J. W. G. Morrison and others. Mr. Morrison concluded with the words that while "Kenny's may come and Kenny's may go the work of the Legion must go on forever". Someone must now step forward he said and assume the duties of secretary. Ken MacDonald appreciated the gift and expressed his regrets at leaving Vermilion — the town he said, he had come to love, lived in, and hoped to visit from time to time as opportunity offered. He wished the Legion and the members every success. The gathering closed with the National Anthem.

Start Made on New School At Dewberry

Come next Tuesday and school will again be in full swing. This year six teachers will be required as six rooms are needed—and where is the sixth room? It is in the high school basement until the new high school is ready which will not be until mid-term. Mr. Martin Burr will again be the principal. 22 beginners are enrolled and additional grade 12 students from Vermilion are expected

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Braithwaite and family have returned from a holiday trip to the coast.

Bill Young and family spent last week around the families places of Sybil, Medicine Hat and Red Deer

Mr Garfield Hill who home steaded on the land now occupied by John Anderson paid a visit to his old place after an absence of 40 years. Many fond memories were enjoyed by him and his old dug-out still remains. He now lives at London, Ont.

Harvest is slowly picking up momentum. Cost weather is developing the ripening of grain. Dewberry has combined a field of barley which yielded very well. Very little wheat is cut as combined yet and there will be many late crops.

The oil crew at Hazeldine hv now left. Coating was run and we presume that heavy black crude was struck. Quite a field of more drilling by smaller rigs.

Ducks are plentiful again this year, but the season is short and we make one he very careful before the trigger is pulled

The homestead phoned into the butcher shop for a dollar's worth of beef to be delivered to her home with the remark that if the deer was forked to push meat through the keyhole.

Noticed around Bill Porter and Ben Timanson taking out big new Massey Harris combines.

Large Congregations Hear Outstanding Missionaries

Vermilion United Church was filled last Sunday morning and the Legion hall was packed in the evening when Rev. and Mrs. Angus Cunningham were the guest speakers for the day. They are both outstanding missionaries having spent over ten years in the heart of Brazil doing pioneer work. They told of the many dangers they had encountered while living with the wild Indians who had never seen white men. Many interesting stories who had prevented them from establishing a permanent mission. The Indians are constant plagues but they showed pictures of God's triumph in changing the lives and habits of the Indians and Badlians when the gospel was accepted. They have built up orphanage in the jungles and at present have 53 children whom they have taken from the jungle and gospel to their own people up the various tributaries of the mighty Amazon.

Mr. Cunningham was formerly an Edmonton boy and has two other brothers, two are missionaries in foreign lands and the other a minister and is also with Winnipeg. Mrs. Cunningham comes from Chicago. She is author of the thrilling autobiography book 'Under the Thatched Roof'.

Horticulture Show Popular Event

BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY OF FLOWERS AND VEGETABLES OUTSTANDING

The annual show of the Vermilion Horticultural society held last Friday, proved a very popular and beautiful event. Not only was there a great profusion of flowers exhibited in the various classes but several organizations six to be exact had very attractive booths where flowers were given. The Vermilion Horticultural society itself was assisted by a booth in charge of cut and beautiful garden landscapes. The ladies of the Royal Purple lodge served and the Stagette club likewise.

President Wm Krause of the Horticultural society wishes to thank the 51 exhibitors at the show for their splendid support There were 85 entries in the flower and vegetable classes, which is a record for the society.

It was gratifying to the president and his executive that $40 was taken in at the auction sale of donated baskets. The auctioneer was Chester Gamble of Manville who for all his usual good job on the rostrum Many people bought flowers on this occasion for the December Day services the following Sunday.

Mr. Krause was high in his praise of Mrs. Adam and her committee for the efficient handling of the sale of tickets for the baskets and also Mrs. Dixon for handling the entries and doing the record job.

Bal. Allen Wins Flower Basket

The draw for the flower basket was made by deputy mayor H. J. Payne and the lucky name drawn from the hat was Bob Allen The cups and trophies were to be presented to the winners at the same time but due to an oversight this part of the program was missed

Mrs. Commerce cup for winner of grand aggregate (most points for first and second prizes) — Mrs. Ed Corley

Ed Corley cup for best collection of dahlias—Frank Hill.

Mrs. Cook's trophy for best collection of stocks—Mrs. F. Hodgson.

Mrs. Craig trophy for best basket of sweet peas—Mrs. M.F. Smeltzer.

Northern Hardware trophy for best collection of garden vegetables — E. H. Buckingham

The Stephens trophy for the best collection of garden fruit was not awarded as there were no entries in this class this year.

Judging

It took Mr. R. Delalande of Lloydminster four hours to judge the array of exhibits. He remarked on the improvement of the exhibits over the previous shows, also urged that exhibitors should read the prize list more carefully and be more exacting in selecting their exhibits according to the rules set out.

While the judging was going on Mr Delalande mislaid a treasured stainless steel horticultural knife. The president asks that anyone knowing what happened to the knife please report to him. A number of display vases and dishes can be claimed at the office of the district agriculturist

The complete list of prize winners will appear next week.

Wants to Meet Old Friends This Week-end

1410—9th St. N.W.
Calgary, Alberta
Aug. 23, 1951.

Mr. S.R.P. Cooper,
Editor, Vermilion Standard.

Dear Sir:

May I through your paper, enquire after any school friends or others who may remember me, from the old days in the Carlton school district? After 16 long years away I have the chance to spend a few days back in the "old home town", and you will appreciate how much I am looking forward to the event. I hope to spend all of Friday, Saturday and Sunday in and around Vermilion district during the Labor day week end. With time so short, I feel that the best way to renew acquaintances would be through your columns. I am hoping that anyone who can recall my existence in those far distant days will phone or leave a message with Miss Grace A. Burr of Vermilion, who will be in contact with me. With Miss Burr's help I can make the best use of the limited time I have.

You will recall that my father, Mr. W. S. Roberts, operated the Grizzly Bear ranch for many years. We moved to the Old Country in 1933 and I later joined the Royal Air Force, seeing selvice in many parts of the Near East and the Far East. After my discharge in 1946 I returned to Canada and have worked progressively westward at jobs in Montreal, Toronto and Calgary. I am presently working my way through a three year course in Aeronautical Engineering at the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art in Calgary, so you will understand why my stay must be short.

They say it is always a saddening experience to re-visit childhood haunts, but I am coming back in optimistic mood, determined to see and photograph everything. I know the old town must have changed a great deal since 1933, as my father still takes the Standard and keeps me advised of the news. However, I am hoping that just a few of your readers may still faintly recognize a Local Boy, who has been a long long time getting back.

Thank you for hearing out my story.

Yours sincerely,
David Roberts.

A citizen without loyalty to his hometown is not an asset to his community.

Woodvale News

We had just mailed our news two weeks ago, when we heard that the wedding dance of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Preston took place at the Woodvale school as scheduled and turned out to be a very pleasant evening, although the crowd, some arriving via the ditch, was small. A few started for the dance, but never get there on account of muddy roads.

Then there was a new baby in the district, another boy, in the Cliff Oldenburg family, to whom everybody offers congratulations.

Walter Lysons had to go to the Vermilion hospital to have his appendix removed, rather unexpectedly. He is home now but not to do hard work yet. His young brothers looked after his sheep during his absence and are becoming experienced bachelors with the help of sister Thelma Sweeney of course, who is good for a nice meal at any time. Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Lysons spent a week end at home and Peggy stayed with the two little boys and she and young Art take their turn in tending the sheep, while Jimmy keeps Grandma Lysons company.

Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Lamport celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on August 12th. We wish them much happiness in the next 25 years. Friends and neighbors gave them a surprise party and brought with them a gift of a silver tray, cream and sugar set. The evening was spent in pleasant visiting and talking about the past, present and future.

Fay and Sylvia Wilson visited their cousins Susan and Irene Wolfe during their summer holidays.

Canon Teape came to see his widespread parishioners in our vicinity and they hope that he will make such a visit a yearly occurrence. A little later he traveled to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haines to christen their new baby, William Frederick.

We congratulate Lilian Watson on her appointment to the Vermilion teaching staff.

Ruby Thomson is home again after working for awhile in Waterton National park.

Hail struck parts of the Woodvale and Tolland districts on the 16th Stones of mothball size covered the ground but luckily the downpour did not last long and there was no wind. Still some damage was done to gardens and crops. As the fall was very spotty several farmers never knew that fields away from the homeplace were damaged at all. In the warm, dry week following everyone seemed to be haying and a few fields of barley and rye were cut or swathed. Some combining will be done this week though harvest operations will not be general around here until September.

After several postponements the August Red Cross meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. Van Wageningen with ten members present and three visitors, Mrs. Cecil King, Miss Marie Goutier and Miss Cecile Goutier, all stitching away on a very pretty wool filled quilt. Then there was Marjorie Portsmith very ably looking after her little cousins, Betty Ann and Wayne Lysons, and interesting their interest in the goldfish, tadfiles (or was it the nice wet water?) to result in a splash in to the pool. A business meeting was held during the working of the quilt and with so many helping hands the basters had an easy time with guests making sandwiches and picking raspberries for the lunch. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gordon Portsmith on Oct. 17th, weather and harvest work permitting!

Florence and John Tattersall of Red Deer are visiting their friends in these parts. At time of writing Florence was staying with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Watt and John with his uncle Archie Thompson. They told about much hail in the Red Deer district and part of their crop being destroyed too.

Mrs. Roger Watt's mother, Mrs. Hackett of Lamont, spent a week at the home of her daughter.

The old Roger Watt house, near Kolzsee store has been sold to Mr. Gunderson of Vermilion and will be moved away this week.

The frame work is up for the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Pannell. Their old home has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Hobbis. With an addition built on to it, it makes comfortable living quarters for the Hobbis family near the road which is so much easier in these times of motor cars.

Light frost was reported in low lying fields and gardens on the morning of the 24th. Everyone is hoping that no heavier frost will occur for quite awhile yet, crops and gardens being late this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Lysons went with Bert Portsmith north to do some berry picking over the week end while the children stayed with their grandparents Portsmith.

Mrs. Fred Brown of Cold Lake was expected to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. Graham Ganton and Bert sisters this week end as we don't think we will be able to send in any news next week as we shall just as well tell about the children returning, or starting school early in September. We hear the Goudreau triplets will go to Vermilion, the road to their home being improved so they can take the school bus. The Goutier children Cecile, Joseph, Jeanne, and 6-year-old Robert go for the first time, go to Sacred Heart Marie will teach 1st in Bonnyville itself but in La Corey while Cecile Goutier after a short visit to his brother Maurice at Lobret in Sask. Ketchewan will go on to Provencher where he will take up studies with the White Fathers for the priesthood and missionary work later on Africa.

No appointment has been made for Woodvale school at time of writing, but Mrs. Osbaldeston will return to Ganton school much to the pleasure of parents and pupils. Keith Lysons and Bill Hedderson to will go to Kitscoty to high school and stay at the dormitory there.

While the men folks were haying the women and girls all were busy doing garden products and fruit. It was, and still is a busy time for everyone.

Quite a few people from here attended the dance at the Provencher school where a farewell party was held for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bardell before they left for their trip to England. We all wish them bon voyage.

The latter received word that her oldest sister, Mrs. M. S. Secrist, who visited here during the summer of 1939, died in July at The Hague the Netherlands after a short illness.

Clandonald News

Crops in this district are exceptionally fine and are still untouched by frost at the time of writing.

How long this happy state of affairs will continue is very difficult to predict. Quite a number of warm days are needed to mature the late field but should they escape damage some record yields can be expected.

Quite a number of farmers are coming into the district, some of the most recent purchasers being Stanley Dyer Canada, Mesliuzza & Son, Mayhew Bros. Reports are that Al Redman at Dee-bervy who handles the Case line of implements has sold 19 machines so far.

Gardens are very good also and canning is in full swing. Raspberries seem to be about the only tame fruit yielding well. One patch we know has produced almost one quart of preserves to the square yard so far which is quite a lot of fruit off an acre.

Most recent news of Oscar Johnson who suffered a severe leg injury when his tractor overturned recently is that he is making fair progress towards recovery. He is now in an Edmonton hospital having been moved there by ambulance last week.

The importance of taking advantage of the free chest X-ray was brought home very forcibly to Clandonald people when two of our young people received word that they had positive reactions of T.B. and should see their local doctor without delay. They are now waiting word from further X-ray pictures. It would seem that it is most important to take advantage of this free service. Do not neglect to send in your dollar when the seals arrive at Xmas.

Mr. Joe Shaw and son have recently purchased a wind electric plant and are now enjoying all the conveniences of electricity. Morse Bros. of Vermilion handled the deal and did the installation work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Douglas are now making their home in town having moved into the house which Clyde Hicks built and lived in for some time. Mr. Douglas was the teacher at Queenie Creek for several years but owing to ill health has to take a holiday for some time. We trust that Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will enjoy living in town and will perhaps make their stay a permanent one.

Mrs. M. Brant who now makes her home in Edmonton was a district visitor recently. Mrs. Brant has just returned from a visit with her elder daughter and family at Meadow Lake. She has also spent some time with her daughter Mrs. Sam Soldan in Vermilion. While in the Clandonald district Mrs. Brant was the guest of Mrs. L. Wilkinson.

Two very welcome visitors at our home here on Saturday were the Rev. F. Peake and his cousin Rev. T. Clemett. Both spent some time in the parish a few years ago.

Fred Goddard and family are at present away on their annual holiday trip. When leaving here they planned to visit Calgary, Banff, Jasper, Miette Hot Springs, and also figured on doing some fishing around Brule and Entrance.

Two student nurses from Lamont, Katheryn Feenstra and Doris Stockwell were visitors at their respective homes in the district recently.

The writer neglected to report in our last news that a clean-up was held at the cemetery early in August. Much good was accomplished and it is hoped to make this an annual event. Although the member turning out to help was not large everything was left in good order. Much credit for the work that was done should go to the three grandfathers present who by their industry set the rest of us a very good example.

John Fey and Alex Grant are at present both engaged on the gravel haul at Borradaile John has a new G.M. truck and Alex has his two International8s on the job.

Wilfred Roberge who is working with his truck on a gravel haul job near Calgary was a visitor at his home here at the week end.

Wilbur Currie and family were visitors in town during the past week. They have also been visiting Mrs. Currie's brother and sister at Derwent where Wilbur made himself useful setting up binders. Earlier in the summer the Currie's took an extended trip into B. C., travelling by way of the Big Bend highway and returning through the U.S. via Spokane and the Logan pass. During their trip they called on the Ellis's at Kelowna and Mr. and Mrs. M. Dewey at Summerland. While at the latter they contacted an orchard he helped to pack and ship while there in 1923.

John Tarchuk has spent several days in hospital at Vermilion apparently suffering from effects of the rather severe form of flu of which several have been victims around here during the past few weeks.

Thursday night the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mesliuzza was the scene of quite a large party of young people who gathered in honor of Eileen and Joe McLellan who graduated from the high school here and expect to start their careers shortly. Eileen plans to enter the nursing profession while Joe may join the R.C.M.P.

Miss Margaret Kolodziejzyk who worked in the Clandonald bank for some time and is now at Bonnyville, has been spending her holidays with her family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Toner and family from Saskatchewan spent a few days visiting with Mr. Toner's broth: Ed and Pat in this district.

Alex Stockwell of Edmonton was a recent visitor with his two brothers at their home here. Alex teaches at the Glenora school where he has been for several years.

Everyone is indeed sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Fyfe and family will not be returning to the district. Mr. Fyfe who has been in charge of the bank here for about twelve month: suffered a break down in health early in the summer and will not be able to resume duties for an indefinite period. Mrs. Fyfe returned to supervise packing their household effects and before leaving was presented with a small token of esteem by members of the Anglican W.A. of which she has been a member. It is with much regret that goodbye is bid the Fyfe family as although only here a comparatively short time they made many friends and were both very active in community affairs. They will live in Edmonton for the present. We sincerely hope that Mr. Fyfe may regain his health and be able to resume work a. the bank.

During the past few weeks the bank has been in charge of Mr. Beal from the Edmonton office. Mr. Stens formerly of Kerrobert will take over managerial duties soon.

Madge's Fiancé Was Overjoyed to Receive Her Telegram . . . But Disturbed by Its Contents . . .

By NICHOLAS KUSNITZ

MADGE SHELTON didn't bother to listen to the doctor's words. "The will to live is a funny thing. It's just got to be there." The doctor frowned and shook his head slowly.

Madge knew what the doctor was saying without really hearing. Six months of entering a hospital room and looking at a husband with a listless smile and even, sometimes, no recognition, hadn't made her accept defeat.

She turned to the doctor now. "You say he can walk? That is, if he could be made to want to? There's nothing wrong with his feet, no deformed bone structure?"

The doctor nodded. "That's what makes it all so incredible. He could get out of bed and walk out of the hospital this minute if it weren't for the mental block that prevents him."

Madge took one quick glance into her compact mirror, straightened her shirt, turned the knob on the door and entered the room.

Her voice was as controlled as she could make it, but with a note of forced gaiety. "Hello, sweetheart!" She waited until he looked her way and could see her carefully groomed beauty. Then she rushed toward the bed and threw her arms about the man lying there.

"But you did not respond to her spirit or caresses. His arms remained at his sides and he waited until she tired of kissing him without his response. "Hello," he said dully.

Slightly taken aback, Madge laughed. "It's so good to be back. The smell of burning leaves. Autumn." She turned quickly. "Doesn't memory make you want to go outside and—"

"No," her husband said. I'm sick and can't move my legs."

"But you can, Bill!" Madge protested. "The doctor said—"

"I can't!" Bill said sharply. "I can't!"

Madge bit her lip. "Well, maybe not now, but soon. Isn't that right, Bill? Soon?"

Bill shook his head. "Why don't you go home? Why do you stay?"

Madge flushed. She put her fingers coming here? Get a divorce? Get over her eyes and looked at him. "Is that what you want?"

"No," he said heavily. "

TODAY, our first duty as Canadians is to back up our country's efforts to meet all threats to our freedom.

To do this, we must be strong not only in arms but also in our economy. And to keep our economy strong, we must do everything possible to fight rising prices!

How can you help fight this inflation?

One important way: by saving money! Nowadays, every dollar you spend for things you don't need helps to boost prices. But the money you save in bank deposits, savings bonds or life insurance — "votes" against the menace of inflation.

Remember too — savings help you. And your life insurance savings help protect your family.

So . . . to support Canada's defense efforts . . . to help yourself . . . save money every way you can now!

Total cost for the thirty associations was $1,116,370 and the rebate was $132,000 or an average of slightly more than $100 per member. In some cases the rebate was more than $200. Average cost per member was $631.

"Larger rebates occurred when the project had been carefully organized by the officials of the rural electrification association." Dr Robinson said. "Where farmers constituted part of the actual work the rebate was larger too."

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE

Director, Research Department of Searle Grain Company Ltd.

A FRANK ADMISSION

Some considerable interest was shown a short time ago in news from Britain about a frank admission made by the British Labour party, which forms the British Government, that Britain must make long term bulk contracts with exporting countries with the idea of buying food at cheaper prices than the open free market registered.

The booklet has now arrived in Canada. It is entitled "The Cost of Living Business" and can be obtained from the Labour Party, Transport House, Smith Square, London S.W. 1, for threepence. There is much of interest in this booklet to prairie wheat producers. The statements that have caused such interest in Canada are as follows: "Through bulk purchases and long-term contracts Britain can be shielded for a while from world price movements."

Even with bulk purchases we may have to pay rather more for our food in future, but we shall not have to pay as much as we would on a free market.

This frank statement should remove all doubts from anyone's mind that when Britain makes a long term contract it is for the purpose of obtaining food at cheaper prices than the open market warrants.

A New Frontier

IN THE EARLY PART of the present century it was not unusual for new tracts of land in the West to be opened up to homesteaders, and many families moved many times as new and more promising land was made available to them. As the printers became settled, however, there were fewer unsettled areas suitable for farming and there were no longer the many tempting opportunities for homesteading which had characterized the earlier times. Many of Western Canada's finest farms and most successful farmers had their beginnings in homesteads and the stories of the establishment of those first farms form a colorful part of the history of the West.

* * * * *

New District To Be Settled

A recent announcement by the government of Alberta that a tract of land in the Peace River country, one of the last frontier districts in the West, is being opened for homesteading has brought to the minds of many earlier days on the prairies, when such announcements were not uncommon. The new district is made up of some 350 quarter sections of which 80 are to be reserved as school lands. The soil is described as heavy clay loam, suitable for the growing of wheat, oats, barley and grasses, as well as legume crops. Much of it is heavily timbered and will have to be cleared before it will be difficult to clear than some Northern areas.

* * * * *

Will Carry On Fine Tradition

Roads will be fairly rough ones, suitable for wagons, and water will be a problem to the new settlers, the government has warned. However, doubtless there will be many who will be anxious to try their fortunes in this new country, perhaps one of the last pieces of land to be thrown open for homesteading in the West. Some experienced farmers may decide to move to the newer land, and doubtless some young people, looking upon the homesteading experience as something of this new land as an opportunity for them to begin. Some who settle there may be new Canadians, who will also find in this an opportunity to come into land of their own. The settlers who go there will be carrying on a tradition which has played an important part in the building of Canada.

Mining Town Is Moving

SHERRIDON, Man.—This mining town, 60 miles northeast of Flin Flon, Man., is about to die. It's simply moving away.

Sherridon existed because of Sherwin-Gordon Mines, an important producer of copper and zinc since 1929. Now the mine has petered out. It will cease operation Sept. 1.

Ordinarily, the mining business, their jobs gone, would move away and leave a ghost town.

But for many of the hardy-pan and bottom of Sherridon there is a better fate.

When their tenants move the houses are going too—15 miles north to Lynn Lake, site of a new nickel-zinc ore which a rich discovery of nickel was announced in 1953.

As yet there is little more than a railroad survey line through the site of the new town. Until the rails are through all supplies must be freighted in by winter tractor-trains over the frozen lakes or by air.

Forty houses are scheduled to be moved from Sherridon to Lynn Lake behind tractors this winter. They will be jacked up, loaded on sleighs and moved "as is." Several were moved successfully this way last winter.

The surface buildings and machinery from the Sherrit-Gordon mine will also be moved piece by piece on tractor train and re-erected on the new location. Foundations now are being poured to receive them.

The rush here began Aug. 6 to stock out a right-of-way for the $16,726,000, 155-mile railroad extension from Sherridon to Lynn Lake.

Plans call for the new line to be completed to Lynn Lake by Nov 1, 1953. And when the first ore trains arrive the Lynn Lake mine experts to have ore ready for processing at an Edmonton refinery.

Thumbs Down On Hitch-Hiking

VANCOUVER.— Girl hitch-hikers were warned by a juvenile court judge that "thumbing" rides may cost them their parents being charged with contributing to juvenile delinquency. Judge Mackenzie Matheson also said girls should be taught to realize the "terrible" risk when they "thumb" a ride from strangers. A Vancouver bylaw prohibits hitch-hiking.

NATIVE BRAKEMAN

DUNCAN, B.C. — Kenneth Joseph Elliott of the Cowichan Indians is believed the first British Columbia Indian to receive an appointment to the Civil Service School of Draughting in Ottawa.

Players And Fans All Like Coast Umpire

VANCOUVER. — Nobody shouts "kill the umpire" when Al Mortimer officiates at baseball games.

The 55-year-old negro, once a star player has won the affection of fans and players alike. He was voted "most popular umpire in the Kingsway baseball league." Vancouver's first amateur body.

Fans and players alike know him by name and by sight. But many especially they know him by sound his ball-throated call of balls and strikes.

He works five or six games a week and enjoys every minute. "If I wasn't working 'em, I'd be watching 'em," he said.

Born in New Westminster, Mortimer played with Hanley Mills in the Mainland league. Hitting over .300 in every one of the four years in the league.

Then he played eight years with Kansas City Monarchs. Then came a stretch with the Canadian forestry corps in the Second World war.

After that he came to Vancouver and began umpiring. And everybody in minor league baseball is glad that he did.

ALBERTA TOWNS WAR ON SASKATCHEWAN RATS

EDMONTON. — Residents along the Alberta-Saskatchewan border are declaring war on rats—from Saskatchewan.

The pests have been reported pouring into rodent-free Alberta, between the border towns of Alsask and Empress. The Alberta Agriculture Department announced a campaign—to keep them out.

ASSOCIATION FAVORS MARKETING PLAN

The association's executive said that the marketing plan would make the fullest use of existing marketing organizations. Any surpluses in any province could be disposed of through a national board.

FIELD-FED PORK

SELMA, Sask.—A new which lost her calf on a farm here has adopted four young pigs. The porkers started out as pets, while the cow was tying down one day and have been following her ever since.

"Yes, my boy friend takes me to the museum every Saturday."

"Economy."

"Do you really think your attempts to improve your vocabulary has improved your conversation?"

"Well, not exactly, but I have progressed so far that I can frequently remember that I have forgotten something, if I could only remember what it is."

Funny and Otherwise

Busy Executive: "Yes, young man. What can I do for you?"

Young Man: "I might not remember me, sir, but I was your office boy some years ago. I recall even now a message you gave me."

Busy Executive: "Great guns! Don't tell me you're only returning with the answer now."

A man had a slight difference of opinion with his wife. But he acknowledged his error very concisely by saying: "You are right and I am wrong, as you generally are." Then he hurried off to catch his train.

"The slave of him to put it like that," his wife said to herself—and then she began to think about it.

Miss Grebe—"I know he's rich, but isn't he too old to be considered eligible?"

Mrs. Brown—"My dear, he's too eligible to be considered old!"

"What is the secret of success in life?"

"I don't really know but I fear it is connected with work!"

Preacher (at close of sermon following one of his deacons, half asleep)—We'll now have a few minutes of prayer. Deacon Brown, will you lead?

Deacon Brown: Open? I just dealt.

Teacher: Johnny, give me a sentence using the word "undertow."

Johnny: People who drive recklessly should be sued rather than those who stop, look and listen.

Impatient patient: "Well, I ought to be. I've been practicing all night.

Manager: Because it's a novelty to have something opening its mouth without asking for a raise."

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. — The board of trade said that the trend of business in Prince Albert is showing a steady increase over 1950.

Many Sask., Manitoba Towns Show Population Increase

Figures Given In First Census Report

REGINA.—First 1951 census figures covering 20 towns and 121 villages in Saskatchewan were released by the Dominion bureau of statistics. Populations of the towns listed all reflect increases since the last census was taken in 1941.

The 1951 census total for the 20 towns is 54,978, an increase of 5,775 over the 1941 figure. The list includes Carrot River with the population for 1951 given as 809, but no comparable figure is listed for 1941 as the town was not incorporated at that year.

Of the 121 villages listed, 91 show increased population and 30 reflect a decline in populations, suggesting the continuance of a trend away from rural areas to urban centres. Total census figure for the 121 villages is 34,007, an increase of 4,676 over the 1941 census figure. Six villages, Arborfield, Carragana, Lake Alma, Leoadeu Beach, Porcupine Plain, and Wadena, have no 1941 figures listed for comparisons.

OTTAWA, Ont. — The cities of Brandon, Portage la Prairie and St. Boniface, have all registered impressive population gains to the last 10 years, according to the first 1951 census figures released by the Dominion bureau of statistics. Winnipeg was not included in the first figures.

Brandon rose from 17,368 in 1941 to 30,404 as at June 1 this year. Portage la Prairie increased from 7,187 to 8,466. St. Boniface jumped from 18,187 to 20,214.

The trend to higher populations in the three municipalities is reflected in the cross-country trend to increased populations in urban centres.

Out of 30 cities had towns with a population of 5,000 and over, all except three gained in population since 1941 and some had very pronounced gains. Of the other 447 smaller centres, only 79 declined in the age and small villages account for a large proportion of these decreases.

Preliminary population totals are subject to revision. Changes due to circumstances such as the enumeration of individuals away from their normal place of residence and of those in dwellings which were "closed" at the time of the census have yet to be made.

In this connection the bureau pointed out, anyone who has reason to believe that he or she has been missed from the census should notify the bureau, which will then make an investigation and correct the omission if it exists.

Here is the first list of Manitoba towns and villages with the new 1951 populations and old 1941 figures shown in brackets:

Valuable Pillow

SPOKANE, Wash.—Just why a plain feather pillow should have seemed so precious to her mother was a mystery to Mrs. Marie Fleching until she opened the pillow.

"Now you hang on to that pillow and never give it away," were her mother's words of advice shortly before she died six years ago.

Recently when Mrs. Fleching opened the pillow to prepare it for a new cover, out popped $3,000 in cash.

Wildmere Winks

Spending part of her holidays with her parents in Montrose Mrs. W. Wetsman of Vermilion has been busy canning vegetables and fruit. Our W.I. convenor Mrs. W. J. Garnett formed the W.I. group in the Thorncliffe district wirewight meeting a short time ago. We are sure they will be pleased to belong to a world-wide organization. We understand Mrs. Mrs. Garnett also attended a meeting at Chatsworth but was unable to find out the time of the next one.

A farewell dance was held at the Eagle Inn for Mrs. Art Cowgill and a welcome one for Mr. and Mrs. E. Costin on Friday evening last. Can you tell me how many of the oldsters who do not even know these folks attended? Their names spoke a great deal for their popularity.

Mr. and Mrs. Rendell were presented with a silver lunch service. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Isley, former Triangle residents gave them a lovely tea pot cream and sugar set. Mr. and Mrs. Costin the district gave a gasoline iron. Mr. George Martin of Vermilion was the M.C. during the presentation. Mr. Rendell heartily thanked them for their kindness and Mrs. Rendell and hmse.f. Owing to Mrs. Costin taking sick these young people were not able to be present. Peggy, Jeff and Freddy Martin entertained with music. Billie Hamm was M.C. for the dance.

Mrs. C. Morand returned on Sunday evening last from the coast where she attended her father's funeral, to spend a week visiting with her brothers and sister here before leaving for her home at Calgary. The boys Charlie, Leo and Peter attend school there.

We were so pleased to meet and have a chat with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Logue of Frog Lake on Saturday evening in town. They are visiting with their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Alf Logue of the Turkey Hill district. Mr. and Mrs. Logan surely are looking fine. They celebrated their golden wedding early this spring.

A large crowd turned out to church on Sunday. We were glad to have some of our former Wildmere friends attend. Mrs. Alice Riley and George, Mrs. Swuffert and Alice, all of Vermilion. They brought along Mrs. Sadie Onyett, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Riley's and Mrs. Onyett's sister Mrs. Mooney who come from Sacramento Valley, Calif. They came by plane to Edmonton and by bus to Vermilion. It is their first visit to Canada. They said our weather on Sunday was like their winter weather Certainly a big difference to our weather. They were quite pleased with the church ser-who given by Mr. Embree. It's too bad we could not hear the sermons he gives. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin and Doreen, Mr. and Mrs. Costin, and Jenny Cruthers also were at church.

Mrs. Onyett and Mrs. Mooney are visiting with Mrs. R. Smith for a couple of days. They will also spend a few days with Mrs. Onyett's other sister Mrs. R. Martin.

Are the wild geese going to go south before hunting season opens? Albert Smith of Basswood saw a flock on his lake on Monday and he has never seen geese come south so early. Must be the cool weather in the north that's telling them to journey southward.

Next Tuesday will see the summer holidays over and children return to school rooms for another year.

More combines have arrived in our corner. Mr. A. Holte has purchased one.

ALLANDALE

This Sunday morning the weather is cloudy and misty. We are grateful we've escaped frost so far. The writing will commence soon. Crops are really heavy and some have lodged.

Miss Joyce Johnson from the city was home a week end since her dad's birthday. She came home for the holidays. They have moved their office to the Chamberlain Block and is quite pleased with the church ser-

DEER LAKE DOINGS

Haying is almost completed in this district and cutting of grain will soon be the order of the day.

School starts on Tuesday and this district is fortunate to have secured Mr. James Munro of Dewberry as teacher. The children are pleased as Mr. Munro taught school here for one week while Miss Purvis was ill last term and they liked him very much.

Mrs. Munro and son James spent a week in Calgary recently visiting and shopping.

All of our grade 9 pupils passed and the majority of them will be taking grade 10 in Dewberry this term.

Visitors at the Philbin home on Sunday were their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Gervase Klusbella and Mr. and Mrs. John Wilden and family. All motored together from Bellevue. Mrs. Klusbella returned with his parents as he had to return to school. He spent the summer with his grandparents.

The writer wishes to offer an apology for omitting Mr. John Anderson's name from the report of the F.U.A. picnic. It was due 16 his organizing that the ball game was such a grand success.

The C.W.L. held their monthly meeting in the church at Dewberry on the 23rd. Mrs. L. Hayes from Lloydminster was present as a visitor.

The Dewberry C.W.L. plan to hold a tea and sale of home cooking and apron sale on Oct. 27th. More details will appear later. A record crowd is hoped for.

NOTICE OF MEETING

A meeting of the Vermilion District Livestock Feeders Association Ltd. will be held in the Legion hall on Saturday Sept. 1st at 2:30 p.m. All members and others interested please attend. 2-2c

Grain Delivery Quotas

The initial delivery quota for wheat, oats, barley and rye has been set at six bushels per seeded acre in the three prairie provinces and in designated parts of B.C. The quota became effective in Alberta on Aug. 13 and deliveries made prior to that date will not apply against the delivery quotas, W. C. McNamara, assistant chief commissioner of the Canadian Wheat Board, in making an announcement, said that the quotas will soon be adjusted to local elevator capacities as soon as possible.

Back-to-School SUPPLIES

With the holidays coming to a close one can look back over a delightful summer of callers, visits from old friends and other enjoyments.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Berry and daughter of Brooks, Man., were visitors in the district calling on the Gould and Cousins families whose former homes were at Cygnet Grove, Man. The Berry's are those neighbors at that time and staunch friends.

Marvin Gould is away on a well deserved holiday visiting points east of here.

The jolly anglers have again brought home some fish. The writer saw many jars of this delicacy all canned for winter use in the Colby home, and enjoyed a taste of the fresh fish.

Canning has occupied everyone's attention for some time past and will last for a few days yet. The vegetables have developed wonderfully despite the late spring. Everyone is so thankful for the abundance of fruits. Fields are golden and harvest will soon be in full swing. It will be a busy time for all.

Today it is dull and inclined to rain, let us hope that warm sunshine will soon appear and leave shadow disappear, meantime speak ing of shadows. The farmyard things fancy sharpens shadows on the wall - and so I put the lamplight out the many moon shadows fall. The sun casts shadows on the lawn when there are trees around—like stripes of blackness panelled on the green and shining ground. And in the country when a cloud obscures the blazing sun across the golden fields of grain the dancing shadows run, and as it moves in daily life the shadows come and go—We cannot have the light without the shadow, this we know, and so when cares oppress you and you encounter a gloom Remember shadows are not quite as dark as they may seem.

Civic Holiday Proves To Be Moving Day

Crowded out last week)

Monday, Aug. 6th besides providing us with a holiday, afforded a second a good opportunity to get the moving over with. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller moved out just prior to that day to Lethbridge, and this made it that the new owner of the Miller house, Mr. and Mrs. George Whyte, could move in from their farm. At the same time Mr. and Mrs. Sherpard were moving in, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dixon moved out as they have purchased the Whyte farm just a mile south. As soon as the Dixon house was vacated Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Priest to be [illegible] at Mrs. Arthur Towell's and this is

Enemies and Friends

With many areas in Alberta still free from some of our most dangerous weeds, it is not surprising that many farmers are not yet familiar with their appearance. C. R. Sterling, Supervisor, Soil Conservation and Weed Control, Alberta Dept. of Agriculture, suggests that considering the rapidity with which weeds spread and the difficulty in eradicating them, every farmer should be on the watch at all times and report any strange looking plant in his crop to the Field Supervisor or the Weed Inspector without delay.

In areas where they have become established, such weeds as Tartary Buckwheat, Henry Cress, Toad Flax, and Leafy Spurge are demanding time, effort and money to effect control. If these weeds had been recognized and destroyed on their first appearance enormous savings would have been effected. Report all the strange plants in your crop, whether they appear harmful or not, advises Mr Sterling. If they are not noxious, no harm will have been done. If they prove to be dangerous, early identification and elimination will save trouble and expense.

District agriculturists, field supervisors and weed inspectors are all working towards betterment of agriculture in your community and for the welfare of the people engaged in agriculture. They are there to help you, but you can best profit from their experience only by keeping in constant touch with them and making full use of their services.

Help a go an Alberta's Red Cross Crippled Children's hospital by giving grain. Your sweater agent will sell you the story.

Letters to the Editor

A number of communications to the editor have been received for publication in the Standard which have not been signed. While nom-de-plumes may be used for actual reproduction of the letter in the press, all letters submitted for publication must be signed by the writer and contain his or her address. This is a rule of the press the world over.

LOCAL NEWS

Cpl. Harold Heidebrecht who is a member of the R.C.A.F. band stationed at Ottawa planned to visit Vermilion this summer but writes that he has been prevented from accomplishing this to date due to the many engagements of the band. When writing he had just returned from the fifth trip the band had made to the east coast. While at Dartmouth he spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Mackenzie (nee Pat Burns). He and Pat talked over old times and as he has found out many times before Harold says you can leave Vermilion but it's still the good old home town with many fine memories Pat also sends along a great big "Hello to all of her friends back home and especially to her mother and dad. Harold has three weeks leave coming to him and might still manage to make the trip to Vermilion this fall.

Although they do not seem to be included in the government index, times certainly form one of the chief ingredients of the cost-of-living in this day and age. If every tax were suddenly removed from the goods we buy, we would be amazed at how low prices would be.

Special Notice to Employers AND Those Enlisting in Armed Forces

By The Veterans Benefit Act, 1951, passed at the last session of Parliament, the Government of Canada has extended and made applicable the provisions of the Reinstatement in Civil Employment Act, 1946, to all persons enlisting in the Regular Forces of Canada after July 5, 1950, (nineteen fifty) and who serve therein for a term not exceeding three years.

This provision extends also to members of the Special Force who re-engage for service with the Regular Forces, the three-year coverage period beginning with the date of re-engagement.

This provision extends also to members of the Reserve Forces who after July 5, 1950, are called out for service with the Regular Forces and serve with the Regular Forces for a period not exceeding three years.

By an Order in Council passed in 1950 under the Canada Forces Act the provisions of the Reinstatement in Civil Employment Act, 1946, were extended to members of the Special Force and members of the Reserve Forces who serve on the strength of the Special Force. The reinstatement provisions of this Order in Council have now been incorporated in the provisions of the Veterans Benefit Act, 1951.

Under the Reinstatement in Civil Employment Act a discharged person may claim reinstatement either verbally or in writing, not later than three months of discharge in Canada or four months if discharged overseas. There is provision for extension of this time when through a condition of health the employee was unable to claim reinstatement in this case, but the employer must be notified in three or four months, as the case may be, and a Reinstatement Officer himself will contact.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICES ARE LOCATED IN LOCAL OFFICES OF THE NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT SERVICE.

Paper One Day Late

A combination of a holiday on Monday, a vital day in publishing a newspaper, a very busy day around town on Tuesday resulting in late advertising copy from many of the businesses and the fact that demands for advertising space necessitated two extra pages, 14 in place of the usual 12, caused the short week, resulted in the Standard being on, day late this week.

Land Ownership Carries Responsibilities

GRAIN YIELDS LOWER

Ownership of land in Alberta gives the farmer a number of privileges but it also provides responsibilities, warns C. R. Sterling, Supervisor of Soil Conservation and Weed Control, Alberta Dept. of Agriculture. One of our main responsibilities of ownership of land is the control of weeds and maintenance of fertility.

Is our land deteriorating? Some of our older farmers recall yields much higher than those obtained today. With the rapid increase in world population and little virgin land to be developed, we must of necessity handle our present soil resources with the greatest efficiency if deterioration is to be avoided.

Too few Alberta farmers are following practices that will keep their farms productive, advises Mr. Sterling. The time may come when society will demand that the farmer work his land in such a way as to maintain fertility. In England and certain continental countries such demands have already been made. How long that time will be delayed in Alberta will depend on the farmers' initiative in adopting methods that will resist deterioration of the soil.

Crop rotations, trash cover, wise use of machinery, the seeding down of water courses and the use of shelters, all help in maintaining fertility and keeping the soil on the farm. If these things are not in practice generally throughout Alberta, there will be little need for criticism of the farmer's actions in his efforts to conserve our soils.

Grain given in Alberta's Red Cross Crippled Children's hospital will give a happy ending to the story of a crippled child.

LADY GOLFERS WIN MANY PRIZES

Vermilion's lady golfers are apparently very modest. Quite a number of them competed in the Vegreville ladies' golf tournament a week ago Sunday and came home loaded with prizes—but said not a word about it to the local press. Miss Edna Robson was the second flight with Mrs. Hilda Cross taking second. Mrs. Powe won second in the 3rd flight. Mrs. Ben Kiez and Mrs. Lorne Parker won first and second in the 4th flight. Mrs. Brown and Mrs Mead first and second in the 5th. Mrs. Hilda English second in the 6th. Mrs. Bill Sutherland won the pitch and putt. Mrs. Maxine King made the longest drive. An extra good day evidently was enjoyed.

Tremendous Cabbages Grown At Yellowknife

Alan Wells was in town this week exhibiting a huge cabbage which he was grown at Yellowknife in the N.W.T. Alan has spent the summer in the north on some projects for the Dominion Dept. of Agriculture. The cabbage weighs 11 lbs. 11 ozs., is very solid and measures 2 feet 11 inches in circumference. Grower of the cabbage was Dennis O'Callahan of Yellowknife.

Alan is spending the week with his parents north of town and will then proceed to Ottawa where he will continue his studies.

Hollywood Dare Devils Give Thrilling Show

The Hollywood Daredevils presented their thrill-packed show on Tuesday evening to a full grandstand at the fair grounds. There is no doubt about it that many of the acts are decidedly risky and require skillful handling of the cars to pull the drivers through without accident. The climax is a spectacular leap off a ramp for a distance of about 60 feet to another ramp, which the car rarely made on this occasion.

"Savings play a vital part in the battle against inflation"

. . . says Emerson Crowd, Financial Editor, The London Free Press

"Can inflation be checked?

"Every one of us is concerned with the answer to this vital question. Today's all-time high cost of goods and services affect the living standards of people in all walks of life; and those living on fixed incomes are especially hard hit.

"In addition to weakening our economy, inflation threatens our defence programme.

"Therefore every method of controlling rising prices must be applied with vigour.

"Government measures such as increased taxes, controls of rents and reduced non-defence spending are necessary, if unpopular. Of course, business and industry must co-operate—especially by increasing productivity. The average man might feel that any control he alone can exert is insignificant. But the individual can and should help by doing his utmost to save money.

"Every dollar he saves — through bank deposits, savings bonds or life insurance — plays a part in helping to stem the tide of inflation. And at the same time, it brings the saver important personal benefits.

"These benefits need no reviewing. But it may be pointed out that nothing has changed their importance even though there are many demands and temptations to use income for other purposes. Nor has anything supplanted saving as the one method most people have of obtaining many of the things they want and need most.

"All in all there are more reasons for personal savings today than ever before."

Emerson Crowd

(This bulletin was crowded out last week, due allowance should be made for time elapsed).

We are glad to learn that Mr. Gillies is improving. His son Bill was home from Edmonton for the week end.

Marvin Gould holidayed in Saskatoon for a few days.

Everyone is keeping his or her fingers crossed hoping that frost will stay away. The crops are really beautiful to look upon, but oh, so late. Another problem is securing sufficient help to harvest the crop.

Mrs. Golby and daughter Barbara were recent visitors to the home of the writer, while Percy was away fishing, catching a nice bunch.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. Tom Bothwell who was recently bereaved by the death of his brother at Mannville.

If you folks out west—come and get some of my beautiful flowers before Jack Frost comes and spoils them.

Best wishes are extended to Capt. Stewart and his bride for a long and happily married life.

Report to the People

BY ROBERT FAIR, M.P. BATTLE RIVER

On many occasions in recent years, I have intervened, in the columns of the Standard and other newspapers, that have been generously made available to me, to deal with general interest to the Prairie provinces, directly to the farmers and indirectly, to all other residents regardless of their occupation or profession. Nearly one year ago I undertook to point out the many difficulties with which the farmer is faced in attempting to wrest a living from the soil—difficulties over which he has no control, such as a dry spring, successive devastating frosts in the month of August while the grain is still green and immature, a break in weather when only a few days harvesting has been completed, continued wet weather for weeks and finally snowstorms that make it impossible for any further progress with harvesting. The above briefly describes the difficulties of the 1950 crop season but does not take into consideration the many hardships suffered by thousands of farmers who were so dependent upon the disposal of their crops to buy up store and other bills and make provision for carrying on until another crop could be harvested. In 1951 farmers were faced with the problem of harvesting the 1950 crop before any seeding operation could take place. In this they were hindered because of an exceptionally heavy snowfall during the winter which spring weather did not remove until later than usual. When the job was finally completed the result was a heavy accumulation of low grade grain, which, under ordinary circumstances would prove difficult to market, but with the added hindrance that resulted from a shortage of shipping space in the Great Lakes we ended the crop year with a surplus of more than 186 million bushels of wheat, most of which is low grade and nearly 170 million bushels of oats and barley. The wheat carryover the heaviest in the past six years and is the result mainly of the Government's policy of doing nothing about providing the necessary shipping to move the grain into selling position. Perhaps it is not generally known that the Wheat Board was unable on many occasions to offer wheat for sale because they were not able to deliver it. Even though the terminal elevators were full and between two and three thousand boxcars full of wheat were on the tracks awaiting unloading space in the terminals. We have read in the papers about British ships in the Montreal harbor begging for cargo because they could not get their anticipated cargoes of our wheat. Had provision been made to keep sufficient supplies of wheat in position throughout the season the Wheat Board would have been able to offer wheat continually and the carry-over, as a result, would not be what it is today. On many occasions appeals were made to the Government to take action to relieve the situation but the reply was always that the situation would right itself. Perhaps that was the hope as it was back in the depression days when a war conveniently broke out to relieve the situation of that time.

When the shipping situation finally became a crisis in the eyes of the Government, a decision was made to appoint a shipping controller. This is given very wide powers and it is hoped that some improvement in the movement of grain will soon take place. The matter is much more serious than many people realize, and it is sincerely hoped that the Government's belated move which is aided by the present late season on account of continuous rain and cloudy weather will soon ease the congested condition of local elevators so that famers may be able to take advantage of the six-bushel quota allotted in this area.

On Aug. 25, Mr. George McIvor, chairman of the Wheat Board dealt with the shipping and quota situations and promised that as soon as conditions in any particular area warranted it, the Board would immediately increase the quota so that all country elevator space is used to capacity. Closing his broadcast Mr McIvor had this to say:—

"In closing this short talk we must recognize certain factors which are going to be helpful during the present crop year. With favourable harvesting weather 1951 grain crops will be ripened somewhat earlier than the crop of last year. This means an earlier start in the shipping of 1951 crops and will be most helpful in the period between now and the close of navigation on the Great Lakes. I think I would also point out that those responsible for the movement of grain from the country elevators right through to seaboard positions, thoroughly understand that the opportunity of producers to deliver grain during the present crop year and the ability of the Board to meet its export commitments depend directly upon transportation in all its phases. This general realization of the part which transportation must play in the massive of 1951 crops will be most helpful to all concerned. And finally, the present crop year has started with an excellent demand for wheat. If adequate transportation is available very large quantities of wheat can be exported from Canada, not only during the fall months but continuously throughout the crop year. This is a most important consideration in a year of good production and at a time when grain supplies are going to prove most valuable storage space in Canada."

As another session of the House is called for Oct. 9, my next report will be made from Ottawa, when I hope to be able to give some information about the business to be dealt with. Until then, I hope the weather clears up and remains clear so that the present crop may be successfully harvested and all those concerned enjoy the benefits of an other bountiful harvest.

OUR OUTSTANDING SHORT STORY—

Instant of Eternity

John Tremaine lost the Stars but found his Soul in the Golden Dusk Again.

By Mary Elizabeth Lemke

WITH a re rugged arm akimbo, the other and one foot resting on the high wire fence, John Fenwick surveyed the green rolling and sandy trails. They'd lived at the west coast fifteen years now and he'd come back for a stint to assist an aching yen to view again his familiar scenes. Buffalo hoofs also reminded here when it had been a buffalo path. A buffalo path of which his young days he had been caretaker. It hadn't been without danger either. He turned from the fence and eased himself down on a grassy mound. Meedily he began pushing tobacco into his pipe with a blunt, time-scarred thumb. His face eased into a grin.

He had been quite mad about that red-headed school teacher, Dorothy Jackson. Dorothy with eyes a sparkling blue that fairly radiated vitality. She had seemed to enjoy his company a trifle better than that of her many other male admirers but that was about the best that could have been said for it. She was interested only in her teaching career and made the fact quite obvious.

It had been spring, that fateful night he had walked her home from the dance, glorious spring with warm moist air, with new leaves and sounds. At the gate of the farmhouse where she boarded he had taken on her hand and like a schoolboy stumblingly started to blurt out what was in his heart. But she had snatched her hand away and turned on him.

"Don't John, I'm not interested in such things yet. I want a career—to be somebody. That's what I call living."

And Bill strode away from her, hurt and a little angry. He crossed into the park, taking the short cut to his own bungalow half a mile around the bend. The pale crescent beams of the spring moon had lost their appeal and he romped along aimlessly head down. He hardly noticed the faint smap of twigs and grass that twitched reposefully in the soft air.

And then out of the night a deep guttural bellow sounded and rose above the drum of clattering hoofs. His head seemed to split apart as though an icicle had slithered down his spine and for one horrible fraction of eternity he stood petrified with surprised horror at the sight of a shaggy buffalo antlers, head down, neck arched, eyes dilating grotesquely in the moonlight, charging down a little knoll, straight at him. Electrified into action he glanced around wildly. Open prairie surrounded him except for a few willow bushes about a hundred yards to his right and a few feet further on a fallen splinter-ed tree. With catlike swiftness John dropped and flung a handful of sand in the face of the charging monster. The great beast ploughed to a stop, halt with an angry snort and John leaped forward. A terrific impact with head removed quite without words; now it became incredibly precious. Thoughts whirled in his mind. Could he reach the brush? It might provide long the agony for a few seconds but even more it could almost feel the cruel weight of stomping hoofs. And in his feet, few over the ground, the maddened snorting head drew ever closer; from his nostrils hot breath was coldly clammy. The brush just ahead—a hopeless bunch of twigs it seemed. Wildly he tore away at it, thrashing his way through snapping branches, and the buffalo's stinking breath was almost in his ear. Maddened eyes were glued on him and the bush only served to slightly hinder the charge.

Panicky with terror he lunged on and leaped suddenly just in time to avoid crashing headlong into the splintered tree. He felt sprawling on the other side and crouched there gasping, waiting for the inevitable. And in that same moment a terrific crash rocked the ground behide him and with it an agonized grunting bellow. He jerked up and looking gasped. The shaggy head had not noticed the fallen tree in the shadowy light and had crashed headlong into it, running a jagged splinter deep into his heaving side. Clutching a great roar, John had wildly breathlessly as the beast's dark shaggy head slumped limply still.

Standing there trying to comprehend the miraculousness of his escape another beast behind him gave him whirl almost crying out. Dorothy was running toward him, her white face ghostly in the moonlight.

"John," she faltered, blue eyes round and dark with horror, "I was walking around outside 'cause I couldn't sleep and I heard that bellow—I ran up the hill to see what—" Sobs muffled her voice and she reel had been cast against the rough tweed of his shoulder.

All at once John Forester realized he had forgotten to light his pipe. He was smiling. Mrs. Forester's blue eyes still held their sparkle although the red hair was streaked with grey now John straightened slowly and turned his's up the sandy road they brought changes. Still he guessed after all he'd just as soon not meet up with an outlaw buffalo again.

Research Tests On Grain Seeds Being Made

REGINA—The continent's first large-scale tests with irradiation of grain crop seeds and plants are being conducted at the University of Saskatchewan.

The research is financed by a scholarship grant from the National Research Council winner, Tom Lawrence of Colonsay, Sask., is doing the tests under the direction of professor L. H. Shebeski of the Field Husbandry Department.

"The main purpose of this research is to see if the straw strength of Montcalm Barley can be improved without reducing the quality or yield," Prof. Shebeski said

Irradiation of the seeds and plants was accompanied by use of different energy rays. Radio-active phosphorus, neutron and gamma rays were used separately and together along with betatron rays.

The irradiation idea came from a Swedish publication which said a super straw strength could be produced by X-ray treatment.

In some tests, the seeds were treated with one or more of the active substances. In others, the plant itself was treated at different stages of growth with one or more of the active substances.

In some cases the treatment was given only once while varying numbers of treatments were used for other tests. For each row of experimental plants, a row of untreated barley was planted for comparison.

Prof. Shebe si and the treatment of plants and seeds with energy rays produced a remarkable number of mutations, many of which would be crop improvements.

He predicted that irradiation will become an important tool of plant breeders in the future.

A mutation is a sudden change in the inheritance of one or more characters of the plant. More than 15 have been produced by the current irradiation experiments. Many of them show the improved straw strength that is sought.

Montcalm Barley is a six-rowed variety of smooth-awned barley, often difficult to grow because the straw is weak and much lodging occurs.

An egg contains as much nourishment as four pounds of pears.

Vancouver Hotel Clerk Who Refused Crosby In Movies

HOLLYWOOD — The Vancouver, hotel clerk who refused Bing Crosby a room because he looked like a bum has been signed to a movie contract to play a hotel clerk by Crosby's friendly rival, Bob Hope

Art Cameron, the clerk, left to work in Hope's new picture "Son of The Paleface".

The gag in the picture, of course, is Cameron will play a hotel clerk who does give Hope a room.

Cameron obviously is a very smart man in his line of business." Hope said. "He knows how to recognize a bum."

Crosby and his writer-producer, Bill Morrow, stepped off at the Vancouver Hotel while on a fishing trip and Cameron refused them the room because they were wearing dirty, old clothes and were unshaven.

A bellhop recognized the actor and got them back into the hotel as they were about to leave. Crosby and Morrow laughed off the incident. But Hope didn't forget.

Police On Alert For Reckless Drivers

When motor car accidents are continuing to take a heavy toll in Alberta and other provinces, traffic experts are giving increased attention to safety measures.

Officials of the Alberta Motor Association stress the fact that with a steadily increased volume of traffic this summer there is a paramount duty to "Take It Easy".

It is some satisfaction to hear that police forces are on the alert and that the number of officers has been increased on main highways to check speeding. Nevertheless, motorists still are protesting 'over the flagrant violations of the traffic act by reckless drivers.

One traffic expert points out that at a speed of 30 miles an hour, a car cannot be stopped in less than 65 feet. If the car is travelling at 60 miles an hour, it cannot be stopped in less than 226 feet.

The distance a car travels from the time the brakes are applied until it comes to a full stop is known as the braking distance. At 60 miles per hour the braking distance is 71 feet while at 30 miles an hour it is only 18 feet. Worn tires, bad brakes, slippery roads, all increase the braking distance.

Kitscoty Girl Wed in Edmonton

CATTAPAN—HALE

St. Mark's Anglican church, Edmonton, was the scene of an attractive bridal when Muriel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hale of Kitscoty, became the bride of Mr. Edward Cattapan, son of Mr. L. F. Cattapan of Vancouver.

Pastel gladioli and sweet peas decorated the church for the double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. M. Wilson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin and nylon lace fashioned with a fitted bodice featuring a Peter Pan collar, lily-point sleeves and tiny self-covered buttons. The full skirt fell to a long train. A satin cap held her veil in place and she carried a semi-colonial bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Miss Peggy Hale attended her sister wearing a pink taffeta gown with a cap of mittens to match. Her colonial bouquet was comprised of yellow roses and gladioli.

Mr. Ted Lushington was best man. Ushering guests to pews marked with white bows was Mr. Sam Collins.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hale chose a turquoise frock with black accessories and pink roses en corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception for thirty guests was held at the Royal George hotel, Edmonton.

Centring the bride's table was a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by tall white tapers and bouquets of snapdragons.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Collins.

The newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton.

A Tribute To Iceland

WHILE IT IS NOT LARGE, the Icelandic community in Western Canada has occupied an important place in the life of that part of the country, and has contributed outstanding personalities in professional and public life. It is of interest, therefore, to many people that a chair of Icelandic language is to be established at the University of Manitoba. This will be one means of preserving the culture of those pioneer citizens who came to the Canadian West seventy-five years ago and settled on the shores of Lake Winnipeg, where they earned their living by farming and fishing.

• • • • •

Largest Group in America

There are 15,000 people of Icelandic descent in Manitoba and they constitute the largest group of Icelanders living anywhere outside of their native land. It is estimated that there are another 10,000 Icelanders living in various parts of the United States and Canada, but the group in Manitoba is looked upon as the centre of Icelandic culture on this continent. The Icelanders consider their language to be among the classic languages, comparable to Latin and Greek, and because of this the community in Manitoba has raised $153,000 of a proposed $300,000 endowment for the chair of Icelandic literature and language at the University of Manitoba.

• • • • •

Will Interest Many Students

The courses offered are expected to be of interest to advanced students in English and the classics and to students of Icelandic descent who wish to study their native language and literature. Much has been said in the past of the blending of the cultures of other lands with ours, as a result of the mixing of the many national groups which make up the population of Canada. The establishment of the chair of Icelandic language and literature at the University of Manitoba will remain as a lasting tribute to the part which the Icelandic people have played in the life of this country, and to their ancient culture, which they have preserved here.

Weather Still Man's Big Gamble Despite Attention of Science

By GROVER BESSERMAN
(CPC Correspondent)

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Man's biggest adversary is the weather. It hasn't changed much since the days of recorded history. The climate may hasn't affected it, neither have the rantings of politicians, and John Q. Public in general.

We would all like to do something about it—but how? It's too hot in mid-summer, too cold in January; too rainy in March, and too dry in August.

People believe in weather signs, many of which are steeped very deep in superstition, handed down from generation to generation, and garnished a bit with each re-telling. Yet many of these old adages contain more than a morsel of truth.

Smoke rising straight upward from a chimney in the morning is a sure sign of good weather ahead, old-timers persist. Science now admits that there is a lot of truth in this simple phenomenon, which is a good substitute for a barometer reading.

A ring around the moon is a certain sign of storms coming within hours, you've heard. Science says okay to that one, too. That halo is caused by a thin layer of high cloud. Scoting high in the heavens, with millions of tiny ice crystals reflecting —proof of rain or storm in the next 24 hours.

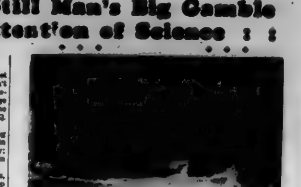
An elderly grandmother told me the other day to expect rain within 24 hours, because her cat was eating grass. Without trying to disparage her belief, it seems more probable that the cat was merely trying to acquire some vitamin B.

You've heard this one: "Evening red and morning grey, send the traveller on his way." And its counterpart: "Red in the morning, sailor take warning." Know where these originated? You'll find them in your Bible. Matthew 16/ verses two and three.

Many factors of people's lives have always been ruled by superstition. So it is also natural that they should seek some mysterious sign or symbol that would foretell the weather.

Many of the signs became popular through constant usage and repetition are pure fancy. However, others—many others—have scientific backing.

The action of animals, for instance, has always been watched as a sign of changing weather. Animals are more intuitive than humans, and accordingly are more sensitive to humidity and falling air pressure that usually precedes storms.



—Central Press Canadian.

Weather is reverse — clear below but cloudy above.

Weather is the most universal topic of conversation in man's mind, whether he is an ultra-educated city man or a simple tiller of the soil, because weather influences the three economic essentials of life; food, clothing, shelter. No wonder we talk about it!

People who live in favorable climates prosper and increase in number; they weaken and finally fall into decay when weather is constantly against them. Proof of this is the Eskimo, and many of the tropic races that forever battle equatorial jungles.

From time immemorial, man has studied the wind, the clouds, the air. So it is also natural that they should seek some mysterious sign or symbol that would foretell the weather.

From time immemorial, man has studied the wind, the clouds, the air. So it is also natural that they should seek some mysterious sign or symbol that would foretell the weather.

We've seen who call themselves weather makers, and we have intrepid airmen who fly into hurricanes merely to chart the wind velocity.

Ever hear a farmer refer to a dappled cloud formation as "rain seed"? There's some basis of fact in that, too. Ballers refer to the same kind of cloud formation as "mackerel sky". Storms generally follow.

"Thunder in January, frost in June," is an old one. So far scientists cannot associate any basis of fact to this old adage. However, people with rheumatism, bursitis and broken limbs that have healed often say that a change of weather is coming, "for they can feel it in their bones." A change in barometric pressure could cause pain, scientists say, giving fact to the theory.

Many gardeners and farmers believe in "moon signs". You sow or plant under the right moon sign, or it will be a failure.

The weather never is right. Generally, though, it's kinder than you think. We've had a very fine, very low — compared with the sunny, balmy days. Raise fall usually when they are needed.

Oil Drilling Planned For Central Sask.

REGINA—Superior Oils of Canada Ltd., General Petroleum of Canada Ltd., and Bata Petroleums Ltd. are now starting a joint drilling program in west central Saskatchewan, it was learned.

This was obtained from Bata Petroleums of Regina. It includes 132,000 acres of C.P.R. reservation and 359,000 acres of special agreement permits.

General Petroleums has 42½ per cent. in these lands and Bata retains 15 per cent.

Babies Being Spread By Skunks From U.S.

WETBURN, Sask. — The presence of rabies, a canine disease, in skunks in the United States territory adjacent to Canada is very likely to lead to the spread of this infection into southern Canada and all persons seeing skunks are asked to kill them, Dr. A. J. Andries, Weyburn, sub-district veterinarian, federal department of agriculture, said in an interview here.

Last summer an outbreak of rabies occurred in Minnesota, spread into North Dakota and started this past spring in North Dakota.

Dr. Andries stated that it is believed that the skunks have already started travelling northward into this country. More skunks have been seen in southern Saskatchewan this year than for quite a number of years previously. He said the skunks apparently travel by night.

Large numbers of skunks have been seen dead along roads and highways in the southern sections of the province. Dr. Andries said he noted at least eight dead skunks along highway No. 39 between North Portal and Estevan.

It is believed that if the skunk population is eliminated, a great deal of danger might be avoided. The department of agriculture has circularized this information to divisional veterinarians, provincial authorities, practising veterinarians and municipal secretaries living within a radius of 50 miles of the United States boundary.

New System of Permanent Licenses

OF INTEREST TO EVERY TRADE AND BUSINESS

The new system of permanent licenses for trades and businesses has been put into effect by the Alberta Department of Industries and Labour according to the latest issue of the Alberta Gazette.

The permanence licences will be substituted for annual licences in most trades and businesses. If a trade or business obtained its licence before the announcement, the licence will be changed to a permanent one with no extra charge. Trades and businesses applying for licences will now apply for a permanent licence.

Trades and businesses to which the permanent licences will apply are auctioneers, the automotive industry, the barber trade, the beauty culture trade, the cleaning and dyeing trade, collection agencies, the commercial printing industry, feed and feed milling, fuel oil dealers, funeral directors, grain buyers, junk dealers, margarine manufacturers, meat packing industry, photo finishing industry, retail and wholesale trade and trade schools. These previously held annual licences.

Annual licences will continue to be issued to bakeshops, restaurants, sawmills and tourist camps, and these licences will expire March 31 each year. Annual licensing of billiard rooms and bowling alleys will be continued also, with the licences expiring June 30 each year. These businesses must meet required inspection standards annually.

While the cost of permanent licence fees is somewhat higher, the Dept. of Industries and Labor pointed out that new rates are of a nominal nature when compared with the annual cost of renewal of licenses.

General regulations under the Licensing of Trades and Businesses Act also have been revised.

Licensees must apply promptly for approval of any change which would alter the status of his licence. Also, the department has the right to grant licences for a limited or specified time if expedient.

Licences also should apply immediately for duplicate licences when their former licences are lost or destroyed. They also should return their licences to the Dept. of Industries and Labor in cases where their businesses stop operation. New licences should be applied for by a new owner or proprietor when a business changes hands.

The department also stressed that businesses should not neglect their responsibility to furnish the public with adequate services and to keep sufficient stocks on hand to serve the public's needs. Businessmen also should remember to get their provincial licence first before applying for a similar licence under municipal by-laws.

Improve Safety Of Main Alberta Roads

Work is progressing in the construction of wider shoulders on the Edmonton-Calgary highway, according to information received by the officials of Alberta Motor Association.

The need of this policy being adopted was urged last year by the A.M.A. in discussing improved highway methods.

The provincial highways department has embarked on a 10-foot safety shoulder program on the Calgary - Edmonton highway. It is planned to do about 15 miles north of Calgary this year, along with about six miles south from Edmonton to Nisku. Next year the program will be expanded so that ultimately most of the provincial highways will be covered.

Provincial officials say that the value of the wider shoulder, for safety purposes is fully recognized

A number of accidents have occurred on provincial highways this year as a result of the lack of adequate space for cars which had stopped at night, possibly due to tire trouble.

Recently a truck driver was killed when his truck was struck from behind by a similar vehicle. The man had stopped to change a tire.

Wildmere Winks

We, along with the surrounding districts wish to extend our deepest sympathy to the wives and families of Mr. Harold Young and Mr. Wm. Davies in their tragic and sudden passing. It is hard to realize that they are really gone. The attendance at their funerals on Saturday bespoke the respect these two men and their families held in and around Vermilion and will be a comfort to the bereaved ones left to know that they are not alone in their hour of sadness.

Here is a correction: The silver teapot, sugar and cream set given to Mr. and Mrs. A. Rendell at Tyangle should have been from Mr. and Mrs. John Isley, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Isley and Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Isley. The writer did not hear the other names mentioned that night - sorry folks.

On Wednesday evening last week, the Auburndale Young people presented a variety program at our school. A nice crowd turned out and everyone enjoyed very much the program these young folks put on. It really was a lot of work and the songs and musical selections given between acts were also good. One thing the W.I. know now is how to pick farm members from the town members. The acts 'Packing the Suitcase' and the puppet show deserve extra praise. May these folks see their way clear to come again in the not too distant future and entertain us. Will Test Applicants For Driver's Licenses

Alberta's scheme to test applicants for drivers licenses will be brought into operation later on this year, according to information received by the Alberta Motor Association. Details of drivers' tests are being obtained and studied before the final scheme is decided.

These tests are to be operative after the compulsory tests of motor vehicles come into effect on July 1. They are to be applicable to persons seeking a driver's license for the first time and to those whose licenses had been suspended.

When the provincial authorities decided on compulsory tests of vehicles, they said these would be followed up with proper tests of applicants for drivers' licenses.

The A.M.A. has taken a leading part in urging the provincial government to adopt a system of drivers' tests, especially for those desiring to obtain a license for the first time. It is pointed out the largest percentage of accidents involves persons in the teen-

Trucks Take Only Profitable Business

CHARLOTTETOWN. — Truck operators are siphoning off railway net revenue by taking the most profitable business, and railway net revenues are small enough so that this becomes colorful. Donald Gordon, chairman, [illegible] the Canadian National Railways, told the Board of Trade here at their annual dinner.

"Road rail competition is of nation wide significance. The effect of a few relatively small trucking operators is disproportionately large and far more than the public thinks. The railway must treat all shippers alike under similar circumstances, an obligation that does not rest on the trucker, he said

Mr. Gordon said that railways last year received an average unit revenue of only 1.1 cents per ton mile. "A level of rates on which no trucker in North America could survive."

A railway must build and maintain its own highways out of its own pocket. Upkeep of the right-of-way especially on the CN system where there is over 24,000 miles of lines is a continuing and expensive business, and the costs increase as the price of materials and labor goes up.

Now At Home In Edmonton

This young couple, well known to Vermilion and district people, are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Daniel Hodgman who were married in Edmonton recently at St. Stephens' College chapel. The bride is the former Dorothy Margaret Falk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Falk of Vermilion. The newlyweds are now making their home in Edmonton.

Dewberry News

They're off— they're off on a ten months grind
Scores of children, for knowledge to find.
The schools are opened for another term
It's the educated way of life they'll learn.

Mary had a little lamb to school but we don't think Donna will get the little colt in even though she says that it is starting grade 1.

Busses are again operating and some pupils from North Home are also coming in to Dewberry.

Gordon Rainey is away to Calgary for a new school bus.

After several rainy days roads are in poor condition. Like the blacksmith who knows that the iron must be hit when hot, Frank Bowman who has a small maintainer is seen dragging the road at the right time and doing a 100 per cent job between his place and town— free of corn— but why should it be?

We should have dozens of these maintainers throughout the M.D. so that farmers with tractors could get on the roads when they should be done and not wait until they become so hard it is impossible to touch them.

Roy Finlay's little boy had the serious misfortune to have his finger cut badly on a washing machine while Erwen Garnier received a bad cut from an axe, back requiring four stitches, the blade penetrated an artery.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. Bill Boyce whose marriage to Mrs. Helen Fellows took place on Sept. 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hodgson, farming at Red Deer for the past few years, paid a visit recently to their old home district. While here their 40th wedding anniversary was celebrated at the home of their son Gerald. At the luncheon Mrs. Tom Lee gave the toast to the honored couple and grandchildren Tommie, Ronnie and Julie carried in a gift of silver which was presented to them by uncle Jim Clark on Sunday. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Milo Hodgson. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, Chas Beck, Mr and Mrs. Dewhill (no, member of the family their son Harvey of Carolina was absent. Best wishes for many more happy years to come.

A special feature at the United church service last Sunday was the rendering of two selections on the flute by Mr Harlan Green. He was accompanied by Mrs. W. Porter on the organ. Mrs. Porter is an accomplished organist while Mr Green is one of Canada's outstanding flutists making a fine combination of sacred music. Church next Sunday will be at 11:30 and Sunday school at 10:30.

Crops are commencing to fall to the weather and binder. How would you retired farmers like to be at it? Now paying nearly $4¢ per lb. for binder twine? A sub-basic quota is to reflect here on grain. Barley is a few cents more locally than one year ago. 20 cents on the set or initial price of grain is going to be held again. This means $1.2[illegible] per bu. the wheat board will keep back according to the size of the quota while we continue to pay interest on borrowed money. We should receive the full amount or nearly so for the first quota.

Ralph Lambden and Carl Benoit in all elevator agents are keeping busy this wet weather by building grain piles for farmers.

Ed Lambden and family spent the holiday week end in town visiting relatives.

Raymond Fleming is back to look after the harvesting of his crop.

Dirt from the new school excavation has been dumped on the north side of the avenue beside Dewhill's garage and will make this avenue much wider

Allandale

It's grand to have a sunny day after the past week of clouds and rain. The rain and wind caused considerable lodging in the heavy grain.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Porter and family arrived at the O'Fee home Aug. 30th. They left their home at Ottawa the last of July and have been visiting Mr. Porter's mother at Victoria and other relatives at the coast. They came by Banff and visited the latter's sister Mrs. Gordon Mayhew and family before coming here. Kay Mayhew came with them to visit her Grandma and she and her sister Elinor will be returning home Monday to commence school. The Porter family left last Saturday for their home in Ottawa.

Mr. Ed Magistad has traded his truck for a 1950 De Soto car. Since then Ed and Grace have visited the latter's mother at Fallis and relatives in Edmonton.

A summer-fallow bee was held at Oscar Johnson's Aug. 27 when a number of neighbors from surrounding districts came to do their kindly deed for the day.

Ladies of Allandale please take note! Word was received from Mr. McBride that he will be unable to have the W.A. meeting as planned.

Closing Thought: The highest wisdom is continual cheerfulness: such a state, like the region above the moon is always clear and serene.

MONTREAL — The Dutch immigrant movement to Canada has been resumed, an average of 100 persons per day. The Dutch vessel S.S. Volendam completed her third voyage from Holland recently with an immigrant load of more than 1200. This brought the total for Dutch immigrants transported by the ship to approximately 3800.

Three special Canadian National boat trains on the two previous occasions transported the movement.

Going over the Yellowhead Pass, through Mt. Robson, C.N.R. crosses the Rockies at the lowest altitude of any railway in North America.

OBITUARY

Stewart Alexander Bothwell

One of the first pioneers of the Manyville district passed away at his home Friday, August 24th in the person of Stewart Alexander Bothwell. He was born February, 8, 1861 at Durham, Ont., the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Bothwell of Durham. He spent his boyhood on an Ontario farm.

In 1882 he went to the lumber woods in Ontario, later moving westward to Manitoba. In 1890 he went to Montana where he lived for twelve years. But the urge to farm in the Canadian West was very strong in him. In 1902 in company with the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wagner of Vegreville, he came to Vegreville. Mr. Wagner drove a prairie schooner wagon but Mr. Bothwell rode horseback and drove with him a large herd of work horses.

Mr. Bothwell bought land in the Vegreville district. Two years later, in 1904, he and his brother Thomas, travelled eastward looking for more land. He purchased land near Manyville and homesteaded at Claymore, while his brother settled in the Islay district.

On April 30, 1907 at Vegreville he married the late Agnes Elizabeth Wilson of Campbellford, Ont. They moved to the farm near Manyville and established their home, where they lived until their deaths. His wife predeceased him in 1936. For many years Mr. Bothwell was active in the affairs of the district, being well known and highly respected.

The deceased was in good health until April of this year when a failing heart condition caused him to be very weak until the time of his death. He is survived by one brother Thomas of Islay, Alberta; two sons, Preston of Campbellford, Ont., Stuart at home, two daughters Mrs. D. P. Miller of Vancouver and Mrs. H. D. Hamilton of Manyville. There are six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the McQueen Memorial United church, Manyville, on Wednesday August 29th at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, interment following in the Manyville cemetery. The very large floral tributes were a token of esteem and respect in which the deceased was held. Interment followed in the Manyville cemetery. Rev. Mr. Penner officiated.

During the lunch, the hostess brought in a delicious birthday cake with 19 candles burning on it, to celebrate Creighton's 19th birthday.

Five Point

Five Point met at the home of Mrs. W. McCauley with eight members and three visitors present. Mrs. E. Jones, director of district 2 attended the meeting. She outlined clearly the work of the standing committees. Miss Neren Summer gave a talk on Shelterbelts, illustrating this by making a pair of earrings for each lady present. A contest for most infants was discussed for use in Memorial Hospital. Eventually the matter came before the hospital board and they decided to buy one, much to everyone's satisfaction.

Ramsay

Ramsay met at the home of Mrs. P. Shaw in July with six members and one visitor and at Mrs. Ernest Pritt's home in August with four members. Neighbors and friends of Mrs. Clarence E. Killeen gathered at the home of Mrs. R. Alkinson on Tuesday last prior to her departure for Trenton, Ont. Included in the farewell was Mrs. Killeen's mother Mrs. Pinder who makes her home with her daughter and family.

The ladies presented Mrs. Killeen with a pretty mauical powder box, and Mrs. Pinder with a handsome silver spoon with Vermilion engraved upon it.

A very enjoyable evening was spent playing cards and by partaking of a delicious and bountiful lunch. Everyone joined in wishing Mrs. Killeen and Mrs. Pinder all good fortune in the near future in their new home in Trenton where Mr. Killeen is stationed with the R.C.A.F.

Friends of Boyhood Days Meet At Islay

A very interesting meeting was enjoyed this week when Mr. Dick Berry from Souris, Man., paid a visit to the home of his boyhood pal, Jack W. Gould near Islay. Pleasant memories of schooldays, sports, boyhood day: at school and in their youth of deer hunting in the Cypress Hills of Manitoba, were enjoyed when the attendance was by oxen and wagon. Both men have not lost their three score and ten years.

Mr. Berry accompanied by Mrs. Berry is touring from Souris, B.C. on their way to Brooks, Alberta to visit the former's sister there They were traveling in a new car and are out and enjoying the trip very much. Mrs. Gould, formerly Miss Janet Mc-Gould, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim and Dick, the old friends, in memory of their boyhood days and Mrs. Gould's sister, who left over forty years ago and this kind of friendship is deep and treasured. It was Mrs. Berry's first trip east and the Gould family were very pleased to meet her.

Other members of the Gould and Connaughton families were visited as all had been neighbors at Cypress Hills in Manitoba some fifty years ago and the friendships in Edmonton and the friends exchanged as reverts and not goodbyes and another such happy meeting is hoped for.

Make Your Farm A Place to Live

Make your farmstead attractive, advises A. M. Wilson, Field Crops Commissioner, Alberta Department of Agriculture. A definite clean-up program can mean the difference between a disorderly farm and one you can be proud of.

Eliminate those unsightly corners where weeds collect and spread to the rest of the farm. Provide a separate driveway to the barn so that the house and yard can be kept in order. If you have no implement shed, at least have a particular place for the machinery. An implement shed is desirable and the time will come when this can be built. In the meantime, a straight and barb of the buildings will increase the attractiveness of your farmstead.

Plant trees. Trees are permanent improvements that will protect your farmstead fields and roads. In five years time you will wonder why you did not start sooner.

Farm improvement is not a short term process. It is a matter of careful planning, working steadily towards a long term objective.

Salvation Army Home League Meets

The Salvation Army Home league met on Wednesday Aug. 29 with 13 ladies present when they enjoyed a social evening in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. A. Tiney and Mrs. Violet Harris. The meeting opened with prayer led by Mrs. Pilgrim and singing Mrs. Good read the Bible lesson for the week and Miss Louise Bisbee read the lesson. Mrs. Ann Smith favored with a beautiful piano solo Joy Bells. This was greatly enjoyed.

Mac Craig and Mrs. Pilgrim rendered a duet entitled Tears in Eyes with all joining in the chorus. This was so enjoyed that they favored again with Take My Life and Let It be Consecrated Lord to Thee.

A complete change took place in the program then with readings by Mrs Campbell entitled The Second Minuete and Jolly Jests. A reading called How We Kept Mother's Day was given by Mrs. Campbell. These readings gave each of the listeners a lift that brought the smiles to their faces. Mrs. L. Dow gave her contribution to the program by using six of the ladies in a silent play this is along the line of actions without words, and onlookers must test their wits and brains by guessing the name of the play presented. It was interesting and most enjoyable Humor was not neglected and Mrs. Peter Jensen gave her reading and as usual it was much enjoyed.

To top all a beautiful birthday cake trimmings and all, was then brought in, donated by Mrs. Dow Sr. and A Happy Birthday to You was sung to the two ladies whose birthdays were being observed. Following the lunch the meeting was closed by prayer led by Mrs. Isley.

THE VERMILION STANDARD 10 PAGES

Vol. XLIII. No. 11. Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, September 13th, 1951. $2.00 per Year

Construction Already Started — 123 ft. Long by 36 ft. Wide

NEW ARMORIES FOR VERMILION

PROVIDES DRILL HALL, RIFLE RANGE, GYMNASIUM AND AUDITORIUM

Construction has started on a large new armories here which will provide primarily a drill hall for Vermilion's 'A' Company of the reserve army, with a regulation rifle range in the basement. The new building also offers excellent accommodation for a gymnasium and auditorium. It is being erected by the Dept. of National Defence (Army) and will be rushed to completion this fall.

The armories will be of steel construction, with the exception of the front offices 15 feet in depth which will be of ornate design. Overall size will be 123 feet by 36 feet with 15 foot ceiling. The front 15 feet will provide offices with the remaining 108 feet forming the drill hall. There will be a full basement. The basement itself is divided lengthwise by a concrete wall one side will be used for a regulation rifle range, while in the other half will be located janitor's quarters and quartermaster's stores. The armories will be well lighted, heated and lighted.

Space has been provided on the high school playgrounds and the new building will be located south of the hospital road facing north, immediately south of the high school. It is thought that use of the auditorium as a gym and auditorium may be obtained by the students at times.

The tenderers announcement was made to the Board of Trade Wednesday by Capt. Harold Ackerman, officer in command of 'A' Company. As the Dept. of National Defence has chosen to build this fine new armories here it's now directly up to Vermilion and district people to support 'A' Company by word and deed. Much can be done by encouraging men of military age to join the reserve company, and by showing a keen and continuing interest in its welfare.

"GREEN ACRES"

When' Diseases Again

Last week I said that the brown and black blotches on wheat heads do not cause loss in yield. That is not quite correct. What I intended to say is that damage is already done and cutting the crop early will not help. I have a letter from the Field Crops Commissioner to the effect that infected fields should be allowed to ripen in the usual way. Cutting early only results in immature grain and shriveled kernels.

Three Wheat Diseases

Three plant diseases are affecting the wheat crop this year. Black chaff and black chaff are the most serious of these heads. Both can reduce the yield to some extent but Black Chaff more so than Glume Blotch. Take-All Root Rot is usually found in the same field and this disease is likely the cause of heads not filling properly in some fields.

Change of Seed

Black chaff is a seed-borne disease, hence anyone having a wheat crop affected with this disease should change seed. Root rot are soil borne so it is best to seed some other crop than wheat on land infested with this disease. Rust on the other hand is neither seed or soil borne it is carried by the spores that start the disease must be blown in from the south. Red stem rust of wheat has not been seen in this district this year. Black rust has not been reported any where in Alberta this year.

Feed Supplies

Because there is plenty of stock feed this fall is no good reason why any of it should not be used. Screened No. Hay, green feed and straw should not be saved. It should be protected from the weather and from live stock. Feeding a straw stack will often save a big loss from trampling of stock. I have a circular for distribution on building a straw bunker for a stack.

Lightning Conductors

Lightning has caused many losses to life and much property damage this year. Why not instal lightning rods on the house and barn this fall?

Prunes and Iris

Now is the time to order a few Prunes and Iris for planting this fall. The roots are so cheap that no one should be without these lovely and handy flowers Order from any seed firm or florist. I have catalogs available at my office.

Ask Immediate Start On Municipal Office

A delegation representing groups on the east side of the municipality, waited on the Vermilion River council, asking that they take immediate action to build an office, thus implementing the results of the by-law of the storm-bound March 19th vote when only about 25% of the ratepayers were able to cast their ballots.

It was pointed out that as there was an injunction against the building by-law no action could be taken until after this had been settled. The delegation asked that the injunction be contested and were assured by a member of the council that it would be.

A suggestion by Cr. Gordon that in view of the snow-blocked and storm - bound condition of the country at the time the vote was taken, that the by-law be rescinded and another vote held, did not meet with the favor of the delegation.

COPY HELD OVER

A very large quantity of live local and district news has been crowded out this week due to lack of space and time. This material will all appear next week.

HARVEST

While a good start has been made on cutting, harvesting operations have been held up frequently during the past week by showers. The area is still frost free which is a fortunate thing as there is a lot of green grain still very much in evidence.

Commends Vermilion Children

A farmer from south of Vermilion commented to the Standard on the nice sociable attitude the children of Vermilion have when they meet or pass you on the street. He said everyone who caught his eye smiled at him, many spoke, and all were quite mannerly and very friendly, even dropping into stop beside him and something up a conversation. He thought that it was such a nice attitude in the young people and made him glad to walk along the street and see them.

Horticulture Society Notes

Cheques have now been issued to the forty prize winners in the late Horticultural show. Should any prize winner not have received the secretary-treasurer Mrs. Blank.

The sincere appreciation of the directors of the Society goes to Mr. E. H. Buckingham for his untiring work and interest, without which the show would assuredly not have been the success it at it was.

Wildmere W. I.

The W.I. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. R. Smith on Wednesday, Sept. 5th with 12 members and two visitors present. Visitors were Mrs. Onyett and Mrs. Mooney who were here visiting from California. Roll call was answered by a nursery rhyme. Our September objective was a magazine subscription to a school. It was decided to renew Wee Wisdom which is to be handed around in different schools where members' children attend.

Mrs. Gibson reported baby sports had been given to new babies and flowers had been sent for Mr. Smith's illness.

Business was a discussion on making a quilt which was tabled until the October meeting.

The Institute paper Home and Country was studied by Mrs. Garnett, Sr.

Our president Mrs. Whitlock welcomed the visitors to which Mrs. Mooney replied. She also told of clubs in their home town and district in California.

Topic was given by Mrs. Wallington, a paper on Holland. Our study of different countries has proved very interesting. Social was a picture of our dad's. Johnny Jump Up was won by Mrs. R. Osterburg. Meeting closed with a delicious lunch served by Mrs. Smith and helpers. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Sneed on Beaswood. Roll call, name of cats, wheat or barley. Topic, Mrs Haw and. Social—Housecleaning Hint.

Will Adopt Reflector Car Plates Next Year

Alberta car owners will have luminous license plates in 1932, according to a recent announcement by the provincial government.

The announcement is of interest to all motorists, indicating that a major step will be taken in the interests of highway safety.

While it is the intention to use a luminous or shiny plate which will reflect at night, the provincial authorities will stay with the present two-plate system for cars. Some consideration was decided to revert to the single plate plan.

The luminous plate has been tried out in some states with gratifying results, it is claimed.

Helen Crough and Alexander MacMillan Married At Millet

MILLET. — An attractive bridal took place in St. Norbert's Roman Catholic church here when a double wedding of interest was solemnized by Rev. Father Sheen assisted by Rev. Father McLean.

The pretty ceremony united in marriage Miss Mary Helen Crough and Mr. Alexander MacMillan and Miss Nora Agnes Crough and Mr. John Allen Mills.

The brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Crough of Millet. Mr. MacMillan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John MacMillan of Clandonald and Mr. Mills is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills of Edmonton.

Miss Helen Crough entered the church with her father who gave both as his daughters in marriage. Miss Nora Crough approached the altar on the arm of her brother, Mr. James Crough.

The brides wore identically styled gowns of nylon net over satin. Lace headdresses caught to their heads, fingertip net veils, and they carried white prayer books and bouquets of red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for the wedding party and their families was held in the Millet hall.

Mr. and Mrs. MacMillan will make their home in Clandonald. Mr. and Mrs. Mills will reside in Redwater.

Neighbors Help At Oscar Johnson's Farm

Farmers of the Clandonald district proved that their area is a good one in which to live when they turned out with ten tractors and tillers and did the summerfallowing for their neighbor Oscar Johnson. Oscar is in an Edmonton hospital slowly recovering from the serious injuries he sustained when his tractor overturned, pinning him under it. He is improving but it will be a long time before he is able to take over the work on his farm.

Those in charge of the bee wish to thank all who turned out so willingly and did such a very good job.

All The Evidence In The World Doesn't Make Up For The Life Of One Cat

By RUSSELL WILSEY

MR. WRIGHT eased up to the prominent "STOP" sign at the cross-roads, then shot his car past it without changing gears. Beside him Mr. Thornton watched the unwinding ribbon of the road.

"You'll take care of that order as soon as possible, Mr. Wright?" Mr. Thornton asked, removing his large cigar from his mouth to do so.

"Yes, sir," Mr. Wright answered, "first thing in the morning."

They drove in silence for a few minutes, then Mr. Thornton remarked, "How's your wife? She had some sort of accident lately, didn't she?"

"Uh huh, but she's fine now. Too bad you couldn't stay for dinner tonight. My boy's doing pretty well, too. Got a new position. I thought he might come in the business with me, but he . . ."

Mr. Thornton dropped his eyes to his wristwatch. "Eleven-thirty-seven," he snapped. "What time did you say that train left?"

"Eleven-fifty-eight," Mr. Wright answered, frowning himself as he saw the deep ridge in his companion's brow.

"Well, I don't want to miss that train," Mr. Thornton said quickly. "I've got an important meeting in Devron. It wouldn't pay me to miss it."

Mr. Wright's answer was to hurry along a little faster. The trees and grass at the side of the road blurred into a line of green.

They whipped past a cute road and almost instantly a motorcycle roared out after them.

For a moment Mr. Wright considered trying to escape, but the cycle was coming too fast. He steered the coupe and brought it to a stop by the side of the road.

The motorcycle drew up to the coupe and cut in front of it. The tall, trim policeman silenced his engine, then dismounted and walked towards the car.

"If you're saving somebody's life, pop," the cop said sarcastically, "let's go. But if you were hitting sixty-five miles an hour just 'cause you felt like it, I'm afraid I'm going to have to give you a ticket."

"Now listen here . . ." Mr. Wright started hastily.

"Take it easy. Let's see your license."

Reluctantly Mr. Wright held out his key case.

"The registration papers in here?" the cop asked. Mr. Wright nodded. Unsnapping the inside pocket of the case, he removed the papers, eyed Mr. Wright and the physical description on his license, then strolled to the front of the car to check the plates with the registration.

In the car Mr. Thornton glanced at his watch and turned to glare at the policeman.

"We'd never make that train if this goes on all day. What's the matter, Wright, can't you skip that kid some cash and get us out of here?"

"I'm afraid not."

The cop returned, RTed one foot to the running board, and opened a leather-covered pad on his knee. "All right, Mr. Alex E. Wright," he said, without looking up from his pad, "I'll have a little present for you in a moment, if you'll just be patient."

Mr. Thornton sputtered in his seat. "Listen, young man, why don't . . ."

The policeman looked up. "What's your name?" he asked, calmly surveying Mr. Thornton.

"Thornton, Richard Thornton. I'm from Stevens City, and . . ."

"What are you doing out here?" the cop broke in.

"I had some business with Mr. Wright. What business is it of yours?"

"Just curious," the cop answered evenly.

"Well, I've got to catch a train in ten minutes. I'm a busy man, and I can't spend valuable time sitting way out here in the . . . the . . . the country."

Turning to Mr. Wright, the cop went on, "Listen, Mr. Wright, I suppose this guy became a bit of a nuisance to you, so you're willing to break the speed limit to help him get his train, huh? Say you didn't realize a lot of your neighbors live around here. The kids are supposed to keep off this particular highway, but sometimes they forget. All the business in the world doesn't make up for the life of one kid, Mr. Wright." He ripped out the ticket and passed it in to Mr. Wright, along with his key case.

"Say, pop. Just use your head the next time."

Folding his pad up and stuffing it into one of his pockets, the cop strolled to his motorcycle. The cycle's engine barked into life and the cop sped off in the opposite direction.

Mr. Wright started his own engine and the coupe continued to the railroad station, at a decidedly lower speed.

"Pop"! Mr. Thornton repeated with a peevish outburst. "Why that fresh young kid!"

Mr. Wright laughed routefully. "Well, in my case it wasn't too bad. That was Ted, my son."

Horses Sold "Dirt Cheap" At Coast

VANCOUVER. — Top thoroughbreds sold for low prices at the first annual dispersal auction of the Lavender Stock Farms.

Over-drivelve fillies, both greys like their old man, brought the best prices. Hows, Thomas and Howe got one for $650, highest bid of the day, and the other went to Dr. H. R. Ross for $350.

A once prized stallion, Royal Reign, was sold for $50. Other stallions went for little, too, Bob's Way bringing $40; Ted Lewis $100 and Black Lancer $40.

There were some real bargains among the mares. All had suckings and had been bred back.

So Clay Puett, in buying Little Pine and Phrima for $375, actually bought six horses.

Family Gathering

Harold Young and Wm. Davies Laid To Rest

A sense of deep tragedy fell over the whole countryside on hearing of the sudden deaths in a railroad crossing accident at Kitscoty on August 30th of two well known and well liked members of the community, Harold Young and Bill Davies.

Their untimely passing leaves a blank in the life of the district which will be felt for a long time to come.

A combined funeral service was held on Sep. 1st in the First United church, Vermilion conducted by Canon T. W. Page of St. Saviour's Anglican church. His words brought comfort to the mourners as he spoke from the text "I give unto them Eternal Life, and they shall never perish, and none shall pluck them out o, my hand."

The hymns sung were 'Safe in the Arms of Jesus' and 'What a Friend we have in Jesus'. Mr. Thos. Watts rendered the solo 'Shall we Gather at the River'. Mrs. A. M. West officiated at the organ.

The large number of sympathizers who attended and the hundreds unable to get inside the church, testified to the deep respect and true affection felt for these two young men.

The many flowers also gave their silent message of hope and the resurrection.

Interment took place in the Vermilion cemetery. Mayoress Funeral Directors, were in charge of the arrangements.

The pall bearers for Harold Young were Frank Watson, Jimmie Roneghan, Clifford Crocker, Archie Thompson, Hugh Foster and Jim Mullan. Floral tributes and donations to Iuvfa' were received from the following:

Harold Clifford Young was born in Hinsdville on Jan. 12th, 1920, being 31 years old at the time of his death. He received his education at Watson school, lived and worked on the farm until about 1943 when he left to take up the oil hauling business at Borradaile. He was married in October, 1945 to Eileen Preston of Tofield and afterwards took up residence at the Borradaile refinery where he lived until the time of his death.

He owned a caterpillar tractor in partnership with Bill Davies and also had a gravel truck working on No. 16 highway construction. He was well liked for his many fine qualities as a family man, as a citizen and as a friend.

He leaves to mourn his loss his loving wife and two small sons Garry and Richard of Borradaile, his father Herbert Young of Edmonton, one brother Frank of Edmonton and one sister, Florence. Mrs Carl Sampson of Lloydminster.

The part of the obituary pertaining to the late Wm Davies will appea. next week.

The sympathy of all goes out to the bereaved families in their great sorrow.

Not now, but in the coming year,
It may be in the better land
We'll know the meaning of our tears
And there sometime we'll understand.
We'll know why clouds instead of sun
Were over many a cherished plan.
Why song has ceased when scarce begun
Some time, some time we'll understand

T.B. Deaths Decline In Alberta

THIRD LOWEST OF THE PROVINCES

Alberta's death rate for 1950 was 19.3 per 100,000 the lowest yet reported. It was revealed to C.C.F. Leader Dickey General Secretary of the Alberta Tuberculosis Association. The total number of deaths was 317.

Alberta has the third lowest death rate from TB in the country, only being lowest with a rate of 17 per 100,000 and Saskatchewan second lowest with a rate of 18.3. Mr. Dickey pointed out that Alberta is rapidly overtaking Saskatchewan for second place. In 1941 Alberta's death rate was 30 per 100,000 which was 30 per cent higher than that of Saskatchewan, whereas in 1950 Alberta was only one per cent higher. Mr. Dickey stated that Alberta has a good chance of having Canada's second lowest death rate within another year or two.

The tuberculosis control program in Alberta is second to none on the continent, according to Mr. Dickey and is steadily improving with outstanding community surveys through the Xmas seal mobile unit services, and tension in TB screening of hospital admissions. The Alberta Department of health and Alberta Tuberculosis Association work very closely together in all aspects of TB control, and results are obvious in the above statistics.

It costs nothing to investigate life insurance. It pays handsomely to invest in it.

Prairie Industries

FOR MANY YEARS there has been interest in the prospects of establishing industries on the prairies. Almost all the manufactured goods used by the people there are shipped from Eastern Canada or the United States and the people in the West have had included in the prices which they pay shipping charges from distant points, and in the case of American goods, tariff charges as well. There has been strong argument in favor of eliminating these extra costs by manufacturing articles close to the points at which they are to be consumed.

* * * * *

Marketing is One Problem

In a recent issue of the magazine "Chemistry in Canada" the subject of industrial developments on the prairies is discussed at some length. Dr. H. H. Saunderson, director of the Information Services of the National Research Council is one of the writers contributing to the discussion and he suggests some interesting points in connection with the possibilities for marketing goods manufactured on the prairies. He raises the question frequently brought forward in this connection, regarding the feasibility of manufacturing goods for which the raw materials must be brought a great distance. In such circumstances it is usually cheaper to transport the finished article

* * * * *

Interest in New Markets

It is also pointed out that many manufacturing plants operating at full capacity would produce more goods than would be required in the immediate area, and the manufacturer would have to sell the surplus on other markets either in Eastern Canada or abroad. In view of the expansion which is taking place in many parts of the West, a number of industries are looking with interest to this increasing market, where there is demand for all types of household supplies, industrial equipment and other services. Power, transportation and availability of raw materials are all factors which come under consideration when a new industry is to be established, but there is evidence that there may be considerable progress in the industrial development of the West in the next few years.

Many To Sail For Europe In '52

EDMONTON — Hundreds of booking already have been made for Atlantic sailings in the summer of 1952, according to Ken W. Greene, of Winnipeg, general passenger agent for Canadian Pacific Steamships, visiting a visit to Edmonton recently.

Mr. Greene said cross-Atlantic business this summer had been heavy but now has commenced to ease, leaving space available for practically all sailings. One of the big drawing cards has been the Festival of Britain.

Next year, the eucharistic congress in Spain probably will be one of the main European events to attract visitors from Canada, he said.

SOUVENIR OF SUMMER

Did you lose a silver feather from your wing, hummingbird,
As you hovered o'er the rosy blossoms on my window sill?
Did you leave it as a souvenir of a summer day
When the flowers gave their sweet perfume and the air was hot and still?
I found the smallest silver plume that I had ever seen
Resting beneath a rosy blossom when I had flown away.
I will keep it to remind me when the world is bended with frost,
Of humming birds, some rosy blooms and a quiet summer's day.

Sale Possession

NEWPORT, R.I — A woman leaned against a parking meter, took off a shoe on the curb, the other in the street, chatting with a friend.

"You're blocking traffic," called out a motorist, eyeing the parking space.

The woman dropped a penny in the parking meter slot.

"Now I have sole possession of this parking space for the next 12 minutes", she answered, and resumed her curbside conversation.

Cure For Burping

LONDON — A Tattler, medical expert came up with a cure for burping — hold a cork twice as long between your teeth.

Writing in the medical journal Practitioner, Dr. A. K. Black said, however, many people don't want to be cured — they like burping — and it becomes a habit.

The burp — he used the term belch — is caused by swallowing air, he said.

To stop burping all you have to do is to stop swallowing air and the best way to do this is to keep your mouth open in moments of stomach discomfort. He recommended the cork treatment.

VICTORIA, B.C. — British Columbia's apple crop this year is estimated at 8,705,930 boxes, a drop of 10 per cent. from last year's harvest. Adverse weather conditions were chiefly responsible for the decline.

Rescued U.S. Fisherman Tells Of Bush Ordeal

Says Planes For Help, Who Won't Let Him Sleep It

Dr. John Tesche, Sheboygan, Wis., who with Miles Eisenberger, Plymouth, Wis., were hopefully rescued after being marooned for 29 days in northern Saskatchewan wilderness, tells of his harrowing experiences:

THE PAR. Man.—My plane is for sale. I'm sure my wife won't let me keep it after all this trouble.

That is my last aircraft.

We became lost on the first day of our flight from Lac La Ronge in my Fairchild plane. We found out we were above the tree line and into the Northwest Territories, about 150 miles north of where we were found.

The thing that put us off was the shift in the winds and the terrific disturbances. Once during that flight, I pointed to the west at large lake and my compass went all the way around.

The black flies in that north country almost killed us although we had repellent and we shivered. At one time I counted 300 bites on myself and Miles Eisenberger at last have suffered four or five times that many.

Those black flies were so thick and they bit hard.

We had a good tent that kept the flies out. But during the nights it rained so much that I was with our Arctic equipment and sleeping bags we couldn't sleep well.

The rain and the mist the water in our cooking pots was thick ice in the morning.

We had plenty of food because we had brought along eight weeks supply in the plane, but during the last two weeks we lived off fish and berries. Sometimes we wanted to conserve food in the event we had to walk out.

Fortunately we never did.

The fishing in the lake was good. We caught lake and northern trout at will. But I'm fed up with a fish diet now. We ate trout every day.

We kept a diary of the events that occurred and I published it in a personal message of farewell to my wife and family.

The mental anguish we suffered at the thought of our families was really the worst of our troubles.

We prayed hard and often that we would be found. I have stepped from the church in recent years, but I'm back in it now.

We first detected his 53rd birthday on Aug. 29. We should have observed it on the 27th, but somehow we lost track of two days.

For his special birthday supper we tried to shoot the only grouse we had seen on the nearby island, but we had no luck.

He had fish again for his birthday. We really entertained little hope of being found because we realized that we were much farther north than we had intended to go.

Funny and Otherwise

Sheila: "Good gracious! What happened?"

Peter: "Nothing serious, thank goodness. Just a bent mudguard and the paint a bit scratched."

"You might stay at home a little bit more," complained the wife of a golf enthusiast. "You're everlastingly out playing golf."

"I know my duty," replied meekly, "but you know the doctor told me to live in the open as much as possible."

The talkative lady was telling her husband about the bad manners of an acquaintance who had recently pair her a visit.

"If that woman yawned once while I was talking to her," she said, "she yawned 11 times."

"Perhaps she wasn't yawning, dear," the husband said, "maybe she reated to say something."

The hot propeller was getting mislaid.

"We have got the Devil in chains at last," he cried, "and we'll have a prayer meeting every day for perpetuity; he can still read, you know, so the front pew and even pew young fellows at the back of the gallery."

Came a voice from the gallery: "Well, the tempter might as well have a good hour."

Cow Now Horse O.K. To Shoot

WASHINGTON—The cow became a horse, and now it's quite all right to shoot the beast.

It's a tale of mystic India, told in testimony at Senate hearings on the foreign aid bill.

A big wild animal of the antelope family and known as the "nehil gau" was causing extensive damage to crops in the field. But the farmers would not shoot it, because "nehil gau" means "blue cow", and the cow is sacred to the Hindus.

So the Indian government has changed the name to "nehil gau" which means "blue horse". Horses are not sacred, and so now the beast can be killed to protect the crops of food-short India.

Got Journalistic Experience The Hard Way

Eric Humphries Becomes Editor Of Weekly Paper In Japanese Prison Camp

CALGARY. — Eric Humphries got his journalistic experience the hard way.

Humphries, 31, now a public relations officer with the Canadian National Railways in London, England, started writing in a Japanese prison camp in Singapore during the Second World War.

He told the story while in Calgary during a nine-week tour of C.N.R. offices across Canada.

He was a prisoner-of-war in a Japanese camp at Batavia early in the war. The Japanese provided news bulletins of a sort for the prisoners, but they were written in such bad English that they were practically unintelligible. Humphries got the idea of editing and publishing the news himself in non official columns.

He convinced the Japanese authorities this was a good idea, and with the help of a fellow prisoner and a typewriter borrowed from the Japanese he put out a single-sheet weekly paper for nearly three years.

"We found out later that the news we got from the Japs were highly-colored propaganda," he said. "But at least it gave the boys an idea of where the fighting was going on."

Wood Carving Is Hobby Of Immigrant

WINNIPEG.—Knut Hoffgyrss, for many years a seaman in the Swedish Merchant Navy, has been a carpenter since coming to Canada three months ago but he has found time to develop all his time to wood carving.

His latest project, which he will do in spare time, is a five-foot model in Canada wood of a 18th-century sailing ship used for carrying timber from Australia and now a training ship for Sweden's navy.

Asked why he left the sea, Holmgren said:

"I have had enough travelling. Canada's climate is similar to that of Sweden. And then there's Mrs. Holmgren's decision: 'I don't want a man who is always at sea.' We've spent only 11 of 30 years of married life together."

New Potash Finds In Sask.

REGINA.—Two discoveries of potash in a salt bed under the Saskatchewan plains were reported by Hon. J. H. Brockelbank, resources minister.

Both discoveries were in wells drilled by the Bohio Petroleum company in the Watrous area, about 50 miles northwest of Saskatoon. The two new seams were discovered at depths of 1,600 feet but neither is thick enough to be mined.

However, Mr. Brockelbank said, they indicate a wider distribution of potash throughout the province.

Pearl Reid Bride In Pretty Ceremony

McGALE—REID

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the First United church, Vermilion, when Pearl Lorraine Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Reid became the bride of Denis Owen McGale, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McGale of Lloydminster.

Rev. C. W. McKay performed the ceremony.

Entering the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, the bride looked lovely in a navy blue wool gabardine suit and shoes. She wore white accessories and her corsage was American Beauty roses. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace and earrings the gift of the groom.

Miss Elsie Milburn, her bridesmaid, wore a white gabardine dress suit, and blue accessories and her corsage was pink tea roses.

The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Mr. Reid. Dandiness to Spruce Grove Gordon Jackson, Mr. Jack Berry of Lloydminster and Mr. Garnet Reid of Wainwright. The wedding music for the ceremony was by Jack Brown. During the signing of the register Mrs. Elsey sang "All Joy be Thine".

The church was very tastefully decorated with gladiolus and sweet peas for the occasion.

A reception was held later at the bride's home where Mrs. Reid assisted in a grey crepe dress with pink accessories, while the groom's mother chose green crepe with matching accessories, both were corsages of pink roses.

Miss Bernice Leach was in charge of the guest book. During the reception many telegrams and long distance calls were received.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth over pink and was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, silver candle holders and candles completed the decorations.

Later that evening the young couple left for Edmonton and points west and on their return will reside in Lloydminster where Mr. Groom is employed.

Among the many guests were Mr. and Mrs. Berglund, Mr. and Mrs. Larsen, Mr. Don Rogerson, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. McGale, Norah McGale, Peter McGale, Larry McGale, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Berry, Mr. Reg Quarton, Mrs. L. Quarton, Mrs. Knight, Miss Preston and Mr. and Mrs. Art Morgan all of Lloydminster; Mr. Garnet Reid, Wainwright; Mr. Dave Morrison of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dandineau of Spruce Grove.

ETHELWYN NEWS

Saturday night and no Standard, how we miss it! We hope that the Standard staff hasn't taken this form of flu that is going around.

School has started for the fall term. Rye children are fortunate to have Mrs. McCormack back for another year. Our new school is not quite ready to use yet. The electric work is finished but the inside painting remains to be done.

Congratulations to the following to whom mail was received who have been recently: Mr. and Mrs. Glen Allen of 1200 daughter, and Mrs. Harry Goldsmith, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Feenstra, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Caderon, a son.

Best wishes for a long and happily married life to Mr. Ralph Wright and Mrs. Bob Patmore of Vermilion.

Birthday greetings to Grandpa McBride who was 80 years of age recently.

The W.A. meeting held on Sept. 6th at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Feenstra was well attended. There are non ten members. A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies interested to attend the next meeting to be held at Mrs. Harold Cooper's on Oct. 4th. The handicraft exhibition given by Mr. MacMahon was much enjoyed. It is hoped that one or more of these projects will be started before winter sets in.

Congratulations are extended to Betty Jean MacMahon of Lindbergh, B.C. for winning the Lions Club scholarship of $100 for 1951. This prize has worked hard at through school and highly deserves this honor. She is a former Ethelwyn district girl.

The writer has two good deeds to report this week. A month ago the writer and family were going on a picnic to Pine Lake. Half way up the river hill at Heinsberg the fuel pump quit working. Inquiring at the garage there it was found that the pump could not be repaired nor could they supply a new one. Mr. J. H. Castle of that village very kindly loaned us one to use for a month, which we have got another. By the kindness and trust of this gentleman we were able to get home. We were able to continue our journey and to save a big loss bill as we were a long way from home. Another fuel pump was secured and three weeks later the same thing happened three miles south of Islay. Mr. Don McFadyen kindly loaned us back to Islay where Mr. Bill Bartell spent over an hour of his brief Sunday time making a new gas system for our car. Sincere thanks to these three kindly men.

District Mourns Loss Of Public-Spirited Citizen

Accident Takes Life Of Harry Gordon

William Henry "Harry" Gordon, widely known and public spirited citizen of the Islay district lost his life in a fatal accident last Thursday afternoon Sept. 13th at his farm one mile west of Islay. Details of the tragedy will never be known. Mr. Gordon was engaged in raking hay in a field about a quarter of a mile from his house, using a horse and hay rake. About the middle of the afternoon Mrs. Gordon noticed that the team was running in the field unattended. She immediately went to investigate and found her husband lying on the ground. He had a severe gash on the front of his head. The doctor was summoned and on his arrival pronounced Mr. Gordon dead. It is assumed that the horses became frightened in some manner and began to run, throwing their driver from his seat. In the fall he struck his head causing the fatal injury.

Mr. Gordon could rightfully be called the most prominent man in the Islay district. He was very community minded and the people looked to him to fill public offices with the result that at the time of his death he was a member of the council for Vermilion River M.D. and chairman of Islay Hospital board. Such positions were not just honorary offices in his case, he took long and faithfully giving his best attention to the duties involved, for the benefit of the district as a whole. Particularly true in his case is the saying "his place will be hard to fill" and his neighbors and friends sincerely maintain that no one can take Harry Gordon's place in the community.

The deceased homesteaded on his present farm in 1908, coming out here from Edmonton and this has since been the family home. He was 69 years of age.

He leaves to mourn his loss his sorrowing wife; one daughter Mrs. Wm. B. Stewart (Kathleen) of Kitscoty and four grandchildren. One brother James resides at Spruce Fish Creek, Alberta and there are four sisters, Mrs. D. Jamison, Brettton, Alberta; Mrs. T. Lord, New Jersey, U.S.A., and two living in Iowa.

The funeral services were held at the First United church, Vermilion, on Monday, September 17th at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, when the church was filled by many friends and sympathizers. A most comforting message was directed to the mourners by the minister, the Rev. C. McKay.

The pall bearers were Messrs. I. Inman, W. L. Roebuck, T. Bothwell, W. Purvis, J. McClelland, C. Young. The body was taken to Edmonton where interment took place at the Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

Teaching Bursaries Still Available

FROM VERMILION SCHOOL DIVISION

The Vermilion School Division has received twelve applications for bursaries granted to students expecting to attend the Faculty of Education during the university year 1951-52. It is felt that three more applications can be considered.

Under the bursary plan the Dept. of Education pays the Faculty of Education tuition fees amounting to approximately $150. In addition a direct grant of $300 is paid by the Dept. of Education and the School Division. None of this money has to be repaid, although it is stipulated that the student must agree to teach in the Vermilion School Division for a period of two years.

Students interested are requested to contact the secretary or the superintendent of the Vermilion Division at once, as classes at the Faculty of Education begin on Monday, Sept. 24th.

To Encourage Good Relations Between Farmer - Hunter

FISH & GAME LEAGUE NEWS

At a recent meeting ...tive of the Vermilion ... league it was decided ... as much as possible ... Hunter" relationship ... coming fall. To ... to make the follow...

Remember you ... ers' land, and treat ... the gates; fill in any... you may dig; don't ... his crop; don't shoot his livestock or his family; ask his permission to shoot on his land—and remember, a bit of courtesy will go a lot farther than a lot of bluster.

TO THE FARMER

Remember that the average hunter is not a bad sort of person—he's out for a bit of recreation and fresh air, and in the vast majority of cases he will co-operate with you in any way he can.

The meeting decided to sponsor a competition hosting for the duration of the hunting season for the largest goose and the largest mallard shot. Any big ones you get throughout the season, any member of the executive and arrange to have him weighed.

BOY SCOUTS RE-ORGANIZE FOR YEAR

APPLE DAY OCTOBER 6th

On Monday, Sept. 17th the First Vermilion Boy Scout troop held their first meeting of the fall season. As in past years, four patrols have been formed up under Patrol Leaders Bob Bentley, Bob Acheson, Stewart Barr and Peter Kupin. It is expected that there will be approximately 35 boys in the troop when it gets fully under way.

One of the first functions of the troop will be to hold their annual Apple Day and canvass on Saturday Oct. 6th at which time the boys of the troop will be selling apples on the street while others go out to carry out their year's activities. At the same time as the apple day is being held, the local association will make a canvass of all business houses in town. Funds are required for the operation of the scout hall and to support and encourage the work of the Scouts and Cubs. All business houses and members of the general public are urged to assist as generously as they can during the forth-coming campaign.

T. B. CLINIC IN VERMILION OCTOBER 2 TO 6

Plans have now been finalized for the accommodation of the T.B. clinic in Vermilion. The committee in charge have been working hard to bring this about and were forced to change their dates twice. These delays were caused by the enormous demand for this free service which is made possible through the aid of T.B. sales at Christmas time, and other donations. The response in the Vermilion area has been quick with the result that already there are better than 2000 names on the list for examination at the clinic.

The sponsoring organization in Vermilion is the Nurses' Association and the members have sent out appointment cards covering all who have registered. If you have not yet signed up get your name and every member of the family down. This saves delay in getting your examination.

The clinic will be here from Oct 2nd to Oct 6th, Tuesday through Saturday at the Armories.

As a maximum of 600 per day can be handled, time could run out and leave someone not examined. It is highly desirable for your name and fact that everyone take advantage of this service. Write a letter listing all your names or names of your family and mail it to Mrs. Wm. Cross or Mrs. M. Lehodey, or call at the drug stores or Sheldon's hardware and register a...once.

Those in charge of the Vermilion schools will be taken in class groups, so you do not need to register these. But it is necessary to register pre-school and post-school ages.

DO IT NOW — and remember after the clinic" that no news is good news. Do your part to protect yourself and others.

Worthy Grand Matron Visits Queen Esther Chapter, O.E.S.

At a special meeting of Queen Esther Chapter No. 22, O.E.S., held ...nly Mrs. Rodney Young of ... both paid her official visit as Worthy Grand Matron. Needless to say, the visit was very much enjoyed by members present. The hall ... beautifully decorated with cut ...ers.

A school of instruction was held during the afternoon when officers received a great deal of help with their work. This instruction was very much appreciated.

NEW TEACHERS MEET LOCAL BOARD

The six new teachers of the Vermilion school staffs attended the school board meeting Tuesday evening along with the principals, and met the members of the board. The new members of the staff are Miss J. J. Cocotallo, Mr. W. F. Stewart, Miss Ruth Hall, Miss Mary Lucille. Miss Lillian Watson and Miss Lois Allen. These new teachers have been widely selected from points in Alberta and Saskatchewan, one from South Ontario and will probably bring with them much fruitful new ideas into the schools.

Mr. Ray Taylor, chairman of the board, welcomed the new teachers and hoped that their stay in Vermilion will be a long and pleasant one, as mutual benefit to all concerned.

Mr. Taylor announced that attendance was now 610 with many more due to harvesting. As there are already five classes crowded into rooms in use it behooves the board to consider the school accommodation problem at once, and to provide the problem to the divisional board.

Agricultural Society Sponsors Sale of Purebred Cattle

The Vermilion Agricultural society is becoming increasingly active in the community and as evidence of this interest in the farming population is to again conduct a sale of pure bred beef cattle on Thursday during the month of October. The actual date has been set for Oct. 25th and closing date for entries is Oct. 15. The sale will immediately precede that of Mr. A. A. Mitchell, breeder of fine Herefords at Lloydminster and it is hoped that the sales being held on successive dates will re-act to the mutual benefit of Mr Mitchell and those who offer cattle for sale at the Vermilion event.

Hogs will not be accepted for sale this year owing to the lack of demand at previous sales, but high class beef and dairy cattle will be offered under the hammer and from interest shown throughout the country it is expected that there will meet a notable demand for quality animals.

All who have cattle to offer should contact R. C. Heckbert secretary manager of the Society and complete details of the sale will be gladly furnished.

Sale will be held at the newly constructed sales pavilion at the Exhibition Grounds, Vermilion, where splendid facilities now exist for such purposes.

Great Asset To Town And District

Construction Of New Public Library Building Commenced

The Vermilion Public Library building made possible largely through the kindly generosity of Mr. George W. Whitnell, formerty of Vermilion and now of Lake Forest, Illinois, who made a gift of $10,000 to the town and district for the purpose of such a building, is now under construction. William J. Pettigrew, Vermilion contractor, was the successful tenderer. This announcement was made last Friday by Mayor E. C. Heckbert.

The building is being erected on a lot on Main street immediately east of the Memorial hall and will be built of brick with white stucco finish, trimmed with tapestry brick around the windows, doors and the quoins. Balance

Will Send Full Teams To Track Meet Sept. 22

Lloydminster, Vegreville Out To Lift Cup

Word coming from both east and west indicates very strongly that the North-Eastern Inter-High school track meet to be held in Vermilion Saturday Sept. 22 will be a most interesting one. The district cup meaning the district championship seems to be the target for attack and both Lloydminster and Vegreville are sending full contingents of young athletes to take this hard won trophy away from the present holder, the Vermilion High school. Besides the three months practice they practically every high school in the area has evinced interest in the meet and will have outstanding athletes competing.

It will be remembered that one year ago Vermilion retained the school trophy, Ed McGinnis of Vermilion won the junior championship for boys, Jackie Kerns of Vermilion and Elsie Semotiuk of Vegreville tied for the junior girls cup, and the cups went to Thora Berteleen of Lloyd and Bill Pidruchney of Veg.

The long list of events will take a full Saturday afternoon to complete so there will be action aplenty at the Vermilion fair grounds all day long. Be sure to see the young athletes in action.

Letters to the Editor

This paper does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

R.R. 3, Vermilion.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard.

Dear Sir:

Everybody seems to be in favor of the farmers giving ten bushels of wheat this fall, in aid of the Crippled Children's hospital. Before any grain is threshed, very little cut in fact, the powers that be are busy telling the farmers what they should do with their wheat. Why wheat? The children's hospital doesn't need our wheat. They can do with some more dollars I expect. Why not let the farmers do what they like with their wheat, sell what they want, cash their cheques and do what they like with the money like any other rational being. Then if they feel like it they can give to any charity they want, without being dictated to as to the amount. This is the limit I think, being told how much you shall give.

Yours truly,
H. W.

Canada Savings Bonds On Sale October 15th

The Sixth Series of Canada Savings Bonds will go on sale Oct 15th. It will be dated Nov 1st, 1951, and will mature 10 years and 9 months from date of issue. It will be sold at a price of 100% up to Nov. 15th, 1951.

It will carry interest coupons of 3½%. The first coupon will be payable Aug 1, 1953, covering a period of one year and nine months (an effective yield of 2% per year during this period). The remaining 9 coupons are payable on Aug. 1st each year thereafter. This will give an average interest rate over the life of the bond of approximately 3.21% per year. Previous issues of Canada Savings Bonds matured in 10 years and paid a straight 2½% per year.

If the new bond is cashed before the first coupon becomes due (Aug. 1, 1953) interest will be paid, at the rate of 2% per year calculated to the last full month. After Aug. 1, 1953, interest will be paid at the coupon rate of 3½% per year for each full month which has elapsed since the date.

The limit for holdings in any one name has been raised to $3000. Previous limits for individual holdings were $2000 in Series One and $1000 in subsequent issues.

It is expected that the increased overall yield and the higher limit will prove attractive to the general public, as well as to employees — whose purchases through the Pay-roll Savings Plan have shown a steady increase over past issues. The effect of the new feature is to offer increased yields to those who hold their bonds for longer periods, while still giving a good return to those who may need to cash early to meet emergencies.

Light Frost Registered Saturday Morning

First frost of the season to be recorded at the radio beam station here was registered on Saturday morning last. Fortunately it was a light frost, 5 degrees to be exact. Even at that some gardens had been expected in low spots.

During the week some very fine days were enjoyed, the temperature being 76 on both Saturday and Sunday with Monday's temperature very close behind, Tuesday cool weather moved in with .04 rainfall in the evening and on Wednesday .10 rainfall.

Good progress was made up until Wednesday with threshing and swathing. The help situation is the worst experienced in years.

Board Members Hear Address By D. F. Marlett

Regional Representative For Saskatchewan, Alberta, Canadian Chamber of Commerce

Work of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and of individual boards of trade were subjects of the address given by Mr. D. F. Marlett, regional representative of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce for Alberta and Saskatchewan, at the regular dinner meeting of the Vermilion board on Wednesday. The meeting was attended by 29 business men. Mr. Marlett is on tour of this part of the province and has visited many board of trades and chambers of commerce on his trip.

He was introduced to the meeting by the chairman, Mr. Ashley Cooper.

During the course of his address Mr. Marlett spoke of the unique record of the Vermilion body in holding regular weekly luncheon meetings for a period of over sixteen years. He had noticed this in a press report.

Following his address a very able vote of thanks was moved to the speaker by Mayor S. C. Heckbert.

Mr. Simon Simonsen, newly appointed superintendent, of the Vermilion school division, was introduced to the gathering by Mr. J. V. Mitchell, and received a warm welcome to the Board of Trade and to Vermilion.

Mrs. Andrew Bauer, formerly of Ainsore, Alberta, is now making her home in the Vermilion district, residing 3½ miles south of town. Mrs. Bauer celebrated her 71st birthday on Sept. 18th.

W. Baldwin, Inspector for the Livestock Branch, Dept. of Agriculture, was a business visitor in Vermilion Thursday morning.

Work Started on New Armories

Excavation of the huge basement for the new Vermilion armories is well underway and will be completed this week. The excavating work is being done by the Edmonton firm of Bell & Lamb. These are both former Vermilion boys, Barry Bell and Bill Lamb. Barry is in town operating the big 'cat' that is doing the work.

Motor Cycle Patrols Big Aid to Motorists

Traffic services provided by the Alberta Motor Association have been in popular demand this season, according to reports at different branches.

Motorists have been high in their commendation of the motor cycle patrols operated by the Calgary and Edmonton branches on main highways in the region of these two main cities. The patrols have covered many thousands of miles in carrying on their duties, providing aid in emergencies and giving car drivers valuable information concerning routes, and accommodations. Attention also has been drawn on occasion to defective car equipment, including lights.

Letters from those who received this assistance have been highly appreciative.

At Banff and Jasper national parks, the Calgary and Edmonton branches also have operated tourist information bureaus, and have had the full co-operation of the federal parks authorities. Thousands of Alberta visitors have been given accurate information and have been aided materially in obtaining park accommodations and services.

The daily road reports supplied by A.M.A. branches also have been utilized to the full, aiding in a vital way in ensuring as far as possible that these visitors and Alberta residents also are given the latest official reports to make their trips comfortable and enjoyable.

Pleasant Valley

Deep sorrow fell over the whole community on hearing of the sudden death of Mr Harry Gordon, a good friend and neighbor. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Gordon and Kathleen.

The W. A. meeting was held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Mc Clelland. Mrs. Payne attended and returned home with the writer spending a few days on the farm.

Earl Bowser spent the week end on the farm, went out duck hunting but not a one was brought down. Guess again Earl.

Mr Gillies is improving and is expected home soon. The writer was sorry to hear that an old friend Mrs. Fraser was ill in hospital but is happy to know she is now out and around.

Such lovely weather we are enjoying, best of the year. The flowers are still grand and no frost here yet. We were glad to have a visit on Sunday evening from Gordon and Doris. So come again.

Mr. Bowser is home on the old farm and helping Dutch during the harvest. At present he is busy building a pig house. The writer thought it was a greenhouse for next spring. It's just what I need. Yes.

I wonder how many readers have picked ripe strawberries from their gardens in September? The writer picked three nice big ones.

I thought of the singing birds in the trees, the lovely flowers waving in the sun—the blue in the sky, which means another bright day for you and I. The harvest moon which shines so bright, bringing rest and quiet through the night.

Help to put Alberta's Red Cross Crippled Children's hospital by giving grain. Your elevator agent will tell you the story.

Swine Crippling

A. J. Charnetski, Live Stock Supervisor, Alberta Department of Agriculture, says that reports of swine crippling during the past few weeks have been more than usually numerous. The chief reason for this is that the abnormally wet season has not received sufficient consideration from many swine raisers. Instead of providing dry quarters for their pigs they have allowed them to sleep on the damp ground and take chances that could easily have been avoided.

Provide dry quarters and clean straw for your pigs, advises Mr. Charnetski. Following the wet season, this precaution requires earlier attention than is usual in the fall of the year. Chilling reduces resistance to disease and makes the pigs more susceptible to pneumonia and other ailments.

News Notes from Your District Home Economist

The Rosyth F. W. U. A. had a Cleaning and Adjusting your Sewing Machine' meeting last week and the Bruce W.I. had their last meeting with me on an 'Efficient Kitchen'.

Shirts Away

Skirts have become young and pretty again. They are very wide and are to be worn over crinolines or swishing petticoats. Canvas or taffeta linings accent the fullness and incidentally help to keep the skirt in shape. Women will need to revise their underwear wardrobes to include petticoats flounced, ruffled and stiffened with net or crinoline—if they are to wear these fall fashions successfully.

Chicken Leg

Not only the crinolines and be-ruffled petticoats are reminiscent of our grandmothers' clothes. The upper fullness of the new sleeves is a downright steal on the leg-o-mutton style of old. Now called the 'chicken leg' sleeves, they are long and tight at the wrist, too. These don't sound very sensible to me.

Your Proper Signature

Your proper signature to any letter is the name of the writer without any title. If you are writing to comparative strangers who may not know how to address you, so give certain clues. Mrs. Smith signs herself 'Eleanor Smith' or 'Jane Seanor Smith' and unless she is divorced, writes below her signature in parenthesis 'Mrs. Charlie Smith' whether her husband is living or not. If she is divorced she substitutes for 'Mrs. Charles Smith' 'Mrs. E. Jones Smith'.

Have the girls in your district the chance to learn cooking, sewing or interior decorating? They can, you know, by forming a Department of Agriculture Girls' club. They'll need eight or more members from 12 to 21 years of age. Ask me for each of these projects. Etiquette is taken too. Write to me if you think there would be a club in your district want you?

Sharpen your wits and see if you know whether a zipper should be covered or closed when a garment is washed.

Keep Your Ammunition Dry

Farmers and hunters who have supplies of ammunition left over from the hunting season would be well advised to store it carefully in a cool, dry place according to K. N. Morris of the Ammunition Division of Canadian Industries Ltd.

Properly stored, sporting ammunition will retain its effectiveness indefinitely, he points out. On the other hand, high temperatures or excessive humidity may cause the primer mixture to deteriorate to the point where it will no longer ignite the powder efficiently, causing hang-fire and misfires.

At home ammunition should be stored in a locker or cabinet in the coolest, driest part of the house. It should not be stored in a detached garage exposed to the sun, nor should it be carried constantly in a car that is usually parked in the sun. Destructive high temperatures are often generated in both these places.

Loaded shotgun shells should be protected from high temperatures and high humidity. Drying out of the powder—as can happen when shells are left in an automobile or place during hot summer months—is often responsible for unconfortable recoil.

The characteristics which make good boxers are the same qualities which make keen good husbands, good fathers, good friends. These are the simple virtues — honesty, loyalty, moral courage, tenderness, generosity.

—Wm. B. Given, Jr.

Old Timer Killed in Accident

Our community was deeply shocked on Sunday when word came through that Nick Harker had been killed in a car accident that morning at Enderby, BC. It seems that he had been towing a car and had gotten out to disconnect his car when another car ran into the car he had been towing and he was crushed between the two cars. Nick Harker was an old timer in this district. He left here several years ago to live at Enderby and was planning on a visit to his old home this fall. We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Harker in the loss of her husband.

Rev. McKay Conducts Services

On Sunday, the Rev. Mr. MacKay of the United Church, Vermilion, conducted the service in the United church at Paradise Valley. The following had their children baptized that evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ian Holter, Mr. and Mrs. J. McAmmond, Mr. and Mrs. J. Vert, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. R. Bleakley. Mr. MacKay also conducted Communion Service.

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Holter have left for their home in Edmonton after spending the summer months in the Paradise Valley and McLaughlin Field. We will miss these people very much as they were greatly appreciated in their work here this summer and we all hope that they will be with us another year.

Bible Society Canvass

Again the British and Foreign Bible Society are asking for your support and if you feel that you can support this Society you may leave your contributions at the post office. We do not need to say very much about the work of this organization as it is so well known but it is an organization that deserves your wholehearted support

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lawrence and to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawrence on the birth of sons in the Lloydminster hospital.

Messrs. J. Chambers, L. Vennance and E. Beckett of the R.C.A.F. are all home for a short leave.

PLEASANT VALLEY

(This bulletin was crowded out last week, due allowance should be made for time elapsed).

Sunday Sept. 9th proved a very pleasant day. Thirty-four attended church service at which Mrs. Playne was presented with a life membership in the Pleasant Valley W.A. It was nearly forty years ago when the W.A. was first organized. Mrs. Playne was a very active member for many years and was organist for the church as well.

Our next service wil be harvest thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. McClelland were supper guests at the writer's home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw were at Doreen's for dinner and attended the church service.

Mr. Bowser is busy with the chores around his old home. It is nice to see him here again. Christie and Annie are very busy harvesting so Mr. Bowser is helping out.

Fred Gould has a new combine. John Maire has a new swather and Albert Vanden Dolder a new truck.

Pte writer enjoyed an afternoon at Mrs. Vanden Dolder's on Friday. The garden there is simply lovely. We do hope that the frost will miss the gardens and flowers for a while longer.

Much Safer in Canada

Last year there were 44 attempts on the life of President Truman. In this year there have been 85, and 3,629 persons questioned about letters and telephone calls they made to the White House.

What's the score for Prime Minister St. Laurent and Governor-General Alexander, asks The Financial Post?

The deputy commissioner of the R.C.M.P. told The Post there have been no attempts on the life of either man in the past two years 'unless it's something we don't know about—like threatening letters, phone calls, no suspicious character — nothing of the kind'. Readers are left to their own reflections.

OUR 69TH-LITH SHORT STORY—

DESERT MADNESS

The Thirsty Hell Of Sahara Sands

By May Hall Thompson

I DIDN'T really want to murder Jack Canfield, but I knew I had to. My friend was now sick with desert madness, and was plotting to kill me. I had to get him first. I had to have water before I could not. My mouth felt pricked with a thousand needles.

As I picked up the tin cup it rattled against the sand, and Jack, lying under the tent canopy, marked, "You stay out of the water, smoke thief! You know it's rationed."

He eyed me like a maniac which, perhaps, Jack was now sure I was waiting to kill me. I had noticed it first a week ago. On that day he had said to me, "Let's get out of this hole now. If there's gold here we haven't a chance. Supplies and water low. Heat growing worse. Vitality almost gone." His words had an undertone of meaning. At that moment suspicion struck me.

"Let me have that water, then," I answered sullenly, "and I'll stay. I've spent money on this venture but I want something out of it."

"I'll not give you the mags," declared Jack. "We came here together and will go out together."

"Double-crosser!" I yelled at him. "So you've found it! You know where the pay streak is!" Sudden frenzy brought quick distrust in my mind. "Now you want to get rid of me and come back later. But you'll tell me where you found it or—"

"Fool," he retorted as he gazed at me long and speculatively. That gaze made me forget my anger and become very instead. For a few strange look in his eyes. "You're loco-ed," Jack went on, "and I'll be the same way if I stay here much longer. If you weren't crazy you'd know I haven't the gold. And why should I give the map to you? It's mine, willed to me by my grandfather. We can come here again when the heat has passed."

Anger made my hot blood boil. It was my money that had financed the trip to this wild, forsaken desert spot where a rich deposit of gold was supposed to be located. We had started late in spring. Jack and I had pack horses, laden with provisions to last several months. Though we started water with us, we finally camped by a waterhole which we found near the location on the map. At first, it was a grand adventure. I remember how good the food had tasted cooked over a campfire; how fresh and eager we were ourselves as we hunted for the deposit. But we had not found the gold. Then had come the heat, growing worse each day, drying up the waterhole and sapping our strength until we were but a perpetual inferno.

At the moment the agony of all this frustration caused a quick spurt of energy to flow through my body. Dropping the cup of water, I lunged at him, taking him unaware. One blow struck his head into the sand. Having taken him without warning, he was no match for me. Maddenedly I began choking the breath out of him.

But as quickly as I had clutched his throat I loosened my hold. I straightened up to get a better glimpse of the scene which had for some second darted before my line of vision. I had seen water. Yes, to the north was a lake of turquoise blue. Could I have imagined the sheen, a water bird glided overhead.

And my only desire then was to throw my sword and burning body into those waters. I started running, forgetting Jack who was now crouched and sputtering; forgetting even the fact that he had the automatic in his pocket.

I don't know how long I ran but I know I never passed the sheen, a delusion when the waves began to recede and the land to fade, and then I knew it had been a mirage. Through the vanishing picture only the pitiless, desert shimmered. And above, a buzzard circled, swooping ominously, hungry for dead flesh.

I watched it as a trapped animal watches his enemy until, half blinded, I started back. With the realization that I made up my mind nothing would prevent me from killing the man who had brought this upon me. I would slash into camp and get Jack before he could fire. Crouching like the skirting sands, I prodded my tired body with the planning thought of getting him. The sun dimmed as I stumbled along and finally disappeared behind a cloud. Darkness spread over the sky and earth. Then I saw lightning fork the heavens and heard thunder crash.

The smell of rain reached me before the rain itself. The fresh odor overwhelmed my senses. Suddenly nothing stirred but the rain. Then it came, first in heavy drops, then faster and faster. And where red sands had danced there were now only horizontal sheets of water. I stood still while the rain flowed over me like a shower bath. I held back my head and let it wash down my parched throat. As my dehydrated and racked body absorbed the healing moisture, I felt my strength return.

I heard Jack calling to me. His voice shocked me, not only because of the desperation in it but because, in spite of that, it had a natural ring to it. It sounded exactly like the voice of an old college friend, a friend whose comradeship I had valued more than any other's. And suddenly I knew Jack was normal again. Desert madness had left him with the coming of the rain. I no longer had to kill him.

Gertrude And Sheila Have A Trailer!

SASKATOON.—Gertrude and Sheila have a trailer.

Sheila built it and Gertrude pulls it—but that isn't really hard on Gertrude because Gertie is a str, a 1930 Chevrolet with a 1929 Essex body and "a bit of Ford here and there."

Gertie and Sheila Purvis are east friends. For although Gert is getting on in years, she has carried Miss Purvis and part of the trailer about 15,000 miles and never let me down once," says her owner proudly.

Miss Purvis, a school-teacher of Islay, Alta., built the trailer herself. She scorned custom-built parts and ready-made blueprints and designed her own.

On wheels and axel from an old car, she built a six-by-eight foot aluminum - covered cabin furnished with a bed, cupboard, sink, clothes closet and chest of drawers.

This fall Miss Purvis will teach at Grandview School, north of Lloydminster and two miles from the Alberta-Saskatchewan border.

Prairie Farmers May Soon See Houses Built of Straw

Manufacture Of Wallboard And Other Building Material Already in Use With Plans Of Expansion In Process

(By Dave Innes, Editor, The Saskatchewan Farmer)

The prairie farmer—and his city neighbor, too, for that matter —may build his house of the straw taken from his own fields in the not too distant future. The entire house won't be built of straw, of course, but the inside walls may be finished with boards made from straw and perhaps strawboard may replace shiplap for the outside sheathing too.

Use of straw to make wallboard, just as wood pulp and other materials are now used to make wallboards of other types, may not become widespread on the prairies in the immediate future, but it won't be long before the new product is on the western market.

A Swedish company, Stramit Corporation, with headquarters in Stockholm, already has completed plans for a plant at Innisfail, about 70 miles north of Calgary. The company plans to put in three machines, to manufacture the board, the first by October, shipping the machines from Sweden.

If the new building board finds a large enough market, the Swedish company may erect plants at other points on the prairies.

Manufacture of wallboard and building material from straw isn't new to the west. It has been tried before.

In fact several houses and other buildings made of straw blocks are still standing at points around Regina.

In the early thirties machinery turned out strawboard and straw blocks on the farm of T. A. McCusker, a prominent farmer just north of Regina on No. 6 highway. The straw blocks, used like cindercrete or concrete blocks are used for the walls of houses, garages and other buildings like a hay baler. Only the machine compressed the straw much tighter than a hay baler does and into smaller blocks for ease in handling.

The McCuskers added a straw block addition of several rooms to their home and it is still in as good condition as the rest of the house today. It was also used on the east side and plaster-finished on the inside.

"The blocks we're a foot thick," Mrs. McCusker recalls.

"I like that part of the house best," Mrs. McCusker adds. "It's cool in summer and warm in winter."

One of the largest cottages at Regina Beach was built entirely of the straw blocks as was a two-storey house near Lebret, in the Qu'Appelle valley. And both appear to be in good condition.

A poultry house on the outskirts of Regina was built of the straw-board and the boards were also used in the studios of radio station CKCK on the third floor of The Leader-Post building before they were moved to their present location on the first floor. The strawboard was used in the studios for sound insulation and panels rather than being finished off with a plaster coating were covered by heavy drapes.

In a demonstration at the Regina exhibition during that period a blowtorch was used on a small building made of strawboard to show just how fire-resistant it was.

Builders appeared skeptical of new products in those days, however, and there wasn't a large enough market for the straw products.

Since then there have been many changes in the building industry and the use of building boards of one kind or another is the accepted thing.

They have much to recommend them for not only do they boast insulating properties but they can be applied by the unskilled home-builder himself, in large sheets which speed the job of finishing off rooms in a hurry.

Decision of the Swedish company to open a plant in Alberta brings the strawboard back into the picture. If the board finds a ready market and other plants are set up, it will mean the establishment of still another secondary industry using the product of western farmers.

The National Research Council at Saskatoon has done considerable research on the subject and according to J. E. Stone, research chemist of the council, who spoke at a meeting at Okotoks, in Alberta, the pulp and paper people too are interested in setting up plants to use straw in the manufacture of their product.

Mr. Stone told the meeting two important questions in developing markets for straw were whether farmers were willing to sell wheat straw in large and continuing quantities and the price at which they would sell.

Straw, at one time, was considered almost a useless by-product in farming operations in the west and the huge flares of burning straw stacks was a common sight on the prairies at harvest. But the dry thirties showed the need of anchoring the soil against soil drifting and high winds by the use of trash cover and the uses of straw now is recognized in the prairie farm economy.

In years like the past several however, the straw has been so heavy that there is no need to work it all new to the west. A secondary industry which could make use of the straw would mean still another outlet for a farm product and more money in the pocket of the farmer.

Manitoba Will Implement Pension Plan

WINNIPEG. — Premier Douglas Campbell said Manitoba will implement a federal-old-age pension plan for persons within the 65-69 age group on Jan. 1, 1952.

The pension plan calls for a payment of $40 a month to persons over 65 but under 70 who can qualify according to resident regulations and who can pass a means test.

The cost of the pension would be shared by the federal and provincial governments, with the province covering the cost of administration.

Wildmere Winks

(Intended for last week. Due allowance should be made for time elapsed.)

Harvesting between showers has been progressing well, and many sheaves tied and a lot of swathing done since harvesting started in earnest a week ago. We are all hoping good weather holds until everyone can get through. Last year's early wet fall still is in the the peoples minds as wet weather started on Sept. 23th. Frost has not hit very much up to time of writing. We see lovely wild roses, blue bells and other wild flowers blooming. Garden peas are in bloom, ing and new pods have formed.

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Isley of Woodvale on the birth of a daughter on Sept. 3rd.

On Sunday afternoon the Wildmere and Basswood Sunday school conducted the church service at Wildmere. A good congregation attended and all we can say is that it is to bad more could not have seen and heard these young folks. It is a great credit to the Sunday school teachers Mrs. D. Hughes and Mr. Embree for the fine work they have done among the young folks during the holidays and since.

Only three more Sundays of service at Mr. Embree will be leaving at the end of the month. Sunday Sept. 23rd Rev. Mr MacKay of Vermilion will be out to hold baptismal service at Wildmere. Baby Howard baby Duesberg, Elsie M. Coburn and Chas. Sweeney children will be baptized.

Mr. and Mrs A. Smith and family of Basswood were after church visitors to the C. Struthers home, also Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ludvik and daughter, Fay and J. Kennedy were at the same home. Mr and Mrs. R. Martin and Doreen, Bill and Adam Smith at the Gibson home in Basswood. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney and family were visitors at the Osterberg and Wallington homes on Sunday, accompanied by Mr. J. Pollman.

The writer had nice chats on Saturday with Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Mayers, Mrs. G. Harper, Mrs. C. Sampson, Mrs. J. Thompson and Mrs. N. Emsland. Meeting all these people makes the afternoon very pleasant.

Here are a couple of items we have overlooked. Congratulations to Christina Morrison on winning the essay contest and to Capt. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart for a long happily married life. We all enjoy his letters to the Standard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rendell left last Thursday Sept. 6th on the start of their long journey back to England.

Peggy Graham has returned to high school in town where she will take her grade XII.

Jennie Wallington has Jimmy Clark and Jeff Martin both of Tri angle helping him with the harvest.

NEW EDMONTON BOOM

Millions of dollars in industrial investment in the Edmonton area may follow the recently started $30 million Canadian Chemical Co. plant on Edmonton's outskirts, reports The Financial Post. Hints have been dropped by the provincial and city officials pledged to secrecy by principal

"NO SQUIRREL," frowned Sammy, "would ever do what you've done today!"

"But all I did was buy five new mose pillows," retorted Sophie, his wife.

"Unshaken," said Sammy, "Did we need to get new mose pillows?"

"No," answered Sophie, "but everybody knows there's a terrific shortage of mose — and pillow laws are getting scarcer and scarcer. Besides, the price was bound to go higher."

"They certainly will if everybody follows your example," growled Sammy. "That sort of buying just sends prices up higher. But let me show you what's happening to our savings."

"Savings?" echoed Sophie. "How can we save when we're at our wits to keep higher than a Douglas Fir? Take time tell them, Mr. Solomon. Ten years ago I could buy one fur five measly bonnets. Now they cost two horse-chestnuts. Or less."

"I know, I know," cut in Sammy. "But we still need to save for the same reasons we always have. We've got to keep adding to our bank account, paying our life insurances and buying savings bonds. Or have you—"

"Love bows?" quipped Sophie. "For heaven's sake why?"

"Because," said Sammy, "everybody thinks squirrels are savers. So if people find out we're not saving they'll say we're not squirrels! We'll be outlaw. Banished."

"Oh, dear!" exclaimed Sophie, "I never thought of that. I'm sorry, Sammy. From now on I'll really try to save every way I can. Only—"

"Only what?" said Sammy.

MORAL: Those days, it is vitally important for everyone to save money to help check inflation — and to provide for his own future needs.

NOTE TO FATHERS: Remember — life insurance is yet a most important form of saving. Because it provides protection instantly for your family. So pay your premiums regularly. Add to the insurance as you need it.

Woodvale News

(Crowded out last week)

We have not sent any news in since the sudden death of Harold Young and Bill Davies, so we would like to express here, the sincere sympathy of our community to their wives and families. Both men having lived so long in these parts made the tragedy seem more close to everyone. It was no wonder that, despite heavy rains so many of their relatives, friends and former neighbors came to Vermilion to the funeral.

The heavy rains the last days of August brought a stop to the harvest just begun, but fields in stook, cut and swathed were appearing everywhere when Sunday showers put an end to harvesting again. Weather permitting almost everyone will be busy this week, trying to beat the winter that is approaching. So many crops are still very green and late.

Woodvale school has opened with a supervisor in attendance. The school has been repaired and redecorated inside.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wes Isley on the birth of a daughter, Mary. She also has a very pretty second name, but even sister Dorothy was not sure how to write it — so we will tell you later!

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cumming of Vegreville and two children Nolan and Alexis paid the writer a visit last Saturday. We could not guess who Mrs. Cumming was, although she looked familiar and when she identified herself as Trudi Pick, who, with her parents, brothers and sisters left the Woodvale district 17 years ago, we wondered why we had not recognized her as she really had not changed much. She found of course a change in the home place and many other things in all these years. Specially the roads! We sure enjoy these visits of former neighbors.

Mr. Charles Friedland brought Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown and children down from Cold Lake two weeks ago and at the home of Mr and Mrs. Graham Ganton a real family reunion took place on Sunday with 27 members present. Mrs. Floyd Medine (Peggy) of Calmar was another daughter from out of the district.

We hear that Jim Ross cut his head on machinery rather badly, while a few weeks ago he almost crushed a finger. Better watch out Jim as it is to have to report a severe accident happening to you!

Though the following did not happen in our community, but in the Islay district we think it is rather cute—Little Mison Stone, not quite three years old, seeing a helicopter passing rather low over the farm, ran into the house and told his parents breathlessly that there was a turkey plane flying overhead. Now is not that a perfect on the spot description?

Good Neighbors

Old fashioned western neighborliness was much in evidence here once again when Ray McQuid cut a field of wheat for Mrs. Lysons when she was short of help and Chris and Ralph Thomson stooked it for her.

Wm. Davies Laid To Rest

Funeral services were held at the Fire United church on Saturday September 1st at 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon for the late William Henry Davies, who was killed in a railway crossing accident at Kitscoty on August 29th. Laid to rest at the same time in a combined funeral was Mr. Davies' business partner, Harold Young.

The large number of sympathizers who attended the service and the hundreds who were unable to get inside the church, testified to the deep respect and true affection felt for these two young men.

The Rev. Canon T. W. Toope officiated at the services and interment was made at the Vermilion cemetery. A favorite hymn of the deceased, "Shall We Gather at the River' was sung by Mr. Thos. Watts.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Dick Tattersal, Karl Nelson, Ernie DeLeuw, Garfield Simmons, Ken Stone and Billy McFaulen.

The late William Henry Davies was born at Islay on Sept. 5th, 1926, the son of William Davies and the late Mrs. Davies. An only brother, Jim was killed in an oil well accident at Lone Rock one and a half years ago.

Left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father are his sorrowing, wife and three daughters, Jacki, Lena and Mildred. He is also survived by his father Mr. Wm. Davies of Islay and three sisters, Mrs. Alf Jones (Mary) of Islay; Mrs. Harry Joy, Armena of Kitscoty; and Grace of Edmonton.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from:

Loving wife and girls, Dad and family.

Being snared from frost ... as is a matter for general thanksgiving ... The Boys ... were never more busy than this week. Threshers are out ... producing well even though it is late ...

Mr. and Mrs Raymond Chamberlain motored from Edmonton to spend the Labor Day week end with the former's mother. During their stay brief visits were made at Pete's and Bill Kochi's home and Mr and Mrs Jas. Gould received them as guests. Sunday with others a pleasant time was spent followed by a tasty lunch. The visit of Ray and Evelyn ended with a delightful visit to the V.S.A. looking through the buildings and finally with a picnic lunch on the spacious lawn.

Harvesting is in full swing and weather is very favorable. Threshing will soon follow and we hope that all will be enabled to get this year's produce under cover.

We hope that our neighbors Mr. A. Gillies and Mr J. Woodruff are getting better and extend to them best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Control Of The Weather

THE WEATHER has always been regarded as a subject of inexhaustible interest. Certainly its effect upon our comfort and welfare is considerable and many human ills and economic disasters may rightly be blessed upon the weather. It is of the utmost importance to agriculture, which is Canada's greatest primary industry, and every Canadian is aware of the effect of rain, sunshine, wind, frost and snow on the success of the annual harvest. The fact that people may carry insurance against the effect of weather upon their crops and property shows the extent to which the elements threaten their welfare.

* * * * *

Many Depend On Forecasts

From earliest times people have attempted to foretell the weather and many of the forecasts based on ancient beliefs, have proved to be of value. However, in recent times scientific methods of predicting weather changes have been developed and through the government meteorological service people are generally well informed on weather conditions. These forecasts can be of great value to farmers in planning and harvesting various crops and weather bulletins form an important part of daily news services in the press and on the radio.

* * * * *

Interest In Recent Tests

Recently science has progressed further in understanding the weather, and many people believe that we are entering upon an era in which weather may be controlled by man. There has been widespread interest in recent tests of the method developed by the American scientist, Dr. Vincent Schaffer, of making rain by "seeding" clouds with dry ice and silver iodide. The advantages of creating rain where it is needed are obvious, and Dr. Schaffer has indicated that it is now also possible to control thunder, lightning and hail. The scientist has pointed out, however, that there are many complications involved in interfering with the weather. Controls cannot be confined to small areas, and there would be need for strict regulations governing such operations. These scientific advancements may in the future prove to be of great advantage to those whose livelihood and welfare depend to a large measure on weather conditions.

Syrian Golden Hamster, One Of World's Most Prolific Mammals, Being Raised By Estevan Woman

ESTEVAN, Sask. — An exotic resident from Asia Minor, the Syrian Golden Hamster, is multiplying rapidly at its Estevan home.

One of the world's most prolific mammals, the odd little import is being bred by Mrs. M. E. Benson of Hillside and its progeny is being sold as pets and for use in laboratories. The Hamsters reactions to lab tests are reported more rapid and definite than other animals commonly used.

The animals have been pronounced excellent for tests in respiratory diseases, tuberculosis, and influenza. And they react well to serums, drugs, and diets. They are more susceptible to some human diseases than the Guinea pig.

Hamsters produce rapidly with a litter of eight to 13 young ones every six or seven weeks. Life span of the little foreigner is about four years.

Friendly pets, Hamsters are stout little animals with a friendly and inquisitive disposition. When full grown they are five or six inches long and weigh a little over a quarter of a pound. They have a golden coat with dark face markings and a stub tail. The skin over the body is extremely loose so the animals can be readily lifted by a fold of the skin. They have two roomy cheek pouches into which food is crammed when it is given to them. Later they disgorge the load in a hidden stockpile. A hungry Hamster can stuff half his weight in grain into these pouches.

They are naturally tame and make delightful pets for children. They are intelligent and able to learn new habits. They are extremely clean, have no odor and seldom emit noise. They are primarily nocturnal animals, sleeping most of the day. During the coldest weather they hibernate.

Hope For Bigger, Better Ears Of Corn

Scientists studying effects of continuous radiation on plants at Brookhaven, N.Y., national laboratory, hope that these experiments will result in improved strains of corn and other vegetables. Saskatchewan Farmers Show Interest In Sheep Raising

REGINA — Saskatchewan farmers are showing an increased interest in sheep-raising this year compared to 1950.

The growing interest is indicated by a substantial increase in orders for rams under the provincial ram distribution policy, C. E. Beveridge, provincial agriculture department livestock commissioner, said in a buzzet of publications release.

With more than two weeks left until the closing date for orders, 168 rams have been ordered as compared with 81 for the entire season last year.

Suffolk is by far the most popular breed. The supply of Suffolk three-star and two-star shearlings is now exhausted, but Suffolk three-star ram lambs are still available. Orders for other breeds will be accepted up to the closing date, Sept. 30.

Since government grading of the sheep will not be completed until after Oct. 15, shipment of the rams will not be made until after that date.

Rainbows are never seen as complete circles from ordinary elevations, but they may be seen as such from airplanes.

Worse Casualties To Get Coal Early

OTTAWA — Mines Minister Prudham issued a warning to Canadians that further delay in storing winter coal will lead "to a serious situation."

Coal orders, he said, are down 30 per cent. from this time last year. If this continues it will be almost impossible to overtake the shortage in fall and winter months with mines working to capacity, railway cars short and the Lachine canal, in the limit in the hazards of snow and ice.

It is the second such statement issued by the minister in the last few weeks. He said it is "regrettable" that little notice had been taken of his first warning.

Deaf Child Anxious To Get Back To School

Barry Cook, 9, of Grande Prairie Alta., was one of 24 Alberta deaf children gathered in Edmonton to catch a train back to special school in Vancouver. The disappeared. A city-wide search was made. It looked as if it was the story of the child who did not want to go so far from home again—so ran away. When officials shepherded the rest of the group to the station, Barry was waiting on the platform. "Barry just wasn't able to wait to get going to school again," an official said. "He left . . . and hurried right down to the station so he wouldn't miss the train."

Marwayne Turkey Club Announces Draw Prize Winners

AT REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Marwayne Turkey club was held at the Irwinville school on Friday evening Sept 14th with only eight members present. Seven visitors were welcomed but due to a faulty projector the films were not all shown.

Mr. E. H. Buckingham, district agriculturist, complimented the club on the progress made so far this year, but noted that some members had failed to send in their cost and feeding reports. These reports are important as the means of judging the efficiency winner for the year.

The guest speaker, Mr. Ed Hamula of the Vermilion school of agriculture gave a very instructive talk on the importance of feeding a balanced ration, having sufficient feeder and watering space, and the correct type of roosts and range.

The draw held over from the weiner roast resulted in Mr. Fred Bruneau winning the radio and Mrs. Aubrey Prowse the auto robe.

The next meeting will be held at Irwinville school on Oct. 18th at 8:00 p.m. when it is hoped that Mr. E. E. Kitchen of the Dept. of Agriculture, Edmonton, will give a timely talk on the culling and fattening of turkeys. All members are urged to be present.

Appeal For Help For Jamaica Victims

Receipt of an appeal from The Canadian Chamber of Commerce for co-operation in publicizing the Relief Campaign being carried on, on behalf of those who suffered great hardships as a result of the hurricane in Jamaica, was announced this week by Mr. Reg Mitchell, president of the Vermilion Board of Trade.

The Chamber's letter, it was pointed out, explained that a National Canadian Committee has been formed to collect contributions on the Governor of Jamaica's Hurricane Relief fund. Headed in Montreal by James Muir, President of the Royal Bank of Canada, other committees have been organized in Toronto, Vancouver and Halifax. Purpose of the fund is to secure financial aid to meet Jamaica's needs for food and rehabilitation. Financial contributions to this fund will be accepted by any branch of the chartered banks.

"The appeal from the Canadian Chamber, reports that relatives and friends of many Canadians have been touched by the Jamaican disaster, and I feel sure this appeal will stir the sympathetic interest and desire to help of local citizens," said Mr. Mitchell.

Ideal harvesting weather prevails at time of writing, and operations are in full swing throughout this locality, although some crops are rather green. The frost which occurred last Friday night or early Saturday morning does not appear to have been heavy enough to do damage, being also quite patchy. Some beans show damage in the garden while corn leaves also show the effects. The frost of Monday the 10th destroyed tender plants in some gardens.

The count yside looks very beautiful with autumn tints on trees and shrubbery.

Hunting season didn't open with the usual bang-bang hereabouts — though there have been some hunters around. As yet the ducks are not plentiful and only a few flocks of geese have been seen. It appears to be a little early for the southward trip of wild birds. Perhaps it augurs an open fall—let's hope so anyhow.

Quite a few new machines have been purchased to aid and hasten the harvesting. J .Farkash has a new combine and swather, self-propelled: Pat McCann, a new power binder: Pat Cummings a threshing separator: J. McKeague's power binder; F. Farkash a self-propelled combine and swather: J. Thompson a new tractor.

The Bartram brothers, Joe and Bert of Nanaimo, B.C., are visiting relatives in the district. They travelled by truck equipped with cooking and sleeping facilities built on the back.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graham of Edmonton are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Tovell. Mrs. Graham's sister.

Rev. McKay of Vermilion conducted Communion and Baptism services at Ottawa United church on Sunday the 16th. it was regretted that the usual attendance, about 35, was down to half that number, due to the busy season. Little David Allen Seymour was baptized. The last service of this term is to be held next Sunday, the 23rd when Mr. McMahon bids farewell to this point and it is hoped that there will be a good turnout.

Murray Millar and Jim Goodwin of town spent the week end with Jack Thompson.

TOURISTS SPENDING MORE

The total of purchases declared by returning Canadian visitors in the six months was $76 millions as against $50.7 millions the first half of 1950.

A.M.A. Will Discuss Road Construction

Road construction is being advanced as speedily as possible in all sections of Alberta by the provincial highways department, Recently an inspection was made by Hon. Gordon Taylor, minister of highways, Alex Fraser, deputy minister and other officials.

The official party made a tour of the Peace River country, where a big program has been undertaken.

Special attention is also being given to work on the road north from Whitecourt to Valleyview in the Grande Prairie district, providing a 'cut-off' road for the north country.

On the Trans-Canada highway east of Calgary, work is also progressing, according to reports.

Officials of the Alberta Motor Association are observing the road construction with close interest as highway construction problems are expected to be discussed at the next annual general meeting of the A. M. A.

With tourist business showing steady gains the importance of standard permanent highways is being realized more and more in the western provinces and states.

NO, THANK YOU!

Dr. Melchoir Palyi, U. S. economist, thinks that Canada is paying too high a price for its sovereign independence. Financially, he suggests, we would be much better off if we threw in our lot, politically and economically, with the United States.

Few Canadians, declares The Financial Post would be eager to trade our systems of law, education and even politics for those of the U.S. We have some traditions that we would not like to lose. There are some special problems in the United States that we would not like to inherit. We may be more conservative, less emotional, less sure of ourselves—and poorer. But perhaps we prefer to remain that way.

Wading Pool Next Spring

Proceeds of this day will help to further projects of the club. Plans have been completed for the construction of a wading pool for children in the playground. Work will start as soon as possible next spring and the pool will be ready for use by June 15th. The club also proposes to furnish completely the children's ward at the Vermilion hospital. Further progress on the swimming pool has been delayed until some definite decision is reached by the government regarding the proposed park in the Vermilion river valley.

The Kinsmen have several interesting events planned for the coming season and hope that they will enjoy continued public support.

Allandale Notes

After the long cold wet week we are enjoying wonderful harvest weather. We had frost Sept. 14th, first that had done any damage. The country is really beautiful with the leaves turning to their fall colors. The warm eves evenings are grand with the big harvest moon shining brightly. This week should finish most of the cutting of the grain hereabouts. Some are combining.

Louis Baldock was taken to the Vermilion hospital on Sept. 4th. Our very best wishes and hope before too long you will regain your health and be home again.

Mr. Oscar Johnson and family, through this column would like to thank all all those who so kindly helped in the summerfallow bee held at their place on Aug. 27th. This act of kindness and hospitality was appreciated very much.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young of Red Deer visited friends at Allandale the first of the week. They arrived at their son Bill's at Dewberry Sept. 3rd and Cranstad Young has been helping with the harvest there.

Last week Mrs. Baldock had her aunt Miss Hogabaum staying with her while Mr. Hogabaum is doing carpenter work at Marwayne.

Mr. Charlie Moore while working at home wrenched his side severely. We hope before too long he will be able to carry on. There is always so much to be done at this time of year.

Eddie Throndson and Ralph Strome have purchased a combine It will be a good investment as the harvest is late and will help considerably with threshing.

We're very pleased to welcome our new teacher Miss Jean West to our district.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Greaves on the birth of a daughter, Brenda Beryl on Sept. 8.

Celebrates 80th Birthday

It was a joyful afternoon at Mr. McBride's home on Sept. 11th when friends gathered to celebrate his 80th birthday. We were very pleased to meet there, Lieut. and Mrs. R. Chapman and the ladies of the Salvation Army, friends, Mr. and Mrs. Don McMahon and some of the Allandale ladies. Singing was led by Lieut. Chapman. There is so much deserved from singing. music is so sweet and satisfying, peaceful and calm, and the fullness of the wonderful words of hymns.

Mr. McMahon very kindly showed slides taken of his work and on the field this summer. These were very interesting. Lunch was served by the ladies. Dad McBrides' treat was ice cream. Happy Birthday was sung and gifts presented to the honoree. He thanked all very sincerely. A note was read to all, received from Neva, his daughter at the coast in which she thanked all those for remembering her dad and making his 80th birthday a happy one. The afternoon closed by singing 'Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow', and a word of prayer by Mr. McMahon. Again our very best wishes for health, happiness and many more birthdays to a dear friend.

Jimmy and Della Walsh and daughters Adele and Doreen left last Saturday for their home at Waterways.

It was a pleasure to meet with the Clandonald W. A. at Mrs. W. Feenstra's on Sept. 8th. We wish this worthwhile association every success.

Our deepest sympathy to the bereaved families of the late Mr. W. H. Gordon and Mr. Frank White. "Where are... are close there is one line I say, the One who cares is not so far away."

HOGS and Barley

SWINE NUMBERS ARE UP IN THIS AREA

It's the barley growing areas that produce the hogs. The June survey of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics showed 228,300 more hogs in Alberta at June 1st, 1951 than at the same date last year. An analysis of these figures by R. E. Eng lish, Statistician, Alberta Dept. of Agriculture, brings to light the interesting fact that 80% of this increase occurred in the black soil zone extending from Olds to Athabasca and across the province east and west through Edmonton.

In the 3 decline correlation between swine and barley production in Alberta says Mr. English. For the province the average number of hogs per farm is 11.6, but in the Youngstown district the number drops as low as 3.1. On the black soils the concentration is about 16 head per farm, and it is in these areas that most of the barley is grown. The area standing highest both in barley and hog production per farm is evap district S (Innisfail to Camrose). Here there are 53.4 acres of barley and 167 hogs per farm. The number of hogs and bushels of barley per farm for representative districts is as follows as based on 1951 sown acreage and long time average yield:

	Hogs	Barley
Innisfail-Camrose	167	1,780
Edmonton	151	1,041
Westlock-Athabasca	114	1,040
Vegreville-Lloydminster	110	886
Calgary	111	941
Peace River	101	1,000
Brooks	79	969
Lethbridge-Cowley	74	761
Consolidated-Wainwright	43	475
Youngstown	31	417

Mr. and Mrs. H. Millburn of Millburn announce the engagement of their youngest daughter Elsie, to Mr. Frank S. Cameron, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Cameron of Vermilion. The wedding will take place in the Anglican church, Mannville, on Wednesday, September 26th, 1951 at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pilkie returned this week from three weeks spent in visiting the former's old haunts in Ontario. The time was spent chiefly at Lindsay and Toronto. In Lindsay Bill had the pleasure of going through the old family home, the present occupants being quite interested to meet him. At Toronto Mr. and Mrs. Pilkie were guests at the home of the former's brother Charlie.

R.C.M.P. Constable Johnston has been transferred from Swan River to Regina to train for the 'musical ride' which they are to perform for the Royal visit.

Last week Fred Watling had a very pleasant experience in meeting and talking over early days with an old friend, Sam Bentley. Matt left the Manville district some thirty years ago. They both decided that neither one had changed very much. Old timers of the Manville district will remember the Long and Bentley Brothers who homesteaded in the early days north of Manville. Pete and Matt decided to go to the U.S., the other two Ivan and Gus still farm north of that town. Matt thinks that the States is a good country but admits that Alberta certainly looks good to him this year, with the excellent crops and general improvements that have taken place.

Mrs. Alfred Monkman of St. Paul who renewed acquaintances around Vermilion last week after a long absence, wishes to thank her friends for the very warm welcome she received and for the very enjoyable time she spent while here.

Miss Doreen Cameron of Vegreville spent last week end at the family home in town.

Friends here of Mrs. George A. English (nee Alberta P. Dow) will be pleased to hear that she has received her discharge from the T.B. section of the General hospital, and has now returned to her home at Two Hills, Alberta.

Miss Louise Baddock of Calgary is a visitor in town this week, a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baddock.

Omitted from the names of those sending flowers in memory of Wm. Dooley and Harold Young were the Ganton-Watson Red Cross Auxiliary, and to the Cancer fund, Kurt and Fern George Marmak.

Joe Dow from Yorkton, Sask., spent a few days here over the week end visiting Chow Karpoy and renewing many old acquaintances around the town. It is 21 years since Mr. Dow left here but he still had a very good memory for every one he knew at that time. He is looking very well, just as young as when he left, and reports things flourishing in the Saskatchewan town.

Sisters Meet After Twenty Years

An interesting re-union took place recently at the home of Mr. and L. R. Hicks when Mrs. Emma Beatty of Hamilton, Ont., toured the span of miles to visit her sister, Mrs. Hicks, and her family here. Mrs. Hicks' cousin Mrs. Irene Jones, also made the journey with Mrs. Beatty, to renew acquaintances and to meet other cousins and friends. Later Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Jones journeyed to New Westminster to spend a few enjoyable days with a brother, Mr. Jim Pearson and family. Back home again the tourists are very tired but have assured everyone that they really like the West.

River Floods Hay, Farmer Sues Firm

A Vermilion district farmer is asking $4,232 damages because excess water from a power plant allegedly flooded his land and ruined $2,232 worth of hay. The plaintiff is Donald E. Hines, who filed a statement of claim at the court house, Edmonton, against Canadian Utilities Ltd.

Hines says the Vermilion River runs through his land, and that on March 17th this year the Canadian Utilities power plant discharged a large volume of water into the river. He claims he lost 134 tons of hay because of the flooding.

The farmer says he has requested the company to stop discharging water into the river, but that his request was refused. Besides the cost of the hay, Hines asks general damages of $2000 and an injunction restraining the power plant operators from pouring any more water in the river. Edmonton Journal.

Use Of Aircraft in Hunting Limited

New regulations limiting the use of aircraft in hunting expeditions have been put into effect by the Game Branch, Department of Lands and Forests.

The regulations prohibit anyone from operating an aircraft for the purpose of hunting game unless their equipment unless the operator has been granted a special permit by the Minister of Lands and Forests. However, commercial air services licensed on an annual round may carry hunters and their equipment as before.

The hunting of game from the air is forbidden but coyotes and timber wolves still may be shot from aircraft. Firearms and trapping equipment may be carried in aircraft by regular commercial air services when flying scheduled routes but a special permit from the Fish and Game Commissioner is required if a person wishes to carry hunting or trapping equipment in other types of aircraft.

Aircraft cannot be used for locating spotting, scurrying for or worrying game or to assist any other person to destroy or capture game. Aircraft cannot be used to distribute bait for the capture or killing of big game.

Aircraft carrying hunters are forbidden to land on any lake or land area designated as a Wildlife Conservation area.

The regulations provide that the pilot of the aircraft shall be held equally responsible if any other persons break the regulations regarding hunting by aircraft but cannot be ascertained and charged. In addition, the regulations make it an offence to refuse a request by a game officer or a police officer to search aircraft or its passengers.

Penalty for the contravention of any of these regulations is a maximum of $250 fine or three months in jail. —Within Our Borders.

HARVEST WORRIES

Not much news to report this week as nearly everybody is busy harvesting at present. Stookers are hard to locate and now to add to the troubles and worries of frost, goats etc. there seems to have developed an acute shortage of binder twine—even if you have the 40 acres for one hundred pounds.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

We have just heard tonight that Dr. John Convey has arrived in the district for a ten-day visit with his brothers and their families and former acquaintances. Dr. Convey has been sent west by the Ottawa government to make a survey of the oil industry. This will be his first visit to his old home here in about six years.

FAREWELL PARTY

On Thursday evening a number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Roe to bid farewell to Mr. Cathcart Sr. who came from the west last spring and spent the summer with his son and family at the vicarage. Mr. Cathcart has been very active all summer improving the grounds at the church. Following lunch, in appreciation of his work, a presentation was made to Mr. Cathcart of a sum of money by the People's Warden of St. Mary's church. Although taken completely by surprise Mr. Cathcart thanked the gathering for their kindness in a few well chosen words. On Friday he boarded the train at Wainwright for his return trip to Ontario.

OLD TIMER PASSES

Deepest sympathy is extended to the White family in the loss of their father whose death occurred at the home of his son Harold in Minburn on Saturday, Sept. 15th. This writer can remember that many years ago when houses were few and far between at White's visitors were always sure of a warm welcome and many a traveller, hungry and half frozen, was well taken care of before resuming his journey. Truly the White home was "A house by the side of the road".

Ken Colson elder son of Mr. and Mrs. George Colson is spending a few days with his parents in town here. He has been with the air force but recently received his discharge.

Critical Labor Situation Faced by Farmers

BOARD RESPONDS TO APPEAL FOR HARVEST HELP

Responding to an appeal for all possible help for farmers in the present critical situation regarding the harvesting of this year's crop, the Vermilion Board of Trade has canvassed all businesses in town with a view to securing as much extra help as possible from their various business staffs. The plan met with a ready response from employers and employees alike, and all the latter who evinced a desire to do some harvest work are being allowed to do so. Arrangements are being carried out by the district agriculturist.

The letter of appeal from Mr. F. H. Newcombe, Director of Agricultural Extension, Alberta Dept. of Agriculture, reads in part: "The situation with respect to harvest labor is far more acute and at least 300 to 600 additional workers could be used as soon as the weather will again favorable. It is hoped that realizing the importance to your community of having this crop harvested successfully, your organization might take some definite action. It is suggested that it might be possible at some points for some of the business places to close for one or two days per week, or alternately, that the businessmen might endeavour to get along temporarily with less staff thus releasing some men for 'operation harvest'."

Large Acreage in South

Another matter which was drawn to the attention of the Board of Trade by the District Agriculturist was the very large acreage of crop in the south to be swathed this fall. He feared that there would not be enough combines in the area to complete the threshing of this swathed grain before the onset of winter. A suggestion was made that all farmers desiring custom combining contact the D.A. and that all combine owners who feel that they will be able to undertake some extra combining also let Mr. Buckingham know. Lists of the two will be compiled. If these prove insufficient to complete the harvesting of the crop, possibly custom combiners could be brought in from other points provided they could be guaranteed enough acreage to make it worthwhile. In any event every step will be taken, to meet whatever emergency might arise. Farmers interested in either of the above angles should see the District Agriculturist. It is being taken for granted that the present unseasonable weather will clear up and allow some time for harvesting.

The board meeting proved a very interesting one with discussion on several other matters as well as the above. The president Reg Mitchell was chairman.

Public Meeting At Salvation Army Citadel

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3rd AT 8:00 P.M.

A special public meeting will be held at The Salvation Army citadel next Wednesday, October 3rd at 8:00 p.m. This service will be conducted by Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph Acton of Hamilton, Ont., who are now on tour of Alberta.

Mr. Acton, before entering the Officership of The Salvation Army, was well known in athletic circles and has held many and varied appointments with the 'Army'.

Lt. Gilmore was Divisional Commander for the Army in Alberta, and has held the same post in Saskatchewan, Newfoundland. His analysis of the affairs of life is unique, coupled with a real fire in the uplifting and amelioration of all whom he contacts.

A very warm welcome is extended to the public to attend this meeting.

Inter-High School Track Meet This Saturday

WEATHER PERMITTING

Postponed due to the inclement weather the Eastern Alberta high school track meet scheduled to be held here last Saturday, will take place this Saturday Sept. 29th. It is hoped that weather conditions will be improved mightily by that time.

The meet will be held during the day, with the cups and prize ribbons presented at a dance and social affair in the Legion hall that night. This event is sponsored by the High School Students' Union with all the visiting athletes and their supporters being their guests.

The athletic meet is held by the Vermilion Amateur Athletic association.

SUDDEN DEATH OF WM. FERGUSON

There passed away very suddenly at his farm home six miles north of Vermilion, a well known and esteemed young farmer, William Ferguson, aged 42 years, on Saturday morning Sept. 22.

The deceased had got up as usual, and had walked to the kitchen when he apparently suffered a heart seizure, collapsed and died. He was very much in the world very harvesting wife, five daughters and one son, Elsie, Isabel, Joan, Winnie, Jean and William. His mother, Mrs. M. Moir resides at Wainrout, Alberta, and there are three sons, brothers, Reginald, Harry and Ross Moir. The deceased was born at Comrock, Scotland, but came to Canada forty years ago. He had lived in this district for twenty years.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon Sept. 25th at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the First United church, Vermilion. Interment was in the Soldiers' Plot at the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. C. W. MacKay officiated.

Plenty of Fun and Activity on Kinsmen Peanut Day

Last Saturday was Kinsmen Peanut day and this provided plenty of fun and activity around the streets and in the homes as children were arrayed in their gay costumes, or bedecked their pets. Three huge 'Peanut' men roamed the streets while several clowns provided diversion and plenty of peanuts.

The peanut day parade wound its way through the downtown traffic led by the girls' cheer section of the Vermilion high school. These girls were clad in their snappy uniforms and kept the parade lively with their songs, yells and actions.

"GREEN ACRES"

CUTTING FROSTED GRAIN

Three or four degrees of frost for four hours will stop any further growth of grain crops. The frost two weeks ago was just hard enough in most of this area to check any further filling of the heads. This is the reason that grain is now ripening up. There is no use in leaving frosted grain. In fact there is a big loss in the value of the straw for feed every day that cutting is delayed.

FEEDERS' ASSOCIATIONS

Anyone in Vermilion River or Minburn M.D.s wishing to obtain credit for buying feeders should join up with one of the Live Stock Feeder Associations. It is required that anyone getting a loan must have feed and adequate buildings and also that he have experience in feeding. It interested you can get information about district boundaries etc from my office.

CHECK THE SPLIT

Many good cabbages are being spoiled this year by splitting of the heads. As soon as splitting is noticed in a garden is the time to bend all the undamaged heads over sharply to the side so that the roots on one side are broken. This will slow up the growth and prevent splitting of the heads.

HAY SHORTAGE

Not in ten years have harvesters been as scarce as now. About 70 men have gone in from the south. It is not expected that any more will arrive. Everyone who can spare any time, even if it is only a day at a time, should go out and help the farmers stook and thresh this crop.

COMBINES AVAILABLE

There is more power in the march now than can possibly be picked up before freeze-up by the number of combines in this district. We are over - estimating the amount of threshing that a combine can do. Combines are available from halled out districts. All the operators want is a guarantee of 600 to 800 acres at $4 per 85 per acre. Several farmers could club together and order in one of these machines.

INFECTIOUS ABORTUS

This disease of pigs, otherwise known as Bull Nose, is common in this area. It is causing big losses in swine herds wherever found. Pig raisers should get a new circular on this disease from my office.

Save Papers And Magazines for Cubs

PICK-UP ON SATURDAY

The Cubs want all your waste paper including newspapers and magazines. They can sell this to the Shield Insulation Co. at Vegreville and make some money for the troop. They have already made two trips but the salvage paper garage is quite a nice sum of money.

Here is what the Cubs would like you to do to help out with the paper pick-up: The newspapers and magazines be put into bundles not heavy to handle, place these bundles on the front door step or a spot convenient to reach to pick it up, on Saturday morning Sept. 29. The Cubs will be on the awake bunch of energetic lads so they will be around in good time to gather up the paper. Help them out — save them your paper! They intend to make regular paper pick-ups so would like you to get in the habit of saving your scrap paper for them.

Steam Heat Plant Pays Way

STARTS NEW YEAR OF OPERATION

The central steam heat plant at Vermilion, operated for the past three years by the Steam Heat Users Association, has commenced on another year of operation. For many years the central steam heat plant was operated with exhaust steam from the electric light and power plant when that utility was owned by the town. When Canadian Utilities purchased the local power plant and franchise the town council retained the steam heat plant and turned it back to persons actually using central steam heat. An organization was formed and rates set to cover operation and upkeep.

The financial statement for the past year from June 1st 1950 to July 31, 1951, has just been issued and shows total receipts for that period of $17,947.17. The big item in sale on steam heat to the amount of $16,624.34. Disbursements total $17,149.07 leaving a balance on hand of $798.10. Accounts receivable at the time the statement was made were $143, and these have since been paid.

The disbursements show that wages amounted to $4268.74, labor and material for steam line $4691.98; gas for fuel $6503.70; plant expenses $703.19; water $80.13; light and power $134.19; with numerous sundry expenses accounting for the balance.

George Webb is president of the Steam Heat Users Association and W. R. Wiebe is secretary-treasurer.

There are 43 buildings heated from the central heating plant including the high school, the 2 hotels, 3 apartment blocks, 5 large garages, theatre, besides general stores and specialty stores, office buildings and private houses.

Presentation to Mrs. Andrew McQuaid At Ganton

SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT FOR 35 YEARS

A very pleasant ceremony took place at the close of the morning service at Ganton Presbyterian church last Sunday when the Rev. William Brown, M.A. P.S.A., presented Mrs. Andrew McQuaid with a silver flower vase on her retirement from the position as supervisor of the Ganton Sunday school after 35 years service.

In presenting the gift and Presbyterian Church Sunday School long service certificate, Mr. Brown thanked Mrs. McQuaid for her services and spoke of such work being laborious and inconspicuous, the results of which are priceless being such a labor of love, but, to those who chose such a sphere, all found a great pride and pleasure in it. It could never be calculated in any way how to do such work was a source of pleasure and pride to her, and that she always endeavored to carry out the duties devolving upon her with good will and fidelity.

Why Does the Crippled Children's Hospital Need Support?

AN EDITORIAL

In 1945 a decision was made to build a new hospital for little crippled children in this province. Since 1922 the Red Cross has provided free treatment for these little people. Just over 800 have received benefits. The service grew from a six-room house to a fifty patient hospital. Even at that the waiting list was always longer than the proverbial arm. It was so bad that this new ultra modern hospital which now stands ready for occupancy, was conceived as a dream in 1945, designed to provide the most up to date treatment available, and planned to take up the very sad slack in the waiting list. This is now a reality. It is built. It is paid for. It is being heralded as the largest hospital devoted to orthopedics on the continent.

Have we in Vermilion a right to be proud of this achievement? We say we have. Our district has contributed enough towards the building fund to be able to say, 'We own a ward in that hospital. It would be just as much at home in Vermilion as it is in Calgary. That of course is impossible, but it is certainly possible for us to feel that way, as it will certainly be possible for a child from our district to go to that hospital and receive the treatment that will make the difference between a normal life, and one which is all bound up in wheelchairs, crutches and hopelessness.

Unless the Alberta Division of the Canadian Red Cross receives enough money to operate that hospital, they will be forced to say 'No' to some crippled child. It may be yours. Could we in all conscientiousness let this happen? Could we say 'Let some other organization take it over' — such sp n government! We say, 'that would be pure folly'. Why? First, there are about 13 specialists who give their time and skill to the Red Cross without charge. Doctors who are the very best in their field. Would they do that for a government? No. Vegetables by the truck load are delivered to the hospital by many generous farmers throughout the province. Cows, pigs, lambs, are donated to the hospital. Every sheet, pillow case, surgical dressing, gown, smock, etc. used in the hospital is made by women in this province who give their time freely to the Red Cross. Even a blind man comes to the hospital once a week and teaches the children how to weave baskets and other useful articles. Qualified music teachers visit the hospital to teach choral singing, etc. A fresh air car, supplied by a service club, takes the children for a ride every Saturday afternoon. While there is a teaching staff in the hospital, consisting of a principal and two full time teachers, there are also Arts and Crafts teachers who give freely of their time and skills.

Could all of this voluntary service be continued if the hospital would simply soar out of sight, probably to be borne by the taxpayer. And then we would have lost one of the oldest and most appreciated outlets for maintaining the altruistic spirit which was and is the very essence of our Christian Democracy.

We say emphatically that this Grain Campaign cannot fail. The Red Cross needs that $40,000. The country districts could not be reached during the campaign in March, now, owing to the bad roads. It is not a question of how much or how little one gives. It is a question of helping a grand organization to help a little child. Yes, 'Give Grain' that bushel may be the one that will save YOUR child.

Neighbors Summer-fallow and Hay At Late Harry Gordon's Farm

On Wednesday last week a number of neighbors of Mrs. Harry Gordon went with tractors and machinery and worked the summerfallow. Nine tractors were in action, while a number more were busy putting up hay. It is nice to see such co-operation in the district.

1951 Edition of Canada Year Book

The new 1951 edition of the Canada Year Book, authorized for distribution by the Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Trade and Commerce, has now been released and is ready for distribution.

While the departmental policy of setting a very nominal price designed to cover merely the cost of paper, press work and binding has been maintained, the price of $2 which prevailed since the early years of World War 2 has now been raised to $3 per copy for the cloth-bound 1951 edition.

Paper bound copies are available at $1.50 to bona fide teachers, university students and ministers of religion from the Dominion Statistician Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Ottawa.

The year book is recognized as an invaluable source of authentic information regarding the national economy and the people's welfare.

Application To Quash Municipal Building By-Law of M. D.

On Tuesday next, Oct. 2, an application will be presented to the presiding District Court judge in the Court House, Vermilion, Alberta, to quash by-law numbered 449 of the Municipal District of Vermilion River No. 71 for the erection of a municipal building. It will be remembered that the ratepayers voted on this by-law last March and owing to very adverse weather conditions a great many of those eligible to vote were unable to get to the polls, particularly in the rural areas. Many of the farmer ratepayers consider therefore, that the vote was not a real expression of the will of the majority of the ratepayers entitled to pass on the by-law.

This application is being made by Frederick C. Haines, an elector of the Municipal District, who alleges that there were various irregularities in the taking of the vote on the by-law, which in themselves make the passing of the by-law illegal. In addition it is alleged by the applicant that owing to weather conditions a large number of qualified ratepayers were prevented from voting, on the by-law, and as a result the total votes cast for and against the by-law did not represent a fair or reasonable proportion of the total possible vote.

The result of this application will be awaited with considerable interest among the ratepayers of the Municipal District of Vermilion River.

Snowfall Aggravates Serious Harvest Conditions

Aggravating to the critical stage an already serious harvest situation, snow fell here on Sept. 24, 25 and 26 to the total of 3 inches. The snow fall was accompanied by a drop in the thermometer to a low of 10 above early this Thursday with frost registered every night of the present week. Highest reading was a mere 36. The temperatures have been the lowest experienced in September for years.

Promise of better things to come is held out this Thursday morning which is clear with a warm sun making the snow disappear.

Daily Temp. Since Last Thursday

Day	High	Low
Sept. 20	48	35
Sept. 21	53	32
Sept. 22	42	33
Sept. 23	36	20
Sept. 24	36	20
Sept. 25	29	25
Sept. 26	33	25
Sept. 27		10

Harvest conditions are much behind those of a year ago when a heavy snowfall started on Sept. 28 and it did not stop snowing until noon, Sept. 30th with a total of 8½ inches.

The weather immediately preceding the snow storm of one year ago was hot, for instance on Sept. 23, 1950 the high was 86, Sept. 24 it was 84 and on the 25th, 68. It never did warm up, clear up or settle down after the snowstorm of one year ago.

The snowstorm this year caught the country with practically no threshing done. 15% of the wheat is still standing and most of the oats in the same condition, while all the barley is cut. Not 5% of the threshing is done.

Help is on at Alberta's Red Cross Crippled Children's hospital by giving grain. Your elevator agent will tell you the story.

Car Owners!
DODGE
HAS THE ANSWERS
to questions you frequently ask

Q Should I use a standard or premium gasoline in my car?
A That depends on the make of your present car. All new Dodge engines are designed to operate with maximum performance and top efficiency with ordinary gasoline.

Q How can I judge the amount of choking my car requires to start under varying weather conditions?
A I shortcut-ly, you cannot. But new Dodge cars are equipped with an Automatic Electric Choke which makes starting easier - particularly in cold weather, and avoids wasteful overchoking.

Q If my foot brake should fail, will my parking brake still operate?
A Yes, if you own a Dodge. The Dodge parking brake is completely independent of the foot brake, operating on a drum of its own fastened to the propeller shaft. When the propeller shaft is locked, the wheels cannot turn. In many cars the parking brake operates on the two rear drums of the foot brake.

Q Is first of the high cost of body repairs, why don't all cars have detachable fenders?
A It would seem that some manufacturers have sacrificed the practical for styling. All Dodge fenders are bolted on and are easily removed to facilitate replacement or repair.

Q How can I stop my gas lines from clogging with dirt and water?
A With most cars there's no sure way. You might try drubing and cleaning out your tank from time to time, but would nothing always keep your tank well filled as this reduces the amount of condensation. With a 1951 Dodge, of course, you cannot experience any annoying trouble. The new Dodge is equipped with an Oilite fuel filter located in the gas tank which keeps the entire fuel system free from dirt and water. It's self-cleaning, too, from the sedding action of the gas in the tank.

Q Why is rear seat riding in some cars so tiring?
A That's because a low, sloped-back rear seat places you in an uncomfortable position without support under and behind the knees. Dodge chair-high seats, both front and rear, give you proper knee and back support - let you ride long distances in comfort.

Q Is there any real difference in the various types of air cleaners?
A Yes, there are vast differences. For example, all Dodge cars have a heavy-duty oilbath air cleaner, in "dust storm" tests, this type cleaner proved much more efficient than ordinary mesh-type filters even at the start. And, after 2,000 miles of driving it proved to be still 90% efficient, or nearly double that of other types of cleaners.

Q Should I buy a set of the special tires or tubes advertised as protection against blowouts?
A Many motorists would not be without them. Dodge owners, however, have an exceptional safety factor in "Safety Rim" wheels. Protective ridges on these wheels hold the standard tire in place in case of tire failure, reduce the danger of loss of control and allow safe, straight stops.

Q Why do my windshield wipers slow down and sometimes stop working when I accelerate my engine — often when I need them most?
A That's a little technical but here's the answer in simplest terms. Your wiper is a vacuum type, operated from the vacuum in the intake manifold. This vacuum is highest when the engine is idling — lowest when the engine is under full load, such as when you call for fast acceleration, so your vacuum wipers slow down. With the new Dodge cars you do not experience this trouble as they are equipped with constant-speed electric windshield wipers.

Q How can I best protect my engine from the dirt and abrasives which collect in the oil?
A You should install an efficient oil filter, if your car is not so equipped. Not only are all Dodge Cars and Power models equipped with a highly efficient Mercasic Oil Filter as standard equipment, but all Dodge models give you added protection with a Sealing Oil Intake. This type of intake draws only the clean oil from just below the surface, preventing both surface foam and bottom sludge from entering the oil lines.

Wildmere Winks

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Marfleet of town on the birth of their new baby.

Mrs. Smith of Vancouver is here visiting with her family Mrs. C. Cruthers, Billie, Adam and Albert Smith. Mrs. Tom Miller her niece, accompanied her. Mr. Miller is ill so was unable to come this time. We all miss his cheery word and pleasant smile and hope he is soon feeling much better.

Mrs. S. E. Snowball of Edmonton spent the week end visiting at the Wallingford home. She returned to the city Sunday evening. She was the mother to a good many servicemen during the war and afterwards had a monument erected to the men from Calder who gave their lives in World War 2. In the early days she and her husband homesteaded near the town of Marwayne.

On Sunday Rev. MacKay of Vermilion held service at our school where seven children were baptized. He seemed very pleased to see such a nice group of parents having their children entered into the baptismal book. It is our last service of the year as Mr. Embree has gone to Arcola, Sask., to teach school for a year before finishing up his studies for the ministry. We have enjoyed having him very much during the summer, especially his work with the young folks. We all appreciated the fine sermon Mr. MacKay gave on Sunday too.

One Sunday not long ago Albert Hodie had his brother Carl and a neighbor friend visit him from Calgdan, Alberta.

This snow has surely called a halt in the harvesting operations again. It would be a terrible thing if two bad falls came in a row. There is no much seed grain in the country for another year. We'll hope the silver lining soon shows up once more. A few have done a bit of threshing. Noel Garnett has barley threshed and Lloyd Howard some oats. Lloyd and Cliff Cruthers and the Smith Bros. have all combined some coarse grain but not much wheat has been done.

The whole country is listening for the bulletins coming from the palace in England regarding our King's recovery. May he soon be well to continue his reign over us.

Johnny Wilson found his dog that the writer wrote about in the Winks awhile ago, and it was through that item he did. As Johnny says, "It pays to advertise in the Standard".

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mrs. Harry Symes of Battleview district on the loss of his mother a short time ago at Wainwright hospital after a lengthy illness.

Anne Garnett of the Wainwright hospital staff spent a week end at her home in Basaroot recently.

We were pleased to see Mr. Llewelyn Brown and his daughter Margaret of Willoughby district at church one Sunday.

12 MILLION RADIO LICENCES

About 12,434,000 broadcast receiving licences, including 913,200 television licences were current in Britain and Northern Ireland at the end of July 1951.

Isn't it peculiar that the human brain begins to function from the moment you are born, improves as you grow older, then stops completely when you stand up to talk?

Agricultural Society Sponsors Sale of Purebred Cattle

The Vermilion Agricultural society is becoming increasingly active in the community and as evidence of its interest in the farming population is to again conduct a sale of pure bred beef and dairy cattle during the month of October. The actual date has been set for Oct. 25th and closing date for entries is Oct. 13. The sale will immediately precede that of Mr. A. A. Mitchell, breeder of fine Hereford at Lloydminster and it is hoped that the sales being held on successive dates will prove to the mutual benefit of Mr. Mitchell and those who offer cattle for sale at the Vermilion event.

Hogs will not be accepted for sale this year owing to the lack of demand at previous sales, but high class beef and dairy cattle will be offered under the hammer and from interest shown throughout the country it is evident that the sale will meet a notable demand for quality animals.

All who have cattle to offer should contact S. C. Heckbert, secretary-manager of the Society and complete details of the sale will be gladly furnished.

Sale will be held at the newly constructed sales pavilion at the Exhibition Grounds, Vermilion, where splendid facilities now exist for such purposes.

Bowtell Bulletin

The writer hasn't sent in any news bulletins for a few weeks so will try to catch up on local happenings.

We are sorry to report that Daisy Woodruff is still in hospital quite ill. Thanks are extended to those who helped with his harvest.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the Gordon family in their recent sorrow.

Don Harrison and Charlie Pearman have nice new combines.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pearman were visitors to Edmonton over the week end driving up in their new car.

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. McFarland, Bobby, Tommy and Kenny Risdale, Mr. and Mrs. C. Clarke for helping the writer gather in potatoes and carrots recently.

Quite a number attended the harvest thanksgiving service held at Pleasant Valley. The decorations were very nice Gladys.

The writer noted that Mr. Payne drew attention to the road leading to the Vermilion cemetery. It certainly needs attending to and is particularly bad after a rain. It could do with more gravel at the least.

The Busy Bee meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Johnson with 17 ladies present. The demonstration on sewing given by Miss Reed was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Gow's. It was nice to have Mrs. Risdale present.

Sept. 25th folks and it is snowing and blowing with the fields still full of stooks and standing grain.

Johnny Bechtel had the misfortune to hurt his back recently and required medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and family were visitors to Edmonton on Monday.

Everyone is pleased to know that Mr. Gillies is well enough to return home from the hospital.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director, Research Department, Searle Grain Company, Ltd.

A SQUARE DEAL FOR THE FARMER

Mr. Elmore Philpott, who writes a column for the 'Union Farmer' (organ of the Saskatchewan Farmers Union) in its issue of Sept. 1951, asks these questions:

1. How can the farmer be guaranteed that the price of wheat he has to sell can be in line with the price of what he has to buy?

2. How can the wheat farmer get a square deal when most of his product is exported and when more and more of it is sold by the Government and bought by other Governments?

These are two basic wheat marketing questions that are today being discussed intensely by farm organizations of the U.S., by individual American farmers and by many other people. A thorough study of these two questions should, in my opinion, equally well be the subject of intense discussions by Prairie Farm organizations, and by prairie farmers individually, for the correct answers to these questions should reveal the best method of marketing that could be adopted. The answers, however, will not be arrived at by mere opinions. Each separate method that could be employed in marketing grain would have to be carefully, studied, analyzed and understood thoroughly. It would not be any easy task but it certainly believe it done would bring valuable returns to farmers provided the studies are undertaken by people with studious and open minds.

More than 7000 varieties of apples have been recorded in Canada and the U.S.

Two Drinks Impair Driving, Tests Show

A series of road tests conducted with 37 skilled drivers aged 20 to 45, proved that the amount of whisky in two highballs caused a deterioration of 25 to 30% in the driving performance of expert drivers', Don Wharton reports the tests and the conclusion in an October Reader's Digest article condensed from The Rotarian.

Dr. Leonard Goldberg, of Sweden's Caroline Institute, conducted the tests to prove or disprove the claim of many motorists that they can drive better after two or three drinks.

More startling evidence comes, however, from Motorforsarna, a Swedish insurance company writing 'traffic insurance' solely for non-drinking motorists. Motorforsarna has been in business 18 years, now has over 7000 policyholders. Its record over 11 years compared with other Swedish companies indicated that Motorforsarna has to pay in losses per vehicle 38% less than the average of the other companies. The number of claims per 100 vehicles was 37% less. Since by no means all of the policyholders in these other companies were drinking drivers, alcohol played a tremendous role in creating the difference between the two groups.

Canada Buys Butter

The Agricultural Products board has purchased 10 million pounds of butter for importation during the coming months, of which 3 million pounds will be supplied by New Zealand and 7 million pounds by Sweden, Denmark and the Netherlands. These purchases have been negotiated at various prices and various terms of delivery. From Sweden, the Board purchased 3 million pounds of butter, packed in 56 other casks or crates, at a duty paid price of 60¼ cents when packed in casks and 61 cents when packed in crates, basis Montreal; the delivery spread from September to November. From Denmark, 3 million pounds, packed in casks have been purchased at a duty paid price of 60¼ cents, basis Montreal; delivery spread from September to November. From the Netherlands, 1 million pounds, packed in casks, have been purchased at a duty paid price of 59 cents, basis Montreal; delivery spread from September to November. From New Zealand the Board purchased 3 million pounds of butter packed in boxes at a duty paid price of 63 cents, basis Montreal and Vancouver, delivery to be spread from November to February.

BRITISH PLANES TO CIRCLE THE GLOBE

Sir Miles Thomas, chairman of the British Overseas Airways Corporation has forecast that within the next few years the corporation would be operating two all-British round the world routes — one encircling the Northern Hemisphere through Canada and the other south of the equator to Australia and New Zealand.

Should Face Facts In Education

Though there have been some recent changes, on the whole our high school education seems to be based on the wrong assumption that all students can, will and should go on to university, declares The Financial Post. Emphasis has been placed on those special subjects which are compulsory for university entrance. There has been far too little attempt to give the much greater number of students who will never go beyond high school an education that is suited to their special needs.

Board of Trade Hears Interesting Address

As reported briefly in last week's Standard, the Vermilion Board of Trade had as a guest Wednesday of last week, Mr. Don Mariett from Regina, regional representative of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce for Alberta and Saskatchewan.

700 Affiliated Boards of Trade

In his address Mr. Mariett stated that there were about 700 boards of trade in Canada affiliated with the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

Alberta Boards Active, Enthusiastic

He mentioned that he had found in his journeys in the Province of Alberta, that the Alberta Boards of Trade were the most active and enthusiastic he had encountered. Mr. Mariett stated he was impressed with the fact that the Vermilion Board of Trade has had luncheon meeting every week for the past 17 years. He mentioned this was probably unique among Boards of Trade. He said this was the second or third time he had attended a meeting of the Vermilion Board of Trade and from his observations he felt that this Board had contributed very greatly to many of the developments in the Town of Vermilion.

In the rest of his address Mr. Mariett dealt with the main functions of the Canadian Chamber in regard to Canada as a whole. He said the Dominion Chamber was able to speak for the whole of Canada because of the affiliation of the local Boards of Trade with the Chamber.

Agricultural Problems

For instance, he commented that the Canadian Chamber interested itself in Agricultural problems affecting Canada as a whole, including such things as priority of the manufacture of agricultural implements, the promotion of selected and greater immigration to Canada, currency problems, ways and means to increase production of wheat and coarse grains and the export of the same to our biggest market, the United Kingdom. On the matter of trade relations of Canada, Mr. Mariett stated that the policy of the Canadian Chamber was that Canada should not become too dependent on trade with the United States for the economic stability of Canada.

He also mentioned that without the membership of the individual Boards of Trade throughout Canada there would be no truly national chamber in the sense that the National chamber endeavors to arrive at a national policy representative of business thinking across Canada. Insofar as local boards of trade are concerned Mr. Mariett stressed the importance of community interest between local business men and the farming community of a town such as Vermilion and mentioned that the Canadian Chamber of Commerce had put out a pamphlet with suggestions to promote this community interest.

Mayor Heckbert moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Mariett which was passed unanimously. In the course of his remarks Mr. Heckbert mentioned that these visits from the regional representative of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce tended to bring that body closer to the local boards and brought about a realization to our members that the Vermilion Board of Trade is part of the endeavors of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Ashley Cooper was chairman of the meeting.

Help Your Paper Get All the News

You can help make the Standard the brightest, smartest weekly paper in Canada!

We want to get all the news. The Standard maintains only a part time news gathering staff and it alone cannot reach into every corner of their active town and district for a complete news coverage of every organization, every individual, having a story to tell.

There are scores of different organizations — lodges, farm groups, boards of trade, church groups, etc., throughout the towns, villages and hamlets in this district whose activities the Vermilion Standard would like to report. Appointment of a press secretary to keep the paper in touch with your organizations activities would bring the Standard closer to its objective of giving you ALL THE NEWS.

As individuals our readers can help too. Did your neighbor celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary? Did you have out-of-town friends visiting you over the week end? Or did anything at all of news interest happen to you or your friends? Well, don't just let us know so that we can tell our family of some 5000 interested readers about it?

Hometown Friendliness

A friend of ours from the city dropped in to see us the other day. On the way to the office he walked through the town's business section. He was greatly impressed.

"Practically everyone on the streets said good morning to me," he told us. "I like that. People in the city are so busy rushing about their own affairs that they can't be bothered even to smile let along give a stranger a friendly hello."

This started us thinking. We had always rather taken for granted the friendliness of our hometown and it had never occurred to us that it might be something visitors would be surprised about. We realize now that it is a unique feature of our way of life and a significant characteristic of our smaller Canadian communities.

City folks with little knowledge of day to day living in towns and villages sometimes comment on the interest small town people take in each others affairs. To the uninitiated this might appear to be simply meddling. But anyone acquainted with the facts can tell them that it is something else altogether.

In small communities where the tempo of life is a bit more leisurely than in the cities we can afford to take time to get to know our neighbors, to talk with them about their activities and ours, to watch for a chance to lend a hand to the fellow who needs help or to put in a word of encouragement when it will do some good. Thanks to our say good morning to strangers as a matter of course.

It's a good thing too, that business of friendliness and neighborliness and looking out for the other fellow is on. Good for our neighbors and good for us.

Causes of Farm Accidents

Some 18,000 farm people in the United States die early year as a result of accidents, and another 1½ million suffer disabling injuries. While figures for Canada are not available, it can be presumed that our per capita accident rate is about the same. The causes of accidents have been divided by percentages into the following classes: falls 24.7, machines 12.9, animals 12.1, motor vehicles 9.3, handling objects 8.3, hand tools 7.8, stepping on or striking objects 7.3, falling objects 5.3, burns or shock 4.2, others 7.8.

For the most part farm accidents could be avoided by exercising greater care.

Grain for Red Cross Hospital

Mr. Roy Wetter, president of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, presented the first 10 bushels of grain to Alberta's Red Cross Children's Hospital to Lieutenant-Governor J. J. Bowlen Sept. 4th in His Honour's office in Edmonton.

The Lieut.-Governor is patron of Alberta Division, Canadian Red Cross Society. The presentation started a province-wide campaign to have farmers donate grain to "Give a happy ending to the story of a crippled child". Money from the donated grain will be used in its entirety for the support of the Red Cross hospital which cares for children from all over Alberta. Local elevator agents throughout the province are co-operating in the drive. Standing beside Mr. Wetter and His Honour is Mr. Elmer Roper, MLA of Edmonton. Red Cross president.

British Agriculture

Great Britain has almost 8 million head of cattle, nearly as many as the whole of Canada, almost as many hogs as Canada and ten times as many sheep, according to W. P. Watson, Ontario livestock commissioner, who has recently returned from Britain. The British farmers, who, he says, are among the best in the world, are producers of an essential portion of the food for the British population.

As a result of a shortage of milk in Britain, whole oil is now being used in the manufacture of cream, butter and ice cream, and, according to Mr Watson, it is impossible to tell the difference in the taste between the substitute product and the real thing.

The milk production of a cow is reduced more rapidly by too little water than by anything else.

Towns Nameless For Airline Travellers

Civic officials have been rather slow in failing to identify their town and cities for airline travelers, thinks The Financial Post.

To the passenger a mile up, most communities are just another nameless cluster of buildings.

There's hardly a hamlet in the whole country that doesn't proclaim its name on a sign board to road travelers. Railway stations are bold, marked. But from above there is nothing to identify communities. The men who locate new plants, who buy goods, who make the decisions that can be important to a community may never know there's a thriving town and just the place to locate a new branch plant a mile below them.

The second meeting of the Stagettes this year was an enthusiastic get-together of 18 members (4 of whom were new girls) at the home of Jo McLaughlin, a former Vermilion Stagette. To most of us Jo was a new acquaintance but we can well believe she was a most valuable member of any club to which she belonged—Edmonton being the last. Her visit home before she leaves for Montreal will end all too quickly. Good luck Jo.

Just a reminder to those artists who so willingly offered to make a poster for the Harvest ball—don't forget.

Lena and Lil are getting together Monday the 8th to combine their ideas for decorating the hall and on the 15th they will put the rest to work carrying out those ideas. Results?—who knows but it should be something.

It was decided that our meeting night might be changed to every second Monday as that there would not be any conflicting with other meetings and events.

The club received letters from ex-Stagettes Joyce (Wilson) and Emma Nichols and a report that they are enjoying life. Joyce advises us all to try married life. It's wonderful. Thumbs, give us a chance Dot A.

Checking for Saturday — Dorothy Oldenburg and Vivian. So sorry Vivian that there will be another Saturday coming. I'd like to know more about this. What has Wainwright got to do with it?

After the closing of the meeting Jo proved her abilities as the perfect hostess, and it was just to keep the genuine friendliness of the gathering. There is something about Vermilion that makes a body proud to belong.

Save Your Papers And Magazines for Cubs

PICK-UP ON SATURDAY

The Cubs want all your waste paper — including newspapers and magazines. They can sell this to the Shield Insulation Co. at Vegreville and make some money for the troop. They have already made two pick-ups of waste paper and have gathered in quite a nice sum of money.

Here is what the Cubs would like you to do to help out with the paper pick-up: Tie the newspapers and magazines into bundles not too heavy to handle, place these bundles on your front door step or a spot convenient to reach to pick it up on Saturday morning Sept. 29. The Cubs will be on the route with an energetic lads so they will be around in good time to gather up the paper. Have them out — don't throw the paper. They intend to make regular pick-ups and would like you to get in the habit of saving your scrap paper for them.

ISLAY NEWS

The chief topic of conversation today (Monday) is the terrible weather; have you your potatoes all dug, etc. etc.?

Murdoch's are insulating some houses in town. Mr. Dupuit has had his done and Mrs. Martin's is now being done.

We notice Bentley Carmichael getting the chicken house at Mr. Dupuit's ready to move.

Miss Catharine Carey returned to Islay on Thursday and Hazel Mair will leave Friday for the McTavish Business college, Edmonton.

Mrs. Olson of San Diego has been visiting her nephew Mr. Ewell Clark and Mrs. Clarke.

Lockhart Mr. Maxwell driving a newer model Chevrolet.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young, one time residents of Islay, now of Lac La Dore were visiting friends in Islay this past week. They returned on Sunday to Dewberry to the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Young.

On Wednesday afternoon last week a number of neighbors of Mrs. H. Gordon went with tractors and machinery and worked the summer-fallow. Nine tractors did the deed and a number more were putting up hay. Surely is nice to see so much co-operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Yerew of Edmonton visited with Mr. and Mrs. David Martin on Sunday. They had heard so much about Lloydminster, so all journeyed there and on to Marwayne to see that thriving town too.

Saw Mrs. Gillies in town on Tuesday. Mr. Gillies was to go home, having been discharged from the hospital.

On Friday night Miss Rita Thompson arrived from Edmonton to visit her mother who is in hospital. On Saturday Rita got out to her home north of Dewberry.

Mr. John Shaw and Fred are building a combination garage and granary for Ken Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gallagher had dinner Sunday with the Anderson family in Islay. Bob's father was C.N.R. agent here from 1915 to 1942.

United Church W. A.

The W. A. of the First United church of Vermilion will hold their annual fall bazaar, sale of home cooking and tea in the Parish church hall on Saturday, Dec 1st from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. 52c(JOLN15-22c

During 1950 a total of $80,070,000 was paid out by Workmen's Compensation Boards in industrial accidents.

QUE CONSTANTE SHORT STORY...

Exactly At Midnight

Just This One Job And Then That Fabulous $1 Buys A Farm And Security For Ursella Said To Himself.

• • •

By J. V. DESAGON

EVERYTHING would work out perfectly. The time was right, the place was right. At midnight exactly the train would thunder over the river trestle, and the boys would be waiting below with the Sally II. A rapid unloading job from the side door of the mail car, and they would all be on easy street.

Carello huddled up in the lee of the coal boards and tried to stop the fine powdery dust from sifting down his back. The locomotive was making time, and the draft up there on top of the rusty tender was considerable.

Carello didn't feel so good about this job. It went deeper than the mere presence of physical discomfort that accompanied the ride. Although, in a way, it did tie in. Because if Jordan didn't attempt to hold on the best—even when it came to a job like this — well, maybe Carello wouldn't feel the way he did.

He pulled out a cigarette, cupped his hands over a match. Before he could get a light the wind whipped it out. He tried three times with the same result. Carello swore, and thought of Jordan, sitting back there on the cushions, taking it the way he always.

The luminous dial of his watch glowed, indicated that it lacked eighteen minutes of midnight. Seven minutes to go. Seven minutes before they would crash through the mail car doors. Carello felt in his pocket for the key, assured himself that it was still there.

The locomotive lurched as the heavy locomotive slammed into a curve, swaying. The whistle roared, deafeningly loud up there on the tender. Carello watched the tops of the cars making a second behind the engine, now and then blotted out by billowing clouds of black smoke.

Just once more, he thought. Just this one job, and then that fabulous $1. Buy a farm, an estate even, and settle down. That's the stuff. The possibilities were endless. And the key in it all lay in his pocket. The key that would unlock the narrow vestibule door leading into the mail car. They knew just where to look. What bags to take—everything. It was all fixed.

Smooth, that was it. Gotta hand it to Jordan in a way. He knew how to plan those things as they would go off without a hitch.

The rhythmical clatter of wheels on rails quickened in tempo. The train had topped a rise, and was sweeping down a grade. The exhaust settled to a steady, pulsing roar that blended with the screaming of the whistle. They rushed over a level crossing, and Carello had a momentary glimpse of blurred lights, cars waiting for the gate.

He looked at his watch again. Four minutes to go. A shiver of apprehension passed through him. He laughed to himself. Everything was all right. Nothing was going to slip up—nothing.

Carello got to his knees, and crept along the swaying tender top. The locomotive rocked on, now studded with—manhole spots for filling the engine tender. One slip—and the sides of the tender curved away sharply from either side.

He reached the end, gripped the steel ladder that led downwards. Swirling dust clouds and smoke choked him as he descended. He paused at the bottom and braced himself for the short leap from the tender sill onto the narrow ledge of the mail car. The hungry clamour of the locomotive reached up and filled his ears, beating against his brain with a maddening insistence.

Carello jumped and steadied himself there, panting. He pulled the key from his pocket, and with his left hand fished for the key.

Thirty seconds to go! Wild, crazy thoughts raced through his mind as he waited. Suppose something happened! Supposing Jordan was late! Supposing the key didn't fit the lock! He dismissed the latter from his mind. Impossible. These locks were not standardized. If you had the key, you could enter any of them. But then supposing it stuck in the lock—jammed!

Ten seconds — four — three — two. He twisted the key, raised the handle firmly and threw his weight against the door. It stuck for a moment, and then with a crash it burst open.

At first Carello was conscious only of the glare of lights, and then suddenly he saw a lot of things at once. He saw the door at the other end of the car fly open as Jordan smashed his way in. He saw the ugly muzzle of two sawed-off shotguns swing in a wide arc and come to rest. He saw in his centre vest button. He saw the same thing happening to Jordan at the other end of the car. He saw—not mail bags and baskets —but rows of seats.

And then he saw his gaze sway from the uniformed man and saw the hands on the open door—and then darkness had prevented him from reading before he entered. It read "Prison Car".

The clank of steel snapped him back to reality as the door behind him circled his wrists. He heard a dull rumble from the wheels as the key in his mother's arm. The Kerr car plowed into a parked cabin. Damage to the Kerr car was $300; the other auto suffered $200 damage.

Alberta Rodeo Horse Bucks Riders Off Like Stuffed Flys

CALGARY.—In the western United States, rodeo riders are talking about one of the buckingest horses that ever came across the range.

Originally called Dudebury Express and renamed Calgary Stampede, the high-kicking horse has been tossing some of the greatest riders in the rodeo game.

Raised about 200 miles from Calgary, the horse was bought by the Calgary Stampede board as a pre-ride horse. He dittched riders so fast that Verne Elliott, who provides bucking stock for most of the big U.S. rodeos, borrowed him for a season.

In return he promised to buck back not only Calgary Stampede but his own best rodeo horse for next year's Calgary Stampede.

The horse has proved such a mighty buster that Elliott has already signed some pace-setters for the Wyoming Eagle Ball to Ride.

HOW WOULD YOU SOLVE THIS BRAIN-TEASER?

Protagoras taught oratory to, law students in ancient Greece. He made a contract with a pupil, stipulating that he was not to be paid until the pupil had won his first case. But Protagoras asked for his money ahead of time, and the pupil refused to pay.

Protagoras promptly sued him. Protagoras felt he could not lose. If the verdict was in his favor, the pupil would have to pay. If the verdict was against him, the pupil would win his first case—and still would have to pay.

The pupil reasoned that if he won the case, the court would rule he did not have to pay. If he lost, he would not be winning his first case and still would not have to pay.

Unable to reach a verdict, the court adjourned the case for one hundred years.

A BILL FOR THE WEATHER

A Wisconsin farmer, fed up with the harsh winter weather which his weather bureau told him, came from Canada, sent the Dominion a bill for half his fuel. This suggests that the Fraser Valley, which lost half its berry crop because the rain it had counted on went in Alberta, might bill Premier Manning for its loss.

BODIES DISAPPEARING

OTTAWA.—Old Dobbin is gradually disappearing from Canadian farms. The bureau of statistics estimated there were 1,666,900 horses still on Canadian farms last June 1, compared with 1,688,000 a year earlier.

Dobbins with warts should not be sold.

Sailor Joe Engraves Prayer On Bald Spot

An old mariner in a dying profession, who claims to have close to 5,000 tattoos across his body, put in a good day's work recently when he tattooed the Lord's Prayer on Sailor Joe's bald spot. Showing the ancient symbols into Bert Langton's head was Prof. Simmons, alias Sailor Joe, who has returned to Montreal after spending the summer with the Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey Circus. Sailor Joe and Bert Langton, out of Liverpool, met about five years ago when Bert had an "ordinary" tattoo embedded in his flesh. Bert wanted his head tattooed to impress his many friends calling the Cabin Boys and naturally Joe obliged.

Two Winnipeg Typists Return Home From Tour Of Europe

Hitch-Hiking Was Fine—Rode in Just About Everything. Trucks, Cars, Motorcycles, Ambulances And Fish Carts

WINNIPEG.—A few months ago two pretty Winnipeg girls watched money changers and snake charmers in the Casbah of Tangiers. They rode in a Venetian gondola while their gondolier sang Italian arias. They camped in Norwegian hills and marvelled at the beauty of Rome's Cistine chapel. Now they're home again.

Aneesa Eurich and Nancy Halford were typists at the unemployment insurance office in March, 1950 when they decided to see the world.

With $500 each, they booked passage to England and kept going until they arrived back in Winnipeg, Oct. 1. They visited every country in West Europe.

They rode in just about everything — trucks, cars, motorcycles, ambulances and fish carts.

Arriving in London almost out of funds they went to work long enough to finance a three-week trip to northern England and Scotland. Broke again they went back to work in London as typists to finance their first trip to the continent.

They crossed the channel in September, 1950, and by November had called at Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, and Italy.

"The hitch-hiking was just fine, never any trouble at all," says Aneelia. "And there were youths hostels everywhere offering comfortable beds for 25 cents a night."

November, 1950 came and so did winter. The two wanderers were running low on money. They went back to London again. All winter they worked and saved and in June they crossed the channel.

This time they hitched their way down Europe's west coast, crossed to north Africa, then back through France, Italy and Germany to the Scandinavian countries, with a few leisurely days on the French Riviera.

Most colorful place of all they found was North Africa. "There you see the very old and the very new side by side. Tent see donkeys and sleek cars, veiled native women beside ladies in the most modern fashions and new, up-to-date buildings next to shacks."

They met no travelling Canadians during their whole trip.

Plans when they left Winnipeg called for a one-year trip. "But we'd got to one place my Vienna, and the people said we must come back again for us to see. We just kept going, and we were never disappointed," Nancy said

They saw the King and Queen open the Festival of Britain, and saw Princess Elizabeth at the festival. They met and talked with Barbara Ann Scott at Canada House in London.

They'll start looking for jobs, "We may go again some day. We'd rather like to see South Africa and Australia."

What was their "return" impression of Canada? "Prosperous. Everybody's got cars and television and refrigerators and nice clothes and everything!"

Indians Meet For Sun Dance Ritual

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE. Alta.—Indian dancers did not eat, drink or sleep for three days when the annual Sun Dance was held in the Sand Hills near here.

Hundreds of Indians from the Cree, Chippewa, Stoney, Blood and Blackfoot tribe, came miles to attend the ceremony.

Once a pagan feast with human sacrifices, the Sun Dance now is a religious festival of thanksgiving.

The Indians prayed for the end of a long rainy spell. Their main lodge, crops of hay were rotting in fields because of continued rains, they offered prayers in sympathy for white farmers whose crops were also ruined.

The Sun Dance lodge was built in a natural amphitheatre among the hills. About 100 tents and teepees surrounded it in a huge circle

The construction included a ring of heated stones for the medicine man's purification ceremonies, a wind-shield barrier of leafy branches behind which were the dancers, and support-ing stakes hung with bunches of native herbs.

No nails were used in the construction. Instead, green saplings were woven tight together.

A large central pole was raised in the main Sun Dance lodge as the sun dipped behind the hills. The purification and other ceremonies before it was raised were the only part of the three-day ritual which white men were not allowed to see.

Medicine man Joseph Saltcaun led the dancers or more dancers. The dance was done to a slow, weird drum beat, now, accompanied by native rattles and shrill whistles made from the wing bones of wild geese.

What's For Lunch?

October 8th is Thanksgiving day—and it's also the day I'll be giving a radio talk called 'What's For Lunch' over CKUA at 12:45 pm.

Mrs. Wise and the Lunch Box

Mrs. Wise (Gladys like milk products) and Mrs. Wise often includes them in the lunch box. She has discovered too, that she can get a double amount of milk in this way by adding powdered milk, whole or skim, to her recipes, in addition to the fresh milk. To save time she makes up a pudding mix for plain cornstarch pudding or blanc mange from which she can make a variety of tasty desserts.

Here is her recipe for Pudding Mix:

2 cups powdered skim milk
½ cups corn starch
1½ cups sugar
1½ teaspoons salt

She mixes this together then ourths and stores it in a tight container in a cool place. To make vanilla pudding, she uses two-thirds cup of mix to 2 cups of fresh milk, makes a paste of the mix with a little of the cold milk, adds this to the remaining milk which has been scalded and heated it until it thickens. She covers and cooks this for 20 minute; then adds 2 tablespoons of butter and 1 teaspoon of vanilla and pours into molds or cups to cool.

For variation she sometimes adds cut up fruit (fresh, canned or dried), nuts or coconut before pouring into the molds, or makes chocolate pudding by adding one-third cup of cocoa to the mix, or two squares of melted chocolate to the hot milk. For the chocolate pudding she adds ¼ cup more milk and an extra tablespoon of sugar.

A ZIPPER should be closed when you wash a garment. Bet you all knew that!

Next Week's Question

How can you make your washing and ironing easier?

Paradise Valley

Mrs Emma Olsen of San Diego, Calif., is visiting with her niece Mrs. H. F. Swayze for a few days.

Glad to see Frank Woods home again from the Lloydminster hospital where he spent a few days.

After a few days of ideal harvest weather we again have rain and still more rain. We hope it is not a repetition of last year.

Mr. Ben Squires, C.P.R. station agent at this point has gone on his holidays and Mr. Wharrington is doing duty in his place.

We regret to hear that Mr. John McAmmond is a patient in Lloydminster hospital and will be leaving for Edmonton shortly where he will undergo an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Chambers left on Sunday for Manville where they will make their home in future. Mr. Chambers will operate the Pool elevator at that point. It is Zita since Mr. and Mrs. Chambers came to Paradise Valley and it is with deep regret that we see them leave. Mr. and Mrs. Chambers were the leaders in tennis a few years ago and always took an active part in curling, where they will be much missed. A farewell party was held in the United church basement on Friday night for Mrs Chamber's when a large number of friends gathered to say goodbye and wish them well in their future home.

Miss Mary Baxter who is attending high school at Wainwright. Miss Dorothy Clay who is attending the Camrose Lutheran college and Bernie Baxter who is registered at Kitscoty, all spent the week end at their respective homes.

We hear with regret that Mr. E. H. Davis of Lloydminster who was to take over the P.W.-McLaughlin field for the United Church is unable to come for sometime due to illness.

Mrs. E. H. Walter was a business visitor to Saskatoon over the week end.

Church Giving

Say it quickly and the $120 to $130 millions that goes into church collection plates in the 11,000 churches across Canada every year looks like big money, writes Frank Chamberlain in The Financial Post.

But in fact it reveals that the church people of Canada aren't straining themselves — by any means.

Three centuries ago the churches could count on one-twenty-sixth of the national income (then, the harvest) for an operating fund. That was the tithe the early Catholic settlers paid into parish treasuries.

The $120-$125 millions Protestants and Catholics together contribute today amounts to little more than 1% of total personal incomes in Canada.

As part of our average spending pattern the church gets well down the list.

We spend six or seven times as much ($1,037 millions) on tobacco, alcohol and beverages.

We spend nearly three times as much on the combined services of the doctor and the undertaker.

"Our spending on church rates alongside what we spend on personal attire, what we spend on drugs and cosmetics or what it costs us in soap and cleaning supplies.

OO IT ALONE

There are good prospects of an announcement that Canada is going to go ahead alone on the St. Lawrence power and seaway project, reports The Financial Post. The way would be cleared by an executive order from President Truman permitting New York state to co-operate in development of power.

Seagram TELLS THE WORLD ABOUT Canada

This advertisement was designed by The House of Seagram to tell the people of other lands about Canada and things exclusively Canadian.

Most people in Latin America, Asia, Europe and other parts of the world are not fully aware of the richness of Canada's natural resources, wild life, scenic beauty and cultural traditions. The more the peoples of other lands know about our country, the greater will be their interest in Canada and Canadian products.

"Merrie" Mercer Married At Mannville

McGREEVEY—MERCER

MANNVILLE — Autumn flowers decorated Christ church here for the marriage of Miss Hazel Mercer (Merrie) Mercer and Mr. Stanley McGreevey which took place recently.

Canon T. W. Taupe performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Raymond Conner.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mercer of Mannville. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McGreevey of Edmonton.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white nylon net over satin fashioned with a lace bodice and sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiara of pearls and she carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Mrs. G. Arnold attended her sister as matron of honor and the Misses Barbara Arnold and Doreen McGreevey were bridesmaids. Little Miss Gail Mercer was flower girl and Master Kenny Mercer was ring bearer.

The senior attendants wore gowns of mauve and green, respectively, and the flower girls wore yellow frocks with matching pokie bonnets.

Mr. Maurice Mercer was best man. Ushers were ushered by Mr. William Mercer and Mr. Jack Cuxford.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. H. Arnold, aunt of the bride. During the signing of the register Mrs. R. Lagg sang 'O Perfect Love.'

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mercer chose a gray silk galardine dress trimmed with black velvet.

Following the ceremony a reception for about 100 guests was held in the Orange hall.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered cake iced by tall pink and white candles and vases of pink and white sweet peas.

Mr. C. H. Croft proposed the toast to the bride.

Mrs. H. Arnold and Mrs. R. H. Scott poured tea and serving the guests were Mrs K. McCauley, Mrs. L. McDonald, Mrs. T. Rook and the Misses Marjory Amdam, Joyce Comrie, Carol Mercer, Merilyn Mercer and Betty Proudfoot.

Following a short honeymoon the newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton.

For travelling the bride donned a blue galardine suit with rust accessories and yellow roses en corsage.

Alberta Lake and Creek Named After War Heroes

A lake and a creek in Alberta have been named after two war heroes from the province, the Geographical Board of Alberta has announced.

Wood Lake, 2½ miles southeast of Grande Prairie, has been named after the late WO 1 James Deans Wood, D.C.M., a member of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry who died in Korea on Jan 18, 1951. Warrant Officer Wood won the D.C.M. for securing a bridgehead across the River Savio in Italy during October 1944. He is the first Canadian casualty in Korea to be commemorated by an Alberta place name. WO Wood was born in Raymond and is survived by his widow Mrs. Mary Wood, of Calgary.

Culp Soun Creek, two miles north of the ...gaway between Wembley and Beaverlodge has been named in honor of the late Pfc. L. L. Colquhoun, M.I.D., an Edmonton R.C.A.F. pilot reported missing Aug. 18, 1943. Pfc. Colquhoun was the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Colquhoun, Edmonton.

T. B. CLINIC IN VERMILION OCTOBER 2 TO 6

Plans have now been finalized for the accommodation of the T.B. clinic in Vermilion. The committee in charge have been working hard to bring the clinic and were forced to change the dates twice. Those dates were originally set by the amount demand for this free service which is made possible through the sale of TB sales and Christmas Seal and other donations. The response the Vermilion area has been quite with the total already three are better than 3/4 names of those for examination at the clinic.

The sponsoring committee in Vermilion is the Kinsmen Association and the members have sent appointment cards covering all who have registered. If you have not yet signed up get your name and every member of the family down. This saves delay in getting your examination.

The clinic will be here from Oct 2nd to Oct 6th, Tuesday through Saturday at the Armories.

As a maximum of 601 per day can be handled, time could run out and leave someone not examined. It is highly desirable for your own welfare that everyone take advantage of this service. Write a letter listing your name or names of your family and mail it to Mrs. Wm Crose or Mrs. M Lebsley, or call at the drug stores or Northern hardware and register at once.

The children of the Vermilion schools will be taken in class groups, so you do not need to register these but it is necessary to register pre school and post school ages.

DO IT NOW — and remember after the clinic that no news is good news. Do your part to protect yourself and others.

A taxpayer is a government worker with no sick leaves no holidays and no vacations.

Rain And The Soil

A NAVY PIONEER who has worked for twenty years on soil conservation problems for the United States government has introduced a new theory in regard to soil deterioration. This is a problem which is very familiar to the people of the prairie provinces where various measures for soil conservation have been practiced for many years. Western Canada has known serious drought and soil deterioration problems and most of the people there are aware of the effects of these conditions on the land, and the welfare of the country generally.

• • • • •

Rain May Harm Farming Land

It is interesting to learn that the American scientist, W. D. Ellison, who has devoted so much time to the study of this work, has concluded that farm land may be damaged by rain as well as by running water. Rain, he believes, should be absorbed into the ground and conserved for the use of the plants in times of drought. When rain is held on the land by grass cover, leaves, or the residue of previous crops, it is absorbed into the underground reservoirs, when the land is bare the rain runs off carrying with it valuable humus, minerals, and other essential elements of the soil. Mr Ellison estimates that two to three thousand pounds of grass per acre are needed to protect pasture land from erosion due to rain.

• • • • •

Crops Prevent Soil Drifting

He suggests that the amount of grass on pasture land could be kept to this level if fewer cattle were grazed per acre. He further suggests that on land which has silo for part of the year, wheat stubble, stocks from corn or similar residue should be left on the surface, rather than plowed under. It has long been known that land sown with grass or crops prevents soil drifting, but Mr Ellison's theory as to the need for the soil to be covered at all times in order to preserve the moisture from rainfall is a new aspect of this problem and one which will be of interest wherever there is need for soil and water conservation.

Outbreak Of Rabies In Animals Across Border

BRANDON Man.—Officials of the department of health and public welfare in Winnipeg report an outbreak of rabies in animals in Minnesota and the Dakotas. No cases have yet been reported in Manitoba, but people are asked to be on the alert.

According to the department's bulletin, all warm blooded animals are susceptible to rabies. The disease is believed to take two forms—furious rabies in which the animal has a great urge to roam and become quite ferocious, attacking and biting without provocation; and dumb or paralytic rabies in which the infected animals become ill, seeks a secluded spot, becomes paralyzed and soon dies.

In the case of domestic animals, those suspected of rabies should never be killed, but should be securely confined in a safe, cool, dry, place and provided with food and water regularly, and a veterinary surgeon or public health official should be notified immediately.

Rabies in the neighboring states has been most prevalent in dogs, cats and wild animals and particularly in skunks. The skunk population in Manitoba this year appears to be unusually high.

The bulletin emphasizes that there is no need for alarm. Manitoba has been free of rabies for many years and with early warning, effective steps taken to prevent an outbreak at this time.

This public is warned, however not to handle any animal found dead because there are various diseases which can be spread to humans in this manner.

Men's Friend

Draft Horse To Make Comeback

REGINA. — Some people may think the horse has had its day —except for racing and butcher shops—but not Hardy Salter of Calgary.

A breeder of Percherons, a heavy draft type, Salter says he'd "just as soon eat my brother or my relatives as eat horse meat."

"An horse is a man's friend," he says.

And he thinks people who believe the draft horse is headed for extinction via meat-packing plants are badly off the trail. Ordinary draft horses, well-broken to harness, brought good prices at this month's spring—a good that horse-packing plants had to raise their prices.

Sales at Stettler and Lacombe, Alta.—usually the biggest in the west—were cancelled for lack of animals.

Mr. Salter said work horses are coming back into demand. The Manitoba Province have imported a couple of caterpillar tractors in tree-cutting because the machines crush young trees.

"A horse can get in and out between the trees without breaking them down," Salter says.

He doesn't think the horse will regain its old place on the Prairips as the main source of power. But he says there is a use on every farm for three horses—a draft team and a dual-purpose horse for riding and winter driving. Horses can do innumerable farm chores much cheaper than tractors.

Mr. Salter admits interest in heavy horses has dropped, but he says he doesn't like the suggestion of some cattle breeders that prize money for horse classes at Prairie Fairs be turned over to cattle classes.

"When beef animals were selling at a cent a pound during the depression and you would get $1,000 anywhere for a good stallion, we didn't suggest that the prize money for cattle be turned over to us.

"They didn't ask us horse breeders if we were through.

"I'm not through by a long ways."

Gardiner Believes Damaged Grain Less Than 1950

OTTAWA.—Rt. Hon. J. G. Gardiner, federal minister of agriculture, recently returned from western Canada, was cautious in making any predictions about the effect of the damp weather on the value of the crop. But he believes the damage due to dampness would not be nearly as severe as had resulted from frost in 1950.

Much of the wheat had been ripe for some time but could not be threshed because it was too damp, he said.

However, he understood that wheat that had sprouted was not nearly as greatly damaged for milling purposes as wheat that had been frozen. On that basis he did not look for a repeat this year of the 1950 situation, when a large proportion of the crop was graded very low.

Wives Get Break In Price Of Roast

VANCOUVER. — It was a happy day for some price-conscious housewives here.

They got roasts of beef at 59 cents a pound when the sale price should have been 89 cents.

A mistake in a Woodwards Department Stores advertisement brought the low-priced meat.

The store closed by its bargain and sold 250 pounds at the lower price. The regular price was 97 cents a pound.

Campaign for Blind Opens Oct. 1st

W. E. Milton, executive officer for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, announced this week that the annual drive of the C.N.I.B. will open Oct. 1st. The campaign which will last one month, has an objective for Northern Alberta of $20,000. The purpose of the campaign is to obtain the funds necessary to satisfactorily maintain the service program of the C.N.I.B. during the coming year.

In announcing the campaign Mr. Milton stressed the increasing demands being put on the services and facilities of his organization and the steadily rising costs of operation. The C.N.I.B. is now serving 3,000 blind people in Northern and Central Alberta and at the same time they will not conflict with one another. Rural citizens should give direct to the C.N.I.B. while Edmonton citizens can help its work by supporting their Community Chest drive.

Dewberry News

Weather! — Who invented It? We do not see the Russian Commen. ists saying claim to it. Above the clouds is the daytime the sun is shining as maybe when the clouds have gone the silver lining will appear and the sun start to carrying on its prevention of blindness work. Its services include rehabilitation, training, home employment, employment, occupational work, home teaching, library, residence accommodation, recreation, welfare services, special concessions and personal service, and prevention of blindness. In order for these services to be maintained at their present level and in order for them to be kept available to those who depend upon the C.N.I.B. for them, the objective of the current campaign must be achieved.

Mr. Milton emphasized that the C.N.I.B. is conducting this annual appeal only in the rural districts and is not appealing directly to Edmonton citizens. In Edmonton the C.N.I.B. is a member of the Community Chest and obtains its Edmonton organization through that source. While these two campaigns will be in progress at the same time they will not conflict with one another. Rural citizens should give direct to the C.N.I.B. while Edmonton citizens can help its work by supporting their Community Chest drive.

Deer. Grandpa Young is now in his usual health and can be seen still active driving the tractor, while he and young son Bill cut the crops.

Hunters, Be Careful!

Hunters taking to the lakes and sloughs in Beaver county for duck hunting season are warned by R.C. Bishop Red Cross swimming and water safety director, that tragedy too often follows a duck hunting trips

Hunters with layers of bulky clothing and heavy boots overboard into boats with friends, guns and ammunition with no thought of water safety.

The first principle in protection is not to overload the boat. Should the boat tip over, stay with it it can be and is the best life preserver the hunter has. Secondly, the hunter who braves deep water should wear an inflatable safety vest over his clothing.

Heavy boots should be loosened so that if the hunter lands in the water they can be removed easily.

An extra oar or paddle in the boat has saved many hunters. Finally every hunter can make an economical life preserver for himself by collecting two buckets with sturdy handles and tightly fitting lids. The buckets, used as buoys, still keep the hunters head above water.

To Continue Fight Against Tuberculosis

ORGANIZE FOR XMAS SEAL SALE

Christmas Seal campaign objective for Edmonton district in Alberta is $60,000 for 1951. It was announced by V. J. Mahoney, chairman of Edmonton Kinsmen Club Christmas Seal committee.

Thousands of seals have already arrived and dozens of voluntary workers are busy, addressing envelopes, folding circulars, letters, and making all necessary preparations to send 200 Xmas seals to all householders in the district.

The 1951 Christmas seal depicts a child, red-haired Sonia Claus, and is considered one of the most attractive seals yet designed.

Deaths from tuberculosis in Alberta and in fact all over Canada are declining in a most gratifying way, but the fact that the incidence of TB is unaccountably higher than ever. There are still thousands of 'missing casualties', those cases of TB which are still undiscovered, and therefore a menace to all their contacts. Christmas Seal contributions help to find these hidden sources of infection.

Provincial objective for Alberta this year is set at $105,000, an increase of only $9000 over the 1950 first returns. Money raised will help finance new travelling through the Christmas Seal mobile units and through X-ray installations in hospitals, rehabilitation, nursing and welfare services and an extensive health education program.

Hard surfacing of Highway 16 is rapidly approaching Vermilion from the west and but for the inclement weather of this week, the first coat would have reached the town by this Saturday, being only some four miles out. The Nanuka Construction Co. are in charge of hard surfacing the highway from Stony Creek east. On the other end the government crew has commenced hard surfacing at Kenilworth school and is working eastward to join up with the hard surface at Kitscoty.

While visiting in the University hospital this week E. H. Buckingham called in on Owar Johnson of Clandonald who is receiving medical treatment there for a broken hip suffered when his tractor tipped over pinning him underneath at his farm home some two months ago. A cast will shortly be put on to support the broken pelvis bone and Owar is progressing very well.

The Misses Gladys and May Kitzinsen are leaving on Monday next via C.N.R. for Swiftcurrent where they expect to reside in the future.

Attractive Wedding At Dewberry

BOYCE—FELLOWS

On September 6th Dewberry United church was the scene of an attractive wedding when Beryl Fellows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Misiak of Mannville, became the bride of Mr. William Boyce of Dewberry, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boyce of Dewberry.

Beautiful summer garden flowers decorated the church for the ceremony performed by Rev. Mr. Sneddon of Marwayne.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor-length dress of net and lace over satin with a low neckline and short sleeve bolero. She wore a gold set of ear rings and necklace, a gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Miss Gladys Boyce, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, wore a floor-length dress of mauve sheer with sweetheart neckline and matching halo. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Miss Sherry Fellows of Edmonton as bridesmaid wore a floor-length dress of pink sheer with short sleeves and matching halo.

Flower girl for the ceremony was the small daughter of the bride, Shirley Fellows, in a floor-length taffeta dress with matching halo.

Chester Misiak, brother of the bride, attended as best man and ushering were Messrs. Reginald Boyce and John Misiak. The Misses Bernice Romanchuk and Evelyn Parker sang the wedding hymns and Mrs. Joe Braithwaite played the church organ.

A well attended reception was held at the home of the bride's parents to a host of friends. The large wedding cake and decorated angel food cakes were made by Mrs. George Connor for reception.

A wedding dance was held in the evening and a very large crowd attended. Very many gifts were received some very nice pieces of furniture as gifts from the community friends.

Mr. Boyce fittingly expressed his thanks for congratulations received and stated in a very blushing way that it was the happiest moment of his life.

The young couple left for a trip to Banff and Jasper and will be back in Dewberry shortly.

Many interesting parts of the day's ceremony were photographed by Bob Carmichael of Vermilion.

Out of town guests included Mrs. E. B Fellows and Mrs. Rose Fellows of Edmonton.

The 1832-mile natural gas pipeline from Texas to New York will carry 225 billion cubic feet of gas each day.

Farmers Contributing Grain To Help Crippled Children

First general contribution of grain in answer to the appeal to help Alberta's Red Cross Crippled Children's hospital has been made by C. R. Skibsted of Hubalta.

Mr. Skibsted contributed 20 bus. of grain to the hospital.

With the provincial quota still over $40,000 below the needed $250,000 this year, Alberta Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society has made a special appeal to farmers asking them to contribute grain to the hospital. This method of raising the quota was devised as last frost and blizzards prevented canvassing rural people in many areas during the annual March campaign.

The National quota set for Alberta this year was $370,000 with an extra $100,000 added for the support of the Crippled Children's hospital. All money from the grain appeal will be used for the hospital.

The appeal for grain is being supported by all grain companies in the province with the local elevator agents making out the cash tickets to Red Cross for the amount of the contribution. Slogan for the appeal is 'Give a happy ending to the story of a crippled child'.

True Pioneer Celebrates His 80th Birthday

A true pioneer of the west and of this area, Harry Elliott observed his 80th birthday on Wednesday. Mr. Elliott was born at Toronto, Ont., on Sept. 26th, 1871. He came west in 1904 where he started a store before the advent of the railroad at Islay. In 1907 he returned east to marry Charlotte Eliza Purser, coming back to Islay and continuing the operation of his general store. They lived in the village for several years then decided to farm, settling south of Islay in the Vanesti district. This was the family home until 1939 when the educational facilities of Vermilion lured them here where they have since made their home. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott live in a comfortable fully modern home in the west end of town, and their three daughters, all married also live in Vermilion, Marjorie (Mrs. Tom Stark), Lottie (Mrs. Rex Urquhart) and Lillian (Mrs. Doug Cooper). They have four grandchildren.

Known by his wide circle of friends as a man with an exceptionally cheerful disposition, with a great sense of humor and dearly loving a joke, 'Harry' still retains those characteristics, although he thinks he is slowing up a little on the reparee.

On Wednesday evening, the occasion of his 80th birthday, Harry was at home at the residence of his daughter Mrs. K. G. Urquhart and Mr. Urquhart, when a great many friends from town and district called to tender their felicitations and best wishes.

DREAM OF YEARS TO BECOME REALITY

Provincial Park Planned For Vermilion River Valley

For many years people in the town and district have visualized a lake stretching across the Vermilion River valley and extending for several miles east and west. Many times in the past twenty years efforts have been made to interest officials of the government and other organizations in building a dam and thus creating an artificial lake around which would be built up park and recreational area serving a part of the province in which such facilities are all too scarce. The efforts were extended to no avail.

One year ago a new factor entered the picture when Canadian Utilities, Ltd., announced a large supply of water for cooling purposes in their 10,000 h.p. steam electric plant here, stated that they were interested in building a dam if some government help could be secured.

This gave renewed hope and for months past every eagle has been watched by an energetic board of trade committee, actively supported by town and municipal councils, by W. R. Cornish, M.L.A. and rural organizations.

The Parks Department of the Provincial Government became interested as well as Ducks Unlimited and the P.F.R.A., whose territory does not yet extend quite this far. Detailed surveys were carried out by engineers, the need for a provincial park in this portion of the province was recognized.

To make a long but pleasant story short, Board of Trade and town officials received word on Tuesday, unofficial as yet, that a new provincial park would be created in the Vermilion River valley, and that a dam will be built just below the town creating an artificial lake.

There are of course no detailed plans as yet but officials of the Parks Branch visited here on numerous occasions during the summer. They visualized spots for several bathing beaches, the valley itself nearly lending itself beautifully to this purpose. Picnic grounds and camp kitchens; areas for summer cottages; for lake side drives and for pathways. The park would undoubtedly be developed along the lines of the Federal government's Elk Island park.

The dam proposed by the P.F.R.A. engineers would raise the water ten feet above the ground level of the floor of the valley. This would mean a lake about twice that much where the river channel now is. The area that would be flooded is narrow, and the water would be backed up approximately six miles. The Standard will carry details of this interesting and desirable development as they become available.

In Vermilion River Municipal District

Mammoth Program for Control Of Animal Diseases Started

What is believed to be the biggest program for the control of animal diseases ever attempted in Canada by a municipality was launched last week in the Municipal District of Vermilion River. Dr. A. R. Anderson and Dr. Spencer and Dr. Wilson of Lloydminster have commenced to vaccinate all cattle against contagious abortion) the more than 10,000 heifer calves in this area. It will take about six weeks before carefully two months to do the job.

Organizers have been appointed for each district and a group of workers will be informed of the day and time that the veterinarians are to arrive. Only twenty minutes on the average is allowed at each farm. In cases where the owner cannot possibly be home the calves will be left in the barn so that the veterinarians will not be delayed.

RANCH MUST GO

After years of the voluntary vaccination plan the Agricultural Service Board of the municipality decreed it advisable to make it compulsory for all heifer calves to be vaccinated. Before a compulsory vaccination area can be set up by the livestock diseases act, it is required that a petition must be signed by two-thirds of the cattle owners in the district requesting that such an area be established. The count showed that 1683 cattle owners had signed which was more than enough.

The disease has become prevalent over the past few years, it was found that 15% were re-actors. The disease spreads when the herd contains re-actors every year. Some farmers have reported the loss of their whole calf crop from abortion. After a few years of calfhood vaccinations a herd of cattle is built up which is immune to the disease.

The program will reduce danger of humans contracting undulant fever. People drinking milk from Bang's infected cows are likely to get the dreaded undulant fever disease.

TIMELY PROGRAM

The Agricultural Service Board of Vermilion River is headed by George Lawrence. The other board members are Fred Braithwaite, Roger Watt, Henry Haan and District Agriculturists E. H. Buckingham. The Bang's control area is only one of the many programs this board has initiated for the benefit of the ratepayers. The T.B. free area is also set up and waiting for government veterinarians to do the testing. These two projects should make a big contribution to animal health in this municipality.

Decision Reserved On Municipal Building By-law Case

Perhaps the largest array of legal talent to appear in court here concentrating on any one case came before His Honor Judge Meisner in District court on Monday on the application made by Frederick Elkins to have a by-law passed by the Council of the Vermilion River Municipal district to borrow $30,000 for the purpose of erecting a municipal office building. J. D. Ross, K.C. and F. J. Richardson represented Mr. Elkins, and V. L. Miner, K.C. James McCorry and Wm. G. Morrison, K.C. the municipality.

After hearing the evidence and arguments His Honor said he had to say His Honor said it appeared to him that generally the matter was one of law and the interpretation of the statutes, and he therefore asked Mr. Ashton and Mr. Milner to submit written arguments by the 17th of October and he would then render his judgement. Adjournment of the hearing was accordingly taken.

The court room was crowded with spectators who followed the proceedings with intense interest.

East'n Alberta High School Meet Held Saturday

V. H. S. Retains School Trophy

Postponed due to the inclement weather from the previous Saturday, the Eastern Alberta High School track meet was held here Saturday Sept. 29th under ideal conditions. The previous two weeks were ended with some snow and this deterred many athletes from competing due to lack of proper training. Thus it was that just Vermilion and Lloydminster athletes took part and these boys and girls gave a very fine display, in the perfectly arranged and managed meet.

The grand aggregate cup presented to the school amassing the greatest number of points again went to Vermilion high school with 203 points. Lloydminster totalled 155 points and were right in the running until the last moments of the meet. The grand aggregate cup is presented by the Vermilion Amateur Athletic Association who sponsor the meet.

Individual Cup Winners

Competitors are divided into four classes and the boy or girl winning the most points in each class is presented with a fine individual trophy which becomes his or her property.

Winners of these trophies this year are:

JUNIOR GIRLS — 15 years and under—Kay Dawson, Vermilion, 13 points. Running Broad Jump (11'1") was Hazel Barr, Vermilion, with 11 points. Cup donated by the Stag-ette club.

JUNIOR BOYS, 13 years and under—Bill Lyons, Vermilion, 12 points, second, Gordon Scott, Vermilion, 11 points. Cup donated by the Kinsmen club.

SENIOR GIRLS, 16 years and over—Thora Bertelson, Lloydminster, 25 points. Thora had a perfect score of five firsts. She won the same class one year ago. Second to her was Berna Swiffert of V.H.S. with 16 points. Cup presented by the Ladies of the Royal Purple.

Students Union Entertains Visitors At Dance and Social

In the evening the Vermilion high school students union entertained the visiting athletes at a dance and social held in the Legion hall. This was attended by many parents and students from the Lloydminster, Wainwright, Mannville and Vermilion high schools.

During the evening the individual cups were presented as well as the school cup. Mr. Bill Sutherland, president of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic Association, proffered his sincere thanks to the special committee of Carman Long, Jim Bell and E. M. Stewart who were responsible for arranging the event as well as to the many who helped during the actual day. Mr. Walker, V.A.A.A. secretary gave some interesting figures and facts relative to the sport meet. Those presenting the individual cups were Miss Dorothy McCormick on behalf of Gus Stagetes, Mrs. Stan Waldenberger and Mrs. Wm. Bell for the Ladies of the Royal Purple, Ron Payment, president of the Kinsmen and Vic Tillett representing the Canadian Legion Post 11

Music for dancing was rendered by the Imperial Orchestra added by the Inman Brothers, under the direction of Mr. Jim Bell. Lunch was served and between dances representatives of schools presented including Lloydminster, Wainwright and Mannville, speaking over the public address system, thanked all for the very fine time enjoyed. Tom Acheson, president of the V.H.S. Students' Union replied.

Judging from opinions expressed, given good weather the inter-high school meet next fall should really come into its own.

Husky Company Uses Local Air Field

During the wet weather last week three planes carrying officials of the Husky Oil and Refining Co. from across the line to inspect their holdings at Lloydminster, landed here and made good use of the local air field from Thursday through to Saturday. The officials were met here by cars and motored to the Border town, the landing strip there suffering from the wet snowfall of the week.

News Reel in the News

The Columbia theatre news reels are really in the news this week. The Columbia has been receiving these news reels regularly every week for the past 34 years, but last week, the reel failed to arrive: It could no, be traced, so Columbia patrons went without their news reel. The Pilkies say, 'don't worry it won't occur for another 34 years and we'll be on guard against a recurrence then.

Plenty of Big Potatoes

There are plenty of big potatoes this year and those in the garden of Jack Hobbis are no exception. Jack turned out a part of one hill and the first four spuds he picked up weighed 2½, 3, 2 and 1¾ pounds. These are of the Pontiac variety and Jack says that he has a limited amount for seed should anyone be interested.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks for the help, kindness and sympathy received during our recent sudden bereavement, to the pall bearers, to the Rev. Mr. McKay and to Mr. Roy Jory, Mr. Cecil Gannon and Mr. Don Logan who kindly loaned their cars and for the beautiful floral tributes and memorial donations.

ISLAY NEWS

This has been fine weather and harvesting is being pushed, every man available is out and at it. Mr. Ray Sr. riding the binder at Mr. Purvis'. Mr. McEachern at Bill Shaw's, Walter McCaughan at Joe Heslip's. Mrs. Kowalski riding the binder on their own farm, Mr. Fyfe at Charlie Robertson's and I suppose many youngsters and oldsters whom we have not seen, are helping too.

Harry Armstrong, agent at the Alberta Pacific elevator has resigned and is moving his family this Thursday to Wetaskiwin. It is not yet known who will be the agent here of the A.P. Co. Last week one evening a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McLean when a number of the young folk gathered and presented the Armstrongs with an electric alarm clock.

Yes, we hope to have a chicken supper in Islay, but how to work in a date is the sticker, there are so many suppers this month of October. We hope to decide on Thursday at the W.A. meeting.

The Community Association has purchased six fire extinguishers and have had them posted one at each of the following points so that they can be easily obtained: the church, Mr. McEachern's house, the pumphouse on the street, Bill McLean's house, H. G. Young's and Jack McNeely's house. One of the extinguishers has been used already at Armand Ouelette's house. A spark flew into the paper on the wall of the kitchen and smouldered away —making a big smoke, so Armand ran to the pump house got the extinguisher and soon made sure the smoke was at an end.

Woodvale News

The weather is of course the main topic of conversation these days—especially what October might bring us. on that depends how much of a very heavy crop will be harvested safely this year. That it might bring a real long spell of Indian summer and extra weeks of dry weather to follow is everyone's wish at present. Almost no threshing has been done in these parts and only a few fields were contained in September, while numbers of acres are still uncut. It looks to us that we have had more rain and snow in the Berries than area Vermilion. A splendid potato crop was dug and stored away safely during the last week or so.

Our supervisor at Woodvale school is Miss Leverett of Edmonton who presides over a class of four boys. She spends a week in the lonely teacherage on days now with Mrs. Gordon Dixon and she is a frequent week end guest at the home of Mr and Mrs. Wes Isley.

David Wilson, formerly of Thorncliffe, who lives with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilson in Edmonton now, is visiting his boyhood chums here, having come back to give a helping hand with the harvest.

Jowsey Lysons has been home on harvest leave at his mother's place where his wife and boys have been staying for the past few weeks. Walter Lysons was back in the hospital for a few days last month and having to take things easy for a while longer, is clerking at the Leland store at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Mayo of Innisfail spent a week at the home of their former neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Cecil King. On their return Mrs. King accompanied them as far as Edmonton for a visit with her daughter Joy in her new apartment.

We just heard that Brooks Lysons has returned to farm note. He will live at their place in Thorncliffe and also help to run his mother's farm. Welcome back Brooks. Peg, Art and Jimmy.

Dairymen Make Plans For Annual Convention

Plans for the next annual dairy convention, to be held in the Macdonald hotel on Feb. 5, 6 and 7, were discussed when directors of the Alberta Dairymen's Association met recently in Red Deer.

D. H. McCallum chairman of the program committee, reports that attempts are being made to secure outstanding speakers in both the production and manufacturing fields.

Mr. McCallum also advises that the Association will again pay expenses of a representative from each Dairy Calf Club in the northern part of the province. These represent tives are selected on basis of outstanding achievement in club work during the year.

Dairy Farmers Sponsor New Radio Program

'Down Dairy Food Lane', a new musical program sponsored by the Dairy Farmers of Canada, made its debut on Oct. 4th over 39 stations of the CBC's Trans Canada network. The program features Wally Koster, brilliant young baritone; The Dairy-maids, a girls' trio; and Russ Gerow and his Dairy Lane Five, with Florence Lacy at the piano. Once each month, Marie Fraser, food editor of the Dairy Foods Service bureau, will visit the show to give listeners some of the Bureau's popular dairy food recipes. Commencing with the second broadcast, announcer Bessey will read some of the notes from Miss Notebook, which is a record of some of his observations made during visits to dairy farms and dairy institutions.

BLACKLEG REPORTED

Once again I have heard of cattle dying of Blackleg. There is no excuse for losses from this disease. Protect your calves by using vaccine which can be bought in every drug store. The day-by Blackleg germs are all around. Calves two weeks old can be vaccinated. If done when quite young they should be vaccinated again at about six months. Cattle over two years old seldom contact Blackleg.

LOTS OF EGGS

Pullets should be settled in winter quarters and laying well by this time. Poultry raisers are adopting many new ideas which increase egg production and maintain the health of the birds. Do you use deep litter and community nests? Do you feed a balanced laying mash? Do you cull birds monthly or oftener? Get circulars on 'Winter Management of Poultry Flocks' from my office.

STORAGE OF GLADS

If Gladiolus have not already been dug it would be safest to do it soon. The bulbs must not of course freeze or they will rot. When digging cut the stem close to the corm (bulb). Allow to dry in trays, putting outside on sunny days. After two weeks the old bulbs and the remaining tops can be broken off easily. Treat with DDT dust or other insecticide and store in trays in a cool place, about 40 to 50 degrees is ideal.

DAHLIA BULBS

Dahlia bulbs must not freeze or they will rot. Dig as soon as the leaves and stalks freeze. Shake off some of the earth and allow to dry in the sun for a few hours. Store in a cool, dry shed or better still in a cool basement. The roots can be divided in the spring, being sure that at least one eye is left in each division. The eyes are found where the root and stalk join.

LARD TYPE HOGS

After many years of preaching and bringing in good stock, this district has about cleaned out all the 'fat' ear pigs. Grades are as high as any place in Alberta. Now, we have a few people who have brought in Durocs and Chester Whites. I do not hesitate to say we do not want these breeds here. Their value for crossing on Yorks is greatly over-estimated and is not proving out.

FEEDING SUPPLEMENTS

Everyone now feeds oyster shell to laying hens and salt to all classes of stock. Other minerals are also short in farm feeds. A phosphorous calcium mixture is necessary for the health and thrift of all classes of growing, fattening and milking stock. Protein supplements also are proving to be money savers in feeding livestock.

E. H. Buckingham, D.A

Allandale Notes

We're grateful for the sunny and warm weather after a sample of winter which before long we will be getting. The thermometer was down to 32 above. Gardens which were not taken in were covered with a blanket as snow which prevented too much frost damage. Harvest operations will continue this week and we sincerely hope all will be taken care of before winter sets in for good.

The middle of September Mr. and Mrs. Selbie Lee and family were visitors to the city.

Around the first of September Mr. and Mrs. Herb McPhee and family moved to their new location on the Edwards' farm. Leonard, Myrtle and Irene are attending school. Their new house is being completed and will be an added attraction to the farm.

Our last church service was held at Clandonald Sept. 23rd, a Thanksgiving service. Mr. MacIlmoyle left a very inspiring message with a large congregation. Mr. and Mrs. MacMahon left the next morning on the C.P.R. for the city, then to Calgary and to Banff and the Rockies before departing home to Halifax.

We just had word that the Manawaya minister is holding services at Deer Lake school at 3:00 p.m. on Sept. 30th and will be every two weeks. A good chance for Allandale folk to have church service not too far away from home.

We noticed the Gourlay family have a new 9-ton Ford truck.

Very pleased to note that Oscar Johnson is coming on slightly after a kindly deed for you to rail on him Mr. Borkingham, also the boys from Clandonald. It wasn't right visiting hours and you couldn't get to see him.

Glad to hear that Mr. Baldock was able to come home last week end. Our sincere wish for a steady improvement in health.

An interesting afternoon was spent at the United church hall on Sept. 27th when the W.A. rally was held for this Presbytery. Mrs. H. Penner of Mannville was a very capable leader. A number of W.A.'s were present. This enables us to learn more of the work that is being carried on by the ladies, to make new acquaintances and to renew the old with a former Christian fellowship. That afternoon I was so glad to meet Miss Isobel Maitland from Stony Creek, I believe it was. In 1936 she finished the year teaching in Allandale. We'll go on

One Egg Chocolate Cake

Mrs. Ronald Otto from Viking sent in this quick and easy recipe for a one egg chocolate cake —

1 cup sugar; butter the size of a large egg; one-third cup cocoa with enough hot water to make a paste; 1 egg, two-thirds cup sour milk or buttermilk; 1 tea. soda added to milk and mixed, 1 tea. vanilla; 1½ cups flour, dash of salt.

Mix in order given. Bake about 30 minutes in a moderate oven. Good fresh with whipped cream for dessert or with your favorite icing. Mmm! I'm hungry just thinking about it. Thank you Mrs. Otto.

To Make Your Washing and Ironing Easier

Here are a few tips. You've probably thought of several others too during the week: A laundry corner or room with sprinkler near at hand, with tubs, machine and the ironing board at proper height and in good condition helps to ease washing and ironing.

Hanging: Shake, then hang at sigh. without wrinkles. Flat pieces should be folded 3 to 5 inches over the line to prevent bagging. Folding clothes when they are removed from the line will reduce ironing time.

Ironing: Don't make wrinkles by rolling sprinkled clothes too tightly. Cover them to keep them damp. Use a clothes hanger and a dry rack for bruner clothes. A mending kit kept handy will speed up repairs. Sit to iron or stand on a mat.

I like this saying by H. Amiel: "What we do not understand we have no right to judge."

Have you seen the numerous wild rose bushes in bloom? Or some of the numerous berries? And, aren't the trees gaudy and beautiful now?

F.U.A. Holds Important Executive Meeting

PLANS MADE FOR ANNUAL CONVENTION

A meeting of the F.U.A. executive was held in Edmonton on Sept. 21 and 22.

A full report of the recent interprovincial delegation to Ottawa was given by President Young. The question of alternative delivery points for farmers in areas where elevators are congested was discussed. It was decided to endorse the request made by the Saskatchewan Farmers' Union, that farmers be given the right to deliver at additional points in such areas.

Arrangements for the Annual convention were considered, and the program tentatively arranged. It is expected that J. L. Phelps, President of the Saskatchewan Union and Hon. J. G. Gardiner, federal minister of agriculture will be the main guest speakers.

The material for the proposed F.U.A. program booklet was reviewed by the executive and the president was authorized to have some printed in booklet form.

Plans for the coming membership drive were discussed at some length and will be communicated to the district boards at an early date. It is intended that the drive shall start just as soon as harvest is over.

The attitude of the provincial government towards the Coarse Grain Marketing Act was discussed and it was decided to endorse the protest made by the Alberta Federation of Agriculture in this connection.

Arrangements were made to have proposed constitutional amendments and other important resolutions, intended for the convention, sent out to all locals as soon as possible.

After dealing with correspondence and much miscellaneous business, the executive adjourned at noon on the 25th.

At a meeting of the standing resolution committee of the F.U.A., held on the same date, under the chairmanship of R. N. Russell of Athabaska, resolutions received during the year were classified and consolidated for presentation to the annual convention.

Drivers Tests To Be Introduced in Alberta

The provincial government has no altered its policy to introduce drivers' tests. A definite statement to this effect was made recently by Premier Manning.

The government has no definite date in mind for the new system to be be established. At the last session of the legislature, it was hoped that some form of tests would be in operation during the current year.

It appears that the present plan envisions tests for those who have been convicted of certain traffic offences.

The Alberta Motor Association has on several occasions passed resolutions urging that adequate and efficient tests be required of those making application for drivers' licenses for the first time.

Statistic have shown that a great percentage of motor accidents involve drivers in the youth age category. This also has been borne out by studies made by automobile insurance firms which raised the cost of insurance in certain youth age groups.

Also, it has been pointed out that in other provinces and in various states, comprehensive tests of drivers are carried out, with a resultant reduction in motor accidents.

RECORD GRAPE CROP

There's such a big grape crop in Ontario this year that growers are wondering what to do, says The Financial Post. Arrangements have been made to put a large percentage into wine but there is still be about 20,000 tons of extra high quality fruit in excess of the usual market requirements.

A Chinese radish may weigh as much as 30 pounds.

Paradise Valley

Well, how do you like it? The weather we mean. During the past week we have had everything that the weather man could throw at us, rain, snow and almost zero temperature. Most people still have their spuds and all garden stuff in their gardens. The farmers have very little of the crop harvested, a few have combined part of their wheat but the percentage is very small. Just how much damage has been done is hard to tell at the present time, but it will be plenty. What a life this farming is anyway.

Mr. and Mrs. William Teasdale and Mr. and Mrs. J. Rain of B. C. returned to the district last week. Mr. and Mrs. Raine for a short visit, they were former residents of the district but have made B.C. their home for several years now.

Mrs. E. P. Olsen, Howard and Jack of Wetaskiwin and Mrs. H. Hite, Patsy and Judy also of Wetaskiwin have been visiting with relatives in the town and district during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woyevitka of Irma have taken over the barber shop and pool room and are busy fixing up the tables and getting thing. in shape.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forslund of Edmonton have purchased the Needs Lunch and moved in on Friday. Mr. Forslund is remodelling the cafe part before he opens for business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hawkes of Lloydminster have moved into the Goodwin house as Mr Hawkes has purchased the Paradise theatre and will take over on Monday. Mr and Mrs. W. Risk will soon be leaving for B.C. where Mr. Risk will operate a theatre on Vancouver Island.

Mr William Swetlak left on Saturday for Calgary where he will attend the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art for the coming season. Bill will be greatly missed in the P.V. high school this year especially in the art department as he was always to be depended on to help out.

Mrs. M Hoskins Mrs. W. A. Green and Miss Shirley Glenn were business visitors to Edmonton the first part of the week

Fire Prevention on The Farm

The majority of farm fires are due to seven causes - all largely preventable. They are

1. LIGHTNING—Urge the protection of all buildings with proper lightning rod equipment. Livestock can be protected by grounding at intervals all wire fences enclosing pastures or yards.

2. CHIMNEYS and Defective Heating Apparatus—Persuade farmers to inspect all chimneys, to rebuild defective ones and see that all heating apparatus is properly installed and that chimneys, flues, stoves, etc. are kept clean. Stoves should be on substantial bases well away from flimsy woodwork and walls. Smoke pipes should be short and well away from combustible materials. Ashes should be put in metal cans.

3. MATCHES & SMOKING - If farm premises are kept clean and tidy there is less danger that a discarded cigarette or match may start a fire. Allow no smoking in barns

4. WOODEN ROOFS - Speak on wooden shingle roofs from burning chimneys, locomotives, forest or other fires (often at considerable). Fire may cause complete loss often. Urge the use of fireproof roofing.

5. Spontaneous Ignition - Hay or grain should not be stored in barns unless hay or other roughage is thoroughly cured before stacking in barns. Large piles of hay or manure in stables or barns. Oily rags in buildings are another hazard.

6. GASOLINE & KEROSENE - Every farm should have storage facilities for storage and handling of flammable materials. Danger of gasoline for home dry cleaning or kerosene for starting fires should be stressed.

7. ELECTRICITY - All wiring and electric devices should be properly installed. Worn insulation is a common danger.

Every farm should be equipped with first aid fire appliances such as chemical extinguishers, pump tank and water pails.

Farm Labour

RECENT SHORTAGES of farm labour in Canada have created serious problems in many parts of the country and have in some cases caused farmers to curtail production. This in turn, affects the country as a whole, when resultant shortages are felt in the domestic market. Although the use of farm machinery has increased enormously in recent years, there are still many tasks which require manual labour and the farmer cannot free himself from the problem of securing outside help in his work. The situation is more serious in some parts of the country than in others, and some types of farming require more manual work than others, but the problem of help for farm work has been felt in almost every part of Canada in the last ten years.

• • • • •

Are Attracted To Industry

The calling up of men for the armed services at the beginning of the last war and the need for workers in war industries first created farm labour shortages, and activity in Canadian industry since the war has continued to absorb many workers who would otherwise have been available to farmers. The bringing of farm workers from other countries has proven to be only a temporary relief to the problem, since they tend to seek work in the cities when they have completed the one year which they are required to spend on the farm.

• • • • •

Unlikely To Be Plentiful

It is apparent that workers are attracted from the farms to other industries and that if the problem of keeping sufficient labour available for farm work is to be solved, ways must be found to make it more attractive to them. Such matters as wage levels, accident and sickness insurance, pensions, regular hours and other considerations no doubt contribute to the fact that many labourers prefer to go to large industrial plants rather than to stay on the farm. Farming is one of Canada's foremost industries, but it would take considerable planning for farms to compete with industrial plants in providing benefits for labour. However, as long as there is no lack of wage in other industries, farm labourers are unlikely to be plentiful in Canada.

STEER WEIGHS 2,450; BRINGS $441.50

A whopping roan steer, age between seven and 17 years, weighed in at 2,450 pounds at an Edmonton packing plant recently and brought his seller $441.50. He sold for 27 cents a pound.

Dressing out at 59 per cent., the big steer yielded 1,445 pounds of beef.

Marketing Service, Canada Department of Agriculture, reporting the sale, said the steer was raised by a hermit living west of Pigeon Lake, Alta., toward the foothills.

The big roan had been used as an ox and lack of yoke calluses indicated that he had been worked single with a Dutch collar.

IN YUKON COUNTRY

Attempting To Introduce Herd Of Elk

CALGARY.—A former Calgarian is attempting to introduce a herd of elk into the Yukon—hundreds of miles further north than they have ever been known to exist.

He is Thern Kjar, game commissioner of the Yukon at Whitehorse.

The elk were loaded on trucks at the Banff national sanctuary near Edmonton for the 1,700-mile trip. Mr. Kjar believes the trip will be the longest distance game animals have ever been transported by truck.

Two drivers in each of two trucks are driving continuously to cut down travelling time so that the animals will be in good condition when they reach their new range.

They will be released in Stutchi Valley, a wide valley near Brochure lake—90 miles northwest of Whitehorse, Y.T.

"We are convinced that elk can survive in the Yukon," Mr. Kjar said.

A big education job has started for game men in the Whitehorse area. Mr. Kjar said they must convince the Indians that if elk are left alone for a time, the herd will increase in number—and provide adequate hunting to replace decreased moose herds.

The herd includes 15 cows and five bulls, all fully mature, but young animals.

Victoria Girls Cross Rockies On Horseback

VICTORIA, B.C. — Two Victoria girls duplicated the feats of British Columbia's pioneer settlers recently and rode two horses across the Rockies.

So the girls went back to Red Deer and made the nine-week trip back to Victoria.

As in the days of the pioneers the horses had to live off the country.

"Our feed grain was already fully loaded so we couldn't carry a 10-pound sack of oats and it's difficult to buy less than that," they explained.

Sisters Married in Double Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacMillan of Clandonald (left), and Mr. and Mrs. G. Alan Mills of Redwater who were married recently in a double wedding ceremony at St. Norbert's Catholic church at Millet, Alta.

MacMillan is the former Helen Crough who last year was a member of the teaching staff in Vermilion and Mrs. Mills is her sister, Nora Crough. The brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Crough of Millet, Alberta.

Ethelwyn News

A heavy snow fall the morning of Sept. 25th put a stop to the already late harvest conditions. Threshing has started in some areas while there are still many acres of grain to be cut. The writer cannot help but wonder if the earlier date of last fall is to be repeated. Much garden product was buried under the snow also.

On Sept. 18th the Rev. MacKay conducted the Communion and Baptisma' service at the Clandonald United church. Everyone hopes that Mr. MacKay will be out again in the very near future. On Sept. 23rd Mr. MacMahon preached his farewell sermon. The well decorated church proved that we have much for which to be thankful. It was pleasing to see people from Allandale and Vermilion at the service. Mrs. Hill kindly played the organ. Everyone enjoyed the solo by Mrs. Baldock 'The Old Rugged Cross'. A pleasant social hour was enjoyed after the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Don MacMahon left the morning following the service for Halifax where the former will return to college. Although only here for a short time this young couple will be greatly missed from the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Mahon with their infant daughters conducted the two weeks of summer school in the district. These classes were so well enjoyed by the children that a young peoples group has been formed in Clandonald with Audrey Hartle as president. Joyce Bardley secretary and Marion White treasurer. Meetings were held once a week all summer. The children did some very worthwhile leathercraft with Mr. MacMahon as instructor. Mrs. Peck has very kindly offered to assist the young people by having the meetings in her home each Friday evening.

Four ladies from the Clandonald W.A. attended the W.A. rally in Vermilion on Sept. 27th. This meeting was an inspiration to all and gave us a better understanding of what we are working for. Over one half of the Clandonald ladies the writer would like to thank the Vermilion W.A. for their kindness and hospitality.

The writer has been sick for several weeks so the following item is rather old, but nevertheless interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen enjoyed a wonderful holiday this summer. Their first visit was at Calgary to visit daughter Alberta and family. While there a visit was made to Banff, then on to Minnesota by bus to Mrs. Allen's birthplace. An interesting feature here was a call made to the farm which was homesteaded in 1889 by Mrs. Allen's grandfather. The farm has only changed owners once during this long time. The house and barn built 102 years ago were still in use. The house has been modernized while the barn has been moved somewhat from its original site, otherwise was just as sound and weatherproof as when built. It was made of hand hewn oak timbers with wooden pegs in place of nails throughout. Visits were also made in Dakota, Montana and Wyoming. then on to Detroit to visit Mr. Allen's parents. The next stop was Peterborough, Ontario, Mr. Allen's birthplace. The old home districts in both the States and Canada had changed beyond recognition. The roads, almost impassable for years, had been made over, all paved now. The travellers arrived home late in August ready to start harvest and learned that their daughter Beatrice and family were guests of daughter Mrs. George Butz and family. Plans were made at once to return to Hay River that afternoon with the visitors by car. Following a short stay in the north country Mr and Mrs Allen are home again busy with harvest operations. Our Mr. MacMahon, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Hill booked after the farm.

Mr. and Mrs Frank Long enjoyed a surprise visit this summer from Long farmer's brother and family. Mr and Mrs. Charles Owen of Olds. The children all enjoyed their visit. Large poppies such as Mrs. Long grows as they took home seed home with them to try. Also a sample of our white sugar to show to their friends. Our sugar is very coarse compared with theirs.

Wildmere Winks

Mrs. Thos. Miller was called back to Vancouver last Tuesday night when her husband took a sudden turn for the worse. She was fortunate to get a plane from Edmonton and was home by noon on Wednesday. Mr. Miller knows her but he is very weak. We are all sorry her holiday was cut so short but maybe she can see how busy she is to come again. We all hope Mr. Miller is soon feeling much better.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mrs. Eliz Arthur of Wainwright on the loss of her mother in Edmonton a short while ago.

Mrs. Smith, Bill and Adam were city visitors over the week end when they motored to Edmonton to visit son Alex and family who have just returned from California where Alex was studying for the past year. He will lecture at the University of Alberta. The visitors returned from the city on Sunday and were accompanied by Mrs. Mary McLean. Mrs. McLean has been visiting this summer in Scotland and on her return spent a week with Mrs. Albert Matteo (nee Evelyn Howard) in New York. We hope she will be able to give us all a call before going on to her home in Vancouver.

Cliff Cruthers just finished extracting over 300 pounds of honey from three hives of bees. They are surely great workers as honey flowers were scarce this summer.

Cameron Grage may hold church service at Bazawood school on Sunday Oct 14th at 3:00 p.m.

Another of our places for a pleasant rest and chat while enjoying refreshments has disappeared as Mr Boake has taken out the counter and stools at his drug store. He now only sells ice cream, cones bricks, revels and popsicles in this line.

The writer enjoyed a nice chat on Saturday with Mrs. George Dibben, Mrs Moore, Mrs. A Hilditch Mrs R Preston, Mrs M Hurd and brother Lawrence.

We all wish Mrs. H Sweeney Sr a speedy recovery from her recent illness.

Lindy Fadden is the latest one to get a phone in. Local call is two short and three long rings. No is 222.

RIVERTON

Everyone will be in the harvest field this week if the weather keeps dry.

Mr. Ralph McGray of St. Maria Calli, a one-time resident of this district, has been renewing acquaintances here. He left on Saturday.

Those on the power line had their power cut off Saturday and it remained off until late that night. A short in transformer at Gordon Fitzpatrick's caused it to smolder.

Welfare Worker Gets First View of West

IMPRESSED BY GREAT AND PEACEFUL BEAUTY

(Woodvale News)

Miss Freudi Courrech Staal, a social welfare worker from the Netherlands, who has been living in Montreal the past four years doing the same kind of work there, saw a girlhood dream fulfilled when she spent four days at a real Western farm, being a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Wageningen. They were the only four people fall days enjoyed up to that time and it was a wonder Miss Staal felt the enchantment of the country. The Woodvale hills in full autumn colors are a beauty enough in their own right, but when you add the hawking overhead in their V-formations; coyotes serenading at night; hawks flying gracefully in the blue sky; farmers busy in the fields cutting, swathing or combining a big crop, while a Sunday motor trip to Wainwright and Kitscoty offered views of many western wild life, coyotes, badgers, muskrats, beavers inviting a baby one, made life here a wonderful ominrase to that seen by a welfare worker in a big city. Vermilion visited for moonlight on arrival and departure looked like a town out of a story book.

Mrs. L. P. Horne has just returned from a month at Montreal visiting her son and Mrs. Horne also spent some time at Quebec, Ottawa and other points of interest.

Rev. Mr. Collins who was pastor of the Presbyterian church at Vermilion a few years ago and Mrs. Collins passed through town this week looking overhead in their V-formations; coyotes serenading at night; hawks flying gracefully in the blue sky; farmers busy in the fields cutting, swathing or combining a big crop, while a Sunday motor trip to Wainwright and Kitscoty offered views of many western wild life, coyotes, badgers, muskrats, beavers inviting a baby one, made life here a wonderful ominrase to that seen by a welfare worker in a big city. GENTLEMEN:

We read almost daily of tractor and other accidents which claim the lives of Alberta farmers. In a high percentage of these cases families are left without access to immediate funds.

This condition may be overcome readily and inexpensively by a MUTUAL LIFE POLICY costing but a few cents per day. We would be glad to explain details of low cost insurance protection.

A fair crowd was in attendance for Sunday school rally day here in the hall. The children sang several hymns. Rev. Mr. Stockton stressed the importance of children going to Sunday school as they are the church members of tomorrow — a vital link in the preservation of the church.

Recently a farmer in the Blackfoot district was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate Noyes at Lloydminster for violation of the Noxious Weed Act.

The information was laid by Weed Inspector Sharack to the effect that certain weedy land was required to be summer fallowed in 1951 and prohibited from seeding until cleaned up to the satisfaction of the weed inspector in charge of that district. The farmer concerned disregarded the notice and seeded part of this land to crop instead of carrying out the order of the weed inspector.

Many Public Projects Under Way

Work is being rushed on the several projects under way now in Vermilion. Cement has been run for the basement of the big new armories and to achieve this before danger of a heavy frost the crew kept going day and night, the area in which the men were working was lighted up like day by many strings of lights.

Hendrix Construction have now started work on the third of the Federal government houses in the west end of town. Work is well advanced on the duplex dwelling and one single dwelling while the two double garages on the property have been completed. These are large houses costing a total of $20,000.

The basement is now in for Vermilion's new public library made possible by the generosity of Geo. W. Whitnell who donated $10,000 toward the project.

The new greenhouses on the south side being built by Russ McKeever have also taken shape.

Jim Rogan Given Promotion

Jim Rogan, well known former Vermilion man and son of Mrs. W.A. Rogan, has been appointed assistant manager of the Ist Street West branch of the Bank of Commerce at Calgary.

Well Done, Kinsmen!

As a result of a public spirited move by the Vermilion Kinsmen, orderly parking of cars is now possible along the Interscction. The Kinsmen put in their Thanksgiving holiday by painting the cement curbs showing car drivers just where and at what angle to park. This makes for orderly array of cars and means that more cars can park as each takes up the minimum amount of space. The work of the Kinsmen in business section will be so marked as soon as the present work of grading along the sidewalks is completed. It is a very worthwhile move — well done.

Night School in Commercial Subjects Planned for Vermilion

There will be a night school in bookkeeping and typewriting if enough people are interested in taking these subjects. Before the school division can request permission from the Department of Education to open a night school in Vermilion, it is must have ten people wanting to take typewriting and ten people wanting to take bookkeeping. Both can be taken by correspondence if desired. All interested persons should phone 195 between 6 and 10 p.m., or write to the secretary, box 340, outside of Vermilion.

The school will be operated for those who want to be able to use the typewriter or know how to keep books but are not free to enroll in the regular high school program. Classes will meet two times a week in Vermilion and will be open to all. Those who take one subject will only spend one hour each evening, two evenings a week. Those who take two subjects will spend two hours each evening two evenings a week.

Other towns have operated night classes in commercial subjects and the people have come to expect them. Perhaps people living outside Vermilion would like to take advantage of this opportunity. If so they are welcome to enroll.

"GREEN ACRES"

FALL STOOK SALE

Every year the Vermilion Agricultural Society puts on a purebred stock sale of cattle and swine. Mostly the sale is for female stock but some bulls and boars are offered as well. Breeders here is your chance to sell surplus purebred animals. Every breeder ought to contribute something to the local sale. Send in only the best. A breeder's business is to raise and sell good cattle and swine. It helps his business and his standing in the community when he supports local sales. Entries close Oct. 13th.

HARVESTER'S MARKET

It is generally conceded that the days is past when entertained men were waiting for jobs in the harvest field. So one answered farmer's ad. etc. It is ready and anxious to work at stooking and threshing for three weeks and there is not a week's work for the men in the winter. Farmers are realizing that they can solve the labor problem in one of three ways. 1 raise large families. 2 use combines and other labor saving machinery. 3 raise more livestock and keep a hired man all the year around.

WEEDS FLAVOR

As usual at this time of the year creameries are reporting that a lot of cream is de-graded on account of weedy flavors. Pickings are good in the stubble fields but is it worth it if the cream takes a cut of 20c per pound on account of a strong stink weed flavor. Good wholesome grass, hay and grain are the raw materials that the cows can manufacture into special grade cream.

MANURE FOR GARDENS

In this district gardens are best if plowed in the fall. Then an early start can be made in the spring. Liberal applications of manure can be made yearly or at least every third year. Use well rotted manure with little straw and plow it in.

SWEETY CLOVER DANGER

The poor season for curing hay may result in sweet clover hay becoming more or less rough in the stooks or the stocks. Poisoning of farm stock results from feeding sweet clover hay that has not been properly cured. Animals usually recover when taken off the musty feed but recovery is slow. Sweet clover is a cheap and useful feed and there is no danger prevailing the condition of the feed is watched as it is a reduction of the cattle to the feed.

POISON WARNING

Sometimes frozen flax contains enough prussic acid to poison live stock. Cattle and sheep are more likely to be affected than horses or pigs. Before feeding frozen flax or pasturing an immature flax crop, it would be wise to get a chemical test. Bring some seed or unthreshed bolls to this office if in doubt and a test can be arranged.

1741 Pass Thru T.B. Clinic Here

The T.B. clinic which was held in Vermilion from Tuesday to Saturday last week, was a moderate success and the committee in charge are gratified with the results. Due to adverse conditions however, mainly weather and harvest, the number dropped from the total expected, 1741 availing themselves of this important service.

With the upset conditions in the country with so many farmers and their families trying to get harvesting done, there was a loss of approximately 400 from the number registered. It was also felt that there were some townspeople who would have, but did not, take advantage of a very worthwhile opportunity. Hopes were expressed that a later canvass would give a complete coverage.

The thanks of this community go to the committee which handled the drive so efficiently, the Graduate Nurses' Assoc. and the many volunteer workers who assisted at the clinics together with those in the rural areas who co-operated so well by compiling the lists.

Special thanks are extended to Capt. Ackerman for the use of the ambulance, the Canadian Utilities for the power and hook-up to the lines and to the Vermilion Standard for the free and beneficial publicity.

Perfect harvest weather with summer temperatures was ushered in last Friday and has continued very steadily since. As a result harvesting is really underway in earnest, although activities are hampered by lack of sufficient farm help. Combining and threshing can be seen going on over the whole countryside.

Thora won the same class one year ago. This year she won all five events in which she was eligible to enter and thus amassed 25 points. She won the 60 and the 100 metre dashes, the high and broad jumps and the hop, step and jump.

Eileen Jack, of Kitscoty, who won the silver medal for grade nine singing, the award made by the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto. She obtained highest marks in grade nine in Alberta. She is only 16 years old and has twice been honored, winning a silver medal for grade four singing two years ago. She is a pupil of Mrs. Elsie Bass of Kitscoty and has sung in Vermilion on different occasions with the Kitscoty girls' choir.

Woodvale News

With lovely weather over Thanksgiving week end hopes for a dry October and a spell of real Indian summer are high once more. Combines, threshing outfits, and binders still are worked overtime to get as much work done as possible. We have not heard of any turkeys leisurely enjoyed on Monday but there were quite a number of family get-togethers on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Warring of Edmonton and Mrs. Eileen Young spent the week end with their parents Mr. and Mrs. T. Preston where Gary and Ricky Young have been staying for the past few weeks. Eileen is working at the municipal office in Vermilion.

Marion McQuid also came from Edmonton to be with her parents.

Mrs. F. Osbaldeston and her two little boys visited with the Lysons family on Sunday. We reported wrongly last week that Peggy and Brooks were settling down in the Thorncliffe district; they are staying on the home place in Tolland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webber and children arrived on Saturday for a short visit with their mother, Mrs. Mabel Webber.

Mrs. Osbaldeston still has not found a girl to stay with her young son and Mrs. Otto Wolters is very kindly looking after him on school days.

One of Hindville's real old timers Joe Thompson, passed away last week. The funeral took place on Thanksgiving day in Vermilion. For the last few years he has been living in town but his familiar figure will be missed and he will be long remembered in these parts. To his wife and family goes the district's sincere sympathy.

Three telegrams received in quick succession by Chris Thomson, told him of the operation, serious condition and death of his brother Elmer in a Vancouver hospital. Elmer came to this country from Denmark in 1930 and lived for awhile with his brother in the Tolland district but later went to B.C. where he spent the last years in the Cariboo district. He was buried on Tuesday in Vermilion with several of his old friends attending the funeral.

The new house of Wes Funnell is nearing completion and the Union district has another modern home to be proud of.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Pick from Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. A. Cunning and children from Vegreville paid a visit to the Wes Isley family and Mrs. Isley again looked over the farm and places in Woodvale they used to know in the menfolk getting in a bit of hunting at the same time.

Whooping cough has made its appearance in the district, the children of Arnot Brown being sick with it.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends who were so concerned and ready to help the other night when we missed our wee girl. We appreciate it very much.

Bill and Hesen Stoddart

Pleasant Valley

The writer hopes that everyone enjoyed the lovely Thanksgiving week end—such perfect weather!

Bill Gillies and family were visitors at the farm home.

Rena Monaghan was down from Edmonton where she is attending varsity. She returned Monday evening.

Mr. Gillies is improving in health and wishes that he was out on the binder. However, he did saddle up his horse and went for a ride over the hills.

Fernand Dupuis was busy hauling oats from the combine—how do you like shovelling, Fern?

Mr. and Mrs. French and Mrs. Potvin were supper guests at the writer's home on Sunday.

Harry Young is helping Mrs. McLeland to cut with his tractor and binder, while Dave Clark is out stooking after school. Harold was home helping for a few days also—Close that chicken house door fellas, the coyotes are busy these moonlight nights.

Sixteen Stagettes answered the roll call at the meeting of Oct. 8th and after having the minutes, method down to discuss the coming events for the coming year.

As mentioned previously this will prove to be an important and busy year for the Vermilion Stagette club, as it is to be district headquarters for the 1951-52 term. We seem to be having our troubles getting two executives, local and district, out of the older members at too many girls departed this summer. We did have over draw up committees for other local activities in which the new comers will participate.

Lena deserves a big hand for not only is she district convener but also is willing volunteer to work with Allie Bootsman on the educational committee, with Dorothy Oldenburg on the playground committee and with Vivian and Faye on the initiation committee. The club committee is comprised of Barbara, Elinor Jean and Merle; Betty R., Elva and Dorothy Anderson make up the social committee. The functions of the committees will be pointed out as the various meetings take place.

Our next meeting which is Monday Oct. 22nd should prove to be a gay and busy one. A "little evening" casting for our new members, as anything can happen on initiation night. Wait and see! Initiation when our new girls become permanent members of the Stagettes. (If they live through it). And please Hello, no measles.

Inter-city visiting McCormick—Aitchison, you have the honor of checking on Saturday night.

All members are to be at the Elks hall by 10:00 o'clock on Oct. 16th with as many as possible in uniform. Be Hallowe'en you know. Anyone need more tickets yet?

100th Anniversary Of First Postal Service

TORONTO, — Governor-General Alexander recently opened the Canadian International Stamp show at the Canada Post Office marked its 100th anniversary of Canada's first postal service.

His Excellency inspected an old C.N.R. wood burning locomotive which will carry mail from Richmond Hill to Toronto. Both the fireman and engineer will be dressed in period costumes at a century ago and a modern, Canadian National Railways diesel locomotive will haul the ancient wood burner on its 23-mile journey. Besides the old wood burner, and diesel locomotive appear on a new four-cent Canadian stamp recently issued by the post office. An Indian runner and a century old stage coach will also cover the route southward to Ontario's capital. A mailman on horseback will greet old Engine 87 and pick up the mail pouch from a costumed railway courier for delivery to the postal officials at the Exhibition.

More than a million dollars worth of modern and modern postage stamps, including a portion of King George's famed collection and the world's rarest stamps, will be on display.

Fire Losses in Canada

A study of the following table will quickly show that fire losses in Canada have been increasing over the past ten years until the property loss in 1950 was 100% greater than that in 1940 and these figures exclude fires in the properties of the Department of National Defence and other Crown companies which in 1950 caused losses totalling $1,883,614. It is a situation which concerns everyone in Canada and one well worthy of study and action by Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Sagebrush Learning

Book Ends To Share the Prizes With a Bride.

By CAROL ELY HARPER

"WHERE'S your horse and I hope it's in hoofing you a lesson!" Hoot Holden mapped, as he rode Black Prince to a pawing standstill before the girl. He sat the saddle arrogantly. His own eyes were hot with contempt.

"You think you're so almighty smart!" Ina Larrimore said.

"You're spoiled!" Hoot drawled. "You think because you're the boss's sister, and your Dad's a big shot, and all the boys sat outa your hand, there's nothin' on this ranch you can't have. Prince is the meanest horse in Arizona and no woman's ever rode him!"

A whirl of dust rose in the barnyard, a cool breeze on the sagebrush desert.

Ina's laugh chimed mockingly. "You're just jealous!" she threw at him.

"That's a lie!" His brown cheeks paled. "You little hoidehead, I'm trying to tell you Prince is a killer!" In an instant Hoot had leaned and with his strong arm had swept Ina's slight weight up and into his embrace. The horse reared and, still under the unaccustomed weight, tore wildly out the barnyard gate, down and took the road between the sagebrush across the prairie. "Hoot!" Ina gasped. "Hoot!"

"I'm going to teach you a lesson!" Hoot's powerful hand on the reins drew Prince to a halt. Roughly he dropped Ina onto the rocks. Lariat in hand, he swung lithe out of the saddle.

"So you want to ride Prince solo! See this canyon, closed at that end? The only way you can get out is over the walls, or at this end. And I'm going to be the wall at this end. I'm going to sit up here on this rock, and if you and Prince try to get out the canyon past me, I'm going to shoot in front of you! Prince doesn't like shooting. He won't go past me long as I've bullets left! And my bet's loaded."

"What say, Prince?" Ina chirped, blue eyes smiling. "And what am I doing, Mr. Cowboy, while you sit and shoot?"

"You," Hoot stated, "are going to be saddle Prince. Your feet will be tied under the saddle so you can't get off. And you'll ride and ride till the moon comes up and the moon goes down, and you admit that you are just a silly little spoiled rich girl, and that you don't want to ride Prince anymore, and that maybe, just maybe, everybody — including Hoot Holden—isn't in love with you, and jealous!"

"Oh, darling!" Ina smiled scornfully, as Hoot tied her on the trembling, shying horse. He put the reins in her hands. "Get up!" He let go his anchoring grip on Prince's bit. Prince reared. Ina was prepared. She realized she was tied so securely she could not fall. If only Prince would run a bit. Roughly the sagacious horse! He'd not lose his balance, even in the rocks of the canyon! And no woman had ever ridden him—solo! She would show Hoot! "Go, Prince!"

Prince whirled and tore for the canyon mouth. Hoot jerked up his six-shooter and fired.

Prince screamed as the bullets burned the air behind his nose. He whirled on his hind feet and shot madly toward the walled end of the blind canyon.

Grimly Hoot watched her white face, her blazing blue eyes and set mouth. "Enough!" he shouted. She glared at him. No, she'd not give in yet! Thundering, Prince rounded the closed end of the canyon, shot towards Hoot, again stampeded to pass Hoot. Again Hoot fired before the horse's nose. Prince screamed, reared, whirled, and dashed away again.

But Ina put up her hand. She knew she had had enough.

"Hoot!" Hoot shouted, running. "Down, Prince! Down! Whoa there, boy! Good boy, steady!" He got the devil-may by the bit and dragged him to a halt.

Ina smiled whitely down at Hoot's hard, pale face. "See?" Hoot said shakily, "if you were ridin' out alone on Prince—you'd have been thrown—and he'd never stopped! Good as you are, he'd throw you and tromp on you! He'd kill you!"

"I see," she whispered. "You win! I'll never ride him again—"

Grimly Hoot untied her. Trembling she slid to the ground. She lay back on the rocks, her eyes closed. "Want to ride back home with me, or walk?" Hoot asked dryly.

"Walk, please," she said faintly.

Hoot looked down at her, his eyes dark, his brown face still. Then he said Prince's reins gently upon his neck. "Home, Prince!" he ordered softly. "Go home, boy!" Prince snorted and whirled and disappeared with a ringing of hoofs through the entrance of the canyon.

Ina looked up at Hoot. "You hate me, don't you?" she said sadly.

Hoot's dark face was strained and queer looking. "I had to show you Prince is a killer—" he said coldly. "Or, when I'm off ranching, he'd kill you—"

"Oh, I see—" she said dreamily, "I was right. You hate me because you love me . . ."

His lips closed here. He said hastily, "Let's don't fight any more! I hate you, I love you—what difference does it make!"

"None—" her voice was husky also —"if you hate me like that . . . Oh darling . . . I told Dad yesterday over the telephone I wanted to marry the best cowpuncher in the country. And he said 'Attagirl!' That's what I've been waiting to hear! I've got a stock ranch all ready, for a wedding present for you and Hoot!"

Something happened to Hoot then. He seemed to lose all control of himself. He trembled. "Or maybe—" Ina put her head on one side and looked at him with gay mockery—"maybe you are too proud to marry a spoiled little rich girl with a stock ranch for her dowry?"

"Well," Hoot said humbly, his brown face purpled, "I'll pay him back for the ranch, I mean. But—" he stared at her with dazed dark eyes—"what above beats me is how you guessed my feelin's!"

"Oh, darling!" Ina's hand slid over his brown cheek tenderly. "I've hated you—and loved you!—ever since I was a little kid! But if you hadn't been so afraid I'd ride Prince I shouldn't, and teaching me not to!—I'd have never guessed, darling, that you loved me!"

Yummy! Chelsea Bun Loaf

new fast DRY Yeast

Now you have Fleischmann's Fast Dry Yeast, forget about the oldtime hazards of yeast baking! Always at hand — always full-strength and fast rising! Keep a month's supply in your cupboard! Make this delicious Chelsea Bun Loaf — cut in slices for buttering, or separate the buns.

CHELSEA BUN LOAF

Make 3 pans of buns from this one recipe — dough will keep in refrigerator for a week.

Scald ¾ c. milk, ¼ c. granulated sugar, 1½ tsps. salt and ¼ c. shortening; cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl ½ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well. Add cooled milk mixture and stir in 1 well beaten egg. Sift 4 c. sifted flour (or enough to make soft dough) with 3 tsps. ungrated lemon rind; cut in 2 cups of mixture and beat in ½ c. brown sugar, ½ c. currants and citron (or cut up ½ of dough, knead in); knead on lightly floured board until smooth and elastic. Place remaining ½ of dough in a well buttered bowl, turning once to grease top. Cover and set in warm place (85°) free from draft, until doubled in bulk. Cream ½ tbsp. butter or margarine and blend in ½ c. brown sugar, 1 tsp. cinnamon and 1 tbs. corn syrup. Roll dough into an oblong sheet ¼" thick; spread with cream mixture and sprinkle with ½ c. currants. Loosely roll up like a jelly roll. Cut roll into 6 slices. Place in pan 9" x 9" x 2" which has been well buttered on bottom and sides. Let rise until double in bulk. Bake in moderate oven, 350°, 25-30 mins. Let stand in pan for 5 mins. before turning out.

Essay Contest for Students Sponsored by T.B. Association

The Alberta Tuberculosis Association is sponsoring for the third consecutive year an essay contest for students in grades seven to twelve in Alberta schools, it was announced today by officials of the association. Information concerning the contest will be sent out this week to schools in all parts of the province and the deadline date for, which has been set at the 25th.

Purpose of the contest is to provide valuable information about tuberculosis and public health and to familiarize students with Alberta's tuberculosis program. It is planned to make this a group activity with entries to be the result of combined class studies rather than individual efforts.

Judges for the event will be Dr. W. H. Swift, deputy minister of education, Dr. R. E. Davison, director of the tuberculosis division, Alberta Dept. of Public Health, and E. C. Ansley, executive secretary of the Alberta Teachers' association.

Prize money totalling $150 will be awarded to prize-winning classes in schools, and may be had in the form of additional sports equipment, radio-phonographs, libraries etc. With greater interest being shown in the contest this year, T.B. officials expect a record entry in all divisions. Entire cost of the project is being defrayed from Christmas Seal funds, as part of the health education program of the association.

Paradise Valley

Mr. and Mrs. James Fair and Milton Fair on Edmonton were week end visitors to relatives in Paradise Valley. They were former residents of this district.

The Canadian Utilities have the line to Paradise Valley almost completed and expect to have the power turned on any day. Rural lines have still to be completed.

We regret to hear that Mr. M. Hoskins is a patient in the Lloyd minster hospital for a few days.

Mr. Joe McAmmond was a recent visitor to Edmonton to see his father Mr. John McAmmond who is a patient in a hospital there. Mr. McAmmond underwent a serious operation recently and we hope he is doing quite well.

Threshing and combining has been held up due to weather conditions. The standing grain seems to be the worst as the kernel is so full of moisture the kernel will not harden. It looks very much like last year's condition.

M. and Mrs. John Miskie and family and Mrs. E. Brangrove of Calgary arrived on Friday evening for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins.

Mrs. W. A. Gunn received the following from the Alberta Tuberculosis Association. It speaks for itself.

Dear Mrs. Gunn:

It has been a great pleasure to the Alberta Tuberculosis Association and the Department of Health to serve the people of Paradise Valley and district through our Christmas Seal Mobile Chest X-ray unit. Dr. R. R. Baxter, Director of Surveys, has asked me to convey to you and your committee our sincere thanks for the work done in making the survey a success.

There were 413 free chest X-rays given the public while the unit was at Paradise Valley and the gratitude of your fellow-citizens is due to you and all who assisted in the campaign. I am sure they must be well aware of your notable contribution to the health and welfare of the community.

Thanks again, and with all good wishes, I am,

Yours sincerely yours,—

Will Order "Deadline" For Car Safety Checks

Compulsory safety checks on motor cars, which were brought into effect in Alberta last July, have resulted in approximately 25,000 cars out of 180,000 licensed in the province, having passed the tests.

This information has been received by the Alberta Motor Association from the provincial government.

Hon. C. E. Gerhart, provincial secretary, recently made a strong appeal to motorists to have their cars put through the safety tests, the fee for which is $1. It is also warned that it is the intention to set a deadline. When this is ordered, all cars must be checked while those not subjected to the tests will be ordered from the highways.

The minister also pointed out that there are 1300 garages and service stations in different parts of the province which are approved testing stations.

When the deadline is set, it is possible that congestion at the testing stations might result in some owners losing the right to operate their cars until the rush eased after the deadline.

As not more than one-seventh of the cars in the province have been tested, it is feared that there will be a rush at the government approved stations unless there is a sudden increase in the safety check work in the interval.

Last Week's Question

Could you answer yes* to last week's question about your child having one hot food for his school lunch? Have you ever taken a cold lunch for ten months at a time? Monotonous, isn't it. You ever say a little variety to the meal by having some method of heating food at school. The hot jar method is easy for parents and teachers, inexpensive and very effective. If you had to answer no, my child does not have a hot food for lunch, now is the time to get all parents and the teacher together to provide a hot dish. You are most welcome to write in for ideas for hot lunches and I hope to get around to all schools so all the youngsters in this area may benefit from such a plan.

Something cold, and something hot,
Something crisp to hit the spot,
Something flavorful and filling,
These four make the packed lunch thrilling.

Did you have a nice Thanksgiving? I hope so.

Work Starts on New Cancer Research Laboratory

Official sod-turning ceremony for the new Dr. John S. McEachern Cancer Research laboratory in Edmonton will be held on the morning of Saturday, Oct. 20 in conjunction with the fall convocation of the University of Alberta. It was announced this week in Calgary by R. N. Tallon, executive director of the Alberta Division, Canadian Cancer Society.

Prominent at the ceremony will be Mrs. J. S. McEachern, widow of the late Dr. J. S. McEachern of Calgary, who was one of the founders of the Canadian Cancer Society, and in whose honor the new laboratory will be named. The Chancellor and Senate of the University and the Board of Directors of the Society will also attend.

The laboratory which will cost over $250,000 has been made possible through the funds contributed by the people of Alberta to the annual Cancer Crusade, which this year realized over $190,000. It will contain, for the first time in Alberta's medical history, cancer research under one roof, where necessary technical requirements will be available to research workers. It is planned to put in a building complete with project rooms for individual workers, experiments, isotope lab, operation and sterilization room, X-ray facilities, and much of the equipment modern science has provided for the researcher.

This project is possibly the most ambitious ever undertaken by a non-government voluntary organization in Canada, and is made possible through the support the Canadian Cancer Society has received in its Cancer Crusade during the past five years.

Colonial Welfare

THERE IS EVIDENT NEED at the present time of extending education and technical knowledge among the people of countries less prosperous and productive than our own mest Britain has realized this mest in the cases of her various colonial possessions and has for some time been carrying out a program aimed at helping the residents of the colonies to make their land more productive and to take part in the problems of government. At the present time there are 5,000 colonial students in London receiving training which will fit them for positions of leadership in various fields in their own countries. The students come from many parts of the world. Over 2,000 are from West Africa and they include student nurses, medical students, law students and many who are learning engineering, science and various other subjects.

• • • • •

More Children Attend School

In addition to supplying instruction for natives of the colonies in England, the colonial office has an organized service of professional advice to dependent territories through resident advisers, and advisory committees in England, composed of outstanding specialists in various fields. Research establishments and university colleges have also been set up in the colonies, financed partly by a Colonial Development and Welfare fund and partly by local revenues. Primary and secondary education is likewise being encouraged and over 30,000,000 children are now attending school in the colonies.

• • • • •

Seas Needs Of The People

In Malaya alone the number of children attending school has risen from 362,000 in 1941 to 561,000 in 1949 and the number of teachers from 7,000 to 17,000. In raising educational standards in these territories and encouraging the people to fit themselves for the responsibilities of self government, Britain is recognizing the needs of these people for enlightenment and independence and is meeting their needs with careful planning. Ignorance and poverty are at the root of many of the difficulties which are facing the world at this time and in bringing education and technical skills to the people of the Colonial Territories, Britain is attempting to eliminate both poverty and ignorance there.

New Coyote Killer Proves Successful In Farming Areas

EDMONTON. — Alberta's coyotes are in for a rough [illegible] lost—if sugar crystals "sprinkled" on gum claimed the lives of 40 of the "pesky varmints".

William Lesky, provincial crop pest control chief said that Peter Chubb, an area control officer in the municipal district of Ponoka, 60 miles south of Edmonton, produced the bad news to the nasty beats.

Mr. Chubb set out 80 "coyote getters"—and scored 28 dead coyotes.

"The beauty of the coyote getters is that they kill the coyotes in the farming area where the predatory animals do the damage to flocks and herds," said Mr. Lesky. "Formerly, most of our coyotes were killed in unsettled areas where they were doing comparatively little harm."

The Alberta minister of agriculture has received applications from 18 municipal districts that wish to organize under the anti-coyote campaign.

Grain Growers Ask Federal Aid

EDMONTON AEA.—Prairie grain growers were reported in urgent need of ready cash and the Federal Government was as'ed to help them out.

J. E. Brownlee, president of the United Grain Growers Ltd. appealed to the government to either release proceeds of last year's crop under through the Canadian Wheat Board, or increase the initial prices on this year's grain.

"Many western farmers urgently need more cash than they can obtain immediately from marketing of this year's crop," Brownlee said in a press statement.

He said "tens of millions of dollars" still was owing to farmers from last year's crop sales and suggested "at least" 25 cents a bushel on last year's wheat deliveries be a suitable interim payment.

"However, if this is not possible there should be a substantial increase in initial payments on this year's deliveries of wheat, oats and barley," he said

Attractive Autumn Bridal At United Church

BALDOCK—SEARS

First United church, Vermilion, was the setting for a pretty autumn wedding on Wednesday October 3rd when Elinor Ann, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney G. Sears was united in marriage to Louis Beverly Baldock, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baldock. Rev. C. W. MacKay performed the ceremony before the altar banked with white chrysanthemums, autumn vines and baskets of autumn blooms.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, was very winsomely attired in a gown of Alencon lace over white bridal satin featuring a heart-shaped bodice outlined with lace pleating and satin binding. The Elizabethan collar was held by a pin worn by her grandmother. The bouffant skirt extended to a cathedral train. She wore her mother's veil of embroidered illusion caught to a satin headdress of pleated and matching lace mitrons with a rhinestone bracelet, gift of the groom and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white gladi.

Miss Hilda Braun was her sister's bridesmaid in an ankle length styled gown of orchid net over nylon with similar headdress and brief veil and matching mitrons. She carried a bouquet of shaggy mums in orchid and pink shades.

Mr. Harry Hodgson attended the groom and the ushers were Mr. Stuart Cosboy, Mr. Chas. Upshall and Mr. Glenn Baldock. The fourth usher, brother of the bride, was unable to attend.

Mr. W. B. Elford played the wedding music and during the signing of the register, Miss Shirley McCorkell sang "Through the Years" very beautifully.

An open reception at the home of the bride was held from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. The bride's mother received in a gown of plum crepe with matching accessories and wore a corsage of shell carnations. Mrs. Baldock, mother of the groom, chose a black afternoon frock with brown accessories and also wore a corsage of shell pink carnations.

The bride's table was laid with a hand made lace cloth centred by a beautifully decorated three tiered wedding cake topped with a graceful vase of orange blooms which together with the knife used to cut the cake, were sent out by the bride's aunt from England, Mr. J. W. G. Morrison proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom very fittingly replied.

Presiding at the pouring were Mrs. T. Waits and Mrs. Chas. Upshall. Mrs. J. Cross and Mrs. Geo. Wyman, Mrs. H. Scott and Mrs. Chas. English.

In charge of goods were Mrs. N. McLean, Mrs. B. H. Rogan, Mrs. P. Dixon, Miss Myrtle Killion, Mrs. J. Ginness, Mrs. I. Nelson, Mrs Wm Chapman, Mrs. A. Cameron and Mrs. R. Maughon.

RIVERTON

Thanksgiving day — and what a glorious one it is. There are so many things for which to give thanks.

Week end visitors to the district were Elmer Haskell of Edmonton, Mrs Haskell of Vermilion who visited their parental homes.

Graham Hansen flew a plane from Edmonton to his home. He landed the plane in his dad's barley field. Graham piloted the aircraft and was accompanied by two friends. The latter returned early Sunday while Graham stayed to help with the harvest for a few days.

Barbara Durnin had as her guest her friend Miss Agnes Duke of Vegreville.

The Ladies' club met at Mrs. Wood's on Thursday. Arrangements for the annual fall bazaar were made. The date is set for Nov. 8th. More particulars later.

Make Further Study Driver's Test Plans

New surveys are being made by the provincial government of a system of driver's test to be established in this province, according to information received by the Alberta Motor Association from the provincial secretary's department.

While it was expected that the system would be inaugurated this year, it now appears that the provincial authorities are making new studies of systems now in operation in various provinces and states before deciding upon the Alberta one.

The A. M. A. has made strong representations to provincial authorities for driver's tests for the first time and also concerning those involved in motor accidents during the previous 12 months preceding the date of the license application.

Reports from various provinces and states have revealed that introduction of an efficient system of driver's tests has resulted in a substantial reduction in motor accidents. This is claimed particularly in B.C. where a system of complete tests was adopted several years ago.

The situation in Alberta will be discussed at the annual meeting of the A.M.A. in Calgary on Nov 21

Islay District Locals

The lovely weather was enough to enjoyed over the long week-end and many fared forth to spend Thanksgiving at the old home. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Coombe and their sons motored from Edmonton, Frances to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wareouille and the others to visit the writer's home. During their stay a visit was made at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Golby where all enjoyed a tasty supper.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gould entertained on Monday evening and a supper was prepared from the many good things the garden and dairy provided. Those attending were Maurice and Olga Gould, Mrs. Ellen Gould, the writer, and Mr. George Combe. Everyone complimented Sylvia on the excellent repast.

Captain and Mrs. Robert McGeveyseches from Lloydminster, also Lieutenant and Mrs. Bradford of Vermilion, were dinner guests at the Coombe homestead recently. The trip was made in Capt. McGeveyscher's recently purchased car. We were invited glad to have them — come again Islay.

The cutting and stooking is almost completed in this immediate district. Garden produce has been taken care of and honey extracted.

The gorgeous autumn tints were missed this fall. Recurring showers of frosts rendered trees and shrubs a dull drab color. Most leaves are still on the trees. Tracks have been numerous and were congregated in swathed grain so that apparently the made to town dwellers to come out and help themselves to a race of ducks before all the grain was de-

There is no unemployment and as help is very scarce every one must do their own share.

Shannon there is a brooding peace in the autumn days and the whippoorwill at night and speaking of peace I feel we should also have that inward peace and impart it as we go on our way. Blessed are the peace makers' sweet gentle words

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hayward Return From Trip to Europe

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hayward recently returned from spending the summer months in England, Scotland, Wales and France. The experience of seeing the old countries was fully up to expectations and they had many interesting observations to make. In London they were surprised to note that the pedestrian has the right of way, while the motorist has to abide strictly by rules. Such historical places as Windsor Castle, Westminster Abbey, cathedrals built as far back as the 10th century, Madame Tussard's Waxworks and many other places of interest were visited and the changing of the guard observed. In Ayrshire and new portions of London they were impressed by the very wide sidewalks, 6x to 30 feet, being wider than the roads, and the ultra modern shopping centres.

Mr. Hayward made a study of the effects of the Labor Government in England and found that it was generally admitted that the farmers and miners were better off under it. Mr. Attee he found to be a quiet intelligent man, not at all boastful, but in whom you immediately have a feeling of confidence. Nearly everything in agriculture is subsidized. There is a subsidy of $1.05 per head on sheep, while butchers' profits were are subsidized because they have no meat to sell.

They found the farms in England mechanized fully as much as in Canada, while the buildings were also good. The Ferguson tractor was the big favorite. Farming methods show the most modern trends

Mr. and Mrs Hayward accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Keeble drove by car from London to Edinburgh, a very beautiful trip, with wonderful highway services provided motorists by the Automobile Association. There was tremendous industry everywhere. They went five days in the Highlands of Scotland. Lord Lovat's ranch and the King's Place at Balmoral were among the interesting spots visited. Wales, a very pretty country, was toured on the return trip.

Mr. Hayward couldn't resist purchasing a Suffolk ram and two ewes, also one of the best Romany Marsh rams in England, as well as a common Romany Marsh. These will be shipped to his B.C. sheep ranch this fall. He was greatly impressed by the friendliness and honesty of the English and Scotch people.

A tour was also made of France where half the population is on farms. The farm holdings are very small but the French have the world beaten for farming. They reap wonderful crops with the most obsolete equipment imaginable and show no interest in labor saving devices or more modern methods. The farm buildings are poor but the French farmer appears much poorer than he really is. They spent some time at Monte Carlo in the principality of Monaco, 2 miles long and a half mile wide. There are no taxes here, the country is financed by the government operated gambling houses at Monte Carlo.

Returning to Canada they were struck by the vast amount of idle land after seeing the old lands with their large populations.

Cecil Kitz of Innisfree has registered as a pharmaceutical interne at Beake's Drug store. He commenced his duties last week.

Miss Louise Davis and Miss Helen Noonan recently returned from a very enjoyable holiday trip, traveling by car to Edmonton they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Mac Dunsmore. They continued on to Banff and back by Calgary and Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Calvert and baby daughter of Westlock spent the Thanksgiving week end in town, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Upshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur English and Mr. and Mrs. Frank English and daughter Penny of Edmonton spent the holiday week end visiting the boys' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. English in town.

Mr and Mrs. Mike Coma and baby Paulette left on Oct. 1 for their new home in Lamont where they plan to reside in future. The best wishes of a wide circle of friends accompany them. Son Bill is at present in Regina where he intends to join the R.C.A.F.

Dr. and Mrs. Duncan Stewart and family of Edmonton spent Thanksgiving as guests at the home of the former's brother, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stewart.

Mrs. John King and daughter Anne of North Battleford motored to Vermilion on Friday and were guests at the home of the former's sister Mrs. W. P. Pilkie and Mr. Pilkie for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Elliott and two boys, spent the holiday week end in Vermilion and district, visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Elliott here and Mrs. Elliott's brothers at Dewberry and Vanesti.

Coming from Prince Albert to visit relatives and friends for Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mooney, James and Sandra. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fyfe at Islay, and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stewart in Vermilion.

Miss Dorothy Eldem and Mr. Rodney Eldem from Alberta university spent Thanksgiving at the family home in town. They were accompanied by a friend, Mr. Jack Hand of the Royal Bank staff at Jasper place.

Eliel Johnson of Regent Drilling was a visitor in town for a short time on Thursday, on his way a few miles south to supervise running of casing at an oil well being drilled there.

How we miss your smiling face

Manville Church Scene Of Pretty Wedding

CAMERON—HILMAN

A pretty wedding was solemnized in Christ church, Manville, on Wednesday September 26th when Elsie Milburn, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Milburn of Minburn, became the bride of Mr. Frank S. Cameron, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Cameron of Vermilion. The Rev. Canon T. W. Teage of Vermilion officiated.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was lovely in a white satin gown with lace peplum and lace covered calla lily collar. Her tiered wedding veil was gathered to a corner of orange blossoms. She carried a mother-of-pearl prayer book garlanded with an American beauty rose, streamers and a silver horseshoe. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

Attending the bride were Miss Isabelle Milburn, sister of the bride, and Miss Doreen Cameron, sister of the groom. They wore identical taffeta gowns of mauve and yellow respectively, with matching mitts and headdresses. They each carried cascade bouquets.

Mr. Robert Reid and Mr. Theodore Schmidt of Vermilion attended the groom. Ushers were Mr. James Milburn, brother of the groom and Mr. Jack Curran of Vermilion.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Joan Lugg sang "O Perfect Love."

Later a reception for eighty-five guests was held at the bride's home. For receiving the bride's mother Mrs. Milburn wore a black wool suit with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage. Mrs. Cameron, mother of the groom, wore a navy blue dress with grey accessories and pink roses as corsage.

The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by vases of roses.

Mr. J. Reid of Vermilion proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom. Miss Doreen Cameron was in charge of the guest book.

In the evening a wedding dance was held in Minburn after which the happy couple left for a brief honeymoon, touring to Jasper, Banff and Calgary. For going away the bride chose a wine wool gabardine suit with navy blue accessories.

Out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Groves, Calgary; Mrs. A. Souder, Tofield; Mrs. F. Hawley, Strathcona; Mrs. B. Cowlorne and Sharon of Edmonton.

PRETTY WEDDING AT DERWENT

MELNYK—DIXON

On September 22rd at 8:00 o'clock in the morning a quiet double ring wedding was solemnized in the manse of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic church in Derwent when Dorothy Dixon, fourth daughter of Mr. William Dixon and the late Mrs. Dixon, became the bride of Mr. Steve Melnyk. The Rev. Father Chuchrowal officiated.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Mary Melnyk, youngest sister of the groom. The groom was also attended by Mr. Emil Wyaschi of Lvewere.

For her wedding the bride chose a plain white dress of bridal satin under which a narrow collar necklace with rx insertion. Her floor-length veil was held in place with a bridal halo fashioned from a double row of pearls. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses with lily-of-the-valley and fern.

The bridesmaid was lovely in a pink taffeta floor-length dress with matching shoulder-length veil. Her flowers were pink carnations and fern.

A family reception was held at the home of the groom where the bride's table was laid with a pink brocaded cloth and centred with a three tiered wedding cake.

The happy couple now reside in Chadonald where a wedding dance was held in the St. Columbus hall on Friday evening which was greatly enjoyed.

Hen Lays 'Golden' Egg

Wes Funnell claims a counterpart of the hen of fairy tale fame—the one that laid the golden eggs. Wes gathered in a hen's egg from his barred rock flock that was normal in every way except that it was an even golden color over the whole shell. Thinking that it might be just a coating on the outside of the shell he attempted to scrape it off but the entire shell was so colored. The explanation of the golden egg is not yet forthcoming. This was on display at the Standard office but one little lover of fairy tales tried to prove that it was gold all the way through and cracked the shell with disastrous results—it was very much egg inside.

Fall Convocation Of University October 20

The regular fall convocation of the University of Alberta will be held in Convocation hall at 2:15 p.m. on Oct. 20th as originally planned, officials at the University announced this week.

The visit of the Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh to Edmonton, originally scheduled for the afternoon of Oct. 20th necessitated the moving of the Convocation to the morning, but with the postponement of the Royal visit to Oct. 27 officials felt that the Convocation ceremonies should be restored to their customary hour in the afternoon.

"GREEN ACRES"

THRESHING: TOUGH GRAIN

When grain will have to be stored on the farm, it is better to wait until it is dry before threshing. It is easier to dry grain in the stook swath or still standing than can be done in the bin. Drying grain in bins on the farm has not worked out very well. It is safer to wait until spring rather than take chances on grain heating in storage.

FATTENING POULTRY

Whether you sell surplus pullets, cockerels or turkeys, live or dressed, it pays to finish them on the farm. There is ten cents per pound difference between fattened grade A fowl and poor C birds. They need to be penned up and fed a fattening ration for abt 3 three weeks. Get a circular on finishing poultry for the market from my office.

FEEDERS' ASSOCIATIONS

Anyone having plenty of feed grain ought to fatten some cattle this winter. The three feeders associations in this district are ready to buy feeders for members. Loans are available. Anyone interested should see Ansley Bell (Vermilion), Russel Whitson, Manville or Dick Hines, Marwayne.

SAVE THE SOIL

John Ruskin says "God has lent us the earth for our life. It belongs as much to those who are to come after us as to us, and we have no right by anything we do or neglect to do, involve them in any unnecessary penalties or to deprive them of the benefit which is in our power to bequeath."

MASTITIS IN CATTLE

This disease otherwise known as inflammation of the udder or garget causes more loss to dairy men in Alberta than Bang's disease and T.B. put together. There is no vaccination for it. Prevention is the important thing. One, two, three or all the quarters may be spoiled by this disease. Get a circular from your D. A. on Mastitis.

WINTER FLOWERS

There is still time to plant bulbs in pots for winter blooms. Tulips, daffodils and hyacinths are all good. The most important thing is to leave the bulbs alone potting, in a cool, dark place for at least two months. Get a circular on growing bulbs from my office.

Reform is Needed in Rehabilitating Law Breakers

Canada annually uses some of the millions of dollars she now spends in maintaining penitentiaries, jails and the criminals therein, in rehabilitating these people during and after their first offences.: So contended A. W. Miller, K.C., noted criminal defence lawyer of Edmonton, in an address to the Canadian club here Monday evening. Mr. Miller thought that even if we saved one of a hundred the effort would be worthwhile, and it was his opinion that as high as four of five could be redeemed to become valuable members of society by the proper approach by agencies of the government of Canada, before a man became a repeater and a hardened criminal — but Canada is making no effort toward that desirable end.

The speaker went on to say that our present system of treatment for men and women just out of prison, forced them into a life of crime, because they could see no left nothing else open for them.

Mr. Miller's discourse on 'Crime Does Pay' was a most enlightening and at the same time disconcerting one to the very large number of Canadian Club members who gathered to hear this eminent criminal defence lawyer, who spoke from a wealth of experience gathered during more than 25 years of work in the criminal courts. The audience could not help but feel that our Canada has failed to provide any effort towards the successful rehabilitation of criminals, that no move had been made to direct the thinking of wayward men and women into proper channels, or to provide them with the opportunity to help themselves.

There is a crying need for reform in our treatment of a so-called criminal when released from custody after serving the term imposed upon him. He comes out without character, without friends, and is thrown on his own resources. What is he to do? He tries to find employment but his record is against him. He tells the truth he won't get the job: if he lies he might get the job but he is soon detected. One young man 21, married, with two children, came out and after one year had had three jobs, was doing well at each one until someone informed his employer of his prison term. Then he was fired. Quite what is he to do? Further crime is the only thing that pays, and our present system drives him into it. Mr. Miller gave numerous concrete examples such as the above.

The speaker, who has defended many a man charged with law-breaking, has had serious talks with them in order to find out their inner thoughts, just what makes them click, in common vernacular, and it is on the result of these talks that he makes the assertion that as many as four of five could be saved to become useful members of our nation.

It is decidedly a job for the Dominion of Canada, not for any organization, a man or woman will accept help from their country when they will shrink away from a social agency.

Mr. Miller's address was replete with vivid sentences and statements such as "what have you or I, Canada done for him—the only job he can get is crime"; "A man, just released, is often arrested as a vagrant while he is looking for a job, and ordered to move on, get

HOCKEY MEETING FRIDAY, OCT. 19th

DO WE WANT HOCKEY THIS WINTER?

Do Vermilion and district people want hockey this winter? If so and you are willing to help the move along a little, attend the meeting on Friday evening Oct 19th at 8:00 pm. in the library room, town hall basement. A good attendance is vital as the decision will probably be made to have or not have senior hockey this coming winter. If Vermilion people stand aside and let their Tigers fade out of the picture while the Edmonton, the Huskies and Rangers battle it out for Eastern Alberta hockey honors? Perish the thought! But it will take a good representative group of business men and farmers at the meeting Friday evening to organize senior hockey for the coming season.

Radio License Check-Up Underway

TIMMONTON, Oct. 15:- Radio inspectors of the Department of Transport are now engaged in a check up on uniformed radio owners throughout the province. Radio licences should be kept handy for inspection when called upon.

Those unable to produce current licences must expect a court action with consequent fine and costs. The Department trusts however, that anyone who has, in fact, neglected to procure his or her licence will immediately do so and that a minimum of such unpleasant action will be necessary.

The color of licences this year is yellow for the 2.50 issue and white for the $2.00. A separate license is required for automobile radios.

All licences expired on April 1st last. They may be procured from local radio dealers or direct from the radio inspector, 10138 104A St., Edmonton.

Letters to the Editor

This paper does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

Vermilion, Alberta.

The Editor,
The Vermilion Standard.

I did enjoy my visit to your town very much but I still think, despite the friendliness apparent on every hand, that a little civic mindedness and beautification on the part of the town planners would not be amiss.

As one more than usually interested in Education I must say that Vermilion seems to be right up to date or a little in front of the rest of Alberta in providing for schools and education. I liked what I saw in that respect very much.

The parts I didn't like were the many prominent weeds in the town, the greatly reservable bank parade, and in a progressive town such as Vermilion a lack of clean up these eye sores?

An Absolute Visitor.

PO Steve Pua Graduates With Wings Of Radio Navigator

The R.C.A.F.'s No. 1 air navigation school at Summerside, P.E.I. was the scene of an impressive wing: ceremony on October 5th.

While friends and relatives of the graduating class looked on, the parade took the form of a hollow square. Wing Commander D. A. Wills, D.F.C., Commanding Officer planned the global centred navigator wings on the breasts of a number of officers and flight cadets, who after long months of arduous ground and air training, were successful in meeting the requirements to become navigators in Canada's air force.

The graduating class consisted of young men from all parts of the country. Some, already radio officers, will wear the wings of the radio navigator. The flight cadets, now fully qualified navigators, received their commissions, on graduation, as pilo. officers, included among the graduates was Flying Officer Steve J. Pua, of Vermilion, Alberta. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jo. Pua. Steve is a graduate of the Vermilion high school. He enlisted in the RCAF in June 19.. and after and graduated as r. dio officer. His graduation parade has seen him win the wings of the radio navigator.

out on town, shunted from pillar to post". All of his remarks were illustrated by stories from actual life.

In 1947 Canada passed the National Offenders clause to the Criminal code which gave the magistrate a doctor killing his patient to cure the disease. What is accomplished by it — absolutely nothing has anyone he asked, ever lifted a hand to see that these people do not become habitual offenders — has anyone ever helped to rehabilitate them when they come out of gaol? We push him here and there, we make him a habitual offender. This, said the speaker, was a terrible indictment against society.

The alternative to this was that instead of spending millions we we do to keep people in the penitentiary, is to devote some of this money to keep people out of jail. Have the government set up a service that will meet a person in jail, attempt to straighten out his or her reasoning, when he comes out see that he gets a job, give him the opportunity to go straight. Mr. Miller paid tribute to the Salvation Army and the John Howard Society who were making efforts along these lines, but the work is far too big for private organizations and it shouldn't depend on any private organizations, it was Canada's job and should be tackled by Canada. If the Dominion would have such a system and back it up by standing behind the integrity of those who were released we would create so many hopeless creatures, and Canada would be a better place to which to live.

Mr. Miller is on a speaking tour at present on our main crusade, preaching this gospel, arousing public thought, public feeling, public sentiment, so that when a wide spread moves it will begin which will ultimately give the understands back the job he knows, give him back dignity, give him back his place in society — no gimmicks can do this, it must be done by the country.

Mr. G. F. Stephens, newly-elected president of the Vermilion branch of the Canadian club was chairman of the meeting. The guest speaker was fittingly introduced by Mr. J.D. Adam, K.C. who was a classmate of Mr. Miller in the first law class at the University of Alberta. In his introduction Mr Adam mentioned the high regard in which Mr. Miller was held as a lawyer, citizen and Canadian.

A motion of thanks for the address was moved by Mr. J. W. G. Morrison, K.C.

DENUNERATION AGAINST SMALLPOX, DIPTHERIA AND WHOOPING COUGH—

Parents of school-aged children in Alberta are urged to take advantage of the free service of immunization against smallpox, diphtheria and whooping cough.

With the approach of winter, these diseases will become more prevalent and local health agencies are making a special effort this year to inoculate every child in their areas.

Regular inoculation in the past has kept these diseases to a minimum. Diptheria has become almost a fairly due to the system of routine inoculation of children during the past 30 years, while smallpox and whooping cough are being suppressed by co-operation of the parents in having their children immunized.

Public health agencies provide free immunization service and the Alberta Department of Public Health supplies all the necessary materials. Parents wishing to have their children immunized against these diseases should consult their family physician or their local health department.

CHECK TOWN PUMP

Preventative maintenance was carried out at the town well on Tuesday and Wednesday this week when the pump was pulled by engineers from the International Water Supply. Worn parts in the pump were replaced and everything as put in water supply is concerned is back to normal. The men doing the work claimed that this is the first time they have ever been called in as a precautionary measure, that in all other cases a break-down is waited for before anything is done to the pumping systems.

Leaders in the weekly newspaper field for the Dominion in the persons of W. Hanks of Elm. Grove (Winnipeg), president of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association; his vice-president, Robert Moore of Swift Current, Sask.; Wm. McCartney, secretary-manager of the Association from Toronto, and Jim Greenblat of Swift Current, called at the Standard office last Thursday morning for a short visit. They were on their way to Edmonton to attend the convention of Alberta weekly editors held there Friday and Saturday.

TOUCH OF WINTER

The very fine weather of last week, lasted exactly that length of time. Cold weather swept in on Sunday with high points since then being 27 Monday, 36 Tuesday, 33 Wednesday. Snow fell throughout the province but missed the immediate district of the town except for a trace, but heavy snow is reported from the Kokanee, Wilderness Auburndale country to the south with none north. The coldest reading was 14 above on Wednesday morning.

Threshing of grain is barely 50 per cent completed.

Conditions are best enough for harvesting here but are much worse in Saskatchewan and southern Alberta.

Report to the People

BY ROBERT FAIR, M.P. BATTLE RIVER

At 11:00 o'clock on the morning of Tuesday, Oct. 9th the 4th Session of the 21st Parliament was prorogued and at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, the 5th Session was opened in the usual manner. The attendance of visitors at the opening was not as large as usual as the Royal visitors, Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh were due to arrive in the city the following morning.

After preliminaries had been taken care of, the House adjourned until Friday, Oct. 12 at 3:00 o'clock and at this time quite a number of reports were tabled by the Prime Minister and other formalities proceeded with.

The next business was the moving and the seconding of the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne. This was taken care of by a French speaking member and the seconder was an English speaking member.

As I have stated before on many occasions, the Speech from the Throne gives outlines of the legislation that is to be introduced during the Session but on many occasions additional legislation is brought down at any time up to the time of prorogueation.

Mention of particular interest mentioned in the Throne Speech are as follows:

To Eliminate Means Test

A Bill to provide for payment of a universal pension of $40 per month by the Dominion Government to all Canadians over 70 years of age who can qualify. A resolution preceding this legislation was introduced by the Minister of National Health and Welfare, the Hon. Paul Martin. The resolution also seeks permission to establish a fund made up of special contributions levied for the purpose of paying this universal pension.

Another paragraph's provides for the dispatch to Europe of elements of the Army and Air Force destined to form a part of the integrated forces to be stationed there. Measure which th Government proposes in furtherance of these plans will be communicated to the House without delay.

Members will also be asked to approve the ratification of a protocol to result an invitation to be extended to Greece and Turkey to join the North Atlantic Alliance and also to consider a Bill relating to the Canadian forces.

Rising Cost of Living

The question of the rising cost of living is also mentioned in the Throne Speech with the added remark, "Every measure will be taken which my ministers believe will be effective in counteracting inflation without impairing our free institutions". No promise of direct action in connection with price controls is given and I believe that the high cost of living will receive much attention right through the Session unless some action is taken to remedy it.

Mention is also made that the Government has received an interim report from the Committee studying the Combines Legislation recommending that suppliers of goods are to be prohibited from requiring, as inducing distributors to resell such goods at fixed or minimum resale prices.

Price Fixing

On Friday the Minister of Justice Hon. Stuart Garson, tabled an interim report and indicated that legislation would be introduced to take care of the practice of those who have been setting prices in the past. Press reports state that on the strength of the notice given in the Speech from the Throne, conferences in Hamilton have openly advertised that they are breaking contracts with their suppliers and refusing merchandise below prices agreed upon with the suppliers. This is my opinion is a start which should have been made many months, even years ago, as evidence given before the Royal Commission that investigated the Bakers' combine proved that any retailer who sold below price quoted by the bakers would have their supply cut off.

Perhaps here again is one of the reason for the present unnecessary high cost of living, and it is my intention to give the Government legislation full support.

St. Lawrence Seaway Project

The St. Lawrence Seaway project is also mentioned and apparently legislation will be brought down later on to provide for a proper agency of the Federal Government to deal with th St. Lawrence Seaway. The proposed agency would be empowered to proceed either with the Canadian share of an international undertaking or a solely Canadian development.

Transportation

Legislation will also be introduced to implement some of the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Transportation. I may say that a bill dealing with this matter was introduced and given first reading at the last Session but was allowed to die on the order paper.

Radio Broadcasting

The question of radio broadcasting and television will also be dealt with in another Bill as well as proposed amendments to the Dominion Elections Act, the Agricultural Products Board, Canadian Land Surveys, the United Kingdom Financial Agreement, National Gallery of Canada, the Government Annuities Act, Public Works Act, the Civil Service Act and the Public Printing and Stationery Act. As these matters are dealt with in the Commons, I hope to be able to report on the more important ones in future columns in this newspaper.

Final Payment on Barley

On Friday Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Trade and Commerce, in reply to questions from members stated that the final payment on barley on the 1950 crop would commence on Dec. 15th. Payments on the various grades will run from 16c to 30c per bushel. The account lag in connection with oats payment is not yet complete but this is being pursued with all top speed and final payments in oats will be made as soon as barley payments are completed. Wheat will then be dealt with and it is expected that all payments will be completed on the 1950 crop of oats, oats and wheat by the end of December of this year. Indeed, Mr. Howe, my hope is that it will be completed by the first of December. Mr. Howe also stated that no provision is being made for the payment of storage on grain stored on the farms at the present time but the Government will keep a watching brief on the progress being made.

In reply to my question about the Government having given further consideration to increasing the price of wheat supplied to Canadian millers for Canadian consumption in the form of flour, the Minister replied that no consideration had been given this matter. I asked this question on different occasions last Session but neither Mr. Howe or any member of the government has so far undertaken to tell the House in what way the growers of the prairie provinces should be compelled to subsidize the consumers in the Dominion so that they can eat cheap bread without giving anything in return.

Thunderbird Welcome

Before completing this write-up, I should mention that the Royal Canadian Air Force received a very hearty and thunderous welcome in Ottawa and Indeed at every place as far as they have gone. On the first day of their visit in Ottawa, it is estimated that more than 40,000 people were out on to greet them and all comments that can be heard are very favourable. Most people seem gratified so learn that the photographs of the Queen that have been in the newspapers and elsewhere do not do her justice and the comments to be heard are that she is really beautiful. In the case of Prince Philip, he has literally taken the ladies on their feet and upon their departure from Ottawa on Thursday night, even though dressed in blue jeans, cowboy shirt and neckerchief, which he had donned while attending a hoedown at Government House, one lady was heard to yell, "I want Philip

Do We Know Canada?

If we are going to build more than a million new homes in this country we must learn a great deal more about Canada, declares The Financial Post.

There are plenty of powerful facts to strengthen our sense of Canadianism and to guarantee our future. We have very real, very important and some almost exclusive resources. We have some definite advantages over other countries in the matter of traditions, government, trade and geographical position.

Learning and recognizing the facts will help Canada survive the enormous cultural and economic pull from the United States. In that survival our schools, our universities and our national press play the decisive rule. We can only learn about Canada from ourselves.

Ambitions are born in classrooms. Talents develop in classrooms. What your child will become is largely determined in classrooms.

Teachers are among the most important members of your community.

Chevaliers Clippings

An old social of Mission village at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. MacMillan last week end.

The ladies social club held their regular meeting at the school on Wednesday afternoon Oct 10 with seven members present. Plans were discussed for the Ball banquet and it was decided to hold it on Friday afternoon Nov. 23rd. We hope all the ladies in the district will make a note of the date and give the same splendid assistance as help received last year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Horne and family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Olestad Friday evening.

Gerald Saddlemire who has been helping with harvest work in the district left for his home at Cananoque, Ont. on Monday.

Most of the wheat is threshed in this district and if the weather holds as good as in the past ten days coarse grains will soon be finished too. There is a decided shortage of help and most threshing crews are running short handed which slows up the work.

Mrs. Blair of Edmonton is visiting her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. T. McCauley for a few days. She will visit several relatives and friends in the Mannville district before returning to her home in the city.

Mrs. J. McLean of Paradise Valley spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. McCrae.

Farmers your local elevator agents will tell you how to give a happy ending to the story of a crippled child.

Why Drop in Store Sales?

Consumers have many department store managers somewhat puzzled, reports The Financial Post. Though incomes have been rising at a record rate, department store sales have been lagging below last year.

The situation is matched in the United States. Down there many stores are harassed by the large inventories they built up. Conservative buying by Canadian stores is said to have largely avoided this problem.

The retail decrease is not a trend and cannot last, most managers feel sure.

FEWER BIKES

Fewer bicycles were made in 1950 than the year before, reports The Financial Post, but more than most pre-war years. Supply for use in Canada, after imports, exports, down steadily for three years: 1950 13% below 1948, in units.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Blonde Treasure

Two Down, Both a Pouch... Good Old Bill Bates Still Has a Way...

By I. de LA TORRE

OLD Bill Bates, the lobster fisherman, was spinning yarns again. He was sitting in the sun on the long, wooden bench before the general store, a corncob pipe in his mouth and a little, attentive boy at each elbow. City kids. Bill preferred city kids as listeners. They hung on his every word, grasped at the right places and never questioned his adventures as did the native cherubs.

Ronald and his brother, Gerald, were leaning over, their blonde heads almost touching over Bill's lap.

"You see that island out there?" and he pointed to a jagged, green piece of land at the mouth of the harbor, "that there is where the Scotch Bug was shoved against the rocks in the storm."

"And that's where the treasure was setting under a tree?" Ronald cried.

"Captain Kidd's treasure, I bet! It must be!" Gerald was six, a year younger than his brother. His vivid imagination had already transported him to the island. He was pushing back the lid of the big, rusty trunk, thrusting in his hands and letting string. Please contact Mrs. A. R. Kay, ph. 344. 14-16 diamonds, pearls and gold pieces trickle through his fingers. Bill's voice brought him back.

"And when I came back with help and boats to pick it up, it was gone."

A limp mesh pulled up and the boys jumped off the bench and greeted their father.

"Say, don't you boys know when to come home for supper?" he asked. "Your mother's had hers and left. She said she couldn't wait."

Quickly he looked away from his sons' disappointed faces. Couldn't wait, Mr. Holden thought to himself. Couldn't wait for them. Bridge dinner, fashion shows, afternoon teas. These were the important occasions in his wife's life that carelessly swept everyone else aside. An hour ago he had brought it to her attention. She had defiantly suggested divorce.

They were already beside him in the car. "But she promised to toast marshmallows with us tonight," Ronald insisted, "and—" He saw his father's troubled expression and left the sentence unfinished.

After a grim supper together, Mr. Holden drove away to pick up the next day's bait and the boys raced down to the wharf. There, among the rows upon rows of lobster traps and the sea gulls gliding and crying overhead, they were in their happiest surroundings. And that was the first place Mr. Holden looked for them just before dark. Bill Bates was with him. Mrs. Holden stayed in the car.

"They ought to be here," Bill declared. "Mostly never see them no place else." Both men peered over the edge of the wharf, but Bill was the first to notice one of the punts was missing. Mrs. Holden, a slim brunette in white shark's skin slacks, approached in time to hear Bill insist, "But I don't think they'd do it. It was only an old sea tale I was telling them."

"Do what?" Mrs. Holden asked.

Her husband explained, "Bill here thinks they might have rowed out to that island. He made up some story this afternoon about treasure out there."

Mrs. Holden grasped the tackle block for support. "But they can't swim," she whispered in fright. She looked at her husband, but he was already climbing down the ladder. She followed him. It began to rain. Bill watched them row away, then ducked into the bathroom to wait.

Mr. Holden rowed in the thrashing rain. The clumsy, home-made punt plowed through the waves when it should have glided over them. The water splashed inside the boat. They must have been rowing around for hours for his hands were becoming numb, and his fingers remained rigid whenever he lifted them off the oar handles. It was so dark he could only make out the outline of his wife clinging to the seat facing him. At her insistent urging to keep rowing, he plunged the oars in again, pulling long and hard. Suddenly he saw a light moving over his wife's shoulder. A searchlight played over them, and then the coast guard was there, picking them up. Two men leaned over and pulled Mrs. Holden into the boat. She was trembling and shivering at the same time. Her once crisp, white slacks clung, dripping, to her frail body. She grasped the arm of the nearest rescuer. "Have they found the boys yet?" She had only waited for a night and before she began to sob and crumple up. Her husband, the jumping forward, caught her in his arms and carried her into the warm, lighted cabin. He tried to lay her down on the nearest bunk, but she clung to him like a repentant child. Exhausted, they sat down together on it. Gradually, he stroked her wet hair as she wept softly on his soggy, woolen sweater, "Warren, I've been such a fool—such a big fool."

As the coast guard boat hurried against the wharf, Gerald and Ronald were already there, throwing lines to the crew. Bill Bates was behind them. Mrs. Holden was the first ashore, pulling her sons towards her. She kissed their cheeks and rumpled their hair, too happy to notice that it was dry—as were their clothes. Bill was glad she didn't. 'Course sometime they'd find out, but somehow he didn't feel as how was the right time to tell her that he'd found the young ones asleep in a pile of arriving nets in the bathroom after they rowed away.

Carrot Marmalade

Carrot marmalade is a recipe you can probably use, because everyone seems to have so many extra carrots.

3 pounds carrots
3 pounds sugar
½ pound walnuts
6 lemons

Cook carrots until tender. Chop fine, add sugar and rind and juice of lemons (lemons are ground). Add walnuts (chopped fine). Cook together for 30 or 40 minutes. Bottle.

First Aid for Plaster Walls

First aid for plaster walls should be given before you do any tall painting or papering. Here is how you do that first aid—

Cracks and small holes can be easily mended with one of the commercial crack fillers or plaster mixes prepared for the purpose. Before applying, clean out any broken plaster around the edges of the hole. Undercut the edge slightly so that a more secure joint can be made with the new plaster mixture. Dampen the edges of the hole and fill it with the new plaster. Press it in firmly with a trowel or spatula so the new plaster is forced between the laths. This forms a key, which helps to hold the new plaster in place when it is dry. Smooth the surface with the trowel to make the patched area level with the rest of the wall. Wipe off any excess plaster. It must be thoroughly dried, then sized, before any paint or paper is applied.

Large cracks may need to be widened before they can be filled with new plaster. Undercut the edge dampen it and then follow the same procedure for filling holes. For hairline cracks all that is necessary is to put the plaster quite thin, and apply it to the cracks with a small brush. Cracks in new plaster should not be repaired until the plaster has had time to settle, which may take 6 months to 1 year.

If you need much more information about choosing wall paper pattern, repairing, and painting, is found in the free bulletin "Walls and Ceilings" which you may have for the asking.

You All Know

That it takes 2 to 3 medium eggs or 4 to 6 yolks per pint of milk to make a custard pudding or sauce, didn't you? But did you know that custard sauce with apricots, plums or any fruit is a dessert fit for a king? Or should I say Princess now?

Paradise Valley

UTILITIES POWER TURNED ON AT PARADISE VALLEY

On Wednesday afternoon the Canadian Utilities turned on the power in Paradise Valley. Thus comes to an end the long and faithful service that W. Stoddart has given us during the past years. We only hope that the new source of supply will be as good as what we have had in the past. Our town seems very quiet now that the engines at the power house have stopped. The rural lines have not been completed as yet but they are busy on them now and it won't be long until they are completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Ulmes of Meadow Lake, Sask., were Thanksgiving visitors at the home of Mrs. Ulmes' parents Mr. and Mrs. T. Anderson.

Other Thanksgiving visitors were Mr. and Mrs. W. Andrusiack of Broadacres, Sask. Mr. Andrusiack was the C.P.R. agent at this point for some time. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kner.

Mrs. Robert Fair, now of Vermilion, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gunn during the week. Mr. Fair has left for Ottawa, where he will now work from.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rae left town very quietly on Saturday for Campbell River, B.C. where Mr. Rae will operate a theatre. He sold his interests here to Mr. J. Hawkes who is carrying on.

Mrs. F. R. Major has gone to Edmonton for a few weeks to visit with he, family there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Peden paid a very short visit to Paradise Valley on Wednesday. Gordon is employed with the Imperial Bank at Sarnia, Ont.

Visitors from Edmonton during the past week included Mrs. Vic— who visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. Vice in town; Miss Ruth Purves at her home in Vansell; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gunn; with Mrs. L. Warren and Miss Doris Benner with her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Benner.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Block on the birth of a daughter, born in the Lloydminster hospital on Oct. 9th.

Missed Boat, Arrives Six Years Late

MONTREAL—In November, 1945, Ludwig Weber missed the immigration boat bringing his wife to Canada. Recently, six years later, the Webers were re-united in Montreal's Central Station.

When the war ended, Mrs. Weber was in a displaced persons camp in Austria while her husband was in another camp in Yugoslavia. Arrangements were made that year for them to come to Canada but Mrs. Weber had sailed before Ludwig reached Austria. In the meantime his wife settled down in Montreal to wait for him. Ludwig arrived in Halifax on Sept. 12th on board the General Stergis and came to Montreal to join his wife — six years late.
